THE VOICE OF

HEALING

THE MAGAZINE OF DELIVERANCE AND WORLD-WIDE REVIVAL

Notice this amazing development in the World Council of Churches, which put out the following call to a week of prayer, for the return of miracles, healings and tongues and interpretations to come back to the church.

Below a photostatic copy of a call to prayer by World Council of Churches (abridged). Headings in parenthesis are ours.

Concerning The Remarkable Move of God in the Denominational Church World

Last January we carried the story of how God was moving in the denominational churches: Of the reception David du Plessis and myself received by the leaders of the denominational church world; of our day with them explaining the message of Pentecost; of the fine reception these men gave us. We told how Brother du Plessis has written for their international publication, and how he was invited to give lectures on divine healing and the gifts of the spirit in such colleges as Yale, Princeton, and Union Theological Seminary.

Some have wondered whether this news was too good to be true, but recently, THE WORLD COUNCIL OF CHURCHES published a remarkable statement calling for a week of prayer. We cannot quote this entire statement, but we are taking excerpts from it, which we believe will be of thrilling interest to the reader. We must remember that "all things are possible with God." He can bring a revival again as He did for Elijah. Shall we not believe for a mighty move of God's presence and blessing upon the whole church? If we cannot get everybody into the Full Gospel churches, shall we not believe that Pentecost will get into these churches?

First Day (Apostles in the Church)

And God has appointed in the church . . . apostles

Read Ephesians 2: 19-22 (also I Samuel 3)

As you pray think of the particular local congregation of which you are a member in your own country and generation; in the light of verses 21 and 22 reflect on the early Church and its origin in the witness of those who saw Jesus and testified to His resurrection

—on the Apostles as foundations of the Church; a source and strength of church unity and the forerunners of the Christian mission

Second Day (Prophets in the Church)

And God has appointed in the church . . . prophets

Read II Peter 1: 19-21 (also Jeremiah 20: 7-9, 11)

As you pray think of these verses and how the Word of God does not come from human reason but from God's creative Spirit in man

—how a Spirit-filled understanding brings true light into the world's darkness

—how all prophetic utterance is to enlighten individuals, congregations, and nations, as men listen, hear and heed the divine Word

—how discernment is needed to distinguish between true and false prophets.

Third Day (Teachers in the Church)

And God has appointed in the church . . . teachers

Read II Timothy 3: 14-17 (also Deuteronomy 6: 6-9)

As you pray think of learning and teaching as the transmitting and receiving of mysteries entrusted to us by God

—of abiding in what you have learned

Fourth Day (Miracle Workers in the Church)

And God has appointed in the church . . . miracle workers

Read St. Mark 16: 14-18 (also Isaiah 61: 1-3)

As you pray for the renewal of the Church and the recovery of its wholeness think of the God-given unity of soul and body, of the spiritual and the material —of God's power to create out of nothing and of His power to make all things new both in the Church and in the world —of all things being possible with God and the unwillingness to believe as the greatest spiritual danger —of the need of the new and miraculous for the healthy life of the Church.

As you pray remember that you are a member of the whole Body of Christ and in particular consider the place of new gifts of the Spirit and new ministries in the life of the Church as it is renewed in wholeness and unity.

Fifth Day (Healers in the Church)

And God has appointed in the church . . . healers

Read James 5: 13-16 (also Jeremiah 17: 13-15)

As you pray concentrate on the meaning of these verses in your particular situation

—on Christ's command to His disciples both to preach and heal

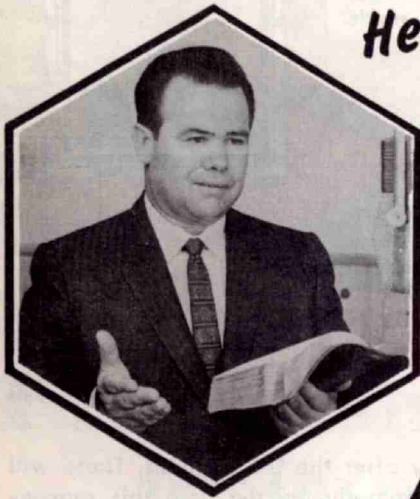

—on the calling of church members to minister to the sick of the community, giving not only pastoral but bodily care

—on earnestly engaging in intercessory prayer and really seeking to share in the healing process

—on anointing of the sick both sacramentally and by acts of mercy, and inwardly by the fellowship of love and prayer

—on Christ's concern for the whole man spiritual and physical.

The Significance of the U-2 Incident OR

"DO WE HAVE TO SEND SPY PLANES OVER RUSSIA TO AVOID ANOTHER PEARL HARBOR?"

FIRST, let us say that we believe that President Eisenhower will rank in history as one of the truly great U. S. presidents. Born of a family that had faith in God, he was while a child, saved from an almost certain fatal illness, because his family believed God could heal him, and prayed around the clock for his recovery—a story dramatically related some time ago by the Reader's Digest. In his years in the army, General Eisenhower was not known as a religious man. However, when elected to the presidency, it is evident that he had a definite spiritual experience. He began regular attendance at church, quit smoking, and publicly testified to his faith. It will be remembered that at the inaugural ceremony, the president-elect asked the congressmen and attending high officials to remove their hats while he prayed that God's blessing would be upon his administration. He thereby indicated his dependence on God in carrying out the solemn responsibilities of his office.

THE U-2 SPY MISSION

Now comes the breaking of the U-2 spy story, which has resulted in the blowup of the Summit Conference at Paris. There was in fact no Summit Conference—nothing except the blistering tirade of Khrushchev against Eisenhower. Of course, there was no real loss incurred in the cancellation of the conference. True, the peoples of the Western World had been led to entertain hopes in the success of the Paris Summit meeting, but that was a great mistake. Has any agreement with the boastful godless regime of Red Russia ever borne fruit for good? Every Summit Conference in the past, including Yalta, Teheran, Potsdam and Geneva, has only resulted in disillusionment, and the callous failure of the Communists to carry out commitments that they had made. How foolish can we get, to expect a corrupt fountain to bring forth something good? Jesus said that a corrupt tree cannot bring forth good fruit. (Matt. 7:18) There is no reason for anyone to be disappointed about the abortive Paris Conference.

THE RUSSIAN SPY CRY

But Khrushchev has bitterly arraigned the president of the United States, using the roughest language to denounce him for permitting the U. S. flight. Surely of all men, Khrushchev is the least qualified to point his finger at any one for espionage activities. From the beginning onward, the Soviet regime has been notorious for its treachery, spying, intrigue, duplicity, fifth column activities and a long string of broken promises. Her secret agents have continually sought to introduce their anti-god communist teachings into every nation on the face of the earth in anticipation of the subversion and violent overthrow of their governments. World War II, that bled the nations white, was precipitated by Russia's connivance with Hitler to divide up the helpless country of Poland. Then when the treacherous Fuehrer later turned on Soviet Russia, the latter sent out desperate appeals to America to help to save her from defeat. But even while she made these appeals, her emissaries were active in America stealing atomic secrets. Her paid agents sneaked through the tight security of Los Alamos to steal the secrets of the atomic bomb. Thus the Soviets were able to secure the bomb, years before they could have obtained it by themselves.

RUSSIAN SPIES CAUGHT WHEN KHRUSHCHEV WAS IN AMERICA!

At the very time Khrushchev was in America, Communist spies were being apprehended. Eisenhower, anxious to preserve "the spirit of Camp David", requested that the matter be hushed up. Certainly Khrushchev, the unblushing head of the world's greatest espionage system, should be the last one to point his finger at another country for such activities, especially since they have been occasioned by the aggressive conduct of Russia since the war, and her deliberate enslavement of great populations behind the Iron Curtain in gross violation of an agreement they were party to that these countries would be given full opportunity to choose their own form of government. The callous rape of Hungary a few years ago, shows how much liberty Russia gives to any country who comes under her

The Messianic Gospel Goes Forth in Israel as in Bible Days

by Paul Kopp

A little five year old Israel Jewish boy named David is very thankful to his Messiah Jesus and to God for sending the Voice of Healing book to his father's hands. The little book is an offer to get a free Bible upon request. The day we visited little David's home my wife Betty, our youngest son and daughter, Charles and Joy, and national worker Moses, agreed with me in faith. As I laid hands on David's head, we asked God for a sign to confirm the Holy Bibles that we had brought to them.

Returning three weeks later we again visited David's home. The parents met us with joyful smiles of welcome. The father told us how little David had suffered every night for three years. Some strange blockage in both the nose and throat had made him sleepless, wheezing, struggling for breath. An operation had failed to make any noticeable change. From the very day we asked to heal him as a sign that Jesus is the Messiah, the boy has had no more nose nor throat blockage and sleeps perfectly. The father is asking for services to be held in this new Israel town of some fifteen thousand Jews.

JEWISH POLICEGUARD CONFESSES CHRIST AS MESSIAH

One day we made a return call on a Jewish policeguard's home. Before his wife and children he told us how the Lord had taken certain doubts away. He was on his watchman job in a tunnel to the well that supplies water for Jerusalem. He had a terrible headache and no pills for relief. He said, "Brother Kopp, I remember the challenge you made that God would heal to confirm that the Holy Bible is the only written guide to heaven." He said, "Just the moment I asked God to confirm the Bible to me, my headache left." He continued, "A few days later another headache came and the question came to me; could it possibly be suggestion instead of God that healed me?" So he said, "I tried for some time to suggest to myself that the headache was gone and it did no good. This police-watchman now confesses that Messiah (Christ) is in his heart.

Lack of space will not permit telling all at this time, but, Hallelujah, signs are following Israel just as the Lord Jesus Christ promised in Mark 16:17-20 and Acts 1:8. As we near the end of five months here, we give thanks to God in the name of His Son, Messiah Jesus, for what has been accomplished. We are doing as the Apostle Paul in Acts 20:20: "he showed (by miracles) and taught publicly and from house to house."

MINISTRY IN NAZARETH

Since the scripture promises great things for the Gentile, we stopped one day in Old Nazareth which is mostly Gentile. Not knowing Arabic, I suggested we go from house to house and try to pray for the sick. The first door was the home of a believer who knew English and offered to help us. Soon after, the Lord began the healing of his mother's eye made blind by diabetes. Now Abdullah believes in signs following evangelism whereas he did not before. He is in contact with a man who has told him he can get us a public place in old Nazareth for a Salvation-Healing Revival. We are believing the Lord will give us a public place, then heal and save Gentiles of Nazareth, and also the same for the Jews from New Nazareth nearby.

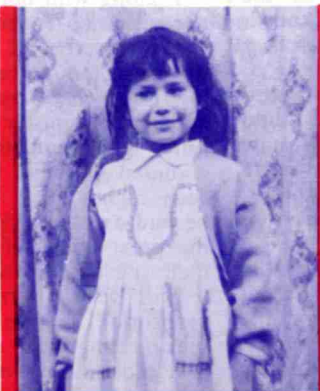

THE NEED FOR BIBLES

Due to the Voice of Healing booklets being distributed, we are receiving hundreds of letters requesting Bibles. We need the Holy Spirit's guidance as we don't have time to witness to all these people personally. Even though the deaf ears have opened and the lame have walked freely in our ministry here, we covet the prayers of all believing Jews and Christians everywhere that fear will soon be lifted in Israel. Jews are being saved, but in almost all cases, fear to confess Jesus as Messiah is soon expressed. An office girl tells us that her employer told her he would dis-

DeGrado Campaigns in Honduras Result in Need for Another Evangelistic Center

JOSEPH DE GRADO REVIVAL IN SAN PEDRO SULA, HONDURAS

By Paul M. Cooper
Superintendent Assemblies
of God

God used the ministry of Brother Joseph DeGrado in a very marked way in an open air campaign in the city of San Pedro Sula, the second largest city of Honduras, Central America. The campaign was from March 20 to April 3rd. In spite of unseasonable cold and rainy weather, crowds came nightly to hear the dynamic preaching of Brother DeGrado. Many of those who came, were convinced of their need of the Saviour, and came to the altar acknowledging their need and desire to follow Christ.

There are three towns near San Pedro Sula from which people came, and found the Lord as their Saviour. Of course, now they want us to come to their towns to preach. We are seeking to fill these needs, because all of them are real opportunities.

The local church has been blessed by the revival. We are finding the present facilities absolutely inadequate for the crowds that are coming to the services. People stand in the services; the Sunday School is almost pitiful because there is no place to hold the classes. Our Sunday School teachers work under terrible handicaps . . . under a tree, or beside the church building. Training of the new converts has been started so that they can receive water baptism and become members of the church.

We are looking to the Lord to fill this urgent need for an adequate building to house the church here in San Pedro. It should be large enough for large campaigns, for it will serve the entire North Coast area of Honduras.

THE DE GRADO CAMPAIGN IN TEGUCIGALPA

By Edwin C. Gurney,
Foursquare Missions

I, along with hundreds of other Christians here in Tegucigalpa, Honduras, do not have sufficient words to express our thanks to the Voice of Healing for sending Evangelist Joseph DeGrado to our country to minister the word of God and faith. We were thrilled by the God-anointed messages that he brought forth each night. Truly we could sense that he had a real burden upon his heart for the great needs of the people here for their spirit, soul and body.

This very afternoon along with the sponsoring pastors that cooperated in the meetings we checked through the hundreds of converts cards which we were able to get filled out during the campaign. We rejoiced together over the names which we have to "follow up on" but also in the knowledge that these cards did not tell even half of the true story. For it was impossible to get cards from all who responded. Truly God had honored His preached word another time. Not only were these many hundreds of souls won to the Lord during the campaign, but God also used our brother's ministry as a means of great uplift and inspiration to both the Christians and to we missionaries and pastors. Truly the grounds in front of the National Stadium in Tegucigalpa were a place of God's visitation for all who attended the meetings.

I am thankful for the cooperative spirit that Bro. DeGrado displayed toward our local programs. The material which was purchased for the platform and posts, etc., he gave to us to help build a church near the campaign grounds. The building will house many of the souls saved in the revival.

THE MESSIANIC GOSPEL GOES FORTH

charge her if she accepted the Messiah. I heard a man tell his wife that he would divorce her if she became a believer. One new believer, Jewess, came crying, saying her Rabbi uncle (the fanatical type) formed a boycott picket line in front of her tiny place of business. Others tell us that they are hired and doing well until it is discovered that they believe in the Messiah and are discharged. The Israel government stands for religious liberty for all its citizens but that minority that troubled Jesus, Stephen, and Paul have some unchanged descendants. There seems to be less intolerance shown to those who were reared by Messiah believing parents. Another very important part of our work has been the discovery of "secret believers" and bringing them out into the open fellowship of the "Messianic Jews" of Israel. This "open fellowship" is usually in the parlor of a believer's home. I know of one believer who only allows approved persons to his parlor worship.

A "CITY OF REFUGE" NEEDED

The Zionist Jewish organizations are helping Jews to settle in farm cooperatives in Israel, thus rescuing some from persecution. On the other hand very little along the line of a similar plan is being done for believers needing refuge from intolerance. A responsible group here in Israel has found some land and are believing the Lord to move for the purchase price.

A thirty-eight year old native-born Jewish farmer read one of the Voice of Healing booklets and wrote us. When we went to his village, he told us that some time back he had heard that his father had once believed in Jesus as the Messiah. From the time he heard this, a conviction settled on him that he should return to his father's old faith. On our first visit, just before midnight, he bowed his head with us and found peace for his soul by accepting the shed blood of his Messiah as remission for his sins. This man, although farming some rich land, has expressed himself to the effect that he would like it to be a farm cooperative of believers. He wants to train believers in farming, but best of all, he wants to have the believers train him in winning the souls of his fellow Israelis. I am praying that God will touch hearts to make the cooperative farm become a reality and not for social security reasons only. A base is needed for training Israelis to go forth in a way that all Israel may soon know their sign working, soul saving and soon returning Messiah Jesus. We are believing God for Divine Healing signs to take place in every community of Israel so all can believe that Jesus is the Messiah that God gave to be their Savior.

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT

The Winning the Nations Crusade is unique in that it works on a cooperative basis with many groups which have a vision of world evangelism. While the crusade does assume complete financial responsibility of certain projects (as the Manila Campaign) in general its design is cooperative. In all cases the evangelist is encouraged to raise as much as he can on the field and personal supporters should continue their regular giving. Although overseas mass evangelism is revolutionizing missionary work, its cost is inevitably heavy. The evangelist, beside his fare, has regular home expenses to maintain. Moreover of vital importance is the building of shelters and churches to take care of the converts. The purpose of the Winning the Nations Crusade is to share, not to completely underwrite, responsibility of reaching the nations through mass evangelism.

David Nunn is speaker on The Voice of Healing broadcast. In the following article he tells how God saved him from a life of alcoholism and led him into the deliverance ministry.

HOW GOD LED ME INTO

I was born of wonderful Christian people who were full of the Holy Ghost and who know how to pray. My parents taught us the fear of the Lord and raised us to believe that "All things are possible with God." I still remember some of the remarkable instances of deliverances that they would relate to us children in our family devotions before putting us to bed. One incident I especially remember—when the great flood came in South Texas where my parents lived near the San Gabriel River. It had overflowed its banks and was threatening our safety. When Mother and Dad saw the situation, they knew they must have a miracle, and they began to pray. Their pastor was on the other side of the river and he was earnestly praying. The waters went down just a little, and the bridge was opened long enough for my parents and family to escape. Then the waters rose higher than before.

While very young I surrendered my heart to the Lord Jesus Christ in an open air meeting and was quite zealous to win other children to the Lord. I also would go with old people to the jail services and witness there for my Lord.

Those were difficult days for my parents. The depression was on and it hit my family extremely hard. We all had to work to make it. My parents moved to another area where there was no church and having no place to get spiritual strength, I was tempted of the devil, and soon fell into sin.

I BECAME AN ALCOHOLIC

I remember yet how the enemy tricked me into some trivial sin—not a great one at first, just a start. Then slowly I went down into the depths of sin and despair. By the time I was twenty-two years old I had become an alcoholic. I spent hundreds of dollars in just a matter of days in riotous living. Oh, the waste of sinful living! If only we could warn young people everywhere of the folly of it. The pleasures of sin last only for a little season, and the heartbreak that follows, and the demoralizing effect it has upon their lives, makes a miracle of God's mercy necessary to bring them back.

I went through the last war a drunkard, yet I wanted to be delivered. I knew that the way I was living was wrong and many nights even in a drunken stupor I would be praying that I would awaken and that it would all be a bad dream, and I could start over again. But, alas, it was not to be—until I met Jesus.

A PROMISE MADE TO GOD DURING A WAR RAID

During the latter part of the war, one night during an air raid, I made a promise to God. I said: "Lord, if you will get me out of this and take me back to the church where I went as a boy, I will give my heart to you and serve you." God heard that prayer and in time answered it. However, I was not yet converted to Christ.

After I had received my discharge from the army and entered into civilian life again, I took up the profession that I had learned in the army air force. I became a photographer and continued on drinking and living out of fellowship with God, which was a great hurt to my mother. Then one day my mother told me that my sister, who had been very sick, had been saved, healed and filled with the Holy Spirit the night before. All that day I had a feeling that I must give my life to God that night. I had gone through some terrible trials just a short time before and through them, my stubborn and rebellious heart had been softened up until God could talk to me and I would listen.

DELIVERED FROM ALCOHOLISM

My sister invited me to church that night and we all went together. They sang two songs and as we stood up to sing the last verse, I could stand it no longer and cried out to God to be merciful to me a sinner. Thank God He heard and answered, and in a moment, God made me a new-born babe in Christ, delivered from all my sin. Alcoholism was broken, and I have never once desired to drink since that night that Jesus came into my heart.

After seeking God earnestly for His will for my life, He spoke to me and called me into the ministry. He gave the scripture, John 4:35-38:

"Say not ye, There are yet four months, and then cometh the harvest? behold, I say unto you, lift up your eyes, and look on the fields; for they are white already to harvest. And he that reapeth receiveth wages, and gathereth fruit unto life eternal: that both he that soweth and he that reapeth may rejoice together. And therein is that saying true, One soweth, and another reapeth. I sent you to reap that whereon ye bestowed no labour: other men laboured, and ye are entered into their labours."

After this, I began to prepare myself for the work He had called me into. I studied, worked, attended school, preached and pastored. During all this, I set aside from one to three days a week for fasting and prayer. During these times of fasting and prayer, God made His Word a living reality and as I began my ministry, I expected to see the mighty works of our Lord.

I WONDERED ABOUT THE SIGN-GIFT MINISTRY

When I began preaching God's Word, I wondered why there was an absence of the manifestations and signs that Jesus said would accompany the preaching of His Word. I asked, "Where are the signs of the apostles? Where are the signs Philip had with him down in Samaria; where are the miracles that the apostle Paul wrought? Where are the true disciples who will go and pray for the sick until the sick are healed?" I wondered also why these things did not accompany my ministry.

I prayed for the sick and a few people were healed, but

MIRACLE MINISTRY

BY DAVID NUNN

I was so dissatisfied, I cried, "Oh, God! Where are those mighty miracles? Why don't the blind see when I pray; why don't the deaf hear when I pray; why doesn't the paralysis leave when I pray?"

These and many other questions went through my mind and I was deeply burdened about it.

In one of the first meetings I held after I had gone into full time ministry, I asked the Lord to confirm His call by allowing miracles to follow my preaching of His word. A girl that had been paralyzed was brought to the meetings. This child could not close one eye due to the paralysis that had affected her face as well as other areas of the body. After fasting for her deliverance, I prayed for her and God made her whole. God completely healed her and she remains a testimony of His mercy, unto this day.

GOD SPEAKS TO ME

I accepted a church and pastored it for just less than a year. It was a very small church and it had had some trouble before I came. My wife and I earnestly prayed over the needs of the church and God miraculously solved the problem. God sent the revival and many souls were won to Christ, healings were wrought as well in the lives of many of the people. I continued to fast during the week and every Sunday morning. Then in January of 1950, on the first Sunday of the year, God spoke to me again and said: "Get up from here and go into every city, heal the sick therein and preach the kingdom of Heaven is at hand." I understood that I was to declare God's message of healing and that Jesus was coming again.

Ever since that hour I have done just what God spoke to my heart to do. I have gone all over America and in many parts of the world and proclaimed His eternal truth and have seen tens of thousands joyfully converted to Christ, and multitudes supernaturally healed by the mighty power of God. In overseas meetings I have seen as many as twenty-five totally blind receive their sight in one single service! Over fifty people testified to receiving healing from deafness in one service! In one single campaign I counted thirty-three people who were healed of paralysis or of a crippled condition.

DELIVERANCE FROM FEAR

Immediately after God had called me into the healing ministry, the devil attacked me with fear, in the healing line. I was afraid to pray for the deaf, and as a result of this fear I did not see any deaf people healed until one day I engaged into a discussion with some other ministers and we disagreed so strongly that I had to repent over my part of the debate. I excused myself and went to the church and began to pray, and as I poured out my heart in repentance, God moved on my soul, and refilled me with the precious Holy Spirit. This was a greater experience to me than when God filled me with the Spirit the first time. When I finished praying I was a new kind of minister. A new boldness came into my spirit. That night, five deaf people came in the healing line and every one of them received their hearing instantly. Ever since that day I have longed to get my fingers in the ears of the deaf and have seen hundreds of them healed. In some campaigns, every deaf person prayed for has been healed.

THE HOLY SPIRIT LEADING ME INTO THE GIFTS

God has a lot more for all of us than we are claiming and God wants to manifest His power through us. He began to use me in the word of knowledge, gradually, as well as some of the other gifts of God. The first night of a meeting, I conducted in a city in Texas, God spoke to me and said, "There is a lady here who has been deaf in her left ear over fifty years and I am going to heal her." So I called for her and just as the Spirit spoke, the woman was made perfectly whole. Later on the Lord began to show me who the people were. I was in a meeting in California and God made me know by

WHO MUST GO ON A LONG FAST?

The Lord would seldom require a sick person to go on a long fast. The disciples failed to deliver a little afflicted boy from evil Spirits. Jesus came along and delivered the boy and healed him. The disciples asked why they could not deliver the boy. Jesus told them that kind came out only by prayer and fasting (Mark 9).

Who should have done the fasting, the little sick boy or Peter? It was the strong and husky Apostle Peter who should have done the fasting, and not the afflicted boy. We don't read in the Bible that Jesus told the sick people to fast, but we do read that He raised them up and commanded that they be given something to eat. He told the disciples to feed the people lest they fall by the wayside.

The little boy was delivered. Who did the fasting? It was Jesus who had already done the fasting in the wilderness. It was there that He received the victory over the devil; He came out victorious, with the anointing to set the captives free. This did not mean that He had to stop and go on a long fast each time someone was delivered. He had received the power while He was on the fast in the wilderness.

It is not the real sickly, nervous, fearful type person that Jesus tells to go on a long fast; one who feels like she is sinning by eating or sleeping. God wants to give His beloved sleep and food. It is the man or woman with a strong, healthy body that should go on a long fast. The fast breaks down the resistance and rebellion. The body is buffeted and brought under subjection, so you can be temperate in all things. In this way the Spirit can take control and anoint you for the ministry of deliverance.

The Lord does not require a "hen pecked" husband to go on a long fast. A man with a nagging wife seldom can fast and pray; they can't give themselves continually to the Word of God and prayer as did the apostles. His wife will continually say, "Carry me to the beauty shop", "Come give this baby a bath", "Go get a loaf of bread", "Run back and get some ice", "Make some tea", "Now run visit that old brother and see how he is doing", "Come fry some meat", "Carry me for a week's visit to my mother in another state". If you have a wife like that you must decide whether you are going to please your wife or please the Lord.

A good wife is to be commended. They are responsible for the great ministry which God has given their husband. They are like the third verse in a song; they are often left out. He that gets a good wife gets a good thing; he that gets not a good wife gets a thing.

The Lord does not expect us to leave the other undone.

The Pharisees fasted. Jesus said, "This you should have done and not left the other undone." We must bring up all the loose ends. It will do little good to fast unless you do the other things which prepare you for a deliverance ministry.

Some people quit chewing tobacco, but they still "chew the rag". Some people pay the preacher but they won't pay the grocerman. Some talk to the Lord, but they still talk about their neighbor. Why do you call Him Lord, Lord, and do not the things He says? You may overcome the crave for food, but have you conquered the crave for foolishness, wine, women, and money? Are you fasting for a selfish reason, or publicity; then why do you tell people that you are on a ten day fast? It is good to fast if you do not leave the other undone.

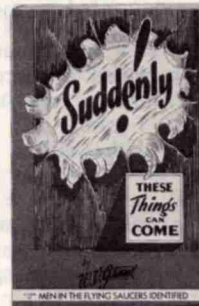

The Lord does not call a liar on a long fast. He must first repent of his lies before he receives a deliverance ministry. Some people gad about, telling people they are on a thirty day fast when they are not. They feel free to drink Coca Colas, fresh buttermilk, eat pie, vegetables, and whatever, they crave. They still say they fasted thirty days. They should tell the truth. Dieting is not Biblical fasting. They have the wrong motive. All their works they do to be seen of men. They have their reward. God won't reward them. Rather He will punish them for lying. You pray, but ask amiss; you want to consume it upon your own lust. "Let not that man think that he will receive anything of the Lord."

You don't need to be like a rotten apple — fall off before you are ripe. ONLY 50c

SUDDENLY! Most people that preach on this subject preach on the negative side. They tell of the wars, volcanos, earthquakes, plagues, persecutions, and tribulations. But Evangelist Grant has seen many things take place suddenly on the positive side. Some of the meanest people in the nation suddenly saved, filled with the Spirit and healed. Thousands have been suddenly delivered from binding spirits. You will surely thrill as you read the account of such miracles, signs and wonders. Your faith will be built. You will discover that you are a new person with a new outlook on the problems around you. You will want these books by the dozens.

THE SIGNIFICANCE OF THE U-2 INCIDENT

power, and also reveals why nations are taking desperate measures to avoid a similar fate.

U. S. BLUNDERS IN DEALING WITH RUSSIA

Nevertheless, America has become guilty of a serious blunder, one that tends to weaken her position of integrity before the world. This is not the first major mistake that America has made in the conduct of her affairs with Russia.

1. First of all, America which professed to be a Christian nation should have never recognized the government of Russia. The wicked regime of the Bolsheviks proclaimed war against the God of heaven, destroyed religious worship in Russia, and publicly declared that her objective was the forcible communization of the world. She let 20 million of her own citizens starve to death to force collectivization of Russian farms. She could well be relied upon to carry out her ominous threat against the world, if at all possible. Never for one moment has that objective ever been changed, although, for the sake of expediency, the men in the Kremlin might temporarily appear to renounce these ambitions.

2. When America saw how that Russia had double-crossed her allies by entering into a pact with Adolph Hitler, bringing on World War II, and saw how she ruthlessly made war on little Finland—when we observed how she gobbled up the little Baltic countries, we should never have gone to her aid in World War II. We should have allowed these godless regimes to have destroyed each other, which they would have done through their own treachery. In the meantime Britain and America could have built up such strength themselves that they could have forced world peace. (This could never be, however, unless we as a nation repented of our own sins. We have not repented, so God has allowed the counsels of our statesmen to be confounded.)

3. When the Christian general, Chiang Kai-shek, was fighting with his back to the wall to save China from Communism, we should have sent him the aid that he needed. However, our emissaries down-graded Chiang in such a way that our statesmen lost confidence in Chiang's ability as a general, and indeed actually put themselves on record as saying that the Communists would do better for China than Chiang Kai-shek. America soon realized the terrible mistake that had been made, but then it was too late. After Communism had become strong in China we had to spend a hundred billion dollars to keep Communism out of Korea. We only partly succeeded.

WHY FLYING THE U-2 WAS A BLUNDER

Now we have made another great blunder. Our nation denounced the tactics of Communism, of intrigue, subversion, and spying on an international scale. We were right in doing this. But now our country has become guilty of violating national boundaries by sending planes across Russia, contrary to international law. Secret intelligence activities are permitted by international law, but to cross the borders of another country is not. The horrible potentialities of this act can be easily seen. Russia knows that some of our planes carry the dreaded hydrogen bomb, and some are constantly in the air. When Russian radar caught this U-2, deep inside their country, it could well have been interpreted as a U.S. plane carrying the hydrogen bomb. Khrushchev, a man of many moods and tempers, might have given the signal to fire his battery of intercontinental missiles, toward America. He could have said that American planes had crossed his boundaries first. As it turned out, it has given the Russian dictator an enormous propaganda weapon to use against America. Khrushchev has never wanted peace. As head of the Communist party he is sworn to never rest until the world has been subjugated. But the Russian people have wanted peace, and he was forced to some recognition of their feelings by making a show of desiring peace. Now he has an excuse that Russians may be well disposed to listen to. He says his country has been "betrayed"; Soviet boundaries have been violated. He calls the American violation of Russian borders, "treachery." Actually, of course, he and his fellow rogues in the Kremlin, are the ones responsible for the present cold war and world crisis. But now he can put the blame on the poor American president, who of all men wants peace, more than anything else.

The reason that Khrushchev seized upon the "spy plane" incident to disrupt the Summit Conference is simple. Compelled by the Russian people's sentiment for peace to negotiate with the Western nations, he hoped to achieve some of his aims by peaceful means in a Summit Conference. His big problem is Berlin. The escape of 2,000,000 Germans from Communist Germany to West Berlin thus exposing the true state of affairs in Communist countries, is a constant embarrassment to Khrushchev. Our friend, Ben Kummerfeld, who has the revival center a short distance from the gateway to East Berlin, informs us that the East Germans will do anything to escape from the clutches of the Communists. Khrushchev had hoped at a summit meeting to somehow achieve his ends by securing a Berlin settlement in his favor. When he saw that the allies were firm in resisting his demands, he saw only failure at the Summit Conference, and this he realized would be a political liability to him. The "Spy Plane" incident was a propaganda windfall, just what he was looking for, and he was not slow to take advantage of it. America had unfortunately violated international law by sending planes over Russian territory and the Russian dictator made the most of it.

America definitely is put at a disadvantage. Despite all their wicked plotting and espionage in the U. S. in the past, the Soviets have never crossed our borders with planes. Khrushchev cunningly pointed out the reaction that would have taken place among American citizens, had such an event happened. He also capitalized on the initial false story told by the U. S. State Department in claiming that the U-2 flight was only of a weather reconnaissance plane. In telling this, our officials lowered themselves to the level of Russian propagandists—with this exception—they confessed that what they had said was not true—something the Russians would never think of doing.

HOW CAN WE AVOID ANOTHER PEARL HARBOR?

An explanation comes from some in authority that spying over Russia is necessary to prevent another Pearl Harbor. Well, any way, the spy flights have now been called off. And how long will the fiction be maintained that we were surprised at Pearl Harbor? The records clearly show that previous to that event we had cracked the Japanese code, and we actually knew that the Nippon fleet was steaming toward Hawaii. Radar officers saw the incoming planes over a hundred miles off, and gave due warning. But lax officials, preoccupied by their own week-end plans, disregarded all warnings and failed to call the alert. On Saturday night liquor flowed freely at Pearl Harbor. As in Bible days, it is possible for an unnatural sleep to fall upon those who are out of Divine protection. (I Sam. 26:12) This happened Sunday morning, December 7, 1941, at Pearl Harbor. We were asleep! The fact is, no matter how much preparation we make to avoid a surprise attack, we are going to meet disaster unless we, as a nation, return to righteousness and faith in God.

As to these U-2 flights being necessary to secure information to ward off a possible Russian surprise attack, it is now well known that within a short time we shall have television satellites high above the earth which will be able to take all such photographs necessary. From an altitude of 300 miles, an object only seven feet in diameter can be photographed! We will then have the photographs that are necessary and still be within the requirements of international law. It is important that our nation maintain a

THE MARCH OF PROPHECY

CITIES OF SODOM AND GOMORRAH DISCOVERED

If there were cities of Sodom and Gomorrah spoken of in the Book of Genesis, that were destroyed by Divine judgment, then where are the ruins? This has long been the question raised by the skeptics.

Did these cities sink under the Dead Sea? For many years it has been known by archeologists that the Cliffs of Mount Usdom indicate an abrupt subsidence of the bottom of the Dead Sea. Moreover, underneath this mount is a stratum of salt, and a stratum of marl mingled with free sulphur. The interior actually appears to be a burned out region of oil and asphalt, as if at one time a great explosion took place that hurled thousands of tons of red hot salt and brimstone toward the direction of the sea. But if the destruction came from this mountain, where are the ruins of the cities destroyed?

Now at last apparently the actual cities of Sodom and Gomorrah have been discovered. They have been found by American divers on the bottom of the Dead Sea. These disclosures have been made by Dr. E. Haney, head of a four member expedition to Jordan. His actual words are, "We have located two cities under the Dead Sea water which are believed to be the lost cities of Sodom and Gomorrah." He reports also that they discovered a levee under the Dead Sea about 15 feet wide and eight feet high. Apparently the convulsion that occurred at the time of the destruction of the cities broke the dike and flooded the area. Because much water from the Jordan which flows into the sea is being diverted, it is believed that the levee where the cities lie will emerge within eight years.

THE MINISTRY OF HEALING OF THE APOSTLE PAUL, TOLD IN BEAUTIFUL SET OF POSTAGE STAMPS

Showing the importance that divine healing is now being given even in governmental quarters, is the set of new stamps which has been issued by the Island of Malta, the place where Paul had the shipwreck.

Stamp I. 1½ d. Psolmi's noted painting of the shipwreck. (Acts 27 and 28)

Stamp II.. 3d. Paul consecrating Publius as first bishop of Malta. (Act 28:7)

Stamp III. 6d. Paul about to leave Malta receiving the affectionate farewell of the church. Publius is standing at Paul's right.

Stamp IV. 8d. Paul preaching in the Rabot Grotto on Malta. The quotation in Latin is from Acts 28:9, "Others who had diseases came and were healed."

Stamp V. 1s. Angel appears to Paul in the storm giving assurance of ultimate safety. The Latin inscriptions are from Acts 27:26 and 28:1: "We must be cast upon a certain island" and "The island was called Melita" (Malta).

Stamp VI. 2½s. A new portrait of the Apostle Paul. The Latin sentence is, "For the name of Christ I suffer shipwreck."

It is interesting and a sign of the times that this important incident in Paul's life and his ministry of healing should be portrayed on these beautiful two-colored stamps. Paul was able to evangelize Malta through the ministry of healing, despite early suspicions that he was a murderer. (Acts 28:4) The ministry of healing is still needed by the church if it is to evangelize the nations.

About one hundred Dallas ministers and their wives attend a banquet given by The Voice of Healing. The film "Israel on the March" was shown at the banquet.

The beautiful spirit of fellowship among the Dallas pastors is an example of what can be done when God's people realize the value of unity and cooperation.

Your Questions Answered from the Bible

QUESTION: Christ, in His Great Commission, said concerning believers: "They shall take up serpents, and if they drink any deadly thing it shall not hurt them." (Mark 16:18) Some teach that this is to be taken literally. What do you say?

ANSWER: All things in the Bible are to be taken the way the Bible explains its own statements. Nobody would take a sentence out of a textbook and try to apply it without reading related instructions in the textbook.

In the Great Commission record in Mark 16:15-18, there are five signs which were to follow believers.

1. The first was, "In my name they shall cast out devils." Reference to other passages shows that Jesus meant the actual casting out of demon spirits. This is illustrated, for example, in Acts 16:18, where Paul cast the spirit of divination out of a girl who was a soothsayer.

2. The second sign is, "They shall speak with new tongues." There can be no doubt about the meaning of this. In Acts 2:4, the One Hundred and Twenty who tarried in the Upper Room, received the Baptism of the Holy Ghost with speaking in other tongues—languages understood by men of seventeen countries. The people of the house of Cornelius spoke in other tongues when they received the baptism of the Holy Ghost. (Acts 10:44-46) Likewise, it so happened at Ephesus. (Acts 19:6) The speaking in other tongues is one of the gifts of the Spirit given to the church. (1 Cor. 12:10) The Bible fully explains what Jesus meant about believers speaking in new tongues.

3. Before we consider the 3rd and 4th signs we shall note the last one: "They shall lay hands on the sick and they shall recover." No difficulty about this. The apostles laid hands on the sick and commanded them to be healed in the name of Jesus. One instance of many, was the healing of the lame man at the Beautiful Gate. Peter took him by the hand, lifted him up and commanded him to be healed. (Acts 3:1-8)

Third sign is: "They shall take up serpents." Does this mean that a Christian is to go out and pick up deadly serpents to prove he is a believer? Occasionally we hear of people who do just that. One man as a result had his arm swell up until it was double normal size. There have even been cases where a person has died as a result of indulging in a fanatical exhibitionism of serpent handling. These unfortunate people would not have made this error if they had carefully read their Bibles. When Paul (in Act 28:3-5) picked up a serpent by mistake as he was kindling a fire, he did not wave it around to show that he was a believer, but shook it off into the fire. God protected him from its deadly bite and he "felt no harm."

Since Satan is typified by a serpent, Jesus' reference to them in the Great Commission, perhaps has a further symbolic meaning. This may be evidenced in the promise Jesus gave to the Seventy in Luke 10:18,19.

"And he said unto them, I beheld Satan as lightning fall from heaven. Behold I give unto you power to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy: and nothing shall by any means hurt you."

The fourth sign was, "And if they drink any deadly thing it shall not hurt them." The word "if" explains what is meant and bears out what we have just said. People are not to go out and drink deadly potions or to pick up serpents just to prove that they are believers. But if by mistake they should do it, or if they are forced to take a poisonous drink, they may then claim the promise of immunity.

Miracles are to confirm the Word of God. They are not intended to be used as spectacular stunts, or to create a mere sensation. Jesus said, "A wicked and adulterous generation seeketh after a sign." (Matt. 16:4) He refused to perform signs merely to amuse a curious audience.

record of integrity. Governments as well as states and individuals must recognize law, even when dealing with outlaws such as Khrushchev. If we think that our way to national survival is through espionage, we are no better than the communist nations who are doing this all the time.

How will America be saved from another Pearl Harbor? Not by spying, nor by intrigue, not by plotting and scheming, as other nations have done in the past, but by putting our trust in God. Let us follow the example of Nineveh of old, who heeded the warning and turned to God in national humiliation and repentance.

It is our duty to pray for America and to stand back of our president, who we believe has done his best to serve not only this country, but the purposes of world peace. As to the U-2 incident, while the president nominally has access to all information concerning activities of the Intelligence Department, and has apparently taken responsibility for the U-2 flights, it is obvious that busy man that he is, he was not aware of the recent U-2 flight, or had anything to do with sending a plane over at this time. He has wisely issued an order for cessation of all such flights. The fact is that the president's long record of square dealing has placed him in a position of high regard before the nations of the world, something one unfortunate incident, cannot change.

The following re-set.

Sixth Day (Helpers in the Church)

And God has appointed in the church . . . helpers

Read Colossians 3:12-16
(also Isaiah 17:10-12)

As you pray think of the responsibility which each member of the Christian fellowship bears for every other member —of the fellowship of worship in confession and absolution, in praise and song, as a help rather than a hindrance for the common life, and a means of uniting rather than separating us

—of service in and to the world as an expression of the service of worship of the congregation in the church.

Seventh Day (Leaders in the Church)

And God has appointed in the church . . . leaders Read Acts 20: 28 (also Ezekiel 34: 11-16)

As you pray, remember the ministry, clerical and lay

—the episcopal and priestly ministry
—the preaching and pastoral ministry
—the evangelistic and teaching ministry

—the responsibility of all leaders for sound doctrine

—the application of the Word of God in the life and activity of congregation and community.

Eighth Day (Tongues and Interpretation in the Church)

And God has appointed in the church . . . speakers in tongues and interpreters

Read Acts 2: 4-11
(also Genesis 40: 5-8)

As you pray think of the meaning of these verses as they apply to your own particular congregation, remembering the significance of the unusual and extraordinary in the Christian Church as opposed to the normal and mediocre

—of the witness which does not come only from the intellect and transcends the understanding of man —of the need for interpretation and expression as well as for language that can be understood everywhere and by all —of 'speakers in tongues' who can continually challenge and disturb the Church which all too easily becomes complacent and self-satisfied and contented to remain as it is.

the word of knowledge that a lady in the prayer line who came for healing had a tumor and that she would pass it out of her body. This she did, and came and gave God the glory.

I can gratefully say that God in His mercy has seen fit to manifest every one of the nine gifts in my ministry at one time or another. I give the glory to Him and all that He does and pray that I shall yet see a more perfect operation of these gifts in my life and a full restoration of them in the church which is His will.

God began to show me the need of the heathen and that the ministry with miracles is His greatest and most effective means of world evangelization. A great burden first came upon my heart for the people of Mexico and I have since had two great city-wide meetings in Mexico City. The results were so tremendous that my heart warms at the very thought of these times of blessing. We cannot say how many people were saved in these meetings, only God knows this, but approximately fifty-eight thousand stood to accept Christ in these two meetings. God's power is freely given to His spirit-filled messengers and He wants us to freely give it to these in need. The world is dying for the lack of light; the miracle gives us a universal language to reach their darkened hearts and bring to them the truth of Jesus Christ—the only message that can save.

The Voice of Healing and associate evangelists are spending themselves in an effort to win the nations to Christ. The need is so great that God must raise up hundreds of other ministers with a ministry of miracles that will give themselves to the vision of the heathen. Thousands of consecrated dollars must also be prayed in, to enable the great world outreach to continue until Jesus comes for His bride that has made herself ready . . . As I close this story of God's mercy upon my life, I would like to say that some time ago God revealed to me that this great healing revival was only the beginning of the mightiest revival that the world has ever known, that a double portion of His Spirit is falling and that He is restoring all the former things to the church which is His Body, the fullness of Him that filleth all and in all . . . Will you seek Him, with fasting and prayer until you have heard from heaven and received your part of this mighty last day move of God?
