CENTRAL AND SOUTH AMERICA

WE now have an important announcement to make concerning the WINNING THE NATIONS CRUSADE. About the time this issue of THE VOICE OF HEALING reaches you, a party of our brethren will be engaged in conventions in Central and South America. At the time of writing, we do not have the complete list of who will go with us, but the party will include beside Brother and Sister Lindsay, David Du Plessis, Secretary of the World Pentecostal Fellowship, and Don Price.

We have several objectives in view, in making this trip. One is to hold a series of conventions in strategic cities of Central and South America. Another is to confer with the missionaries and native workers concerning the work of evangelization of their countries. One of the most important needs in mission fields, as appears from many reports that we have received, are facilities to carry on the work after the great revival campaigns are over. After a campaign in which tens of thousands of people have attended from night to night, there will often be thousands of converts. The only buildings available for worship usually are the small mission halls or compound chapels which are altogether inadequate to shelter the people. The consequences of this lack is easy to see. Many of the converts having no place to go, will drift back to their old ways.

Of course, the requirements of different fields are varied. But basically the need is for adequate places of worship, whether it be a revival center in the larger cities, or modest shelters in the smaller communities.

A JEWISH EDITION OF THE VOICE OF HEALING

One of the most important needs of the present hour is a Jewish edition of THE VOICE OF HEALING with material especially adapted to the Jew. It is prophetic that the time has come that there should be a stirring among them unprecedented in the history of their nation. We believe that this is the time to obey the command to "Pray for the peace of Jerusalem."

To assist in this work, we are preparing an edition of THE VOICE OF HEALING especially adapted for the Jew, with special messages showing the relation of New Testament fulfillment to the Old Testament. As soon as this edition is printed, we shall request the services of our friends everywhere, to assist us in widespread distribution of this Jewish edition of THE VOICE OF HEALING. Perhaps there are a number of Jews in your area. If so, please write us and give us your name and the number of such magazines which you could distribute to Jewish families.

THE TAGALOG EDITION OF THE VOICE OF HEALING

We just recently received a copy of the Tagalog edition of THE VOICE OF HEALING. The printing of it and work of translation was done in the Philippines by Pastor Candelaria, since it would be difficult to find those who could do this work in America. On this page is a photograph of this Tagalog edition. Notice on its cover the great Manila church built by Lester Sumrall as a result of the great revivals in that city. Here is absolute proof of the results of building a revival center following a campaign of large size. We have been ready to put out another issue of the Spanish Voice of Healing but have waited until our evangelistic teams returned from their campaigns in Spanish countries. We shall publish it as soon as we have returned from this trip to Central and South America so we can include in it the report of our conventions there.

A CALL TO PRAYER

In connection with these ventures of faith including our trip to Central and South America and our work with the Jews, we ask our prayer band to be much in intercession. We also ask you to stand by us in the giving of your gifts to the forwarding of this work of God. On one of these pages will be the announcement of our book of the month which will be given free to all who give to the WINNING THE NATIONS CRUSADE.

Blessed Lord, I'm Not Worthy

by W. V. Grant

WHY does a stranger come into our services and receive the Holy Ghost the first night, while our own members seek twenty years?

Why do some Full Gospel people fail to receive healing, while some sinner is healed the first night?

In Fort Smith, Arkansas I failed to get to a dear old saint when I should. She felt discouraged. But a little Baptist lady, who had never been to a Full Gospel service but once in her life, jumped from a wheel chair, in which she had sat for eighteen long years! She was healed and is walking!

The first lady was depending on what she had done for God. The next lady was depending on what God had done for her!

TOTALLY BLIND HEALED

One night in Bearden, Arkansas a lady who was totally blind was healed. She could read the Bible the next day. A preacher came to me and said, "That lady is not faithful. She does not come to church much. Here I am, a preacher, and I was not healed!"

"That is the reason," I said, "you are depending on being a preacher, and the lady was depending on, not what she has done, but what Jesus has done."

I asked a man in Oakland, California if he believed that the Lord would heal him.

"He certainly ought to," replied the pious man, "I've done enough for Him; I've been preaching for thirty years."

He had depended on what he had done, and received nothing, while scores of others were healed because they trusted in the merits of Jesus!

TOTALLY DEAF HEALED

Not long ago a lady was saved, filled with the Spirit and healed in about one minute—she had been totally deaf for thirty years—but the pastor told me not to publish her testimony, because of the life which she had lived in the past.

This pastor had been praying thus: "I thank you, Lord, because I am not as this lady. I fast twice each week. I pay my tithes and teach a class."

He didn't receive anything, while this poor woman had prayed, "Lord, be merciful to me, a sinner."

THE LAME WALK

In a recent revival a man who could not walk, arose and walked. Soon he ran me a foot race up the road. His wife, who had been dumb nine months was filled with the Spirit as soon as she became willing to obey God. Both of them were filled with the Holy Ghost. But one man thought they should not be accepted into the church, because of their reputation.

But look! They had been translated into the kingdom of God and become citizens of another country in a moment of time! They acknowledged they were not worthy, but they trusted in the merits of Jesus!

CANCER DISAPPEARS!

In Malvern, Arkansas, a man who had been faithful to the church for many years seemed to become bitter because he was not healed instantly.

In the same revival, a lady, who had smoked cigarettes for seventeen years, was delivered, filled with the Spirit, and healed in one moment of time! The day before she was sent home from the hospital to die with cancer. In five minutes after she was healed, her waist line shrank—nine inches. Hundreds of people saw it! She went home and traded her size fourteen dress for a size nine.

The man who did not receive healing thought this poor lady should not testify, because she had been a "street walker." But she was not a street walker any more! She was as pure and clean as any member there. She had the right attitude and approach to Christ. She trusted in Him, "with Whose stripes we are healed."

WHEEL CHAIR EMPTIED

We had several wheel chair cases in our tent meeting in Duncan, Oklahoma. I remember one lady who grew discouraged because she was not prayed for the first night. She would not come back. Another lady who was not prayed for kept coming back. My wife went to her to encourage her, but she encouraged my wife! She said the Lord knew all about it, and would help her.

On the last of the healing line, the last night of the campaign, after everyone else had been prayed for, the Lord said, "This is the time." At a word this lady jumped from the wheel chair completely healed!

Why?

It was because she did not feel like God owed it to her. She did not feel that God was obligated to her. She did not feel that she had done anything to pay for her healing. She knew that she was not worthy, while the other lady felt that she was worthy to be healed the first night!

HEART TROUBLE LEAVES

Not long back a millionaire came through the healing line. He stopped me and asked, "Do you remember who I am?"

With the advent of the H-Bomb, cities of the nations are now beginning to plan for vast underground shelters of refuge.

When Men Hide In the Rocks

By Gordon Lindsay

GOD has spoken of two things that the nations of the earth will do just before the Coming of Christ. These peoples will be divided into two different groups each fulfilling willingly or unwillingly a certain commandment of God. And what one group will do will be opposite to what the other will do. To one the command given is to "look up." "And when these things begin to come to pass, then look up and lift up your heads; for your redemption draweth nigh. (Luke 21:28) To the other group an opposite command is given. They are to look down into the holes and the rocks of the earth to seek to hide themselves from that which will come upon them. Of this latter command, we read in Isaiah:

"Enter into the rock, and hide thee in the dust, for the fear of the Lord, and for the glory of his majesty. The lofty looks of man shall be humbled, and the haughtiness of men shall be bowed down and the Lord alone shall be exalted in that day. For the day of the Lord of hosts shall be upon every one that is proud and lofty, and upon every one that is lifted up; and he shall be brought low: . . . And they shall go into the holes of the rocks, and into the caves of the earth, for fear of the Lord, and for the glory of his majesty, when he ariseth to shake terribly the earth." (Isa. 2:10-12, 19)

A similar prophecy is found in Revelation 6:15:

"And the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chief captains, and the mighty men, and every bond man, and every free man, hid themselves in the dens and in the rocks of the mountains."

So here we have two contrasting prophecies which will be fulfilled just before the coming of Christ. To the one group is the command is given to look up for their redemption draweth nigh. These are they who are looking for the return of Christ. But to the others, the command calls for a looking down. For these people are to flee into the rocks and the dens, and in the dust and the underground passages of the earth. Although these prophecies in the past were commonly thought by many to be only figurative, it is now evident that they are to be literally fulfilled. To understand the significance of this last prophecy, let us note the latest developments concerning the H-Bomb.

H-Bomb Can Now Be Carried to Any Part of the World

A few weeks ago, another historic blast of the Hydrogen bomb took place. Of course, an H-Bomb explosion is not something new. H-Bombs have been in the news for several years. The public has been kept well informed of their terrible and almost incredible power. Powerful as was the original A-Bomb—the first one falling on Hiroshima taking well over 100,000 lives—yet the H-Bomb is a thousand times greater. Such destructive power is surely beyond the power of the mind of man to comprehend. The Hydrogen bomb is literally 20,000,000 times more powerful than the average bomb dropped from a plane in the last war!

The Real News About the H-Bomb

But the real news about the H-Bomb is this. Until recently such a bomb could not be carried in an airplane. There was a lot of bulky apparatus required to properly detonate it. An H-Bomb had to be carried in the hold of a large ship. Any weapon that must be transported in that manner could not be an important factor in warfare. The significant news concerning the recent H-Bomb explosion is that the bomb was carried in an airplane!

Russia has the H-Bomb and so this development indicates that Russia is also able, or will be in a short time, to fly such weapons by bombing plane to American cities. To make the news even more ominous, it is known that Russia now has a fleet of powerful jet bombers that equal or exceed those of America in number and possibly in power. General Le May, head of the American Airforce, recently made the statement that at the rate things are developing, Russian airpower by the year 1959 may well be ahead of that of America. He states, and the conclusion is fairly universal among U. S. military men, that our present defense could under no conceivable circumstances shoot down all enemy planes should a large fleet of them determine to bomb our cities.

Power of the H-Bomb Shown by Recent Statement

Nothing demonstrates the frightful power of the H-Bomb more than a statement made a few weeks ago. The news leaked out that the H-Bomb which was recently dropped, had missed its target some four miles. An argument then followed as to the cause of such a great error. But a government spokesman, though he admitted that the bomb was four miles off the target, contended that this was of no consequence, since the fireball of the H-Bomb itself was of that diameter. What kind of a diabolical creation is such a bomb, that a miss of four miles makes no difference in its effectiveness? Actually the fact is that the radio-active ash which accompanies an H-Bomb explosion can and has taken lives a hundred or more miles away.

PRICES' SEE FIRST OUTPOURING IN THAILAND

By Anna Jeanne Price

Don Price

Anna Jeanne Price, daughter of Rev. Jack Moore, co-founder of The Voice of Healing, was formerly the assistant editor of TVH before her marriage to Rev. Don Price.

DURING The Voice of Healing Convention last fall, the Lord spoke to us to go to the Far East. Though for months He had been calling us to overseas work, we were surprised at being directed to the Orient. We had somewhat expected to go back to Europe, but never to Asiatic peoples! Besides, we had just launched into television evangelism, which was being well received, and it looked improbable that we could leave anytime soon.

However, the spoken Word of the Lord stood sure, and by February we had terminated activities at home, arranged to leave our two babies and were on the way to the little-known country of Thailand (Siam) in Southeast Asia with the Osborn's, to share in mass evangelistic efforts there. After two meetings, they were asked to leave, because of the stir the meetings had caused, but we were granted permission to stay and continue two months longer, during which time we saw the Lord work mightily in healing, saving and baptizing with His Spirit. It was our privilege to see the very first outpouring of the Holy Ghost in that Buddhist country. Sacrificial missionaries had labored through the years, but seemingly this was just God's time to begin pouring out His Spirit upon the Siamese people. When we saw those poor, ignorant natives, as well as those of the educated class, receiving this wonderful Holy Spirit Baptism, we knew that this was God's reason for sending us.

And as rapidly as the fire fell, it began to spread, not only in the city, but in the country. God led us to go far into the interior, to prove to the native preachers that the healing campaigns would be effective in the smaller places as well as among the masses. The "Azusa Street" of Thailand, where God chose to begin this outpouring, was deep in the jungles of the country's most primitive province. Physically, the price was great, but spiritually the reward was greater. Today those native preachers and Christians who were empowered by the Holy Ghost are going everywhere spreading the message.

Rev. Verner Raassina, the first Pentecostal missionary to go there 8 years ago writes:

"It is the opinion of the writer that every salvation-healing revival should be followed by an outpouring of the Holy Spirit in which newly born-again and healed believers would be filled. This is the will of God. We three Finnish missionaries had labored in the interior of the country over 5 years. We had seen scores of people turn to the Lord, and build their own chapel, but only one had received the Baptism in the Holy Spirit. Then God sent to us Brother Price, the instrument in His hand through which the blessing would flow. He would teach them from the Word and then lay hands on them and they received it just like in the Bible, speaking with new tongues, and even prophesying. Shouts of "Alleluia, Sanrasern Prachau" would arouse the villagers and they would run to the meeting to see what was going on. When they would see their neighbors being healed of many diseases and so filled with joy they were astounded. This revival spread all over and now it is happening everywhere.

"We beg the Price's to come back after the rainy season and bring a tent to start campaigns all over this barren land. God has chosen His servants to bring a mighty outpouring of the Holy Spirit over the Land of the Yellow Robe, Thailand, a country of 18,000 Buddhist temples and 300,000 yellow-robed priests, the stronghold of present-day Buddhism, and a country of only a handful of Christians."

Jesus and the Legion of the Damned

Sermon by Rev. William Branham

I want to read to you this afternoon about the man possessed of the legion of evil spirits. It could be truly said that this man dwelt with the legion of the damned. I am reading from Mark 5.

"And they came over unto the other side of the sea, into the country of the Gadarenes. And when he was come out of the ship, immediately there met him out of the tombs a man with an unclean spirit, who had his dwelling among the tombs; and no man could bind him, no, not with chains: (Please read verses 4-13)."

I can see Jesus that night as they were crossing the sea, with the waves roaring. Why did He take that chance of crossing the sea that night, after teaching during the day and healing the sick? Because over in another land, in Gadara, one soul was calling for Him. Just think of crossing a sea like that just to save one soul—to heal one person. He will come from Glory this afternoon to set any one of you free! Just let Him find the sincere heart that He can get into, and He will come any hour of the day or night. I am happy for that; to know that He is my refuge—a very present help in time of trouble.

We do not have any record of anyone else in the land of Gadara being helped at this time but this maniac. Think of that poor man in that condition. Perhaps at one time he had been a good citizen. Let us draw on our imagination. Perhaps some of the crowd came along and got him to stay away from church, or to go away from God. Next thing you know, the devil had him on the next step and maybe he started drinking. And so he just kept on backsliding. After a time the devil drove him insane. There he was, insane, and living in the tombs. He must have been a terrible character. They bound him with fetters, but he could break them as though they were nothing. It was not his human strength. It was the devil's strength doing it. The devil is powerful, but God is more powerful.

I remember seeing little sister Carter, whose limbs were not much larger than a broomstick. She had been lying there for about nine years and eight months. When the power of God struck her, she got up and ran over to the organ and played, Jesus, Keep Me Near the Cross. She is living today, eleven years after she was healed. She hasn't been bedridden once since then. Someone asked, "How did she walk?" I replied, "The power of the living God held her up." She submitted to the power of God.

When you see me, your brother, having a vision, that is nothing else but me submitting to the Holy Spirit. You who are sick can submit yourself to the Holy Spirit and no affliction can hold you. You are healed by the power of God. You are well, and you can give your testimony. You who are sinful can be set free. Just yield yourself completely to God, and see what takes place. That's the essence of the whole thing. There is no secret to it. When you submit yourself to God, it is not you any longer, but it is the Lord who does it. Aren't you happy that we have this opportunity today?

Possibly Legion would come to himself once in a while, and he would wonder, "What am I doing here?" Chains would be on him and his body all cut. Then the devil would throw him into another spell. Perhaps he might think of his wife and children during his rational moments.

When Jesus' boat reached land and they started up from the shore, here came this man from the graveyard. Notice where the devil made him live. That is a good hang-out for the devil—around a dead place. It is true today; the person who is dead in trespasses and sins, and who does not believe in the power of the resurrection of the Lord, is living in a graveyard.

Some of these formal churches which have a form of godliness but deny the power thereof are like that. They might say about the power of God, "That's all worked up. It's all mental and psychological." The devils that drive them to that conclusion are shrewd. The high priests and scribes in Jesus' day who denied Jesus Christ, were highly polished Bible scholars. That same religious devil influences people today.

Now as soon as Jesus came, this man came running up and wanted to be very religious. That's the way the devil does. The devil can be religious, smart, scholarly, and polished.

Then this maniac fell down and worshipped Jesus. You might ask, "Would the devil do that?" Why, Judas even kissed Jesus when he betrayed Him. Religious spirits. The Bible says to try the spirits to see whether they are of God.

You will find this religious spirit down through every age. The devil's spirit has always denied the real genuine Spirit of God. Every time that the Spirit of God comes, signs and wonders follow.

When Balaam went down to curse Israel, he built seven altars and made a sacrifice. That is exactly what the Israelites did. Now the Lord tried to restrain Balaam from doing this, through the dumb ass, but he came down anyway and built the seven altars, just as Jehovah required, and seven clean sacrifices. But where Balaam failed was that he did not see the pillar of fire that was with the Israelites. Balaam thought to himself, "Well, I am fundamental, so I will sacrifice what Jehovah requires and then go and put a curse on those people—those people who were having those healing services. Moses put a serpent on a rod, and whosoever looked at it was made well. They had all kinds of signs and wonders from God. That is what made them what they were—those children of God."

Balaam thought that he would curse them. Fundamentally speaking, he was as fundamental as they were, and so he made his sacrifice and brought the doctors of divinity around, and they stood around the sacrifice saying, "Great Jehovah, you know that we are scholarly, a great nation; stop these people." But God had spoken to Balaam and told him only to say what God would put in his mouth, so down he went and when he saw Israel he said,

Here is the story of how this mighty move of God began in 1906. Now, 50 years later, ministers of many groups are planning a great Jubilee Convention which will be held in Los Angeles, September 16-23, using facilities of Angelus Temple.

Old Azusa Street Mission

SEVERAL global trouble spots are currently setting the stage for a series of serious world-shaking events that may herald the coming of our Saviour again to earth. At the same time in one accord men filled with the Holy Spirit and on fire for God are setting the stage for meeting with God on His terms that may shake the world in a greater way than all the atom or hydrogen bombs could ever do.

The true meaning of the scriptural injunction, that "in the day that men seek me with a whole heart, I will be found of them" is a theme now burning in the hearts of a large group of ministers and laymen in Southern California.

Diligently, prayerfully and seeking the Spirit's guidance, this group made up of every organized segment of Pentecost has for some time now been meeting each Wednesday in an all-day prayer and committee meeting planning an old-fashioned, soul-stirring, Spirit-seeking, four-meeting-a-day observance of the Golden Anniversary of the out-pouring of the Holy Spirit on the saints gathered at the old Azusa Street Mission in Los Angeles in 1906. Denominational barriers and doctrinal difference mean nothing to this earnest group of Pentecostal Christians seeking a new outpouring of God's Holy Spirit.

Some of these men were at the Azusa visitation. Now aged and grey, their words burn with fervor, and fire the younger men of Pentecost to a greater vision to seek God as did men 50 years ago.

Pentecost's falling in our time had as humble a beginning as it did on the first Pentecost nearly two thousand years ago in the obscure "upper room" in the city of Jerusalem.

And, judging from the effects of the twentieth century revival of God's power which we have observed the world over, the results were comparable in shaping men's thoughts toward the coming again of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. As God began his "latter rain" outpouring around the world, in Los Angeles, California, came a deluge which is described in Henry Fordham's book and by quotes made directly from old saints of God who were there.

It was in the year 1906 that the power of God fell upon praying saints; seven received the Baptism with the Holy Spirit, even though they did not know what it was all about, and began to speak with other tongues. The shouts of praise were so tremendous that it made an uproar similar to those of the day of Pentecost. It was soon noised abroad that God was blessing His people with a gracious visitation. Interested parties came from everywhere. The good news spread fast and by morning there was no possibility of getting near the place. The sick were healed, sinners were saved as they came through the doors into the presence of a power-deluged people.

Thus is briefly yet graphically described the all-important event that took place in an old two-story building which had been used as a Methodist Church at one time, at 312 Azusa Street in Los Angeles.

Amid squalor in the vicinity of a tombstone shop, lumber yard and livery stables no one complained of the round-the-clock

'THIS CURE IS A MIRACLE'

By PETER FORBES

DR. KENNETH SYMONDS, surgeon and physician, sat in his room at the Swansea hospital where he is the senior medical officer and said:—
"I must affirm that the recovery of Melita Floyd is nothing less than a miracle—perhaps the greatest miracle of modern times. It has nothing whatever to do with bottles of medicine and the skill of doctors."
THAT IS, INDEED, THE ONLY POSSIBLE WAY OF EXPLAINING WHAT HAS HAPPENED TO 35-YEAR-OLD MISS FLOYD.

For 30 years she was a total cripple, tied to a bed and unable even to sit up or even move her legs. Doctors pronounced her case as hopeless.

Today, with the aid of sticks, she can walk. From her home with her married sister in Park-street, Neath, she goes shopping.

She can type. She is learning to play the piano. She is the girl who came back from the grave. And her cure, according to Dr. Symonds, is entirely due to another woman and to the faith both she and Melita have in the healing powers of God.

It is three years ago since Mrs. Elsie Salmon, the wife of a Methodist minister, laid hands on Melita Floyd at a healing service in Treherbert Methodist Church.

At once the miracle happened. But no one has dared to talk about it in case Miss Floyd suffered a relapse.

Melita Floyd spent 30 years of her life like this: Today the "hopeless cripple" can walk.

But now there is no doubt about it. She is permanently cured. In the first three months after the service she grew SEVENTEEN INCHES.

Dr. Symonds is best able to describe Miss Floyd's condition, for as senior medical officer of the Bible College Hospital at Swansea, he has had a close knowledge of her case for 16 years.

On the day of the service she was completely paralysed as the result of tuberculosis of the spine. She weighed a mere 35 pounds.

Her legs were no thicker than a man's thumb and they were permanently bent under her.

"I have never seen such an advanced case of this kind," Dr. Symonds told me. "Physically, Miss Floyd was a complete wreck. She was beyond all hope."

"Wanted To Die"

Her condition was made worse by her mental condition, for her mother, who was her constant nurse and companion, had just died. Grief of the separation was intense for the daughter.

In Miss Floyd's own words: "On the night of the service I just wanted to die and be with my mother."

But friends insisted on carrying her to the church for the healing service.

Melita Floyd describes what happened in these words:

"Mrs. Salmon placed her hands on me. She began to pray. Suddenly I felt something very cold, like ice. A white mist seemed to come up in front of me.

"It was a wonderful white, and then suddenly it broke. And out of the mist came the Saviour himself — just His head and His hands.

"I was lost and I said: 'Oh, Lord Jesus, You have got my mother and I no longer mind... just to spend eternity with You.'"

Then Melita found herself back in the church, with Mrs. Salmon, who kissed her and said: "You will walk, my dear."

Only then did the miracle begin.

Two days later Melita was at home in her bed when there was a sharp cracking noise.

"What's that?" called her sister.

"It's coming from inside me," said Melita.

And it was so. Every day for the next three months the cracking noises could be heard all over her room, and her legs began to move.

Rapidly, her weight increased and soon Melita found she could sit up without support.

Then came the day when she left her bed and dressed.

So it went on, month after month, a recovery so astonishing that Dr. Symonds could scarcely believe it.

"It is a miracle that to me is unshakable proof that the works of the Lord know no bounds," he told me.

"I have reported her case to the General Medical Council and I would welcome the opportunity of discussing it with my medical colleagues."

"Through me God has cured hundreds of people," Mrs. Salmon told me. "In Melita's case I agree with Dr. Symonds—it is the greatest miracle since Pentecost."

There is no doubt of the healing powers of Mrs. Salmon. Since leaving Melita Floyd's home I have heard and investigated other remarkable cases.

In next Sunday's "People" I will report on these, too.

A Supernatural Warning from God

ON the night of January 14, 1956 I went home with a friend of mine to spend the night in the town of Clarkton, Missouri. We had been to church, and the three of us, my friend, her husband, and I were sitting around the stove discussing God and His great miracles in these last days. I was right in the middle of a sentence when something happened that startled the three of us almost out of our chairs. It was a very loud noise right close to us in the room where we were sitting. It sounded like something real heavy had hit the floor and split the flooring. We all got up to look but there was not a thing to be seen. We took our seats again and were talking about the noise when the noise came again in the same place. The man of the house said, "We also heard two loud knocks last night in the same place, and I almost tore everything apart looking to see what it was, but couldn't find a thing." We went on talking about it and suddenly the loud noise came again for the third time in the same place. The man of the house said "I'd like to know what that is." I said, "I believe I know what it is, I believe it is a warning from God and if we will pray now I believe God will give us the meaning of it in a message." We bowed our heads and prayed and in a few moments a message in tongues came forth, then the interpretation was received by my friend, Sister Mary Ethel Harris, who has the Gift of Prophecy. The following message is from God:

"Harken! Harken! This is a warning from God. The noise that you just heard means, The Lord Jesus Christ is coming quickly, and great destruction is coming upon this world. Warn your children, warn thy people, go out and tell thy neighbors, tell everyone. Go out into the highways and the hedges, and homes and warn them, tell them to get ready, for behold! I come quickly! Behold! Woe! Woe! Behold! I come quickly. I will give my rewards according to their works. Behold! I stand at the door and knock, if any man will hear my voice I will come in and sup with him and he with me. Take a pencil and write these things and seal them in your heart—I say my people get ready because I come quickly. I come as a thief in the night when you least expect it. The time is at hand, the hour is for speed. Behold! I come in clouds of great glory. Every tongue shall confess, every knee shall bow before Jesus and every eye shall see him. I've come after my children that have made themselves ready. Backsliding Israel, return unto the Lord and I will return unto you. I am married to the backsliding, thus saith the Lord."

I asked the Lord in prayer to give my people a warning message. They live in New York. I thank and praise him for hearing and answering.

Voice Warns Mother of Approaching Disaster at Home

ONE Sunday morning, I left our four-year old daughter home while I went to church, as her Dad said that he would watch her. I felt a little worried because he had been working all the previous night.

About twenty-five minutes before the service would have been over, Something spoke directly in my ear, saying, "Hurry home, your girl is playing with fire and her father is asleep." I left the church quickly, and was even led along a path through a woods which helped me reach home in a shorter time. I found her throwing paper into the furnace. Papers were burning on the cement floor beside a basket of paper. If it had caught fire, we would have had to go through flames to reach her. I arrived home just in time to save her from being burned.

A Heavenly Escort

WHEN I was in my teens, I went to a P.T.A. meeting at Jefferson High School, Mt. Cobb, Pennsylvania. This is a rural area and I lived sort of at the end of the road—our nearest neighbors nearly a half mile away.

Due to the roads being very muddy my friends were unable to bring me all the way home after the meeting. The last mile I had to walk all alone, at perhaps 10:30 or later in the evening.

On the way, I met a young man of questionable character walking toward me. After passing him I got to thinking how easy it would be for him to head me off; for I knew he was aware of a short cut to my house. By the time I got to the ideal place for him to head me off, I was very much frightened. Instead of this fellow being there however, an Angel was there waiting for me. He stepped across the ditch and up into the road and stood beside me. He was a tall, slender person, perhaps six feet in height. As soon as I saw him, all fear left me. For the next quarter of a mile, he walked with me at my left. As long as I walked straight ahead, I had no fear. The rest of the way home, I walked straight ahead and watched him out of the corner of my eye. He walked with me right up to the porch steps, and as I stood at the foot of the steps, he walked around the corner of the house, and was gone.

I went on into the house feeling very thankful but so alone, because I didn't want him to leave me.

It was a wonderful experience which I shall never forget—angels are real!

MESSAGE TO THE CHURCH

THE LORD IS THE GUIDE, THE HEALER, THE DELIVERER
AND COMING KING OF HIS PEOPLE

Given by The Spirit of Prophecy

Not Yet Come Into His Full Will

"THOU art not far from the Kingdom of God in the way, or His will. Yea, thou hast come into His kingdom but thou hast not come into His full will. For there is a will to be broken among the sons of men, that the will of God may be brought forth. For there is fortitude even in the hearts of men by the will of God. For the will of God hath not suffered defeat throughout the past ages. Yet there have many discrepancies come that have withheld the blessings of God to those who have not fully consecrated themselves. For they have been marred before the Lord, even they who have been like the clay, even the clay that was marred in the hands of the potter. So the sons of men have been marred because of their will interrupting.

God Will Give Guidance

"But if thou wilt seek the face of thy God, if thou wilt do His will, thou shalt know the doctrine. Thou shalt know whether it is yea or nay. Thou shalt know whether it shall be to the south or to the north. For the word of the Lord that came unto Philip saying, 'Go thou south, even the word that came unto Philip, saying, Go, join thyself unto this chariot.' That same word He speaketh unto His people today. That speaketh unto them to say, go here and to go there. For the word of the Lord is written in Heaven, and the Lamb of God is the light thereof. For the glory of the Lord that shineth even shineth unto the perfect day bringeth forth the very image of Christ—bringeth His face to view—bringeth the knowledge of God in His faith—yea, bringeth the foreknowledge of God in His everlasting covenant.

Why Struggle — the Lord Is Your Healer

"For why wouldst thou strain and why wouldst thou struggle. For the word of the Lord has said unto thee, 'In returning and rest shall ye be saved. In quietness and confidence shall be her strength! For I, the Lord God, hath buckled thee. I have shielded thee. For I, the Lord God, am even a shield and a staff. I would have thee to buckle on this armor of mine. I would have thee gird on the armor of righteousness, that thou mayest go with the girdle of truth.

"O prepare ye for the slaughter, saith thy God. That the word of the Lord shall come forth, shall deliver that one who is in bondage, in death. Yea, even in the powers of darkness, in the works of insanity. In all walks of life where man is affected by the power of darkness, the Lord hath delivered. The Lord is the deliverer in Zion. The Lord is the deliverer in His Church. And He is the head of His Church. And that His head, even Himself, may be made known unto His Church, that she may gloriously triumph, yea, that she may be a glorious Church.

The Lord Is the Healer

"Now hath the Lord spoken that healing is the Divine act of the omnipotent God. Yea, it is the Divine act of a sovereign God. It is the Divine act of Him who would come down into the simple even to make things simple and clear, to make it clear that He may command, even to make it anew. And what is it to Him, yea, what is it to thee that He can make thy feet and thy hands anew? That He restored the withered arm, yea, that He restored the eye. He restored the blind eye to sight. Yea, knowest thou that He even lifted up the man at the pool, even at the pool He lifted him up. He said to him, Wilt thou be made whole? Then thou knowest that thou holdest the sword of the Spirit in thy hand. Therefore gird up the loins of thy mind and take this action against the forces of darkness that would hinder thee, to cause thee to dread and to fear. For thy God is a dreadful God, yet He is a God of love and a consuming fire.

Tell My People I Am Coming Soon

"O fear thou not, fail thou not to tell my people that I am coming soon. Fear thou not the faces of them who say that I have delayed My coming. Fear thou not that which cometh falsely. Yea that science so-called. Fear thou not those things that appear to be in the way of My coming. Fear thou not their message that saith the Lord must do this and that before He cometh. For he knoweth not what the Lord hath said, whether He should come in the first watch, or the second or the third. Let His servants be girded and be ready as one that goeth to meet Him Who cometh from the wedding.

"O love thou the Lord God with all thy heart. And lay thy hand upon the sick, and the blind again shall see. And the word of the Lord shall go forth and the rivers shall tremble. Yea, the trees shall clap their hands for joy, because of the word of the Lord. O seest thou not before thee a great pasture, a green one? A flock of sheep grazing therein with no shepherd. They must have a shepherd. Yea, they must have a shepherd, and though I am their shepherd, saith God, I have need of shepherds, even men who will stand.

The Lord as Boaz Reaches Out Bread

Yea, to My Church I would speak, that she shall triumph gloriously. That the word of the Lord hath not retreated, that the word of the Lord hath not been wasted. It hath not been lost in the darkness. There is a great trembling and a wrestling in the powers that be and so the arm of the Lord hath stretched out unto the Church to reach unto Her the Bread of Life as He reached it forth unto Ruth. Even as Boaz reached the parched corn across the table to Ruth, the Moabitess, so the Lord hath come and reached out His suffering hand, which is bread, which is life, which is deliverance.

There is Need of Deliverance from the Superficial Experience

"Yea, come thou apart my children, that ye may see this bread, for the world is hungry. O there is thirst for the water of life. There is thirst for the mighty baptism of the Holy Ghost. The outpouring of the spiritual gifts. There is a hunger for truth which is the word of God. There is a mighty need for a refilling among my people. Yea, a deliverance from that superficial experience that they have. And they shall go deeper and deeper and deeper, until they draw water out of the wells of salvation. For the Lord hath said that with joy will ye draw waters out of the wells of salvation. For the Lord God hath been made unto thee a well of salvation. And as Abraham's wells were filled with earth, and had to be digged again. Yea, had to be digged again by his own son, and his servant. So the wells of God must be cleared. They must be dynamited. Even the wells of faith, and peace, and hope. They have been so congested at times with the cares of life, with the exaltation of persons, with the powers of the flesh. These things cannot stand. But faith can bring forth the artesian flow. Even as the woman at the well did not understand and she could not see that I had something to draw with. There are many who ask this. Where shall it come? How shall it be done? But I have something to draw with. Yea, I have joy. I have joy. I have joy that I have brought to the earth. And I gave to the people of my hand that they may draw this water out of the wells of salvation. Therefore with joy and rejoicing shall ye go and stand in the sanctuary of God and proclaim unto them joy. Yea and proclaim unto them peace, saith God. For this is the hour of peace and deliverance. This is the hour of rejoicing.

Water Given as Unto Hagar

"Go thou now therefore and rejoice that I have many waiting for this message of rejoicing, though thou dost seem to come to expire. And though thou dost seem to come to thy wits end, knowest thou not that the word of God had spoken unto Hagar saying, What ailest thou? And so she saw and beheld the water that was provided for her and her outcast son. So I have many outcasts. So I have many among the heathen that need deliverance, that need to see that I have the water of life for them. Yea I have cast them out of my presence for a moment, I have reached down unto them by great mercies. And though Israel has seemed to be forsaken for a little moment, the Lord thy God hath spoken to her, to comfort her. Yea that is tossed by the tempest He hath said, comfort her. Thou shalt comfort Israel, O thou shalt redeem Israel through the blood of Christ. Through the spoken word thou shalt prove to her that Christ is her Redeemer, by signs and by wonders. By the mighty power of the laying on of hands. By the mighty power of proclaiming. Yea proclaim ye the word of the Lord, and exalt it higher and higher.

Greater Works to be Done

"Yea, speak ye all the works of the Lord. For everyone that believeth in Him as He is and shall do as He will do, He shall do the works that He did, and even greater works shall he do. And even now greater works shall be done, and the mighty works of God are being manifested, for the sons of God are in armor. The sons of God are moving forward as soldiers. They must stand fast; they must invade the invisible; they must take captivity captive; They must rescue men and women and children, saith God. Now restore unto them who have need of restoration, the word of the Lord. Restore unto them who have need of healing, the help of God. Restore unto them who have need of sight, and of hearing, all those blessings that God hath provided, saith the Lord. And He will have thee to know that thou shalt pray always for all men. And thou shalt not faint. But lift up holy hands without wrath and doubting. And thou must take the sword of the Spirit which is the word of God which shall always prevail over the powers of darkness. So be it unto thee, saith thy God, till He shall call thee to Himself.

Daughters to Prophecy — Men to Do Exploits

"Be thou steadfast in the faith. Be not wavering nor fearful. Be not doubtful. Be thou triumphant, for Jesus thy Lord hath gone on before thee, and hath made thee sons of redemption; hath made thee daughters of prophecy, yea to bring forth the word of God, even as Hulda and Hannah. Yea, as others and Deborah hath brought forth the word of the Lord. So shall the daughters prophesy, and so shall the men do great exploits. And so shall they both together go forth and ride triumphantly in this hour of victory.

Time for White Horse to Appear

"For it is the time, yea the time of the white horse of victory. For He that cometh upon the white horse, yea, Whose vesture is dipped in blood, and upon Whom was written the word of God, surely the armies of heaven are coming, also with Him upon white horses, even upon great power, clean and pure and white in the sight of the Lord. Filth shall not stand. Filth shall not appear. But the whiteness, the cleanness of the saints of God who have been made righteous through His blood, shall stand in that day, in victory over all the forces of evil.

United Church to Come Forth as a Pearl

"O my children even as the pearl is brought forth as a jewel, as the diadem, so the church of the living God is being brought forth, even at a great price, even with the blood of her Lord, even with the death of her Lord, even with the resurrection of her Lord. Therefore she must be one, yea she must be united together in one, that she may be that pearl that shall stand out and glitter for the world. And she shall also be a united church, that there will be many pearls, even small ones, even large ones, all graduating in their sizes and places to beautify the God of glory, the God of Abraham. Yea to show forth the glory of God. So shall they be as pearls. There is another jewel that is distinctive, even the diamond, but the pearl is the greatest of all, being brought forth from a living creature, being brought forth from the Lord God, being brought forth from the church of the living God, being brought forth to shine as the stars forever and ever. Being brought forth, yea, as she that looketh forth as the morning, fair as the moon, bright as the sun, and terrible as an army with banners.

Joy of Lord Will Ward Off Sickness

"O go thou forth now and rejoice in the whiteness of the purity of the Shekinah of the glory of the Lord that excelleth that of Solomon, that excelleth that of Moses, that excelleth that of all the prophets which they foresaw. Yet they knew those things were not for them but they have been given unto us, saith the Lord. Hath been given unto us, saith the Apostle Peter, who hath said this salvation is things sent down from Heaven. And things they are; things from God. Things to glorify Him Who liveth forever and ever. Even in the jewels of God and even in the gems of God, and even also in the joy of God, yea, which is your strength, which is your power. Even the joy of the Lord will ward off sickness and darkness and the powers of evil. There thou now are to go forth and search for pearls. Yea, that thou mayest search for pearls in the sands of the earth. Yea they have been scattered, they have been broken, they have been lost. But now the Lord is bringing them from the heathen lands, from the islands of the sea. Yea, he is bringing them from Africa, India, China. He is bringing them from all over the earth. He is delivering them, He is bringing them face to face together, to see the Lord in His glory. Yea, seek ye these pearls, saith God."

The Kingdom of God

By John and Olive M. Kellner

The law and the prophets were until John, since that time the Kingdom of God is preached, and every man presseth into it. Luke 16:16. And in the Gospel of Matthew, chapter 11 and verse 12, Jesus said, From the days of John the Baptist until now the Kingdom of Heaven suffereth violence and the violent take it by force

Jesus Brought the Kingdom of God

JESUS here declares that the Kingdom of God can be pressed into and taken by force or as William's translation of Matthew 11:12 states, "Those who take it by storm are seizing it as a precious prize." Indeed it is a precious prize, worth pressing into, storming and seizing it by violence!

Jesus came bringing and revealing the Kingdom of God. He is the King of the Kingdom. Pilate asked Him, "Art Thou a King?" Jesus answered, "Thou sayest it, to this end was I born."

He preached, "The Kingdom of God is at hand." Or the Kingdom of God is within reach, within grasp. Whose reach? Whose grasp? Yours and mine. And in the Greek, the rendering is "ready." The Kingdom of God is Ready!

What Is the Kingdom of God?

In Luke 8:1... "Jesus went throughout every city and village, PREACHING and SHEWING the glad tidings of the Kingdom of God." In the other Gospels it is thus worded, as in Matthew 4:23, "Jesus went about... PREACHING the Gospel and HEALING all manner of sickness and all manner of disease among the people."

Now the word, "SHEWING," in Luke 8:1 in the Greek means, "to exhibit, to demonstrate, to prove and to set forth." Healing the sick and casting out devils, opening the eyes of the blind, unstopping deaf ears and making the lame to walk was, "SHEWING" the glad tidings of the Kingdom, exhibiting and demonstrating the glad tidings of DELIVERANCE.

In Matthew 12:28 Jesus said, "If I cast out devils by the Spirit of God, then the Kingdom of God IS come unto you." Casting out devils and healing the sick IS THE KINGDOM OF GOD IN ACTION!

Paul writes in 1 Corinthians 4:20, "The Kingdom of God is NOT IN WORD but in POWER." This word, word, in the Greek is, not "in talk, topic, discourse, mental reasoning, account or mouth," but in POWER, which in the Greek definition means, "force, special miraculous power, a miracle, mighty deed, worker of miracles, strength, mighty wonderful work, ability and abundance." That's the Kingdom of God!

John and Olive M. Kellner

Can Be Seen and Heard

The Kingdom of God can be heard and seen. This is exhibited in Philip's great revival in Samaria. Acts 8:6 declares, "The people with one accord gave heed unto those things which Philip spake, HEARING and SEEING the miracles which he did." What did they hear? Acts 8:12 tells us, "They believed Philip preaching the things concerning THE KINGDOM OF GOD." What did they see? MIRACLES! "For unclean spirits crying with loud voice, came out of many that were possessed with them; and many taken with palsies, and that were lame, were HEALED." Acts 8:7.

Given to Disciples

Jesus gave the Kingdom to the Disciples. In Luke 12:32, He said, "It is your Father's good pleasure to give you the Kingdom." And in Luke 8:10, "Unto you it is given to know the mysteries of the Kingdom of God." Then again in Matthew 16:19, "I will give unto thee the keys of the Kingdom of Heaven and whatsoever thou shalt bind on earth shall be bound in Heaven; and whatsoever thou shalt loose on earth shall be loosed in Heaven." Here He plainly declares that the keys of the Kingdom is the power to bind the powers of Satan and to loose the captives and bring them deliverance. So Jesus sent forth the Disciples and "gave them power and authority over all devils and to cure diseases. And He sent them to preach the Kingdom of God and to heal the sick." Luke 9:1, 2. Luke 8:6 declares, "they departed and went through the towns, PREACHING THE GOSPEL and HEALING EVERYWHERE."

How Do We Get Into the Kingdom?

Jesus answered this question to Nicodemus in John 3, "Except a man be born again, he cannot SEE the Kingdom of God." But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God... because they are spiritually discerned. 1 Cor. 2:14. And again Jesus said, "Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he CANNOT ENTER the Kingdom of God."

How do we become born again? John answers this in John 1:12-13, "As many as received Him (Jesus), to them gave He power to become the Sons of God, even to them that believe on His name: Which were BORN, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man BUT OF GOD."

Our Authority In the Kingdom

Jesus left the authority of the Kingdom in the great commission to us in Mark 16:15-18 where He commanded us to preach the Gospel to all the world and thus to make disciples and that the demonstration, exhibition and shewing the glad tidings of the Kingdom of God would be accompanying those who thus preach and believe, in casting out devils, speaking in new tongues and laying on hands on the sick and they should recover.

The message of DELIVERANCE is the Gospel of the Kingdom. Casting out devils and healing the sick is the Kingdom of God in action. And Jesus declared that it is ready, within your grasp and within your reach.

Praise God, the Kingdom of God is still in force today. It is not empty words but it's word, it's preaching is with power. Paul writes in 1 Corinthians 2:4, "MY speech and my preaching was not with enticing words of man's wisdom but in demonstration of THE SPIRIT and of POWER." And in Rom. 15:18-19 he declares he made the Gentiles obedient, "by WORD and DEED, through MIGHTY SIGNS AND WONDERS by the power of the Spirit of God."

To Be Preached To All Nations

Jesus said in Matt. 24:14, "And THIS GOSPEL OF THE KINGDOM shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations and then shall the end come." This GOSPEL OF THE KINGDOM which can be seen as well as heard, demonstrating and exhibiting it's deliverance spiritually and physically is I believe what Jesus referred to. And it is this Gospel that is being taken to the heathen today that is turning them to God by the thousands.

REPORTS FROM THE KELLNER MEETINGS

PASTOR'S REPORTS

From: Rev. Wm. H. Dickinson, Pastor
Presbyter of the New York District of the Assemblies of God

We are happy to report that meetings held with John and Olive Kellner resulted in great blessing in church and community. Many came for salvation.

Most remarkable cases of physical deliverances took place, such as the restoration of sight, hearing and smelling. Varicose veins and growths disappeared, the crippled walked and pain vanished. As various ailments were discerned and evil spirits cast out, bodies of suffering ones were restored to normal.

We feel that Carthage, N. Y., has had ONE OF THE GREATEST VISITATIONS FROM HEAVEN and ALL because of JESUS!

Sunday school reached a new high in attendance on the last day of the Feast.

It could be said of the Kellners that "they gave," therefore they received a great harvest in Carthage.

From: Rev. Charles Flach, Pastor, Alcove
Full Gospel Church, Alcove, N. Y.

The first night of the meetings a man came from Saratoga Springs who had been in an auto accident and had been wearing a steel back brace. The doctor said he would have to wear the brace the remainder of his life. God healed him that night and he came back and testified that he could work without the brace and did not need it any more.

Another Sister who had worn a knee cap supporter for over 40 years was also healed. Some were healed in the general prayer each evening.

One lady who was crippled with arthritis and had to be carried into the service, walked out unaided. She had been unable to put her feet flat on the floor because of the excruciating pain.

Another Brother who had been deaf in one ear for about 2 years testified that he could now hear with that ear.

We are truly grateful for the ministry of Brother and Sister Kellner and we thank God for these precious servants of the Lord whom God is using so graciously. We appreciated so much their concern over each individual that was prayed for and we are also thankful for the souls who accepted Christ as their Saviour.

We are anxiously looking forward for the return of the Kellners next year as they minister to us in an area-wide Campaign.

Delivered from Swelling in Leg

cluding myself.

For many months I have suffered with swelling of my left leg and always had to wear an elastic stocking. I could not hear in my right ear from a distance. As Sister Kellner was praying, I felt the power of God flow through my body and side of my ear. Praise the Lord, it was wonderful! Now I can hear and my leg is healed and I have not worn an elastic stocking since. "Isn't Jesus wonderful!" I can now work in the store in comfort.

Another time Sister Kellner prayed for my right eye, which was short sighted. Glory to Jesus and His wonderful healing power, I see from a distance. What's impossible with man, is possible with God.

All praise to our precious Lord.

Pastor's Confirmation

Johnny Mason, 3-year and 2-month-old son of Mrs. Jewell Mason of Bemidji, Minn., who had never walked and could not talk, was brought Sunday evening, May 20, 1956, to the salvation-healing campaign which was being held in the Gospel Tabernacle by Evangelists Olive and John Kellner of Geneva, N. Y.

Johnny was prayed for that evening and started walking alone that night for the first time. He was brought back on Wednesday evening and prayed for again as his right foot was turned out. After prayer his foot straightened just like the other one. He now walks almost continually and is so happy to walk like other children and is beginning to talk.

Back Healed

April 1, 1956

June 1, 1955, I was in an automobile accident and injured my back. After several treatments by my doctor, he ordered a brace which I had worn until March 11, 1956. At Alcove, N. Y., Sister Kellner prayed for me. I haven't worn the brace since and have had no pain. I do praise the Lord for healing me.

May God bless you both, Sister and Brother Kellner, in your great ministry.

Evangelist's Note—Mr. Gonyo was prayed for March 11 at Alcove, N. Y., and on Easter Sunday, April 1, in the Palace Theatre at Troy, N. Y., in the closing service of the Alcove-Troy Meeting, he gave his testimony, showing his brace. He told the people that the doctor told him he would have to wear it the rest of his life but since he was prayed for, he no longer needed it.

meetings of praise, glory, manifestation, and wonderful infilling and indwelling of God's mighty power in humble praying men and women.

Race, color or church affiliation presented no barrier. Both the preaching and the men who did it were simple. The power fell on hungry waiting people and altars were filled with men and women whom the Bible aptly described as "going everywhere preaching the gospel" which they received.

In an upper room of the old structure which had been cleared of junk and building materials to make way for the meetings, the sick and the afflicted were introduced to the Great Physician; and as the power fell, sickness had to go. Every kind of illness and affliction gave way before the expectant and faith-practicing saints so that men and women left the building praising God, later to return bringing others with them. Many never came back but boarded the next public conveyance home to spread the miraculous news there.

Ministers of every denomination came from everywhere to see what was going on. Most stayed to receive more of God, and then went out to change the name of their respective groups or to create churches which later grew into the prominent Pentecostal organization of today.

As on the day of Pentecost all races and nationalities heard the messages as the Holy Spirit graciously moved upon men and women who in turn spoke in a tongue divinely given to the speaker who had never learned it. One Irish Minister, very Galic in his accents, spoke and conversed freely with a group of Russians, bringing them to Christ; yet never in his life had he studied their language. This manifestation of God's power was not uncommon.

Naturally this made a public stir, newspaper men and journalists came to see, to sneer and to make fun of the outpouring, but many stayed to obtain the blessing and later go out and write the miraculous vision and make it plain.

Soul-shaking, life-changing, power-filling as the event was it could not keep its converts and recipients there. In the nearly four years of the visitation, men and women came, received, then went to scatter the word to the ends of the earth.

Today commercial buildings stand where the power of God so mightily swept down on waiting saints and where as on the initial day of Pentecost, the Holy Spirit sent them out to build monuments of faith to the moment when men and women were willing, as Donald Gee once said to "get down to business with God."

Slipping from human memory will soon be many of the small and personal details of that outpouring which came when an almost unknown Holiness preacher from Houston, Texas, Rev. J. W. Seymour, stopped off to hold a meeting in Los Angeles and found both frustration and a fulfillment of God's promises. But in the annals of glory down eternity's corridors will be sung and told the victories began in so humble a place.

Today, there is another "stirring in the mulberry bush," as men moved by the Holy Ghost in committee and prayer meeting, join together all Pentecostal faiths of our land in a time of memorial and expectancy celebrating the Golden Anniversary of the Great 1906 event this year in Los Angeles.

Let's then "get down to business with God" and look for the outpouring, as churches everywhere are urged to observe "Azusa week," September 16-23. Pentecostal people everywhere are urged to look toward the central meetings of this celebration which will use Angeles Temple, one of the largest full gospel church auditoriums in the world, its radio facilities, its prayer rooms, etc., in a four-meeting-daily program led by the greatest prayer and pulpit leaders of the full gospel movement, including Oral Roberts, Wm. Branham, and others. Pentecostal hearts are expecting another moving of God upon man as great as those in time past, but even beyond that, they are in it looking for the soon return of their King.

Without Him

I could not do without Him, Jesus is more to me,

Than all the richest gifts on earth could ever be.

The more I find Him precious and the more I find Him true,

The more I long for you to find what He can do for you.

What will you do without Him, is He not kind indeed?

Did He not die to save you? Is He not all you need?

Do you not want a Saviour? Do you not want a friend?

One who will love you faithfully and love you to the end?

What will you do without Him, When death is drawing near?

Without His love, the only love that casts out every fear.

When the shadow valley opens, unlighted and unknown,

And the terrors of its darkness, must all be passed alone.

What will you do without Him when He hath shut the door,

And you are left outside because you would not come before?

When it is no use knocking, no use to stand and wait.

The word of doom tolls through your heart, that terrible too late!

You could not do without Him, there is no other name

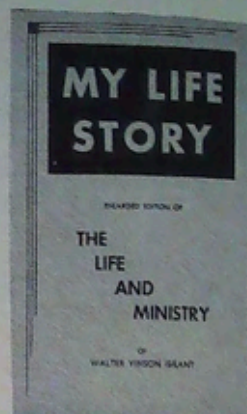

Or way by which you can be saved, no way, no hope, no claim

Without Him ever, everlasting loss of love and life and light

Without Him, everlasting woe and everlasting night.

FULL GOSPEL BUSINESS MEN HAVE GOD-ANOINTED CONVENTION IN MINNEAPOLIS

Breakfast at the Convention

Directors of the Full Gospel Business Men's Fellowship

By Mrs. Gordon Lindsay

I DIDN'T know that there are so many wealthy Full-Gospel Business Men serving the Lord today! This thrilled our hearts, especially so, since they were very humble and gave all the glory to God for their prosperity. Of equal importance was the fact that they not only pay tithes, but many give a large percentage of their income into God's work.

The Fourth Annual Full Gospel Business Men's Convention convened in the beautiful ball-room of the Leamington Hotel (accommodating 2000), on June 25-29, 1956, in Minneapolis, Minnesota (the state with 11,007 lakes).

Many hundred of people gathered for the first 8 A.M. breakfast on Monday — coming from far and near, Canada, Europe, Africa. Immediately after breakfast, the local pastors were introduced, among them, Gordon Petersen, the Russell Olsons, Kelly Merritt, the Frank Lindquists and many others. Sister Lindquist stirred the entire audience when she related how God had dealt with her. She told how she had gone to hear E. Stanley Jones on "How to Stay Healthy." He reminded the well-to-do audience that the cheapest thing they could give to God was their money. God wanted real men and real women. He spoke about resentment, jealousy, bitterness. Sister Lindquist said that God talked to her heart concerning these matters; she fell on her knees and prayed for forty-five minutes, along with many others, in that large denominational church. When she arose, she visited several local pastors and each poured out their past feelings — one toward the other. The love of God was shed abroad in their hearts, and the case of ulcers that Sister Lindquist felt she had, disappeared. A wonderful spirit of unity now prevails in Minneapolis, and so far as we could tell, all of the Full Gospel Churches had united to sponsor this Convention.

Nick Temko, an industrialist from Detroit, showed how the love of God had dealt with him, even as a child in the Catholic Church. But Temko didn't know how to reach out and take Christ as his Saviour. However, a number of years ago, his wife was saved, and after patiently inviting her husband to church for many months, God won out and this millionaire manufacturer surrendered his life to Christ. He has received the Holy Spirit, Who, he said, leads him in his daily problems at his two plants. He said that the devil tries to keep him in hot water, but the Lord brings deliverance!

Henry Krause of Hutchinson, Kansas, took a prominent part and had a most interesting testimony. When fourteen years of age, he was still in the fourth grade. He became so discouraged he left school while still in that grade, never to return, feeling he was incapable of learning and resigning himself to failure. But then God came into his life! Changed him completely, quickened his mind and gave him ideas that revolutionized the plow industry. In manufacturing his plows now, he uses two hundred tons of steel each day, and has been able to give many thousands of dollars annually for the promotion of God's kingdom.

Demos Shakarian, right and his father

Jewel Rose, the prosperous potato grower from California, preached a powerful sermon on Monday night, showing how God conducted his business. George Gardner, car-dealer from New York, ministered on Tuesday night, as well as praying for the sick. Arthur Lock spoke on Wednesday night — a masterful sermon on how God saved him from a life of sin, vice, drunkenness and dope. In this convention, the laymen preached and the preachers testified. Mel Johnson, an opera singer from Chicago, recently saved and filled with the Holy Ghost, thrilled the audience with his singing. Also Sven Bjork, the anointed Swedish singer, and Ben Swet, the bass soloist, with Florence Shakarian, lifted the congregation with their songs of victory.

Many other business men took part, including Ben Smart, Jack Moore, Clifford Ford, W. E. Shaw, Henry and A. C. Sorrelle, Miner Arganbright, Lee Braxton, Art Wilson, Judge Cook and Clayton E. Sonmore. In years past, we had heard testimonies of wealthy men who came to Christ. But their stories usually followed a similar pattern — "God took everything away from me, until I was poverty-stricken, so that I would serve Him." But many of these men retained their wealth and have now given it to God!

On Wednesday morning, God ordered a "Lubrication Service," when the whole audience was moved, some weeping, some laughing, some dancing in the Spirit, some prostrated, after which William Branham spoke.

Velmar Gardner, Raymond Richey, David Du Plessis, Sam Todd, Gordon Lindsay, Mordecai Ham (a leading Baptist evangelist) Don and Anna Jeanne Price ministered at various times. Tommy Hicks, TVH evangelist who has preached to the largest crowd ever in attendance at one time (400,000 in Argentina) preached with a rich anointing on Thursday night.

William Rowe, a foreign ambassador, who has served under seven United States presidents, and who is currently working under President Eisenhower, is a Christian, baptized according to Acts 2:4. He spoke on the closing night, awakening the hearts of the people to the perilous times in which we live. Jesus is coming sooner than we think, and what time, talents, and resources every individual has, he must use them for Jesus at once!

Since there were no afternoon services, during this time two banquets were held for the teen-agers, one for all the ladies and some for the men. A closing banquet was held for all on Friday night at 6:30.

Demas Shakarian, the president, did a splendid job as master of ceremonies. His love for those who worked with him, was clearly manifested to all, and was evidence both for God having placed him in this strategic position, and also for his success in unifying both the business men as well as the pastors, in a city. His wife faithfully played the organ in every service, as people were saved, healed and baptized with the Holy Ghost (including seven Lutheran ministers).

This was a convention well-worth anyone's time and money, be he minister or layman, and I found myself already making plans to attend the Fifth Annual!

He was the man who came to my rescue when I was in trouble a few years back. He was one of my best friends. I told him I remembered him. Just then the anointing lifted! He was not healed!

Another rich man came to a meeting not far from there. He belonged to the United Brethren Church. I don't think he ever had been to a Full Gospel Church. He wouldn't as much as come into the healing line. He sat on the front seat and said from the depth of his heart, "Blessed Lord, I am not worthy."

I slipped to where he was, and quietly prayed. He was filled with the Holy Ghost instantly. Nine cancers left his face. Within a few days he brought back a report from his physician that his incurable heart trouble was completely gone! He had forgotten who he was. He received healing, not because of what he had done, but because of what Jesus had done! "...Himself took our infirmities and bear our sicknesses" (Matt. 8:17)

THE REASON WHY!

Once the people came to Jesus and requested that He would do a certain thing for a Centurion, because He had built them a synagogue. Jesus ignored this altogether. They wondered why "...they besought him instantly, saying, That he was worthy for whom he should do this" (Luke 7:4).

"...the Centurion sent friends to him, saying unto him, Lord, trouble not thyself; for I am not worthy that thou shouldst enter under my roof...neither thought I myself worthy to come unto thee..." (Verses 6-7).

Jesus said, "I have not found so great faith, no not in Israel."

His servant was made whole!

That explains why outsiders receive things so easily, while some of our own people don't receive deliverance. Let's stop thinking that we are worthy. Let's come on the merits of Jesus alone! Our goodness will never heal us. Our badness will never keep us from healing if we come confessing to Him, "Who forgiveth all thine iniquities; who healeth all thy diseases" (Ps. 103:3).

What Is the Defense Against the H-Bomb?

During the past ten years the Civil Defense Department of the U.S. Government has been working feverishly to develop a defense against atomic attack. Defense was first planned against the now obsolete A-Bomb, and it involved evacuation of the cities. Signs were erected that certain roads would be closed during any attack. Traffic was to be directed in a pre-determined direction. Some cities went so far as to execute practice evacuations. But it was soon discovered that such methods were impractical. You just can't evacuate people by the hundreds of thousands, even making the most generous time allowances as could be expected to be given, by any warning system. People fleeing before an A-Bomb attack are certain to panic, making the situation a thousand times worse than any practice evacuation.

Then came the H-Bomb. Now total destruction is effected in an area of twenty or thirty miles in diameter. Evacuation except under the most favorable conditions is definitely not a practical solution to an H-Bomb attack. What then can be done?

Plan to Create Vast Underground Retreats

Los Angeles, California, has now started the ball rolling. Mayor Poulson of that city, during the month of June proposed a plan for building a vast underground shelter or series of shelters in that area. He showed the utter futility of attempting to evacuate five million people living in the county. Such a project as adequate underground shelters would cost a staggering sum—half a billion dollars or so. But the mayor pointed out that such a system of shelters was the only possible solution, that shelters which would house millions of people would be the only alternative to absolute annihilation in event of an H-Bomb attack.

This seems to be the only answer as far as protecting a city from the effects of the H-Bomb, although a direct hit would probably effect those directly below the blast. Nevertheless, with atomic explosives now equivalent in power to from ten to fifty millions of tons of TNT, and which now can be carried by planes, or by intercontinental rockets, it appears that the only thing left for cities to do, is to go below the surface.

Caves Are Being Commandeered by the U. S. Government

It is, of course, no secret that the large underground caves of America are now being commandeered by the government. A few months ago, we visited one of the most famous caves of America, and we found that it, as well as others, have been designated for special purposes in event of war. As is well known, a retreat has been provided by the government, in a secret location, for high officials in case of an imminent atomic attack.

Thus do we see the word of God being fulfilled. Prophecy says men are to flee into the holes of the rocks, yea, into the dust in hope of escape from the great judgments that are soon to come upon the earth. "Enter into the rock and hide thee in the dust, for the fear of the Lord..." and they shall go into the holes of the rocks and into the caves of the earth... when He ariseth to shake terribly the earth." Thus do we see the fulfillment of these prophecies about to come to pass.

But what a pitiful defense is a cave against an H-Bomb! Suppose the people who fled to such a shelter should be spared. What a terrible spectacle would await them when they came out of their dungeon. Nothing but miles and miles of rubble and ruin. As far as eye might see there would be utter desolation. Not a single human being would dare to wander over the area unless precautions had been taken against the deadly radio-active rays that contaminate the area of an atomic explosion.

The True Defense

Thank God there is a true defense against the H-Bomb. That defense is mentioned in Psalms 91:

"He that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty. ...Thou shalt not be afraid for the terror by night, nor for the arrow that flieth by day... nor for the destruction that wasteth at noon day. A thousand shall fall at thy side, and ten thousand at thy right hand; but it shall not come nigh thee." (Psalms 91:1, 5, 6b, 7)

This is the true defense. God has a shelter for His people. Not in the rocks below the surface of the earth—but in the Rock, Christ Jesus. Now is the time to flee to that shelter. The hearts of the men of the world are filled with fear looking after those things that are coming upon the face of the earth. They are looking to the caves, to the dust and to the holes in the rocks. But the Christian is not looking down, he is looking up! Not to an undertaker, but to an Uppertaker! Not to death but to life!

How then is it with you, friend? Have you made that complete consecration to His will? Remember this protection is for those that dwell in the secret place of the most High. It is not for casual Christians or those who are living a careless life. Jesus said, "Look up... for your redemption draweth nigh." He also said, "Watch ye therefore, and pray always, that ye may be accounted worthy to escape all these things that shall come to pass, and to stand before the Son of Man." (Luke 22:36) Today we stand at the hour of decision. Today is the time to say with Joshua, "...as for me and my house, we will serve the Lord." (Joshua 24:15)

"He had not beheld iniquity in Israel... and the shout of a king is among them." Hallelujah!

What was the difference? The Moabites were just as fundamental as the Israelites, but the difference was that God was vindicating Israel with signs and wonders, following.

Paul said that in the last days people would have a form of godliness, but deny the power thereof, and from such, turn away. And Jesus said, "These signs shall follow them that believe: In my name shall they cast out devils; they shall speak with new tongues; They shall take up serpents; and if they drink any deadly thing it shall not hurt them; they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover."

Oh, my brother and sister, be encouraged, for I hear the sound of abundance of rain. One of these days God will roll back the curtain of Heaven and pour out of His Spirit without measure upon those people who have fought their way through bloody seas, and what a meeting we will have. But back to our demoniac.

This man of Gadara had a religious devil. How do we know? He ran down and worshipped Jesus. Now perhaps you say that if you worship Jesus, that you are all right. Wait a minute. The devil worshipped Jesus. And he confessed Him publicly and said, "Jesus, thou Son of the

Brother Ortiz praying for the sick

March 9, 1956.

Dear Brother in Christ:

Greeting you in the wonderful Name of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. I am very thankful for your prayers. I was sick for a long time and was in the hospital. The doctors gave me up. My complaint was vomiting and I had a pain in my left side. I had one operation and still was feeling no better. One of the doctors told me that there was only one thing that could save me, and that was another operation. I told him I would rather go home and die, but I would not have the operation. So he discharged me and I went home. I wrote you to pray for me, and thank and praise God, Jesus healed me. I am eating anything now and I am not vomiting. I cannot finish thanking you for your prayers. If it were not for your prayers, I would have died. May God bless you.

Gentlemen:

I am herewith enclosing two dollars for the renewal of my subscription. I am very sorry for the delay in writing you, but, Hallelujah, part of this delay has been due to a wonderful outpouring of God's precious Holy Spirit in our midst. I must tell you about it.

We missionaries have been praying for this visitation for many years. Now, He has answered, yes, and as is like our Lord, He has done exceeding abundantly above. Glory!

Meetings go on for days at a time; there is no time for we are transported into eternity. How the Spirit is searching out the sins in the lives of these Africans. Many have been thrown to the floor and literally scream for mercy.

Many of the natives have seen visions, others have seen a brilliant light, others saw fire burning all along the altar rail, while angels too have been seen in our midst. Oh, it has truly been heaven on earth these last few weeks and this wonderful searching and blessing continues. The fire is spreading and almost daily we are receiving reports from our out-stations telling of God's wonderful blessings in their midst. Hallelujah!

Truly our God has opened the windows of heaven and He is pouring out such a blessing there is not room to receive it from our out-stations until the heathen souls by the thousands be saved. Wonderful, wonderful Jesus!

I trust within the next few months to be returning to the States on furlough. I pray that God may make it possible for me to attend some of these wonderful meetings such as I have eagerly read about in the Voice of Healing.

Dear Brother Lindsay:

My husband and I are missionaries here to the Slavic peoples. My husband, who is Russian, and edits a magazine (which he sends out to about thirty countries where the Russian people have been scattered) has translated much information into Russian concerning the working of the Holy Spirit in these last days, as published in the Voice of Healing. And many Russian people in the different countries have been awakened and quickened to believe that Jesus Christ is the same today as when here on earth, and have even been healed through the reading thereof. Even behind the iron curtain! Praise the Lord!

To the Voice of Healing:

We have just received a letter from Enger Haddad in Beirut, Lebanon today. She is a new faith missionary there. She said she is so thrilled as some of the Arabs speak English, and she gave a lady a Voice of Healing magazine. The woman was so excited over the testimonies of healing, that she came early the next morning to the missionary's room, asking if those things were true. Sis. Enger had the opportunity to tell her that they are true.

The Arabs are excited over the Voice of Healing. She says it is precious to know that you are helping to win the Arabs to Christ through the Voice of Healing.

Dear Christian Friends:

I want to write you and give thanks to the dear precious Lord for healing my grandchild. Last fall I wrote you for prayer for my grandchild who had very bad tonsils and earache. Since you prayed she hasn't had a sore throat or earache. How good the Lord is to us and how we depend on Him for everything.

The Voice of Healing:

Dear Brothers:

Greetings in Jesus Name! It has been a pleasure for me to have my first Salvation-Healing campaign. For years I have preached but always to believers at different churches in Buenos Aires. But now, the Lord sent me to a most Catholic and superstitious city of my country, Corrientes.

God revived that city! Hundreds were saved and healed by the preaching of the WORD OF FAITH. Praise the Lord! We began in a tent seating 500 people, but in one week, it was too small. God did wonderful things, healing two paralytics, a blind person and others of different infirmities. We then moved to a theater which seated 2000 people, but the police, inspired by Catholics, stopped the campaign after the fourth meeting. So then we went to the church hall, and there with people inside and outside, stopping the traffic, we continued the meetings.

The whole city is moved. Alleluia! Last Sunday 67 were baptized and next Sunday many more will also be baptized.

I am Juan Carlos Ortiz, 21 years old. I work with all denominations, but have credentials with a Pentecostal church. I write this letter thinking it will be a joy for you to know something of this Argentine Revival.

To the Voice of Healing:

God has done wonderful things. I sent for a healing cloth and placed it on my body, and I was healed of T.B. I had a cavity on my left lung, but after you prayed over a cloth and sent it to me, I was healed. I thank the Lord for healing me, and for a place where we can write for prayer.
