This series of articles narrates events of the great revival that has visited the earth during the last ten years. Last month's installment told the story of the divine visitation of the angel to William Branham. This month we relate events taking place in the early campaigns of Brother Branham.

The Story of the Great Restoration Revival

INSTALLMENT II

OUR FIRST BRANHAM MEETING in the Northwest was in Vancouver, B.C. Despite a transportation tieup, the arena we had secured was filled to full capacity and overflowing each of the several nights that we were there. In other cities where we were scheduled we were to find invariably, capacity crowds attending. It is not an exaggeration to say that the spiritual impact of these brief meetings was such that people in those areas still talk about them. Certainly they aroused tremendous interest. The unique ministry of Brother Branham seemed to bring people into a profound awareness of the presence of God. We can mention only a few of the high points of these historic campaigns that were held in the fall of 1947.

In Portland, Oregon, an event took place on the third night of the meeting that no one who attended will ever forget. We had turned the service over to Brother Branham just as the people finished singing the chorus, "Only Believe." The speaker, after some introductory remarks, proceeded to comment on those words, emphasizing that if the people would only believe, all things indeed were possible. He went on to add that the enemy must flee before faith; that cancers, tumors and all diseases must disappear before the miracle-working power of God. As the evangelist spoke, the audience listened with rapt attention and no one anticipated that a startling interruption of the service was about to take place.

A MADMAN ON THE PLATFORM!

Suddenly our attention was directed to a man in one of the aisles who was making rapid strides toward the platform. At first we thought that some emergency had arisen, perhaps prayer for some person who had suddenly become ill was wanted. But as the man drew near we observed with no little misgiving that there appeared to be a wild look on his countenance as that of a lunatic. Later we were to learn that he was not a lunatic in the ordinary sense. He still had his senses, but he was given to irrational action, having previously entered into local churches and broken up services with violent conduct. For these breaches of the peace he had been thrown into jail on more than one occasion, though apparently this action did not cure his irrational propensities. Attending this meeting and noting the size of it, this sinister individual apparently considered the time as an excellent opportunity to attract attention to himself. At any rate he was by this time on the platform waving his hand in a menacing manner.

There were perhaps two hundred ministers on the platform, and several of them at once recognized the man as a violent character. As I glanced back toward them, I could see that they were thoroughly dismayed by the man's appearance on the platform. One of their number ran out to call a policeman and in a moment two stalwart officers appeared from the left wing. They immediately prepared to apprehend the intruder who quickly showed he was ready to resist any interference with his actions. For a moment it looked as if it were going to be a knock-down and drag-out affair. Such a distraction of course would seriously affect the purpose of the meetings.

In the meantime we had hastily called the attention of Brother Branham to what was happening. He paused and turned to face the intruder, who at once in a most shocking and offensive manner began to hurl imprecations at him. The officers rushed forward to take a hand, but at that instant Brother Branham waved them back, and he himself walked over to where the man was standing. The evil antagonist, with eyes wildly flashing, continued to curse the preacher, calling him vile names and accusing him of being an impostor and fraud who had come to deceive the people. By his aggressive gestures he showed only too plainly that he was ready to carry out his threats of physical violence. To the audience it appeared to be an evil moment for the little figure on the platform. The officers, alarmed, made one more attempt to interfere, but again they were waved away. In rejecting their assistance the speaker had deliberately accepted the challenge of this bold and wicked antagonist! It appeared to all present that unless God performed a miracle, the speaker would surely suffer bodily harm.

For a moment the man fell silent, and I could hear Brother Branham gently speaking the words, "Satan, in the Name of Jesus, because you have come to disturb this meeting you must fall before me."

The Bible Way to Receive the Holy Spirit

by Kenneth Hagin

I WANT TO SAY at the very outset of this message, that I certainly to believe in tarrying—I certainly do believe in waiting on God. The word tarry means wait, and the Bible teaches us to wait on the Lord. The Bible says that they that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength. Just because we are filled with the Holy Spirit is no sign that we shouldn't wait upon God, in fact, that is when you ought to begin to wait upon God—after you are filled with the Holy Ghost. As you wait upon the Lord, the Spirit of God can teach you, illuminate you, and guide you into all truth.

I BELIEVE IN WAITING ON GOD

And I not only believe it, but practice what I teach. It won't help you in the least bit to believe a thing unless you put it into practice. And so I endeavor to practice waiting on God. In my meetings, there have been times when I waited on God, four, five, or six hours. None of us will ever get to the place that we will not need to wait on God.

But when it comes to being filled with the Holy Ghost, when I see our people who are waiting, and praying, and weeping, and agonizing, and crying, it breaks my heart, because I know that they actually don't need to do that. Someone may ask, "Didn't Jesus say to tarry in Jerusalem until ye are endued with power from on high?" Yes, He said that. But remember that Jesus said that to the disciples, before the Day of Pentecost. And if that is the divine pattern, why not take all of it? He said, "Tarry in the City of Jerusalem." If that is the divine formula, you would have to exhort individuals to go to Jerusalem to receive.

EARLY CHURCH RECEIVED INSTANTLY

The one hundred and twenty in the Upper Room were not just exactly waiting or tarrying for the Holy Spirit. They were waiting for the Day of Pentecost. After the Day of Pentecost, there is not another example in the Book of Acts, where the people tarried for the Holy Ghost.

Eight years after Pentecost, Philip went down to Samaria. (Acts 8) As a result of his preaching, the people were saved and baptized in water. Then Peter and John laid hands on these Samaritans, "And they received the Holy Ghost." (Vs. 17) Without agonizing, without tarrying, without disappointment, without exception, they were all filled with the Holy Ghost.

THE HOUSE OF CORNELIUS

Then ten years after Pentecost, in Acts 10, Peter went to Caesarea to the house of Cornelius. Peter began to speak to them. Remember that "faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God." "While Peter yet spake these words, the Holy Ghost fell on all them which heard the word," (Vs. 44) for "they heard them speak with tongues, and magnify God." (Vs. 46) So Cornelius, and his house, without praying, without waiting, without exception, were filled with the Holy Ghost.

THE DISCIPLES AT EPHESUS RECEIVED AS PAUL LAID HANDS ON THEM

The Word of God tells us that twenty years after Pentecost—in Acts 19—that Paul passed through Ephesus and found certain Christians who had not heard "whether there be any Holy Ghost." Paul laid hands on them, and the "Holy Ghost came on them; and they spake with tongues and prophesied." And the number of "men were about twelve." I don't know how many women and children there were. I want you to notice this: without waiting, without praying, without singing, everyone of them was filled with the Holy Ghost.

Paul, the Great Apostle, received the Holy Ghost when Ananias laid hands on him. (Acts 9:17) And though it does not say in that chapter that he spake with tongues, we know that he did because Paul said later, in I Cor. 14:18, "I thank my God, I speak with tongues more than ye all."

In every instance in the Scripture where there was a group of people who wanted to receive the Holy Spirit, everyone of them was filled, and not a one of them went away disappointed. Now if we had taught our people in this day, the same thing, then they would receive right away. God does not have any trial and error method. God does not have any method of coming and seeking and no finding, and going away empty.

Our people are so responsive, bless their dear hearts, they believe what we tell them, and it should be that way, but we should be careful that we are thoroughly scriptural. I weigh heavily and with all earnestness what I say. When it comes to the Holy Ghost, we have been so indefinite in instructing people.

WHAT THE DEVIL SAW AT PENTECOST

Sermon preached by Evangelist R. W. Culpepper
at the Voice of Healing Convention, Philadelphia, 1957.

Scripture: Acts 2:1-18 and I Peter 5:8

THAT the Devil was present on one of the most momentous days in church history, can hardly be refuted. I would like to take a few minutes of your time to establish the existence of a real and literal devil, whose most fiendish delight is to work in opposition to the plan and purpose of God. Ignoring the existence of the devil is not the answer to our problem, but realizing that God has said in His Word that He would give us power over all of the power of the enemy, and nothing should in any wise hurt us, should cause the newest convert to shout with joy.

SATAN AND DEMONS ARE REAL

Yes, my friends, Satan is real, but there is consolation in knowing that He that is in you is greater than he that is in the world! Now I would like to tell you why I believe Satan is real and that he was in the Upper Room on the Day of Pentecost.

First of all, my text in I Peter 5:8 says to be sober and vigilant, because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour. This is a warning from God's Word to be alert and on guard against the most destructive enemy of all mankind — the devil. In the very beginning when God created the heavens and the earth, and out of the dust of the earth formed Adam, and breathed into him and he became a living soul, and from Adam took a rib and made his companion Eve, and placed them in the Garden that was a paradise, a utopia, and right in the midst of this paradise Satan appeared, and through his subtle suggestions caused the fall of man in Adam.

Since that very day there have been thorns and thistles, and sweat and toil, and sickness and disease, and sin and sorrow.

In the book of Job, which is considered to be, by almost all theologians, the oldest book in the Bible, we find in the first chapter that there was a day when the Sons of God came to present themselves before the Lord, and Satan came among them, and the Lord said unto Satan: "From whence comest thou?" Satan answered the Lord and said: "From going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it." What Satan didn't add was that as he walked up and down in the earth, he used all his power and subtle craftiness to deceive every man that would listen to him.

When Moses died, Satan got in an argument with Michael the Archangel over the body of Moses. You can see his audacity when he actually challenged the archangel of God in the days of Moses. In the book of Daniel we read that he hindered Daniel's prayers for 21 days, but thank God Daniel had a perseverance and faith that pressed through all of Satan's attacks and he gained the victory. We read in Zechariah 3 that Satan stood beside Joshua to resist him.

Yes, my friends, there is a real Satan who goes to church with the pious and capers with the cultured. He sighs with the sad and frolics with the frivolous. He prods the poor and races with the rich; he pines with the peasant and he romps with royalty. He makes himself at home anywhere you will allow him room. I believe that on the Day of Pentecost he was in the Upper Room. Let us notice what he saw:

SATAN SAW GOD KEEP HIS PROMISE

How he would like to see God fail on just one of His promises! He had seen God keep His promise in sending a Redeemer. God set the whole world in motion in order to get Joseph and Mary into Bethlehem just to fulfill His promise! I am told that there are over 3,000 promises in the Bible, and when the conditions are met, God has never failed one time to keep His promises! And on the Day of Pentecost Satan saw God's promise to send the Holy Ghost fulfilled!

The prophet Joel had prophesied of it 800 years before Christ! Joel 2:28. And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out my spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions;

The prophet Isaiah had prophesied of it 700 years before Christ! Isaiah 28:11. For with stammering lips and another tongue will he speak to this people.

John had spoken of it in Matthew 3:11. I indeed baptize you with water unto repentance; but he that cometh after me is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not worthy to bear: he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost, and with fire;

And on the Day of Pentecost the powers of darkness staggered back in defeat as the devil saw God keep His promise in every detail, and the Upper Room became to the Holy Ghost what the manger was to the Son of God!

NEXT, THE DEVIL SAW AND HEARD AN UNUSUAL PHENOMENON!

The Bible said there was a sound from Heaven! Ladies and gentlemen, Satan heard that sound, that has always caused him to tremble. For my friends who find the noise that accompanies God's blessings objectionable, remember if Christians should hold their peace, Jesus said even the rocks would cry out! That day there was a sound from Heaven like a rushing mighty wind! This was the same wind that had stirred the tops of the mulberry trees in Samuel's day, and blew upon Ezekiel's unusual congregation, giving them life!

Now this same wind signalled the arrival of the Holy Ghost! Satan heard it, and this sound was followed by a sight! Cloven tongues like as of fire appeared upon each of them! Satan knew that that fire was the burning, purging, purifying, refining, power-given fire of God!

Ladies and gentlemen, they needed it then — we need it now!

THE NEXT SUPERNATURAL MANIFESTATION SATAN SAW WAS:

Every person that had this fire was speaking in other tongues! It does not embarrass the speaker to tell you that I speak with other tongues. There is not a day passing that I do not have communication with God in a language that the devil cannot understand.

Sometime ago when I was conducting a revival for Dr. C. J. Lowry in the Oakland Revival Tabernacle on miracle night, I was praying for the sick and there was a long line waiting with their prayer cards, when suddenly out of the audience a young girl of about 17 years of age, I presume, jumped from her seat and came to the head of the prayer line right behind the person I was praying for. Her actions would almost seem unorthodox, and to say the least, they were unusual, since she had no prayer card and had deliberately walked to the head of the line. When I finished praying for the person in front of her, I asked her for the meaning of her actions. She said: "As I was sitting in my seat, I suddenly felt impressed that if I would come to the head of the line and you would lay your hands upon me and pray, I would receive the Baptism of the Holy Ghost instantly."

Fasting—Bible Dynamite

by Evangelist Sam Todd

GOD has called His people, yes, He has called YOU to be part of His "Inner Circle," the Anointed Ones through whom He does His mighty exploits. There are those who make themselves wholly available for the manifestations and operations of the Holy Spirit. GOD HAS CALLED YOU TO A FASTING LIFE!

WHY DO WE FAST?

First, why do we fast from food? Fasting from food is approved by the Bible and examples are set forth for us. We fast from food because a need has arisen in our lives personally or in the work of God that is more pressing and more essential than merely satisfying the appetite of our stomach.

You reach a place that you say to your physical body, "You are going to take a back seat until I hear from God. You are going to wait until I get in tune with Heaven and the answer comes. I'm going to hear from God before I eat. I'm going to hear from God before I go any further with normal activities."

But what of that person who is mightily used of God in the ministry of the supernatural—that person through whom God can pour out His supernatural power in the deliverance of sinful, sick and suffering humanity? Such a person doesn't just practice fasting from food. That person lives a FASTING LIFE!

In the 14th Chapter of the Gospel record according to Luke, Jesus says to His followers, "If any man come to me, and hate not his father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brethren, and sisters, yes, and his own life also, he cannot be my disciple." Did you hear that? "He cannot be..."

Jesus did not mean that there must be an unholy resentment in your heart against your loved ones. He did not mean there must be a malicious spirit within you. Yes, yes, I know and most of you know the traditional explanation is that Jesus means that we must love loved ones and earthly things less than we do Him. THAT is what I thought for a long time until God revealed something fuller to me as I lay flat on my face crying out to HIM for His fulness.

LIFE'S KEY FORCES

Christ is here talking about those things that will determine our actions, our choices, the direction our life will take — In other words, those forces about and within us that will decide what we will do and what forces shall control us.

He was trying to bring into sharp focus the objectives of Calvary, the objectives of the atonement of the Lord, Jesus Christ. Why did Jesus die on Calvary? Why did Jesus suffer? He suffered to loose men and to set them free. He suffered to cleanse them from sin; to heal them from their sicknesses and to free them from the enslavement of their fears. Luke tells us that, "The oath which He swore to our father Abraham, that he would grant unto us, that we being delivered out of the hand of our enemies might serve him without fear, in holiness and righteousness before him, all the days of our life." Isn't that beautiful? Isn't that wonderful? That we being delivered out of the hand of our enemies — what is your enemy? Your enemy is anything that hinders the plan of God for your life from being made a reality in you.

TWO KEY FACTS

Your first step in the fasting life is to recognize your own privileges in Christ: Christ has called you to be delivered from your enemies. He hasn't called you to sin, but to holiness; He hasn't called you to sickness, but to health; not to fear, but courage; not to defeat, but to Victory, not to darkness, but to light; not to despair, but to hope; not to Hell, but to Heaven! There is not a single enemy that you have to yield to — there is not a single unholy force by which you have to stay bound. Can you shout just now, "I'm free! I'm out of the hand of my enemies! I'm living in Christ Jesus. I'm not afraid of the past, it is covered. I'm not afraid of the future, it is in His hands. I'm not afraid of the present, for He is with me! I'm not afraid of the Devil, he has been defeated. I'm not afraid of sickness, for 'He is the Lord that healeth' and 'By His stripes, we are healed!'" I'm out of the hands of my enemies! Glory! Living with him in holiness and righteousness, all the days of our life! Not just in revivals or camp meetings, but everyday: wash day, scrub day, cleaning day, all the days of our life! Well, glory! Don't you love God for writing that in His word? Those are the things God wants YOU to have.

NOW FOR THE SECOND KEY STEP: The things presented in the paragraphs above are the objectives of Calvary. That's why there was a Calvary. God determined in the council of the Godhead that these things should become possible for every man, woman, boy and girl. NOW: For those who want the fullness of the fellowship of the Gospel of Christ: God has called you to bring this message in the fullness of its power to your son, your daughter, your family, your neighbors and yes, to the whole world.

This is the verse that changed my life after I had been preaching 18 years. It took me out of the ordinary and sent me walking with God saying, "I refuse to preach another sermon, I refuse to go on with routine activities, I refuse to be involved with men until they come down, and do what that verse says. I must see the FULLNESS of the power of the Gospel in action. I must see men delivered from their sin, sickness and fear."

The FULL Gospel in action does the same thing for every person: That is, it looses them from sin, sickness and fear. It is your job, whether minister or layman to be a channel for bringing this power to others.

FASTING LIFE

Then what about that hating? That's part of the fasting life. Here is the basic heart beat of the Christian who delivers others by the power of the Gospel of Christ: You must hate anything, yes, anything that interferes with the Holy Ghost anointing you, permeating you, leading you, guiding you for the use of God in loosing men and women and setting them free by the mighty power of the living God. That is the fasting life!

What about relatives? Those loved ones who have loved us, suffered for us and they are interested in us; if they press us for time, attention or interest that interferes with the Spirit of God anointing us, leading us, if their desires and demands upon us are pressing in — follow me very closely here — if their desires are pressing in and are interfering with the moving and the operation of the Holy Ghost, you will hate that influence. Not that you will hate the person as an individual, rather, to the extent that their influence in your life hinders the full outpouring of God through you for the accomplishment of those things provided by Calvary, to that extent, you will hate ANY influence from ANY other source.

Even though the interference come from Mother, Father, Wife, Husband or the children of your own body, you will feel a resentment against ANYTHING that dares interfere with the moving of the Holy Ghost. For the acts of the Holy Ghost have only one objective and that objective is the achieving of the work for which Christ died on Calvary. When the vision of Calvary is burning like a fire in your soul, your righteous indignation will rise up in holy resentment against anything that would interfere with the outpouring of the power of God through you that would "... loose the bands of wickedness, undo the heavy burdens, let

by David J. du Plessis

GROWTH OF ASSEMBLIES IN SOUTH AFRICA

At the 22nd General Conference of the Assemblies of God in southern and central Africa, Austin Chawner, reported the following: "Back 30 years ago we had a handful of workers in the Rand area and Northern Transvaal. Today we have 550 places of worship and 490 workers. Of these, 177 are European workers, 303 are African, 8 Colored, and 2 Indian. Of our total number of workers, 333 are fully accredited. As far as records go, we can report a membership of about 27,500. This, however, is far below the mark. From time to time we have appealed to our workers for statistics. Some have cooperated. Others have not. A very conservative estimate of the total number of Christians in our fellowship would be 35,000. If we include new believers and also Sunday School children, the Christian community would be well over 50,000."

SPONSOR A DELEGATE

The Secretary of the Advisory Committee to the 1958 Pentecostal World Conference informs us that a number of movements and some of the leading brethren from countries in Europe, Asia, Africa, and Latin America, have written to say that they are anxious to send delegates or that they are anxious to come, but that financially it is an impossible problem. Many of the churches and movements in these countries are spiritually rich, but economically poor. Their economy will not allow for the expense of a trip overseas. In some cases, they are able to raise the fare one way, but cannot make it both ways.

May we suggest that language groups, district councils, sectional groups, women's councils, local churches, or single individuals, give this matter serious consideration. Why not sponsor one of these brethren and let them come to the United States and Canada to minister to the churches. The offerings raised in those meetings can help to cover the expenses. Most of the brethren that are prepared to come speak English fluently. Others will find language groups among whom they could minister freely in their national tongue. Sponsoring such delegates will help strengthen and enlarge the world fellowship of Pentecostal churches. It will encourage indigenous churches to realize that they are part of the great work of God. If you are interested and wish to make a contribution to this cause, write immediately to David J. du Plessis, Secretary, Advisory Committee, 1958 World Conference, P. O. Box 8615, Dallas, Texas.

THE FASTEST GROWING

In "CORONET" of February, 1958, there appears an article by Richard Carter under the title, "THAT OLD-TIME RELIGION COMES BACK." He starts out by saying,

"The fastest growing Protestant religion today is the Pentecostal Movement, whose members used to be nicknamed 'Holy Rollers' but which has become too important to remain a target of derision. In barely half a century this dynamic young version of old-time fundamentalism has produced spectacularly successful leaders such as Oral Roberts and the late Aimee Semple McPherson, has won the devotion of at least 2,000,000 Americans of every racial and religious origin and, through zealous foreign missionary work, has gained thousands of converts on every continent."

Mr. Carter goes on to explain some of the characteristics and peculiar practices of the Pentecostals. We must admit that his portrayal of the movement is more truthful and fair than many articles of this nature had been in the past.

Just a few weeks ago others of the better-known weekly magazines of America came to us to obtain more particulars and details about the revival throughout the world.

Some of the international publications of the church world has also asked for contributions. An article by David J. du Plessis will appear in the April issue of the "International Missionary Review."

PENTECOST IN FORMOSA

James Baker writes, "When we missionaries learned that Brother Harvey McAlister would be coming to Taiwan this summer, we immediately planned an island-wide Pentecostal Conference, to which missionaries and Nationals of every Pentecostal church in Taiwan were invited. From sixteen mission stations throughout the island missionaries and Chinese pastors, evangelists and the common people came by train and bus. All were greatly encouraged to contend for a Spirit-filled ministry and program."

"We deeply appreciate Brother McAlister's sacrificial ministry. He has worked in close cooperation with the missionaries, with our churches, and the Bible Institute. We will never know the number of persons saved from their sins, healed in their bodies, and baptized in the Holy Spirit under our brother's ministry here."

Matthew Lee writes, "There were very many more in attendance than the highest calculations anticipated. Every available sleeping accommodation was occupied, with scores using the hard cement floors as a bed, contentedly and happy, for they all treasured spiritual blessings and brotherly fellowship as far more important and worthwhile than physical comforts. I was privileged to be Brother McAlister's Mandarin interpreter. The Spirit of God worked mightily."

These wonderful reports further contained testimonies of a number of marvelous healings. It is quite evident that the Spirit of God moved mightily wherever Brother McAlister went, and God has given him unusual physical strength to take the strain of such meetings.

A FAITHFUL PIONEER PASSES

Thousands of Christians of all denominations throughout the world will miss the well-known evangelist, author, and Bible teacher, Fred Francis Bosworth, who went to be with his Lord on January 23, following a heart attack in his home at Miami Florida.

Born in Utica, Nebraska, the son of Burton and Amelia Bosworth, he moved with his family to Fitzgerald, Georgia. In the southern city he became a talented musician as a young man and also served as city clerk.

Shortly after the turn of the century when the late Dr. John Alexander Dowie, the "dynamic little Scotsman" who was a pioneer in divine healing ministry late in the 19th century, founded the religious community of Zion City, Illinois, he moved with his parents to that city and became one of the first directors of the famous Zion City concert band.

When about 30 years of age, Fred felt the call to the ministry and he pastored a large church in Dallas, Texas, for more than eight years prior to entering the evangelistic field. As a member of the International Evangelistic Association and the Christian and Missionary Alliance, he and his brother, Bert B. Bosworth, then a pastor in Houston, Texas, teamed up in a united effort. In the 1920's one of the largest Bosworth campaigns was conducted in Ottawa, Canada, where the large civic auditorium seating 11,000 persons was filled nightly to capacity. During this Ottawa revival many miracles of healing took place in answer to the prayer of faith. Many vehicles were employed, automobiles, ambulances, and even hearses, to bring the sick and afflicted on stretchers to the services. Further large and successful campaigns included New York, Pittsburgh, Philadelphia, Chicago, and other cities. In Chicago Gospel Tabernacle where Evangelist Paul Rader was pastor, Fred Bosworth received a lot of publicity in the Chicago Daily News and other metropolitan newspapers when a large number of students who were attending a school for the deaf were miraculously healed, their healings causing the school to close.

In 1952 at the age of 75, Evangelist Bosworth accompanied Evangelist Branham, of Jeffersonville, Indiana, to Africa, preaching to vast audiences there, the largest meeting being held on the Greyville Race Course in Durban, South Africa, where one service alone drew an estimated 75,000 people with more than 25,000 being turned away. He later conducted campaigns in Cuba, Germany, Switzerland, and Japan.

His wife and four children were at his bedside when the end came, and the aged minister, who was 81 on January 17, recognized and greeted them all before his passing. During his more than 50 years of ministry, it is estimated that over a million souls made decisions for Christ.

"Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors; and their works do follow them" (Rev. 14:13).

MY TREASURE OF SALVATION Not to Be Bought or Sold

by Evang. Alton Hayes

MY FATHER has been an ordained minister in the Assemblies of God all my life. Before my birth, the Lord assured my mother that I would be a male child, and would preach the Gospel to the four corners of the world, bringing deliverance to the multitudes and thousands would be saved and healed.

At the early age of six years, the Lord dealt with me about preaching the Gospel. I remember very definitely the Lord calling me to the ministry at this age. I told my father, and asked that he let me preach on Sunday. He told me I was just a beginner and he couldn't let me preach Sunday, but would give me a chance to speak in one of the week night services. I was offended. As time went on, I gradually backslid.

In my early teens I went deep into sin and did almost everything that the devil wanted me to do. All this time I felt the effects of my father's and mother's prayers. Coming home in the late hours of the night I have heard my mother and father pray, "Save our baby boy. We know you have promised us a preacher in the family." Friends, there is a lesson in this message for you. If you will hold on to God in intercessory prayer for those you love, God has promised to save your household. Man is never too far from God that He cannot reach him. As God has mentioned in His Word, His arm is not too short that He cannot reach.

I saw so many inconsistencies in the lives of the Christian members of my father's church that I became discouraged in living for the Lord. They would tell so many things that were not true that would hurt my parents. Supposedly devout Christians would not pay their tithes that the needs of my parents would be met and I became bitter and no longer lived for the Lord. I thought all Christians were the same.

I have learned however that men will rise and fall, but this revival of our day will continue to go to the ends of the earth. The Scripture tells us to work out our own salvation with fear and trembling before the Lord.

At the age of seventeen I had an office position with the Texas and Pacific Railway Company. I was in line for some excellent promotions and was making a good salary. I found in planning my own future every plan became a failure in my life. It seemed there was no happiness and there was an emptiness in my heart. I had a longing in life for something good that I had never found. I tried all the pleasures of the world and found that they only last for a season. I came to the end roads of life and felt life was not worth living and there was no alternative for me. I even despaired of living.

I thought perhaps if I could find the right kind of girl and get married and quit living the life I had been living, this would bring me peace and happiness in life.

After World War II, my brother had come home from Iran. My father invited my brother and me to attend Brother Soper's church one evening during a youth rally. I sat in the service that night and for the first time since being a lad I felt the divine, dynamic supernatural presence of a living God—His spirit dealing with my heart. But yet I spurned His love and would not heed this warning of repentance.

During this service I saw the most beautiful girl I thought I had ever seen. During the song service I sang exceptionally loud to attract her attention. She turned and looked hard at me. After service I had a friend of mine introduce us. I had a date with her the next night. Three months later we were married. I still wasn't saved. She told me she was praying for me, that God would save me at any price. It seemed the more she prayed, the more restless my soul became.

The telephone rang for me one day at my desk at the Texas Pacific Railway Company. My mother-in-law was calling to tell me my wife, Maxine, was seriously ill and unless I hurried home would probably not see her alive again. I realized that pay day had come with God for me. I rushed home, hurriedly walking into the bedroom. I took her right hand and said, "Honey, what can I do for you?" Tears coursed down her cheeks and she told me that God had shown her that unless I gave my heart to God He would take her life. She said she felt she would die unless I repented. At that moment at her bedside I fell prostrate in the presence of God. The Lord gloriously saved, reclaimed, filled me with His Spirit and delivered me from cigarettes. I had been a chain smoker, smoking three packages every day. The Lord called me to preach the Gospel. I preached my first sermon that night in a small country church just outside Dallas city limits. Sister Mosher, a friend of my mother-in-law, invited me to speak in her church after my mother-in-law had told her about my experience.

My first text was "Be not deceived, God is not mocked. Whatsoever a man soweth that shall he also reap" and "The way of the transgressor is hard." I also read "To him that knoweth to do good and doeth it not, to Him it is sin." Six people were saved that night, before I could come to the climax in my message. Spontaneously there were six people coming down the aisles from every section of the church. Some fell under the power before they ever got to the altar. Before leaving the church, these people had become gloriously saved, their lives having been transformed by the power of God. Their very countenance showed the resemblance of salvation. These people went home some of the happiest people that ever lived.

BEGAN PREACHING

Within four months after my conversion,

I had resigned my position with the Texas and Pacific Railroad company to preach the Gospel, starting out by faith. My wife and I agreed to sell all our furniture, at that time being about $1,000 in debt and her an expectant mother. I started out to obey the commission of God's calling to preach the Gospel.

After preaching one whole week in Edgewood, Texas, the pastor on Sunday night received my love offering after the plates had already been passed once. I received an offering of twenty-three cents. I went home very discouraged and thought if the people had appreciated my ministry they would have given to me. The devil told me if my ministry had been worth anything I would have received more and they would have given to me. I became very discouraged. I murmured and complained to my wife and cried until four o'clock in the morning. At that time my wife reached over and pushed her elbow into my fifth rib. In a spiritual way she exhorted to me the Word of God. She said, "Alton, the Bible says the spirit is willing but the flesh is weak. You are depending upon man rather than God and leaning upon the arm of flesh. You remember the scripture, the Lord said, 'If you will ask anything in my name I will do it.' Also the Lord promised to supply your needs according to His riches in glory by Christ Jesus." The spiritual rebuke that she gave me stirred me to realize my lack of faith and I said to the Lord that from that hour on I would be led by the Spirit and believe His word of promise that "He would do exceeding abundantly above all that I could ask or think." Since that time, by faith the Lord has given me thousands of souls. He has allowed me to preach in every state in the nation and Canada and to preach to overflowing crowds in sports arenas, tent cathedrals, auditoriums and churches. People have been delivered from all manner of sickness and disease.

My first healing line was about six months after entering the ministry. A lady that had been blind for more than thirty years was the first one in the line. I placed her fourth back. I was very much afraid. I asked God what I must do. God said "You are not to do one thing. I am the Lord that healeth. All I have commanded of you is to lay hands upon the sick and they shall be healed and shall recover." I prayed for her and immediately she received her sight and went down the aisles praising God.

Since that time I have prayed for many thousands of people with all manner of sickness and diseases. God has been faithful to heal them and raise them up. Blind eyes have regained sight, deaf ears have been unstopped, the lame has walked, cancers, tumors, goiters have disappeared. Many souls have also been saved and filled with the Holy Ghost.

DUNN REVIVAL IN HARRISBURG, PENNA., DRAWS MANY FAVORABLE COMMENTS

BIBLE-DAYS LIVED AGAIN
by Rev. Joseph H. Johns, Pastor
Harrisburg Revival Center

Rev. Joseph Johns

We at the Harrisburg Revival Center have just enjoyed a great move of God's Spirit—one of the greatest this church has ever witnessed. Night after night the people were blessed as the wonderful gifts of the Holy Ghost were manifest through the miraculous ministry of Evangelist James Dunn. It was awe inspiring to see the gifts of knowledge and wisdom in operation as the Holy Ghost would reveal to Brother Dunn the peoples diseases and problems.

The faith-building messages that were preached every night brought many to Christ for salvation, healing and the Holy Ghost. Double Portion Night and Holy Ghost Receiving night were something to behold. Hundreds were slain under the power of God as Brother Dunn ministered. Many were filled with the Holy Ghost instantly. These were truly Bible-Days living again.

The reason we people of the Harrisburg Revival Center know that Brother Dunn is a man of God is because the signs follow his ministry mentioned in the sixteenth chapter of Mark.

The people came from hundreds of miles around to be healed of deafness, blindness, cancer and many other afflictions, and we saw them delivered and set free by God's mighty power.

We are looking forward to the time when Brother Dunn can come our way again.

TESTIMONIES

EYES HEALED

I had been bothered with an eye condition for several years, and it was growing worse. My eyes would burn and scales would form on my eyelids, and I could hardly read names in the telephone directory. Brother James Dunn prayed for me in his Harrisburg revival, and God wonderfully healed my eyes. Now I can read small print without trouble.

Paul Sanger

ANNOYING PAINS LEAVE

When Brother Dunn laid hands on me and prayed, I felt the power of God go through my body, and the pains in my neck and back left immediately.

William A. Shutt

HEALED OF CANCER; TEETH FILLED!

I had a cancer in my body for several years, but had trusted God for my healing. I was led of the Spirit to fast during Brother Dunn's revival. One evening he came to me and told me that I needed healing and to fast the next day, which made four days, and for me to be sure and be in the service the next evening. When Brother Dunn prayed for me the next night, I felt the healing stream of Calvary flow through my body.

I also praise my Saviour for the complete filling of my teeth. All things are possible with Him.

Mrs. Robert Lau

HEALED AND DELIVERED FROM BURDEN

for me I was slain under the power, and delivered of my troubles.

Leana Kroh

HEALED OF HEART CONDITION

Brother Dunn called me out of the audience and told me that I had a heart condition which was causing me to have short breath and pains in my legs, which was true. The Lord wonderfully healed me.

HEALED OF INJURIES SUFFERED IN FALL

Two months ago, while working, I fell and was injured internally and also hurt my back. The doctor said the internal injury could not be helped without an operation and that I would have arthritis of the spine, permanently. I was prayed for in the Dunn revival and was healed instantly.

Verna Mayer

Healed of stomach trouble.

JAMES DUNN SAYS

The Revival at the Harrisburg Revival Center was a great success, and God really blessed the people. Many were saved, healed and filled with the Holy Ghost.

I am looking forward to a great revival starting May 1st at the National Evangelistic Center in Washington, D. C., with Pastor John Meares. We are expecting great things from God in this meeting—even more than in the last. We believe God is going to do more this year than ever before. In fact, I am already looking forward to my next overseas mission late this fall or winter, Lord willing. It truly thrills my soul to take the wonderful message of Jesus Christ to a lost and dying world.

Remember me in your prayers and write me. My address is in my schedule on this page. So, until next month, may God's richest blessings be yours.

HOPELESS CRIPPLE HEALED

I suffered a fall on a broken sidewalk a few years ago which resulted in many months in casts and hydrotherapy treatments. Finally, the doctor decided my kneecap would have to be removed. The leg stiffened and muscles in the hip began to enlarge, and in trying to walk my foot caught on things which resulted in some very hard falls. I used a crutch for over three years.

To add to my other troubles, one of my eyes began to fail, and began growing larger, annoying me constantly. I decided to put my case in the hands of the Lord.

Brother Nunn prayed for me in his Lima, Ohio, meeting, and the Lord definitely touched my failing eye, also I can go up and down steps without the aid of my crutch. I am even able to run, something I have not done in years. Also can sit normally in a chair, which I could not do before.

HEALED OF TUBERCULOSIS

I was an employee at the North American Plant in Fresno, California, when contracted tuberculosis and was forced to leave. When a man finds out that he has an incurable disease, he gets awfully small and God gets mighty big.

I was afraid I would be locked up in a TB ward, so I ran away for two weeks but could not stand that, so I returned home to face the music.

Four months after Evangelist David Nunn prayed for me they released me to go back to work. I reported to the medical department at the plant, and they said "Aren't these new wonder drugs wonderful?" I told them what had happened, but they didn't take much stock in that, and sent me to the insurance doctor for X-rays. The X-rays showed no trace of TB so I went back to work praising God.

REPORT

by Rev. Ray S. Armstrong, Pastor
Central Assembly of God
Akron, Ohio

The entire two weeks of our revival with Evangelist Morris Cerullo and Party has been at a time when weather conditions have been perhaps the most severe in years with snow and low temperatures, yet from the very first service our auditorium which seats six hundred, has been well filled. In fact the attendance is the greatest ever known in the history of this church with well over half of the people new to us. People came from distances up to two hundred miles to be in the meeting.

Hundreds of people were prayed for and great miracles of healing were witnessed night after night. Deaf ears were opened, goiters and tumors disappeared, etc.

On the second Sunday night at the close of a stirring message, seventy-three people came for salvation and restoration. Many who came received the Holy Ghost as well.

So many glorious things have happened during these two weeks of old time revival that space would not permit mentioning them all. The Spirit was poured out in one meeting set aside especially as a time for receiving the Holy Ghost, and many received and spoke with other tongues. Our whole congregation has been greatly blessed and we believe that a spirit of revival has been kindled among us that will continue until Jesus comes.

PULLING THE STRING IN THE DARK

Some time ago, in another city, I was holding a meeting and staying in the parsonage. It was an old house that had only recently been wired for electricity. My room didn't have a wall switch, only a string in the middle of the room. The living room did have a switch, and one night the pastor, after we had had a midnight snack, accidentally flipped the switch as he retired, which of course left me standing there in the dark, as I was entering my room. I knew that there was a string out there somewhere, and if I could just find it and pull it, I'd have my light. So here I went, feeling for the string. About that time, I hit my shins on the vanity bench. Then I came from another angle, and ran into the door on the opposite side of the room. Then I squared off against the door, and ran into the bed post. I held on to the post, because I knew that that post wasn't over three feet away from the light. So around and around and around I went, feeling for that string. Finally, at long last, I struck the string with the side of my hand. I pulled the cord, and there I was in the light!

That's exactly what we've done. In trying to get people healed or filled, we tell them that there is a string out there somewhere, and when you feel it, just pull it, and that's it. Amen. That's the truth. Thank God, some of them have found it. In spite of us, not because of us. It's a thousand wonders that we have gotten as many filled as we have.

A BAPTIST MINISTER RECEIVES AND STARTS A REVIVAL

A Baptist minister here in the state of Texas wanted to receive the Holy Spirit. Some told him to say, "Glory, glory." Others said, "Say it faster." Still others said, "Say glug, glug." He got disgusted and quit, because he couldn't find anything like that in the Word of God. When he saw what we preached was the Word of God, he was filled with the Holy Ghost, speaking in other tongues. He went back to his own church, preached a two-week revival, and his own people received the Holy Ghost. He brought a minister friend, and he was filled with the Holy Ghost. A Methodist minister received next. The revival was on! This is the Acts of the Apostle style.

Jesus said, "If any man thirst, let him come unto me and drink." Just because you have been filled, is no sign that you are not supposed to get thirsty any more. In the natural I'm hungry and thirsty every day, and so in the spiritual realm: I feed on what I preach to you. What would you think of a cook that wouldn't eat her own cooking? "Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God."

The Word of God won't slack your thirst, but the Holy Ghost will. "Out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water." Jesus didn't say, "Let him come and shout." He didn't even say, "Let him come and pray" or "sweat, praise, prostrate," and go away empty. He said, "Let him come and drink." We can drink every day and stay filled. Paul said in I Cor. 14:15, "I will pray with the spirit: I will sing with the spirit." Every Spirit-filled believer should be doing that every day in his private prayer life. And unless we are doing that, we are not keeping filled with the spirit. If everyone did that, when we come to church the atmosphere would be charged.

How long does it take you to drink? How long do you have to pray before you can drink? How long do you have to sing before you can drink? If you can drink water, you can drink in the Spirit right now. Right now! Right now!

THE HOLY GHOST IS A GIFT— NOT A REWARD

But some of us poor preachers testify and preach for 45 minutes about the Holy Ghost being here. Then after we get folk to the altar, we say, "He isn't here. Lord, send Him. Lord, send the Power just now." You say, "Brother Hagin, no use singing that any more?" You're right. No use singing that any more. The Holy Ghost is here! This isn't a reward. It's a gift. One preacher said, "What you're preaching is scriptural, but it's hard on some of us old fellows. I've been going one way so long, it's hard for me to change. I know I'm wrong. I preached it as a reward. If it's a gift, then it's not a reward, and is received by faith."

Well, someone said, "Don't you think a fellow ought to straighten up his life before he gets filled with the Holy Ghost?" Well, bless God, if he's saved—born again, he's straight. Why, one fellow said, "I had to take a pig back I'd stolen, before I could get the Holy Ghost." I said, "I had to do that to get saved." We've got so many foolish ideas. It's the truth. You can't buy the Holy Ghost with good works and you can't pay cash for it. It's a gift. Beside that, doesn't the Bible say that the blood of Jesus Christ cleanses us from all sin? If a man is cleansed from all sin and is walking in the light, he's ready to be filled with the Holy Ghost, right now!

We've got a lot of silly notions about these things. Sister Brown, who is here tonight, was praying for the Holy Ghost back there in 1939. She was at one end of the altar and the Lord baptized her. She spoke in other tongues. Later that evening, as she had her hands upraised and was praising God in English, a man ran over to her and said, "Sister, pull your wedding ring off, and the Lord will fill you with the Holy Ghost." That's what some folk mean by straightening up. I said to him, "Brother, you're too late. He's already filled her, wedding band and all." Praise God! And He had!

Some folk say, "Brother Hagin, you make it just too easy." I always tell them that it wasn't I that did it. Thank God that it was God that did that. Others say, "Yes, but I just don't believe in railroading them through." Well, do you believe in railroading people through to salvation? Certainly, you do. If they don't get saved today, tomorrow may be too late. "Today is the day of salvation." What do you mean, railroading them through? Well, getting them filled just as quickly as you can. Do you believe in railroading people through to healing? Don't you want to get healed as soon as you can, especially if you're hurting real badly? Salvation's a gift, healing's a gift, the Holy Ghost is a gift. And if they are all gifts and received by faith, then why tell a fellow that he's got to wait?

One preacher said, "There's a lot of these new fan-dangled methods. A lot of new short cuts. I believe in the old fashioned way." Why, friend, you can't get any more old fashioned than the Acts of the Apostles or the old time Bible way.

DID PAUL RECEIVE THE HOLY GHOST THE RIGHT WAY?

One minister said, "I waited for three years to get the Holy Ghost. And I know that it means more to me than it would, to have received quickly." Well, I said, "Poor old Paul. I wish that you could have gotten to him, brother. I feel so sorry for poor old Paul. You said that the Holy Ghost didn't mean anything to those that got it quickly. And Paul got it real quick-like. Ananias laid hands on him and he received immediately. But it didn't mean anything to him. All he ever did was write most of the New Testament. All he did was preach for 38 years where no one else had preached. And did more in 38 years than most denominations have done in 500 years. If you could have gotten to Paul, he could have waited to be filled and then maybe pastored a church that runs twenty-eight in Sunday School like yours." I said that in love.

But does it last? Whether you "got it" quickly or prayed a long time, it will last you if you stay filled. How many of you were filled with the Holy Ghost when I was here five years ago? Please stand. (Many stood to their feet, among them some of the staunchest Christians of the church.) Well, if it lasts five years, it ought to be good for fifty years! But someone said, "I remember those glorious times of waiting on the Lord to be filled." Have you given up those times of waiting? I've got an up-to-date experience. I remember the precious time I had waiting on the Lord last night. Glory! Someone says, "There's been more people filled with the Holy Ghost past midnight." The Bible doesn't say anything about past midnight. If they get filled past midnight, it's because they didn't believe before midnight. It's a gift! Friends, now is the time to receive! Come now, and receive the Water of Life freely.

I looked again at the ministers. Most of them were praying silently with heads bowed, unable to endure the tragic scene which to them seemed certain was about to unfold. Most of them felt that Brother Branham, in rejecting the offer of help from the officers, was inviting physical harm. To the congregation, the extreme disparity in size of the two figures made it appear, almost as a repetition of the David and Goliath challenge in the days of old. A strange tenseness settled over the audience; however, in view of what was happening on the platform, this was not surprising.

The seconds ticked by, yet nothing happened. I looked at the man who had made his boasts to see what was delaying him. It was apparent that something was hindering the challenger from carrying out his evil designs. His hands were still uplifted ready to strike, and he was yet uttering fearful imprecations, hissing and spitting, but yet he was not proceeding with the act of violence that he had intended. Now beads of perspiration appeared on his forehead. There seemed to be a strange force operating against him which he was not able to overcome. He appeared to make most desperate attempts to overcome it, but all to no avail. Suddenly with a shriek he fell sobbing to the floor, where he lay for a long time, a slobbering, quivering piece of human flesh and a solemn object lesson of God's judgment on one who would dare to commit such an impious act against a man of God. Brother Branham calmly went back to the pulpit, taking up where he had left off and continued preaching as if nothing had happened.

This was just one incident of many that took place in the Branham campaigns. In fourteen days of services, in four cities, with only a modest amount of advertising, some 70,000 people attended.

One thing had pleased Brother Branham very much. It was not particularly because of the large crowds that had attended, but rather because the meetings had been conducted on an inter-evangelical basis. God had given him a commission to minister to all groups and peoples. Now for the first time he had been permitted to preach to all Christians as though they were one body instead of to isolated sects with incompatible interests. Although persistent attempts were made by some to get Brother Branham to endorse some sectarian doctrine, he in all cases refused, to their disappointment, but to the satisfaction of the great majority.

RESULTS OF THE MEETINGS

One of the most important results of these meetings was the effect upon the people as they witnessed the supernatural in action. Although the Full Gospel movement had its origin in the ministry of the gifts of the Spirit, and this has been its distinctive ministry which distinguishes it from other groups, yet there had been such an evident falling away in actual practice that we discovered that ninety per cent of these people who attended the meetings had never previously witnessed a single miracle. Now when people saw miracles occurring before their very eyes, it brought a new inspiration into their lives. Multitudes who had been fearful to trust God for healing, now launched out on the promises of God. The church began to demand the ministry of the supernatural to be in action in its midst.

Another most important development was the effect these meetings had upon the ministry itself. When ministers saw the miraculous in action, many of them went to prayer and fasting and waiting before the Lord. During these days scores of evangelists and pastors received a new anointing upon their lives and launched out into an enlarged ministry. Of these, quite a number developed ministries that brought them into national prominence.

One Sunday afternoon meeting at Pensacola, Florida was one of the most impressive services that I ever witnessed. At that meeting Brother Branham told his life story and the appearance of the angel. At the close of the service it seemed that almost half the audience stood to their feet in response to a salvation invitation. Such crying and weeping and calling on God I had never witnessed before.

THE INSANE MAN'S DELIVERANCE

One miracle that occurred while we were there we will never forget, for the circumstances were very unusual. It involved an insane young man, who had been given to violence and had been brought straight to the meeting from the asylum by his sister. This incident has been recorded in the book, WILLIAM BRANHAM, A MAN SENT FROM GOD, and follows:

"The circumstance concerning the deliverance of a violently insane man was so remarkable that we must give space to a few of the details concerning it. As has been mentioned, because strong winds had forced lowering of the tent, one service of the campaign was held in the local arena. An insane young man had been brought from a state institution to the meeting that night, to be prayed for. At the close of the service, those who had brought him tried to lead him from the building, but he refused to go. When our attention was called to this, we secured the services of a half dozen men and took him from the building by force. So strong were the powers that possessed him that it required no little exertion to accomplish this, but at length we had him safely seated in the automobile, so we thought, and left him, supposing that there would be no further trouble. Imagine our dismay, when a couple of minutes later there was heard a hoarse cry, and turning we saw him dash from the car toward a group of women and children who were standing and talking near the door of the arena.

"His headlong dash occurred so suddenly and unexpectedly that we scarcely knew what to do. Fortunately, the people at the door fled in every direction before he reached them. Then furiously he turned and charged, with arms flying, toward one of the members of the Branham party, who was standing by. Demons have power to break chains, and to do other superhuman feats, but fortunately they are powerless before the Name of Jesus! Though struck at time after time, the brother was not harmed or even touched, no not by a single blow. Something supernatural parried every thrust made by the demon-possessed man. How long this might have continued, it is impossible to say, but just at that moment two policemen who happened to be in the vicinity, hearing the shouts and cries of the women, rushed up, and seeing what they supposed was a common brawl, began questioning both. At this moment, however, the insane man, with fierce imprecations, charged the officers, and they soon found that they had more than their hands full. Over and over on the grass they rolled and tussled, and finally the officers had to resort to rather stern measures before they could handcuff and subdue their refractory assailant. A call to the police brought out a squad car, and finally the man was secured and taken to headquarters, where he was placed in a special cell for the night.

"After they drove away, we shall never forget the tears of the unfortunate man's sister, who had been responsible for bringing him to the meeting. She came and pleaded with us with anguish of soul that Brother Branham would pray for him. Of course, it was impossible for Brother Branham to respond to the multitude of calls that came daily from those who would desire him to visit sick and confined people. But so urgent and grief-stricken was the sister, that finally Brother Jack Moore consented to tell Brother Branham about the case in the morning.

"The following morning, Brother Moore started to relate the story of events of the previous night to Brother Branham. Then occurred that marvelous manifestation of the gift of the Spirit, by which our brother often witnesses events that take place at a distance, and even before they happen. We are indeed reminded of the exploits in Elisha's ministry, when he beheld the plans of the King of Syria even before they took place. Or of Christ Himself, when He saw Nathaniel at a distance by other than natural sight. In this case God had already shown Brother Branham this insane man, that he would pray for him that day, and that the man would be healed. The scene of the deliverance was identified to him in the vision by the presence of a red-appearing car, and the manner of the clothing worn by the man who would be delivered.

"Arrangements were then sought with the Pensacola police for the release of the young man. But they, remembering the trouble that they had had the night before, perhaps could be pardoned for their refusal to let him go unless he were taken outside of the city limits and never returned. So finally a rendezvous was arranged on the Gulf beach, where all the parties concerned would meet. But when Brother Branham arrived and looked carefully at the cars, he made the remark that all was not what he had seen in the vision. While he hesitated, Brother Moore decided to drive his new De Soto up some little distance from where the insane man was, as his daughter and another sister were in his car. Brother Branham then got out and walked to where the young man was standing. He noticed at once that his clothing was exactly the same as what he had seen in the vision, so he told him to get back in the car and wait. Then a peculiar thing happened. As Brother Branham told it afterward, 'I looked back toward Brother Jack's car. Most of the beach was of white sand. But where the car had just been parked, there was a bank of red clay. The sun reflecting from the red clay on the highly polished tan sedan caused it to appear red. I knew then that this was exactly what I had seen in the vision. I went over then and pronounced the words to the young man. 'Thus saith the Lord, the evil spirit shall leave you now, and you shall get well.' Instantly the young man was delivered and entered into a normal conversation.'

"This was an impressive testimony to the police officers of Pensacola, as they realized that God had done something wonderful in their midst. It caused many to praise God for this manifestation of His compassion for the man whom Satan had so cruelly bound.

"Some months later, the young man who had been delivered sent in his testimony and it appeared in an issue of THE VOICE OF HEALING (July, 1948). His testimony reads as follows:

"When I was two years old I had polio. My parents carried me to many different doctors. I spent some time in crippled children's hospitals. All of them did no good. I got worse all the time. Finally my condition was so bad that I became insane. I had been in the state institution nearly seven months when my people heard about Brother Branham's healing service in Pensacola. I was carried over there and that night I was put in jail because the Lord wasn't through with me. He used me as an example to show the people that He has more power than the devil. When my sister came to see me the next morning, I was perfectly contented because God had shown Brother Branham that He had healed my body. I am now 25 years old and have a good job. Thank God for His healing power."

We have recounted this instance at length because it was typical of so many marvelous miracles that took place in those meetings. Many of these remarkable deliverances attracted wide attention and the fame of the evangelist rapidly spread abroad.

F. F. BOSWORTH

In these meetings we met many prominent individuals in the church world. Among these was F. F. Bosworth, who had experienced a most outstanding ministry in the years past. At one time his meetings had filled the largest auditoriums in America. He was now over seventy and had about retired from active ministry. However, after he had been in the Branham meetings, he received a fresh anointing from the Lord, and a renewed vision. He began to hold meetings again with great success. He went abroad to Africa and elsewhere for campaigns and God blessed him in an unusual ministry which continued until just a short time before his death. He was a great man of God and it was a pleasure to listen to him as he expounded on faith. He had a great gift of building faith in God. And now as we write we receive news that this great man of God has gone on to be with the Lord. Yet God gave him nearly ten years of added ministry after his supposed time of labor was over!

T. L. OSBORN

Then there was T. L. Osborn, who had returned from India, disappointed with the results on the mission field. He had accepted a pastorate in the Montavilla section of Portland. On the night the demon-possessed man had been struck down, his wife was present at the meeting. Next night she got her husband to attend. As he sat and watched a little deaf-mute's ears opened, God spoke to his heart and said, "This is the work that I have called you to do also." The next day he turned the responsibilities of his church over to certain members of the congregation and locked himself in his room, determining to remain there until he was sure that God's will was revealed to him. Out of a period of soul-searching was born a unique missionary ministry that has reached tens of thousands for God.

MEETING ORAL ROBERTS

While in Kansas City a young man was introduced to me. He had only talked with me a few minutes when I realized that here was a dynamic young man who no doubt was to be greatly used in the deliverance ministry. He said his name was Oral Roberts. He had been holding meetings across the river in a church on the Missouri side. His meetings had just closed and he was staying over for the week to attend the Branham campaign. At that time he had not yet launched out in union meetings, but he informed me that he expected to purchase a tent and that shortly he was going into union services. It was evident that he possessed a strong faith and his ministry would make its mark on America. Time has indeed proved this to be true.

During these days we had plans to hold campaigns in all the large cities of America. Scores of invitations came to us—we had a suitcase full of them. Unfortunately there was one circumstance emerging that was causing us much concern. That was Brother Branham's physical condition. In previous months when we had held services in various churches it was natural that the pastor should be anxious that he would minister to as many sick as possible during the short time he was with them. In many services Brother Branham would pray until two in the morning. He had gone too much for the physical strength that he possessed. In May, 1948, he told us that upon conclusion of his meeting in Eugene, Oregon, he would have to leave the field until his strength returned. It might be a year or it might be forever. We were dismayed at these tidings. It seemed that we were meeting a dead end in our plans. It was hard for us to understand at the moment the truth of the Scripture, "All things work together for good with them that love the Lord and are the called according to his purpose." Yet God had a plan and as time went by we were destined to see it unfold.

the oppressed go free, and break every yoke . . ." This is the man or woman that God will use today, that man or that woman whose soul is in fellowship with the suffering Christ of Calvary, that person who would rather die than fail to see humanity set free. Of such a person the Devil is afraid. In the hands of such a person God has placed His heavenly dynamite. And in the life of such a person the "signs are following." Praise God!

Pastor Reports Move of God in Vinyard Revival Equal to the Fall of the Walls of Jericho

by Rev. Stewart H. Robinson

MICHIGAN CITY, INDIANA — We are experiencing a move of God equal to the crumbling of the Walls of Jericho, for the strongholds of satanic forces have been penetrated and the Holy Spirit has moved in to unfurl the "Victory" banner for our Lord Jesus Christ in this Hoosier city.

Walls of denominationalism have been demolished as Christ rewarded the "prayer of Faith" with the opening of deaf ears, restoring sight to bedimmed eyes, loosening of the arthritic limbs and miracles of healing night after night.

Towers of old rituals were broken asunder as the people of many faiths received the baptism of the Holy Spirit in true Pentecostal fashion, having been enlightened of the reality of the Power of God.

Barricades of distance lost their strength as people defied the sub-zero temperatures and battled the raging snow storms to drive many miles to be present as Evangelist Vinyard proclaimed the truths of God's Word. Quite often the Power of the Holy Spirit was so prevalent and Evangelist Vinyard so anointed, that without preaching, the altar calls were made and hundreds shattered the camouflage of Satan's deception and found Christ to be their personal Saviour as they denounced their sins and consecrated their lives to Him.

This move of God was so unique, rapid and wonderful that it was humanly impossible to accurately count those saved, healed and filled with the Spirit, but I do know that this city will never be the same since it has felt the impact of this visitation from God.

Since God keeps the perfect records only eternity can reveal the fullness of this time of reaping, but our church, as well as other churches of our city, have a new zeal and enlarged vision for the cause of Christ since God sent Evangelist Vinyard our way.

THE GOD OF MIRACLES VISITS THE WILSON FAMILY IN VINYARD MEETING

FATHER

I have been ill with arthritis for twenty-five years and also had prostate trouble. I had taken almost every kind of pill and pain relief that I could find.

On November 20, 1954, I was in an automobile accident in which my back was severely injured. My back became stiff as a result. A lower disc was injured and I was confined to bed for several days. My doctor merely taped my back and gave me pain pills for relief.

For four years I suffered. I finally had X-rays taken which showed three vertebrae were grown together. The doctor said that I would have to take cortisone tablets for the rest of my life. As a result of arthritis my hands lacked at least sixteen inches touching the floor when I would bend over.

The third night of the revival Brother Vinyard prayed for me and I was healed immediately. I now can place my hands on the floor, and am healed completely. PRAISE THE LORD!

MR. HENRY F. WILSON,
Michigan City, Indiana

WIFE

Through the facilities of our church Brother Vinyard is having a salvation-healing-revival.

The first night Brother Vinyard asked for a prayer line. The congregation answered as a whole and asked God's forgiveness for all sins, big or little, and the assurance of forgiveness from Him.

The second night of the revival I went in the healing line. When I was nine and a half years old, I had scarlet fever which left me deaf in my right ear. Upon examination, doctors found I had a ruptured ear drum that could not be helped. I even tried hearing aids without success. I had been deaf for thirty-seven years and am now forty-six years old.

Brother Vinyard placed his hands on my ears and through the prayer of faith I was healed. This happened instantly. He stepped back several steps and I could hear every word that he said.

About a week later, I was blessed with the baptism of the Holy Ghost.

I am now living a dedicated life to do God's will.

SON

I am writing this article at the happiest period of my life. Through Rev. Vinyard's contact with the Lord, I was given the light. Until the start of the revival, I was sinking lower in spirit and had many depressing periods of thought. On top of the many depressing things that happened, I am in a period of unemployment. There I was at the end of the line. It seems like when everything else is gone, the Lord is standing right there.

Through His love for me I am happy to say, He saved me and forgave me of my many sins. The first night of the revival I went into the prayer line. The second night I received the baptism of the Holy Ghost.

I held ill feelings toward many. Since Jesus came into my life all these things have passed away. My feelings toward people are that they are my brothers and sisters. It is a glorious feeling. I am so happy now that I can hardly wait until I can serve the Lord in every way possible.

Michigan City, Indiana

DAUGHTER

When I was eight years old, I had tonsillitis that left me with ears that would keep gathering and draining about every two or three weeks.

I also had pains in my chest constantly. I am now twelve years old. I went into the healing line, and Brother Vinyard placed his hands on my ears and my chest. The chest pains have stopped and my ears haven't bothered me since.

A few nights later I received the baptism of the Holy Ghost.

True or False

By W. V. Grant

True _____ False _____. Only one gift can work at a time.

The gifts of the Spirit may work parallel with each other. For instance, sometimes a man may receive the Word of Knowledge. Then he also needs the Word of Wisdom to know what to do with the Word of Knowledge. God may show me the secrets of some man's life. I could act unwise and tell it all publicly to the whole audience. This could greatly embarrass the man, or maybe cause a broken home or separation. God reveals His secrets to them that fear Him. But if we reveal those secrets unwisely then He may not trust us with secrets in the future.

Last Sunday night in Las Cruces, New Mexico the Word of Knowledge made me to know that someone was present who could not breathe through the nose. A lady came forward who had not breathed through her nose properly all her life. She was healed by the Gifts of Healing. People rejoiced when they heard her breathe over the microphone! Then suddenly a man came for prayer to be healed. By the Word of Knowledge God showed me he was not saved. By the Gifts of Miracles he was delivered from the bondage of sin, and saved.

True _____ False _____. The Gifts of Healing will heal a man gradually, but it takes the Gift of Miracles to heal him instantly.

Many people have been greatly confused by the above statement, which builds doubt and uncertainty in the hearts of people. This statement is made by ministers who are afraid that God is not going to work. They are already defeated.

Any time the Spirit of God makes a man well that is the Spiritual Gifts of Healing in action, whether the healing takes place suddenly or gradually. If nature heals you that is natural healing. The Gifts of Healing are not something that is little, weak, puny, and pitiful! The Gifts of Healing will heal all manner of sickness and all manner disease or affliction.

All of the gifts of the Spirit are miracles. The Gift of Miracles includes any miracle that is not included in the other eight gifts, such as casting out devils, laying hands on people and seeing them filled with the Holy Ghost, raising the dead, dividing the Red Sea, making the iron to swim, or stilling the storms. God does not always divide the Red Sea, but He forgives all our sins and heals all our disease. (Ps. 103:1-3).

True _____ False _____. Jesus said that whosoever sins you remit they are remitted unto them.

That is right, but that does not bring out all the thought. It was all spoken together, but man divided it into verses. "Then Jesus said unto them again . . . as my Father hath sent me, even so I send you . . . Receive ye the Holy Ghost: Whosoever sins ye remit, they are remitted unto them; and whosoever sins ye retain, they are retained." (John 20:21-23)

Jesus said that it was not He but His Father that dwelled in Him that did the work. (John 14:10) After we receive the Holy Ghost the Father dwells in us also. (John 14:17) We then go in Jesus' name, act in His stead, and do the works He did. (John 14:12) But it is not we that do the work, but the Father that dwells in us.

We can deliver people from sins just as easy as we can heal them. (Mk. 2:9) But we can do neither. It is the anointing of the Holy Ghost that does both. It is the Father that dwells in us that does the work.

Any time the anointing of the Holy Ghost is present to heal, people are not far from the Kingdom of God. (Luke 10:9) It is so easy for them to be delivered from sin. In the healing line Sunday night God completely healed several deaf ears instantly! Blind eyes could see! Stiff joints straightened. Then faith rose so high that several people were saved in the healing line, and several received the Holy Ghost. After that small church service, thirty-eight testified that they were saved from sin. That is what happens after the anointing of the Holy Ghost takes control. It is the Father that dwells in us—that does the work.

I said to her: "Do you believe that?" She said: "Yes." I simply reached out and said: "Then receive the Holy Ghost" and instantly she began to speak in other tongues as the Spirit of God gave her utterance!

Another woman in the audience, seeing what happened, was inspired, and came, and said: "Me, too!" I laid my hands on her and she began to speak in other tongues! There was in the audience a young Chinese medical student who was studying to be a medical missionary in China, who came down to the altar space and said: "I, too, would like to receive the Baptism of the Holy Ghost." I prayed for him, and as I prayed for him, he, too, began to speak in other tongues! The power of God fell in the meeting, and it was past 1:30 before the congregation dispersed, and God alone only knows how many received the Baptism that night!

Yes, my friends, Satan saw the fire, and heard them speak with other tongues on the Day of Pentecost!

SATAN SAW THE ORIGIN OF A GREAT WORLD-WIDE REVIVAL OF POWER

This power had been promised in Acts 1:8 . . . it was spoken of in Luke 24:49 and II Timothy 1:7. Not political power like Hitler dreamed of — not intellectual power like a colony of Einsteins — BUT THE POWER OF GOD to make believers more than conquerors, who would go forth and cast out devils, open blind eyes, unstop deaf ears, and declare to the whole wide world that miracles and deliverance are in the reach of every man and woman that will dare to believe God!

The Apostle Peter was in this crowd on the Day of Pentecost. He had been a fisherman who had only caught fish in the Sea of Galilee. Jesus had said unto him: "Follow me, and I will make you a fisher of men." Before the Day of Pentecost he had a poor record. He even denied Jesus, but now the devil saw him stand up and catch 3,000 souls on the first day!

THE DEVIL SAW THESE HOLY GHOST-FILLED MEN AND WOMEN
TAKE THE KEYS TO THE KING-DOM AND UNLOCK THE DUN-GEONS AND PRISONS AND LET
THOUSANDS OF CAPTIVE VICTIMS GO FREE!

His torture chambers were invaded by these new Holy Ghost-filled men and women, and the sick and afflicted and demon-possessed were freed wherever they went. The devil saw that he had no match against this invasion of Ghost power!

This was the same power that David had and the lions wouldn't eat him! That the three Hebrew children had the fire wouldn't burn them! That Job had, and the oil wouldn't boil him! That Paul had and the snakes couldn't hurt him! That Peter had and the jails couldn't hold him!

Ladies and gentlemen, let me say in conclusion that Satan saw the blood of Jesus at work! Just 50 days before that Jesus had spilled His precious blood between two thieves on Golgotha's hill. The devil with all the demons of hell must have laughed. They didn't know then that that meant a holiday in hell, that the graves would be opened and that the veil would be rent, and that the way of escape for every soul was made. And now just 50 days later, he saw men and women filled with the dynamic power of God to destroy his power and cry to the whole wide world, "There is a fountain filled with blood drawn from Emmanuel's veins, and sinners plunge beneath that flood lose all their guilt stains."

My friends, you can be saved and have that dynamic power of God working in your life TODAY!

MISCELLANEOUS REPORTS

HEALED IN A KRONBERG MEETING

Of my own free will and gladly do I give this testimony of the healing from a choking goiter of which the Lord delivered me on June 1, 1957, at Connersville, Indiana. Twenty-six years ago a doctor told me that I had an inward goiter. About two years ago it began affecting my breathing. I couldn't sleep at night because of difficulty in breathing. I was nervous and tired and worn out all the time, and I was gradually getting worse day by day. Now I praise the Lord for complete deliverance and I thank Evang. Walter W. Kronberg for his prayer and aid in my deliverance.

A SUCCESSFUL ROTHWELL MEETING

Pastor W. H. Wyatt of the Pentecostal Tabernacle, Richmond, Indiana, writes as follows: "God visited our church in a most precious way during the four weeks of January 12 - February 9 when Evangelist Charles Rothwell ministered to us and we enjoyed one of the most complete revivals we have ever had. The Spirit of God moved to save souls, to fill hungry hearts with the Spirit, to heal the sick, and to supply all financial needs. God spoke to us in prophecy as our brother ministered under great anointing to lift the faith of the people and stir their hearts to prepare for the second coming of Jesus. One lady was healed of a terrible heart condition. Another lady with a fractured ear drum which had been deaf for eight years could hear a watch tick. In every way we were so pleased with the ministry of our Brother Rothwell that we gladly recommend him to every church."

REPORT ON EVANGELIST B. D. BENNETT'S SUNNYSLOPE, ARIZONA, MEETING

by Rev. Ted S. Brandon

I am very happy to report to you that we have just closed a revival with Evangelist B. D. Bennett in the "big tent" here in Sunnyslope, Arizona (suburb of Phoenix) with wonderful results. Souls were saved, blind eyes opened, and many others felt the healing touch of God. The wonderful, powerful sermons of Brother Bennett just thrilled our souls, especially the one Hell Over America.

A Typical Conversion by Radio

"Many are the letters we receive from our radio audience and just a short time ago one made us shout. It was from Julio. Actually, we've never met Julio but we feel we know him personally. Some time ago he wrote saying that he was thankful for the message preached by Hermano Pablo (brother Paul) as I'm known in radioland. He was beginning to see that the State Church was not the Way. We corresponded with him several times and every time he would write, his letter seemed to show a soul in the agony of the crossroads. We prayed for Julio, kept letters and Gospel literature going to him and kept pouring God's message over the air. Then came his last letter. 'I can now really call you Hermano Pablo for I have accepted Jesus as my personal Saviour. My whole life seems changed and especially do I notice a tremendous sensitivity in my conscience. Thank you for bringing me this joy.' This is just one of the many who have found Jesus as a direct result of our daily Gospel program, Voz Evangelica. Please pray for Voz Evangelica as often as you think of us. Radio burdens us strongly."

Africa

Harry DeVries, who has done some excellent work in providing equipment for native workers, has just left for Africa. He plans to hold campaigns in Sierra Leone, Nigeria, and other countries.

Brother Harry De Vries and some of the equipment he is sending native evangelists.

TOMMY HICKS

LEAVING FOR BUENOS AIRES

About the time that you will read this issue of World-Wide Revival, Tommy Hicks will be leaving for Buenos Aires where four years ago he held history's largest revival campaign with 200,000 people attending a single service. Now the door has been providentially opened for another campaign.

TWO NEW BOOKS BY W. V. GRANT

ONLY 50¢ EACH

HOW TO RECEIVE THE DESIRES OF YOUR HEART is written with the knowledge gained from personal experience, by the author of some seventy books on faith. It was written in the press of healing revivals; written in the language of the layman; written under the anointing; written just after the Lord appeared with an important message, written for the people who have failed to receive the answer.

THE COMING WORLD REVIVAL. Will there be one more world-shaking revival? Will this revival reach all denominations and all nations? Will you be prepared to use this Spiritual outpouring? Who will the Lord use in the latter earth-shaking revival, and where will this revival start? How will the Lord cause all the peoples of the earth to hear?
