Pastor Gives Glowing Report of the Paul Wells Campaign in Belfast, Ireland

By Pastor David Duncan

This is the report of the Ireland Crusade conducted by TVH Evangelists Paul and Betty Wells of Santa Paula, California from July 11th to July 31st. Pastor David Duncan is a fiery Bible Deliverance Pastor Evangelist who has the largest church among the Full Gospel Works in Ireland. His church has been organized only ten months and has a membership of five hundred with a potential for double this number inside the next six months.

It was a great moment for Belfast, Ireland when the plane from Glasgow arrived carrying the great Evangelistic Team from California, Evangelists Paul and Betty Wells, with their daughter Sheri. After exchanging greetings and Hallelujahs, we claimed a move of God for Ireland and proceeded to the City.

The meetings started in the church at Dundonald but quickly outgrew the facilities and moved to the Ulster Hall seating nearly three thousand. Night after night our hearts were made to rejoice at the crowds attending and the outstanding results accompanying the powerful preaching of Evangelist Wells.

People brought the sick from hundreds of miles away to have the prayer of faith administered in their behalf. Totally blind from the nearby cities came and were instantly healed along with many deaf and dumb who received instant healing. Asthma, broken bones, tumors, cancers, and paralysis were healed by faith accompanied by shouts of victory and praises to our God each night. Brother Wells' dynamic Holy Ghost ministry inspired scores to come and receive this glorious pentecostal experience. More than forty in the first five days were filled with the Holy Ghost as Brother Wells prayed and laid hands on them, and they all spoke with tongues. The altar calls given by Brother Wells were powerful and many were saved as well as healed under the ministry of this great man of God.

One of the most notable healings in Ulster Hall was the instantaneous healing of a deaf mute father and son who are enrolled in a deaf mute school in Belfast. After prayer both father and son could hear for the first time in their entire lives. They did not recognize the words as they had never heard them before, but the sounds were clearly audible to them and after Brother Wells prayed a second time, the boy began to utter the first sounds he had made since birth. They are now enrolled in a voice school to learn the sounds of words and to utter the word so as to take their place in society with those who hear and speak. A woman stood up from her wheel chair for the first time in her life after removing her braces she had worn since birth and stood for one hour and 15 minutes praising God for her healing. She had come by steamer from Glasgow, Scotland to hear Brother Wells, reading of his coming in TVH magazine.

Brother Wells presented night after night the works of Winning The Nations Crusade of the Voice of Healing until the hearts of all Ireland are thrilled with the vision of Rev. Gordon Lindsay to bring the deliverance revival to the world in this generation. We are anxiously looking forward to the day that a Deliverance Convention of these great men of faith and power can come to Ireland.

BEFORE

AFTER

This nine year old boy had contracted muscular dystrophy shortly after birth. His feet and ankles were drawn to where it was impossible for him to set his heels upon the ground and walk. After prayer was offered for him by Brother Wells, he was healed and able to walk instantly. The pictures above show him before and after prayer.

THESE ALL DIED IN OFFICE

At the time of writing a new president will soon be elected to fill the office of the highest position of our land. Our purpose in this particular chapter is not to discuss the qualifications of the one who is to be elected to that office. This will be considered elsewhere. Rather it is to show that for good or for ill that Divine providence has a hand in controlling the destinies of whoever is elected. This being true, our nation should use great care, and much prayer in deciding who God's man is for office. Otherwise disaster can result.

That God will permit a man to be placed in a position of authority over a nation, who is not His man, may be seen from God's warning to Israel, when they wanted a king to reign over them:

"And the Lord said unto Samuel, Hearken unto the voice of the people in all that they say unto thee: for they have not rejected thee, but they have rejected me, that I should not reign over them. According to all the the works which they have done since the day I brought them up out of Egypt even unto this day, wherewith they have forsaken me, and served other gods, so do they also unto thee. Now therefore hearken unto their voice: howbeit yet protest solemnly unto them, and shew them the manner of the king that shall reign over them." (I Sam. 8:7-9)

God let the children of Israel have their way, but their choice brought sorrow and trouble upon the land. Hosea records God's feelings in the matter:

"I gave thee a king in mine anger, and took him away in my wrath." (Hosea 13:11)

There is an old saying, "Man proposes, but God disposes." Nothing could be more disastrous at the present time, than for our nation to elect to the presidency a man whom God has not chosen. God may let us have our way, as He let the people in Saul's day, but the result will not be for our good.

For as the Bible teaches there is a Divine Architect who rules and overrules the affairs of men. The Christian believes this, but how can we prove it? Do not world events happen by chance and random? This has long been assumed by the skeptic. But we deny it is true. The fact is, investigation shows events occur in definite mathematical patterns. In demonstrating this we prove the fact of design in history beyond the possibility of contradiction. It is an unerring test that shows that a God in heaven rules and overrules the society of men, even as the Prophet Daniel declared when warning King Nebuchadnezzar of his arrogance and pride:

"This matter is by the decree of the watchers, and the demand by the word of the holy one: to the intent that the living may know that the most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will, and setteth up over it the basest of men." (Daniel 4:17)

The fact of design in world history is a story that would require a very large volume indeed. In the present case we propose only to demonstrate design in the lives of the presidents of the United States—a matter which involves the subject of our book.

Let us begin by calling to the reader's attention a remarkable fact, previously noted by students of American history, but usually only as historical curiosity. This phenomenon is a strange one, but it has happened so often that it is obvious that it has not happened as the result of chance. The remarkable circumstance is this: From the time of William Harrison on down to the present time, at every interval of 20 years, the president who was elected, or re-elected has died in office!

In 1840 Harrison was elected president.....	He died in office
In 1860 Lincoln was elected president.....	He died in office
In 1880 Garfield was elected president.....	He died in office
In 1900 McKinley was elected president.....	He died in office
In 1920 Harding was elected president.....	He died in office
In 1940 Roosevelt was elected president.....	He died in office
In 1960?

Thus at 20-year intervals, the chief executives of our nation, at the respective times, have all been stricken down, either by fatal illness, or by the hand of an assassin, while executing the prerogatives of their office. These circumstances have been noted before but as we have said no explanation has been attempted, as to the significance of the mystery. Could these singular occurrences have happened merely as the result of chance? Hardly. For such a series of coincidences would have happened only once in a number of astronomical proportions. We will now observe in particular this strange mathematical phenomenon involving the death while in office, of each president that has been elected at these 20 year intervals.

It is interesting to note that the cycle begins after the death of those who fought in the Revolutionary War. It is of further interest to note the curious fact that three of the presidents who signed the Declaration of Independence July 4, 1776, died on July 4—two of these died together exactly 50 years, or a jubilee later to the day:

John Adams died	July 4, 1826
Thomas Jefferson died	July 4, 1826
James Madison died	July 4, 1831

1. 1840—WILLIAM HENRY HARRISON ELECTED PRESIDENT—DIED IN OFFICE

In the year 1840, William Henry Harrison was elected president of the United States, under the rally cry—"Tippecanoe and Tyler too." Tippecanoe being the battle he had won, and Tyler his vice-president partner. In the inaugural ceremonies on the following 4th of March, he rode a white horse, refusing to wear either coat or hat despite the cold stormy weather. He caught cold, took a chill and developed pleurisy fever, dying just 30 days after the inauguration.

Twenty years passed, the year 1860 came, and Abraham Lincoln was elected to office.

2. 1860—ABRAHAM LINCOLN ELECTED PRESIDENT—DIED IN OFFICE

The year 1860, preceded the out break of the terrible Civil War. In that year Abraham Lincoln, the Great Emancipator, was elected to the office of the presidency. Already the dogs of war were straining at their leashes and preparations were being made by the South for secession. One month after the inauguration, Fort Sumter was fired upon, and the war was on. It was a terrible struggle but Abraham Lincoln proved that he possessed the wisdom and genius necessary for steering the ship of state safely through that fateful hour.

Lincoln had great faith in God. He proclaimed August 2, 1862, as a day of prayer and fasting for the nation. A perusal of the proclamation shows that this statesman had a clear understanding of the cause of wars. He declared that the Civil War was a punishment that had come on the country for its sins. For this reason he called the nation to prayer and to national humiliation.

After four terrible years the war finally came to an end. Even as it did, the Commander-and-chief had had a mysterious and ominous dream. He saw himself in a coffin with thousands of people sobbing and weeping. The dream was a strange portent. A few minutes past ten on Friday, April 14, less than a week after the surrender of Lee's armies, the sinister figure of John Wilkes Booth stealthily opened the door to the president's box at Ford's and in an act of incredible madness sent a bullet crashing into the president's skull. Early next morning in a house across the street from where he was shot, the great president drew his last breath. At the moment the Secretary of War, Edwin Stanton is said to have spoken the words, "Now he belongs to the ages."

Thus the man elected to the presidency in 1860, died while in office.

3. 1880—GARFIELD ELECTED—DIED IN OFFICE

In the year 1880, James Garfield was elected president of the United States. He was the man who at the time of the assassination of President Lincoln, stopped the crowd of 10,000 in New York who were on their way to wreak vengeance on those they thought were Southern sympathizers. He addressed the mob in a loud voice saying:

Fellow citizens! Clouds and darkness are round about him! His pavilion is dark water and thick clouds of the skies! Judgment and justice are the establishment of His throne! Mercy and truth shall go before His face! Fellow citizens! God reigns and the government at Washington still lives!

The crowd was deeply moved at Garfield's words and dispersed without the threatened riot occurring.

At the Republican Convention in 1880, not one vote was cast for him on the first ballot. On the next four ballots he got one vote. He was dropped on the fourteenth to eighteenth ballot. On the 33rd ballot he again had one vote. Then in a landslide he won the nomination.

Garfield later won the election on a vote that gave him a plurality of one vote in a thousand! The returns were Garfield, 4,454,416 to Hancock's 4,444,952.

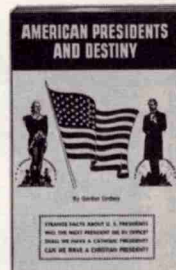

Three months later while Garfield was at the railway depot in Washington, Charles Guiteau, a disappointed office seeker, shot him.

Jordan and the Bible Land Project

BY GORDON LINDSAY, AS DELIVERED ON THE RADIO AUG. 25, 1960

(FLASH! Since writing this article, Prime Minister Hazza Majali has been assassinated, along with several other officials, in the very office where Sam Todd and I had our pictures taken with him. The assassins escaped to Red dominated Syria, which shows the plot was inspired by Nasser and the Communists.)

GOOD MORNING FRIENDS, this is Gordon Lindsay speaking to you. A little over a year ago, we instituted the Holy Land Crusade—a crusade essentially for the people of Israel. Although we realized that we could not hold large open-air campaigns in Israel that we have in other countries, it appeared that the time was at hand when God was preparing to move again upon His ancient people. Israel has fulfilled the amazing Bible prophecy that she would return again to her own land—and this she has done although her people are still in unbelief. Nevertheless, God has said that after Israel returned to her land, that He would pour His Spirit upon them and give them a new heart as it says in Ezekiel 36:24, 26-28:

"For I will take you from among the heathen, and gather you out of all countries, and will bring you into your own land . . . A new heart also will I give you, and a new spirit will I put within you: and I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give you an heart of flesh. And I will put my spirit within you, and cause you to walk in my statutes, and ye shall keep my judgments, and do them. And ye shall dwell in the land that I gave to your fathers; and ye shall be my people and I will be your God."

We are happy to report that after a year, we have seen many encouraging results in the land of Israel. Thousands of Jews have been reached through the ministry of our gospel team which has gone from city to city, throughout the land. On one of these broadcasts I will tell you in detail the results of our Crusade in Israel.

But now I want to speak to you of my recent trip to the Bible lands. Evangelist Sam Todd and I visited various cities in Lebanon and Jordan. Brother Todd met the former president of Lebanon and spent two hours with him in the interest of our program in that country. This was the man who two years ago, made the appeal to President Eisenhower to send American troops to Lebanon, to save that country from the forces of Communism which were ready to take over in a bloody revolution. There were some interesting things told him by the president, and I shall tell you about this in another broadcast.

GOD'S PLACE FOR THE ARAB

But now I want to talk to you about Jordan. As you know, Jordan is the Arab part of the former land of Israel, and includes most of the Holy places of Palestine. For example, it includes the old walled city of Jerusalem, the Mount of Olives, the Garden Tomb, where Christ was laid, and the Garden of Gethsemane. Bible cities such as Bethlehem where Christ was born, Jericho, Samaria, Hebron, Bethany and many historic places along the Jordan River and the East side of the Sea of Galilee, are all in Jordan. As is well known a high wall goes down through the center of the city of Jerusalem sharply dividing the city in Jordan from that in Israel.

Gordon Lindsay

While I was able to phone from Jerusalem, Israel, to the United States without any trouble, I was not able to telephone one mile across to the other side of Jerusalem.

Jordan is inhabited by the Arabs, which are the descendants of Ishmael. The Scriptures plainly show that the people who descended from Ishmael are not to share in the blessings promised to Israel. That is the reason that Israel, a nation of two million has been able to retain her independence against 45 million Arabs. However, we must not forget that Ishmael has also been given certain promises. Let me note Genesis 17: 18, where Abraham cries to the Lord and says: "O that Ishmael might live before thee," and God replied in the 20th verse and said: "And as for Ishmael, I have heard thee: Behold I have blessed him, and will make him fruitful and will multiply him exceedingly; twelve princes shall he beget and I will make him a great nation."

Therefore, we see that God's blessing is also upon Ishmael and his descendants, the Arabs. Certainly the Arab nations have a right to the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Sad to say, in the Arab countries of Lebanon, Jordan, Syria and Saudi-Arabia, there has been almost nothing done in the way of missionary work in the evangelical sense. True it is, the area about Jerusalem is covered with shrines put up by the Medieval Church. And here in Jerusalem pilgrims come from all over the world to visit the sacred places where Jesus lived and walked. Yet through all these lands there are practically no Full Gospel works. In Jerusalem, Jordan, there is nothing that could be called evangelical. And yet this is the place from whence Christianity sprung. And this is the very place to which Jesus is to return. For His feet are first to touch the summit of the Mount of Olives on His return to earth.

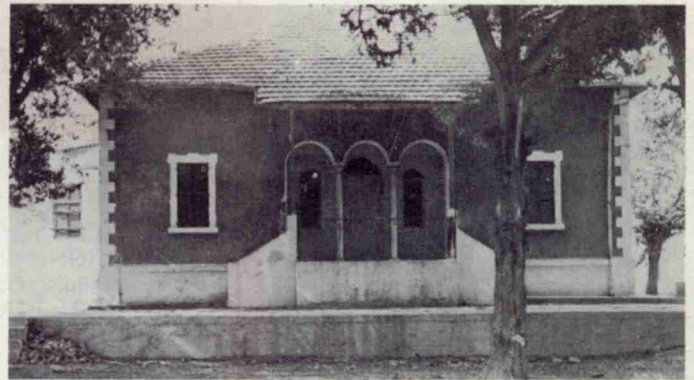

We went to Jordan with a burden. We realized that the Moslem was traditionally hostile to Christianity. On the very spot where Solomon's temple once stood, now stands the Mohammedan shrine, the Mosque of Omar. Centuries ago the Moslem armies invaded Europe and even threatened Christianity. However, there has been a notable change in recent years. The Moslems now tolerate Christianity, and many even believe that Christ was a great prophet, such as their own Mohammed. For the first time in history there is the possibility of bringing evangelical Christianity into these lands. But how can we do it? Well we now have a new open door.

As many of you know, Sam Todd and I are now associated with World Friendship Inc., an organization which sends shiploads of supplies and tools and food to lands that have been impoverished by war and famine. One of our purposes in going to Jordan was to meet with the leaders of Jordan about the sending of a ship to that country. And in our hearts was the thought that not only would we accomplish something from the humanitarian standpoint, in the giving of this aid, but we would make friends with the leaders of the country for Christ and His cause.

The Ambassador from Jordan had sent a cable from Washington, D. C., to Jerusalem about our arrival. So while I was still going through customs at the airport in Jerusalem, an officer came and hurried me through to his office saying that I had a phone call. I couldn't imagine who it would be calling. But picking up the receiver I heard a voice saying, "Welcome to the City of Jerusalem." I replied, "Thank you, and who is this?" The voice said, "This is the assistant to the governor. We welcome you to Jerusalem and thank you for the good mission." He then arranged that as soon as we should be settled at the hotel that a committee, which would include the Mayor of Jerusalem, and other important officials, would meet with us concerning our plans.

The Mount of Olives where the Winning the Nations chapel will be built. Above is artists concept of chapel.

The house on top of the Mount of Olives where minister of the chapel will stay.

I cannot tell you all that was said at that time. Enough to say that the officials were very enthusiastic about the whole project. The next day they had us meet with the governor of the area, and then finally with the Prime Minister Hazza Majali at Amman. He and his aides were very enthusiastic and the Prime Minister took time to serve us with tea and to be photographed with us before we left. It now appears almost certain that a World Friendship will go to Jordan next Spring. As you know, a World Friendship from Kentucky was recently sent to Korea with $1,200,000 worth of farm implements, livestock and other relief supplies. Dr. Walter Parr, executive director, on his way to Korea will stop at Jordan and consummate arrangements in that country.

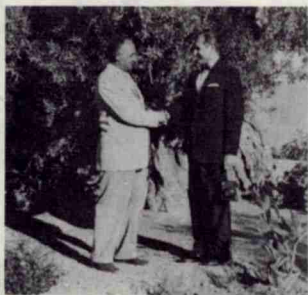

What was to be our next step in the city of Jerusalem, Jordan? The one evangelical man in Jerusalem, who has a real burden for souls, is Mr. Mattar, Warden of the Garden Tomb. He poured out his heart to us. For eleven years he had been praying for a piece of property on top of the Mount of Olives, where he could build a gospel chapel. Now he had gotten the property and was praying that God would send the money for the chapel. We felt that it was an answer to our own prayers. And so it was arranged that we should go ahead and build the chapel. Here people from all over the world who come to see the sacred places, can hear the gospel and give their hearts to Christ. Here will be the first foothold in Jerusalem, Jordan, to reach the Arabs with the gospel. (In the accompanying picture is the artist's conception of the chapel. We do not have the drawings yet, so we really do not know what the chapel will look like. The chapel will be built directly above the Garden of Gethsemane and on the skyline of the Mount of Olives. Here it was that Jesus wept over Jerusalem. (Luke 19:41-44) Near or at this very spot He will come again. (Zech. 14:4)

During the time we were in Jerusalem, Mr. M. S. Shoucair accompanied us. He is the founder of the famous College of the Good Shepherd in Beirut with 1,000 students. His is the only Christian educational system of any size in Bible lands. I cannot tell you in this message of the thrilling plans we have in mind to reach his country. However, out of the School of the Good Shepherd are many young men who are praying to evangelize their country for Christ. Plans are in motion to send them out to evangelize the cities and towns of Arab countries.

When we were ready to leave the country, the Mayor of Jerusalem came down to see us and bid us goodbye. How our hearts long to get the message of Christ to these people who have been so kind, and who have shown us every courtesy. And so we ask you to pray with us and to give liberally for this great cause in the Bible lands.

Moscow Baptist church

(There is much speculation as to how much religious freedom there is in Russia today. While Evangelist David Walker and his wife were in Moscow they had an interview with Rev. Ilia Orlov and Alex Stoyan, assistants to the President and General Secretary of the Russian Baptists. It will be seen that their answers are very guarded and no doubt must be, for them to be permitted to continue at all in their worship services. It is perhaps necessary to read between the lines to understand what they are trying to tell us. With these circumstances in mind, the reader should consider the following report.) Ed.

QUESTION: Do you have a church membership?

ANSWER: Oh yes, we do. In Russia we have about 500,000 Baptists, 500,000 Lutherans; 2,000,000 Greek Orthodox and about 100,000 Pentecostals.

QUESTION: Do people sometimes lose their jobs for believing in God here in Russia?

ANSWER: Not that I know of.

QUESTION: Is there much aggressive persecution against Christians?

ANSWER: No, not much, if they keep quiet.

QUESTION: Do you think evangelists could come to Russia and conduct city-wide campaigns like we do in the U.S.?

ANSWER: Only God knows. (The constitution of Russia reads, "It is strictly forbidden to spread religious propaganda in Russia, but you are free to spread anti-religious propaganda anywhere, anywhere.")

QUESTION: Do you expect a nation-wide revival in Russia?

ANSWER: We will see, but time will tell.

QUESTION: Do schools, teachers and textbooks teach against the existence of God?

My Interview With the Religious Leaders of Moscow

By "LITTLE" DAVID WALKER

ANSWER: Yes they do.

QUESTION: What do you think of the Communist Government?

ANSWER: It has helped the people economically. All governments are ordained of God.

QUESTION: Are church leaders spied upon by the government?

ANSWER: We do not think so, and we are not afraid.

QUESTION: Do the ministers and church leaders pray for deliverance from Communistic Government?

ANSWER: No, the Bible says to pray for our leaders and rulers.

Rev. and Mrs. David Walker

QUESTION: Have any ministers been sent to prison or to Siberia?

ANSWER: Not that we know of under the Communist Government but probably many of them were sent there before the revolution in 1917.

QUESTION: What do you think about the atheistic sentiments of your government? Do you like this?

ANSWER: Do all of your government rulers in America believe in God?

QUESTION: Are collective farmers allowed to come to church?

ANSWER: Yes, many of them.

QUESTION: Do you actually believe and feel that you have religious freedom here in Russia?

ANSWER: Of course, just as much as we want and need. Of course, some laymen are never satisfied. We are free to worship the way we desire inside the walls of the church, and that is all we need.

QUESTION: Do you believe in the virgin birth, the born-again experience and the soon-return of Christ, also water baptism and communion?

ANSWER: Yes.

QUESTION: How does a person get saved and become a member of your church? Do you have an altar service?

ANSWER: We do not have altar services. They merely come to the minister after the service and make their decision known to him.

QUESTION: Does your church believe in and practice Divine healing?

ANSWER: Yes. At the close of most every service, people come to the minister and he prays for them. Also, they present their written requests for absent sick friends and he prays over the requests. Many testify to recovery.

QUESTION: Do you have Sunday School for the Children?

ANSWER: No, for it makes the children become too automatic and mechanical about the Bible.

QUESTION: How long have the Baptists been in Moscow?

ANSWER: The Moscow Baptist Church has been in existence about 100 years.

QUESTION: How many young people are in your church?

ANSWER: About 25 per cent. (We witnessed about 10 per cent.)

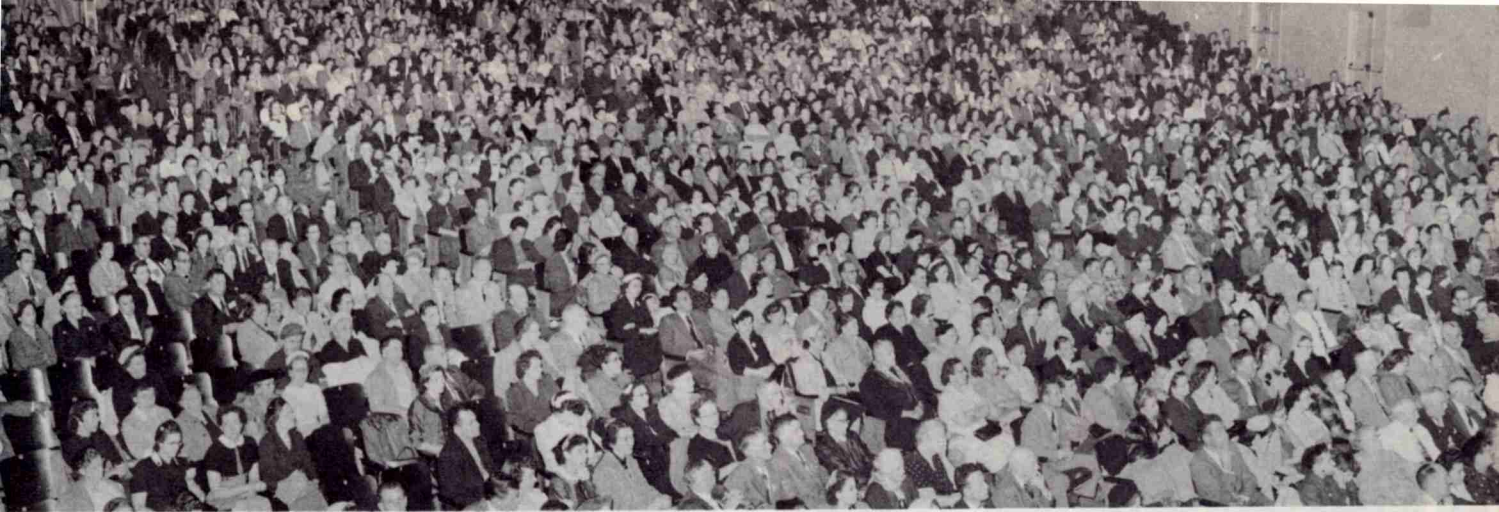

QUESTION: What do you know about Pentecostal people in Russia?

ANSWER: Well, we think Pentecost was preached in Russia about 93 years ago. Some people from Germany brought this message . . . people similar to your Mennonites in America.

"We attended one of these great healing revivals"

How I Came Into the Ministry of Healing

By OLIVE KELLNER

IN THE FALL OF 1948, we received our first copy of The Voice of Healing, which told us of the great revival God was sending to this earth. A new and greater visitation of the Holy Spirit, manifesting all the gifts of the Holy Ghost in Apostolic power.

So we attended one of these great healing revivals in Calvary Temple, Los Angeles, California. Oh! How our hearts were thrilled and we sat almost breathless as we beheld the miracles and healings, till we felt we were back in the Bible Days in the meetings Jesus held where He preached to the multitudes and healed their sick.

This was what we had preached and this was what we were looking and longing for.

and ministry. Speaking of this to my husband I gasped, "If this is so, then my hands are as though they were the hands of Jesus! And if my hands are as though they were the hands of Jesus, what will happen when I lay them on the sick?"

Knowing my place of authority in Christ and before Heaven, gave me faith and boldness such as I had never known before.

MANIFESTATIONS OF THE SPIRIT

Then one day as I was praying, the Lord spoke to me and said, "When you pray for the sick you will feel my power in your body where the sick are afflicted". And praise God, so many times the sick feel this power of God, the life of Jesus, flowing through them.

Also the Lord permits me to feel the pains and growths of the people. Just in the meeting at Angola, New York, in June, 1960, the Lord gave me a manifestation that some one had something in their throat and that Jesus wanted to heal them. A lady responded who had a lump in her throat six years and said she had spent a thousand dollars doctoring. But in the name of Jesus, it loosened. She swallowed it, then left the church auditorium and it came up. She testified to her complete healing.

One night before meeting as I was praying, the Lord gave me a wonderful experience. He caused me to smell the fragrance of a beautiful rose that permeated the very channels of my head. Then He spoke saying, "When I do this, it is because I want to give some one the sense of smell". How oft have we seen the Lord do this very thing, giving the sense of smell to even those who were born without it.

While in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, a lady responded to this manifestation of the Spirit, who was a registered nurse in one of the hospitals there and said she was handicapped without the sense of smell. Jesus created her sense of smell and taste. She later came into one of our meetings and testified that she had the keenest sense of smell of any in the hospital. Also she told how wonderful it was to be able to taste her food. Oh! how wonderful Jesus is!

LAYING MY MINISTRY ON THE ALTAR

In the winter of 1950 in Los Angeles, I had two severe attacks which almost took my life. After the second one, while I was being prayed for, the Lord asked of me a hard thing. He asked me to lay my ministry and preaching on the altar. And though I could not understand, I obeyed and said, "Alright Lord, it is alright if I never preach again." The Spirit of God came upon me and I laughed in the Holy Ghost and I began to recover from that moment.

Then the Lord began to show me why He had asked this of me, for He was leading me into a new ministry. He gave me a dream in the night. I was standing gazing into the dense fog before me, looking for a new road. Suddenly to either side of me, appeared a road. But I knew that neither of them were the road I was looking for. Then the fog was gone and I found myself standing on the road I was seeking. When I looked down at it, I exclaimed, "Why, this is not a new road," and I awakened. This was the road of the ministry of deliverance, new to me. But it was old, for the Master and the Apostles had trod that way.

POWER OF ATTORNEY

In the summer of 1950, I sat alone in my room with my Bible, meditating on the great commission, when the Presence of the Lord so filled the room that I sat awe-stricken before Him. He illuminated and personalized the great commission as His power of attorney in my own life, revolutionizing my life

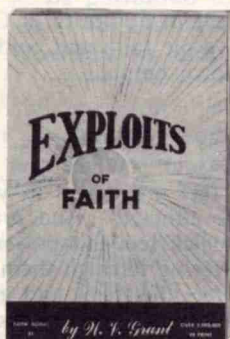

A GOOD REPORT: God has blessed here in Norfolk in the big tent revival with Brother Grant. The rain poured down night after night, but the people, from many towns and distant states waded mud over their shoes, filled the tent and ran it over! No kind of weather can prevent a revival when God gets ready to pour out His Spirit.

Night after night about a thousand or twelve hundred people rushed forward to give God their hearts. Several times about one thousand people testified that they were healed in five minutes time; these included most all manner of ailments. Several deaf mutes were made to speak and hear a whisper instantly. People who had been deaf in one ear for thirty and forty years could hear perfectly! A lady with her ear drum cut out and gone could hear a whisper after Brother Grant spat on some dirt and put it into her ear. Several blind eyes were made to see again. The lame walked. Crossed eyes were straightened. Goiters disappeared. Stiff joints became normal. We would see a man leave a wheel chair or a stretcher and rejoice that we live in this generation.

A Jew testified that he felt a power pulling him to the big tent for ten days. He came and was saved. A woman testified that she was saved. She stopped living with another man, began to wear clothes, quit getting drunk, and was delivered from cigarettes after smoking a package in thirty minutes. Even a maid at the hotel came into Brother Grant's room and was saved. A man at the hospital with high blood pressure, and given up to die, felt like he should come to the tent. The doctors told him if he did he would die. He gathered up his clothes and shoes and slipped out. He ran through a real fast healing line. He went back to the same hospital. They told him that he was completely well! It is impossible to know how many who received the Holy Ghost out of the great crowd in the Holy Ghost Rally, but it seemed like the most of them.

In the last days the people of God will be strong and do exploits. (Dan. 11:32). There will be a world wide revival, a move of God, a latter rain, a double portion, a better dispensation. God has reserved better things for us. We will have the whole armor of God, full vessels; we will be overcomers. Brother Grant has written 100 titles of faith-building books. This may well prove to be his best. If you want to be used in this end time revival; if you desire spiritual gifts; if you want the faith once delivered to the saints; then you must send for this inspiring book which was written in the laboratory of personal experience of twenty eight years.

The Astonishing Move in "Liberal" Churches

by David J. du Plessis

I have just returned from two top-level gatherings of the World Council of Churches in Europe. More than ever, I am convinced that the Holy Spirit is doing a work which many are unable to discern because of prejudice. I know, because for many years it was so difficult for me to recognize the work of the Spirit in other than my own society.

At the first meeting of the CONSULTATION ON EVANGELISM at the Ecumenical Institute in Switzerland, Dr. D. T. Niles pointed out in his opening address that there were three "major differentia" which clearly distinguished Christianity from other religions.

1. Christianity is the only religion which worships a RISEN LORD, and an encounter with the Living Christ is essential for every true Christian.
2. Christianity is the only religion which believes in the ministry of the Holy Spirit and there must be a clear YES or NO to Paul's question in Acts 19. "Have ye received the Holy Spirit since ye believed?"
3. Christianity is the only religion which looks forward to THE RETURN OF CHRIST. They represent "that which has not yet happened but will happen."

Evangelist Billy Graham told the gathering "that a return to dynamic, vital New Testament evangelism is the only solution to the problem of enaemic Christianity and a loss of spiritual strength on the part of the churches." It was my privilege to emphasize the fact that Jesus warned His disciples NOT TO GO FROM JERUSALEM UNTIL they had received the "promised Holy Spirit". John the Baptist warned the religious leaders of this day that "the tree which beareth not good fruit is hewn down and cast into the fire", BUT . . . "He . . . shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost and with fire." The message today which the Holy Spirit Himself brings to the Churches is still the same. Accept this ENDUEMENT which Jesus promised, or except the JUDGMENT of which John had warned.

I have not heard a stronger emphasis on the "continuing ministry of the Holy Spirit" in any convention that I have attended in recent years. There was a recognition of the Spirit in every phase of Christian life and ministry. The "Pentecostal Movement" and its achievements of the last half century was mentioned time and again as proof of what "personal witnessing inspired by the Spirit" can do. I did not expect to hear such favorable comments.

Rev. Tom Allan of Glasgow, Scotland, was chairman of the seven day meeting.

(The church world continues to be astonished that the so-called "liberal wing" of the church is opening its doors so freely to David du Plessis, and that it is taking a stand for the miraculous, such as the speaking in other tongues and the gifts of healing. Yet none can longer disbelieve it, for in TIME MAGAZINE and Associated Press dispatches we are hearing of prominent ministers in the Episcopal Church and other denominations receiving the baptism of the Holy Ghost and speaking in other tongues. Truly all things are possible with God. More power to David du Plessis and his great work. Ed. note.)

David J. du Plessis

Participants came from the United Kingdom, Germany, France, Switzerland, Sweden, Holland, Pakistan, India, Ceylon, Japan, Indonesia, Lebanon, Egypt, Kenya, Liberia, Cuba, Uruguay and the United States. Almost every Christian Denomination was represented.

My next invitation had come from the COMMISSION ON FAITH AND ORDER of the World Council of Churches. This was held in the University of St. Andrews, Scotland. Here I found more evidence of this rising theological concern to rediscover the true nature of the Spirit's work in the church. One speaker after another expressed the hope that this might be the time of opportunity and fulfillment of the promise that God's Spirit will rest upon all the people all the time with the unique, energizing power which created the church in the first place.

I was asked to bring a special message and I was invited to participate freely in all discussions in all meetings. It was good to have Brother Donald Gee there for a few meetings to listen in. He could not stay to hear my message but he is publishing it in "PENTECOST". Those who wish to have a copy of my full report may write me.

One report said: "True ecumenism does not mean the diluting of Christian faith, but extended and deepened appreciation." Indeed, there was no need for me to compromise any issue in Pentecostal experience or teachings. Most of the studies were focused upon the work of Jesus Christ and the Holy Spirit. The Church is inseparable from Jesus Christ and the Holy Spirit. It was made very clear that this does not mean merely christological or pneumatological doctrine, but the real presence of Christ and the Spirit in the Church. Even "speaking in tongues" was repeatedly referred to as having a real place in the freedom and order of the Spirit.

When I arrived home in Dallas I found TIME Magazine of August 15 carried the amazing story of the phenomenon of "SPEAKING IN TONGUES" in an Episcopal Church in California and the publisher said: "One of the oldest and oddest Christian practices may be beginning a revival in the United States. Then came the syndicated release of Associated Press written by George W. Cornell, appearing under bold headlines, such as, "STAID EPISCOPAL CLERGYMAN SPEAKING WITH TONGUES" and "SPEAKING WITH TONGUES AMAZING CHURCHES AGAIN".

It must be evident to millions now that the Lord is answering the prayer of Christians for the RENEWAL OF THE CHURCH in this age, and truly a RAPID SPIRITUAL CHANGE is taking place in Christendom. Once again A MIGHTY RUSHING WIND can be heard where Christians are assembled to wait for ENDUEMENT to meet the danger of JUDGMENT. To my "Pentecostal Brethren" I want to give the assurance that this NEW REVIVAL WITH THE CHURCH is just as glorious and just as powerful as the wonderful PENTECOSTAL REVIVAL OUTSIDE THE CHURCHES that we have been enjoying since nineteen hundred and one. Praise the Lord. "Behold, the former things are come to pass, and new things do I declare." Isa. 42:9.

Your Questions Answered from the Bible

QUESTION: An evangelist came to town and applied great pressure to raise money for missions. People felt that they were compelled to give. And some, even widows, pledged beyond their means. Do you think that this was right?

ANSWER: When you talk about giving to missions, you are on a subject very close to my heart. When we have seen the desperate conditions of the heathen, living and dying as they do in squalor, without hope in this world and, infinitely worse, without hope in the world to come, we naturally feel very strongly about missionary giving, and have little sympathy for people who would "shut their bowels of compassion" to those in this sad condition. It is common observation that the sinner is often moved by ordinary humanity, to generous assistance of those in physical need. Then shame on the church that pinches its pennies when the need of the heathen is so urgent, and the issue of their eternal existence is at stake. As Paul said, we are debtors to all men. Surely great is our guilt if we shirk our responsibility to the heathen.

However, the method and manner of raising an offering in the church, is important. I have seen $50,000 raised in a single service with God's blessing felt by all. I have also witnessed a service where the raising of fifty dollars killed the spirit of the meeting. Crude auctioneering methods for money which we occasionally witness, are certainly to be decried. Unless we have a sense of decorum, a sense of the Spirit's moving, it is possible to not only grieve the Spirit of God, but actually turn away earnest seekers. Moreover, offerings should never in any way be associated with prayer for the sick.

That the poor should be encouraged to give, is plainly taught in many Scriptures. The widow who was down to her last meal, was asked by Elijah to give the first cake to him. Had she failed to obey his instructions, she would have perished. (I Kings 17:8-16) The point is, that in her giving, God fulfilled His promise to "Give and it shall be given unto you." The poor cannot afford not to give. New converts in the poorest countries should be taught to tithe as the first step to better their lot. God is a God of miracles for the poor as well as for the sick. Financial miracles are possible as well as healing miracles. But the giving must be in faith just as the praying for the sick must be in faith, or there will be no results.

Jesus fully substantiated this teaching by commending the widow who gave her last two mites for the cause of the kingdom of God. (Luke 21:3-4)

God grant that no one will take up money in the name of Christ for one thing and then use it for something else, or use the missionary appeal as a front to raise money for other purposes. God's word is very plain as to the penalty suffered by any guilty of such practices. (II Kings 5:20-27)

THE MARCH OF PROPHECY

(A FEATURE TO KEEP READERS INFORMED OF WORLD EVENTS WHICH HAVE UNUSUAL PROPHETIC SIGNIFICANCE.)

THE 100 FOOT SATELLITE

In the middle of August, two important developments took place in the U. S. satellite project. One was the recovering of a 200 pound cone of a satellite that had been put into orbit. After orbiting about the earth a number of times, engineers triggered a release and the satellite was brought back through the atmosphere, which without precautions, would have become a fiery meteor. Arrested in its course of descent by means of a parachute, it was recovered at sea. The way is now open to send up live monkeys into orbit. And after that, one of the seven human astronauts, who has been in training, will be shot into orbit, later to be recovered if nothing goes wrong. Man will then at last have penetrated into true outer space, although still within the gravitational field of the earth.

The other important development was the orbiting of a hundred foot satellite, which is able to reflect signals to distant points in the earth. This event points the way to world-wide television. The satellite may be seen at times when it is not in the earth's shadow, as a bright planet, which passes rapidly from horizon to horizon in the matter of about 15 minutes. And so the space age continues to advance. Will it finally end as some think, with a battle on the moon? Given time, it would ultimately lead to this. But is there time left in this dispensation for events to go that far?

RACE BETWEEN RUSSIA AND U. S. TO GET A MAN INTO SPACE

A few days ago Russia put dogs and other animals into space and retrieved them alive. Now there is a mad race between the two countries to see which one will get a man into space first. A fair guess will be that Russia will. Here is the reason. Russia will continue her experiments with great secrecy. Should men die in the attempt to retrieve them from orbit, no one will be the wiser. Right now she could probably get a man back alive if she made several attempts. There would be failures, but one would get back alive. On the other hand, the experiments in America are conducted openly. Public opinion will prevent the U. S. from making any attempt to orbit a man until they are reasonably sure that the man will be brought back alive.

MISSILES FROM THE DEEP

Rocket missiles continue to make history. The weakness of the missile in the past, has been that the enemy usually knows the location of a missile base, and with the pinpoint accuracy recently made possible, could destroy such a base in a surprise attack. However, now, the nuclear submarine has learned to launch the missile from below water. Out of the boiling surface of the ocean a few weeks ago emerged a Polaris to go forth to its target 1000 miles away. We are told that 16 such missiles with atomic warheads can be carried on one submarine, a vessel which is invulnerable to a sneak attack.

But what is to prevent the enemy from developing such a submarine? America will never precipitate a nuclear war. But a dictator who should find himself in desperate straits as Adolph Hitler did in the closing days of World War II, would not hesitate to unleash an atomic barrage of total destruction. Submerged submarines could come within a few miles of our shores and destroy every city of any size in America. The enemy would of course, suffer retaliation, but a Hitler-minded dictator would think nothing of colossal destruction, of his own land, so long as he could save his own skin.

EXPLOSION IN THE CONGO

We have witnessed in recent weeks the terrible racial explosion in the Congo. The Belgian government had brought religion to that country, but it was the religion of the Medieval Church. The Church has long believed and practiced violence and now it reaps violence. Hundreds of white women were violated and the whole Congo is typical of the spirit of anarchy that is emerging throughout the world today. Communism, which was born in anarchy, is now the patron of anarchy and revolution. Those who resent and rebel against authority, inevitably gravitate to Communism. That is the reason that Castro who rages in Cuba and who is carrying his country down the dark road to ruin, has invited the Communists to back his wild and erratic actions. Even in our own America the spirit of anarchy is finding place in our colleges such as in the uprising in San Francisco recently. Communist agents are hard at work everywhere fomenting disorder and rebellion against authority. The key to all this is found in the activity of demons, as revealed in Rev. 16:14.

"For they are the spirits of devils, working miracles, which go forth unto the kings of the earth and of the whole world, to gather them to the battle of that great day of God Almighty."

HAS ISRAEL CRACKED THE SECRET OF DESALTING WATER?

It is now reported that the tests for desalting sea water by an Israel chemist, Alexander Zarchin, have proved successful. There is nothing new about purifying sea water, which can be accomplished by merely evaporating and condensing the steam of heated water. However, no process has heretofore been commercially feasible.

Mr. Zarchin's invention solves the problem by pumping sea water into a vacuum tank. Because of the low pressure, the water evaporates quickly, so that the salt water is frozen. Ice by nature, being free of all chemicals, is then transferred from the tank. The report is that the pure water can be produced for one-tenth the cost of any other method. If this report is substantiated, it may prove to be one of the major discoveries of history. Vast new lands that are now without fresh water could be opened up.

It is interesting to note that Mr. Zarchin worked for the Soviet government and was awarded a prize. Shortly after, he was arrested for "Zionism" and sentenced to five years at hard labor.

SITE OF JACOB'S LADDER FOUND

An American archeological society has unearthed Bethel, the city where Jacob saw his heavenly ladder, according to a report from an official at Amman, Jordan. Dr. Dajani declares that they have found the city of Bethel, and excavations are producing many interesting finds. It is most interesting to find that Bible cities of antiquity, lost for thousands of years, now being rediscovered, reveal evidence that consistently confirms the historical accuracy of the Scriptures.

HOW GOD CALLED ME INTO THE HEALING MINISTRY (Continued from Page 9)

No words can express how thrilled we have been as blind eyes opened, deaf ears heard and children who never walked, walk and run as though they never were crippled.

How grateful we are and humbled that the Lord has given to us a little part in this great Healing Revival that's been sweeping the Earth before the coming of Jesus!

QUESTION: Can an American Evangelist preach in your church?

ANSWER: Yes, but he must not have a tourist visa. He must be invited by us for this specific purpose. That is why when Billy Graham and Oral Roberts came, they could not publicly preach in our church.

QUESTION: What is the difference between the Baptists and the Pentecostal believers in Russia?

ANSWER: Well, sometimes the Pentecostals speak in tongues.

QUESTION: How many Pentecostal Christians are in your church here in Moscow?

ANSWER: About 400.

QUESTION: Why do they worship with the Baptists?

ANSWER: Well, in 1945, there was a merger of the many Protestant churches in Moscow. We felt it was best for us all to worship together.

QUESTION: Do you allow the Pentecostal Christians to speak in tongues in church services?

ANSWER: No we do not. When they all merged in 1945, we had an agreement that they would not speak in tongues in church, but hold it until they got home.

QUESTION: Do you speak in tongues, Brother?

ANSWER: No, I don't.

QUESTION: Why?

ANSWER: Well, I know several people who spoke in tongues and they were put away in insane institutions. (To which I replied, "Many who have never spoken in tongues have also been put away." To which the minister nodded in agreement.)

The minister became very interested at this point and wrote down all the scriptures that I gave him about the Baptism and Power of the Holy Ghost. He promised to read and study them carefully.

David Walker continues:

The minister of the Baptist Church in Leningrad was also very eager about this message when we spoke to him. After I gave him the scriptures, he promised to read them, and if while praying some day, he should receive this great anointing of power and speak in tongues, he would write us and share the news.

Maybe some seed was sown, that only eternity will reveal. We pray that this is so.

It is difficult to know whether some of these church leaders are tools of the State, or if they are just afraid to give any answers other than what would be favorable to their government. Some of them seemed to be very sincere Christians, and I could not help but believe they, too, were hungry for God and His many benefits. There is a deep sacredness and worship in the services we attended in Moscow and Leningrad, with hundreds of people crying most all through the service. The church is packed two hours before service—7 in the morning.

U. S. PRESIDENTS AND DESTINY (Continued from Page 5)

4 1900—WILLIAM McKINLEY ELECTED PRESIDENT—DIED IN OFFICE

Another 20 years rolled by. The year 1900 came and William McKinley was elected president of the United States, defeating William Jennings Bryan by an overwhelming vote. The Pan-American Exposition was being held at Buffalo, New York, and the president was invited to honor it with his presence. President McKinley was a man of unusual popularity and he often would stand for hours shaking hands while thousands of people streamed by. With the vast crowds of people flowing through the exposition grounds, George Cortelyou, the president's secretary thought it impossible to properly protect the chief executive and he cancelled the handshaking project. The president overruled him, and rescheduled the reception.

In the throng at Buffalo that day was a brooding figure one Leon Czolgosz. He had listened to speeches by anarchists and had developed a hatred against those in authority. As Czolgosz afterwards said, he couldn't stand the sight of all those people, "saluting him, bowing to him, paying homage to him." In his pocket was a .32 caliber nickleplated revolver.

When the line formed at the reception for the handshaking, Czolgosz got in the line. Because of the great number of people who wished to shake the president's hand, the line was kept moving rapidly. No one saw anything out of the way when a young man in a dark suit with a bandage on his right arm, approached the president. But inside the bandage was the .32 revolver. As the president reached to shake his arm, the trigger was pulled. Czolgosz immediately was hurled to the floor, while the president slumped in a chair, said, "Go easy with him boys." An operation was hastily performed, but the wound turned to gangrene and in a few days the president was dead.

McKinley's wife was an invalid for many years. She was an epileptic and had a seizure during ceremonies of the second inaugural. The president was noted for his tender affection and great devotion to his ailing wife. He was a member of the Methodist Church.

And so the fourth president of the 20 year cycle, William McKinley elected in 1900, as president of the United States died in office.

5 1920—WARREN GAMALIEL HARDING ELECTED PRESIDENT DIED IN OFFICE

In the year 1920, Warren Gamaliel Harding was elected president of United States. It is universally admitted that his administration was marred by a record of corruption unparalleled in American history. It was not that the president himself was crooked, but he surrounded himself with men who were unscrupulous and for a bribe were willing to sell the nation's resources to the highest bidder.

The nomination took place under ominous circumstances. James Daugherty, a man whose character also came under question but whose dishonesty was not proven, engineered the election. At the beginning of the convention, Mr. Daugherty made a statement for the New York Times of June 13, 1920, entitled, HOW HARDING WILL WIN. In the article he said:

"At the proper time after the Republican convention meets, some fifteen men, bleary eyed with loss of sleep and perspiring profusely with excessive heat, will sit in seclusion around a big table. I will be with them and will present the name of Senator Harding to them, and before we get through they will put him over."

And in the early hours of the morning a group of senators and leaders met in a room at Blackstone Hotel, and before the day was over Daugherty's prediction had come true in exact detail!

CABINET MEMBERS CONVICTED OF CRIMES

One of the president's cabinet appointments was Albert B. Fall, Secretary of the Interior. He was the first cabinet member to be convicted of a crime. After a trial in the District of Columbia Supreme Court, he was found guilty of accepting a bribe of $100,000 from Edward Doheny in connection with the Elk Hills Naval Oil Reserve in California. Others in the administration were accused and found guilty of indiscretion in office.

DEATH OF PRESIDENT HARDING

Mercifully President Harding did not live to see the humiliation that his administration was to suffer. In a strenuous western trip in 1923 he suffered a sudden stroke in a hotel in San Francisco. A book was published accusing his wife of poisoning him. There were no real facts behind the accusation, and the author was later put behind the bars in a federal prison on charges of fraudulent use of the mails.

6 1940—PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT ELECTED PRESIDENT

President Roosevelt was elected president in 1932, after receiving 666 votes on the first nomination. He then announced for a third term in 1940. In an article which we wrote in 1940, we at that time called attention to these strange cycles and then asked the question as to "whether the president elected this year, will also die while in the presidential chair?" We did not attempt to predict certainly that he would, but that it was something to watch. As it turned out, that is exactly what happened. Roosevelt defeated Wendell Wilkie in the election race. He did not die during that term. But about a month after he was inaugurated for a fourth term, he was suddenly stricken while sitting for an artist in his cottage at Warm Springs, Georgia. There was some mystery about the circumstances of his death. Many strange rumors are still afloat but none are confirmed. Mrs. Roosevelt for her part refused to allow the casket to be opened for anyone to see her husband, not even for her own sons. This peculiar act on her part was responsible for rumors.

What would have happened had Wendell Wilkie been elected president in 1940? We can only say that he suffered a heart attack and died before President Roosevelt, on October 8, 1944. With the fearful responsibilities of the presidency, had he been elected his heart would have been placed under an even greater strain.

If this cycle of the presidents continues then the president elected in 1960 will die sometime between 1961 and 1969.

If this occurs we may ask ourselves: Will he die of natural causes? Will he die by the hand of an assassin?

Will he die as the result of some great tragedy?

Time alone will tell the story.
