GOSPEL INVASION OF THE PHILIPPINES GREAT SUCCESS

Thousands Converted — 1,000 Baptized in Water — 1,000 Receive Holy Ghost

One of the daytime altar calls early in the campaign. These altar calls regularly ran into the thousands by the second week.

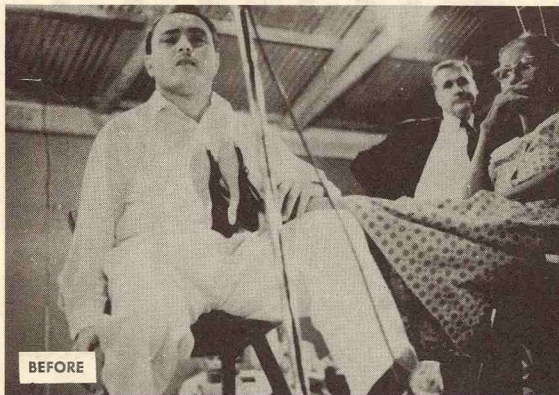

A night altar call. Night after night multiplied thousands responded to the invitation.

About a thousand people waded out into Manila Bay to be baptized. First ones are returning.

View of the combined Evangelistic Party in Manila. From this group came four separate parties which began campaigns following the Manila Congress.

One of the great miracles which occurred in the Manila campaign. A woman's short leg grew out. Notice the difference in length in the two photographs. Woman's hands are raised, praising God.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

The Winning the Nations Crusade is unique in that it works on a cooperative basis with many groups which have a vision of world evangelism. While the crusade does assume complete financial responsibility of certain projects (as the Manila Campaign) in general its design is cooperative. In all cases the evangelist is encouraged to raise as much as he can on the field and personal supporters should continue their regular giving. Although overseas mass evangelism is revolutionizing missionary work, its cost is inevitably heavy. The evangelist, beside his fare, has his regular home expenses to maintain. Moreover of vital importance is the building of shelters and churches to take care of the converts. The purpose of the Winning the Nations Crusade is to share, not to completely underwrite, responsibility of reaching the nations through mass evangelism.

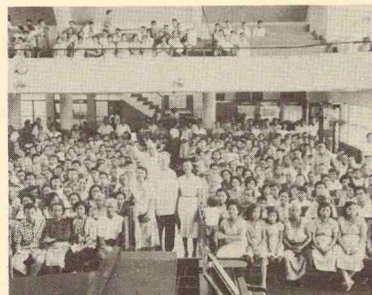

WHY THE MANILA GREAT COMMISSION CONGRESS WAS UNIQUE IN THE HISTORY OF MISSIONS

by Gordon Lindsay

1. Preparations were begun six months ahead of time. Lester Sumrall went to Manila to plan all details and set in motion all arrangements.
2. Cooperation of missionaries and nationals all over the islands was obtained.
3. All expenses were underwritten by the Winning the Nations Crusade. (Manila offerings all went to building a revival tabernacle.)
4. A strong literature program was arranged. 50,000 special magazines, many thousands of books were shipped, two months before the congress convened, for distribution over the islands. 50,000 Bible portions and other literature was purchased for use.
5. Two daily radio broadcasts over the powerful Manila Broadcasting System were initiated in connection with the Congress.
6. Five other evangelistic teams, including Rev. and Mrs. Al Reid and Tommy Reid, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond T. Richey, Harry Hampel, Philip Green and Paul Kopp, cooperated in the campaign, preparatory to initiating their own campaigns in various major cities of the islands.
7. The campaign was planned to be conducted in Roxas Park, right across from the city hall—the best location in Manila. Special permission from the Mayor was obtained.
8. During the campaign the ministry of deliverance was emphasized, with great miracles, and healings taking place nightly. These great miracles had the effect of stirring the city, and making it possible to reach the masses.
9. Above and beyond healing, the salvation of souls was emphasized. Altar calls nightly ran between a thousand and several thousand.
10. Each morning at 8:30 A.M. a special class was conducted by Ralph Bender for young converts that accepted Christ the night before. Each convert was given a Bible portion and other literature.
11. At 10 A.M. a great Holy Ghost meeting was held by W. V. Grant. Nearly 1,000 new converts as well as older Christians received the Baptism of the Holy Ghost.
12. At 3:00 P.M. a faith service was conducted either by Gordon Lindsay or one of the evangelists to build faith for healing in the night service.
13. A baptismal service was conducted on the closing day of the campaign, in which nearly 1,000 converts were baptized.
14. All offerings received during the campaign will go to the building of a new gospel center in Caloccan (a great population center in North Manila) to take care of the converts.
15. Other activities are being carried on or initiated in this Far East "gospel invasion." A powerful campaign was held at Hong Kong with outstanding results. Bob McAlister has been called to carry on this work.

The Great Commission Congress Makes History in Manila

by Mrs. Gordon Lindsay

Left: A Holy Ghost service in Bethel Temple. Rev. W. V. Grant ministered each morning in the 10 A.M. Holy Ghost Service. Nearly one thousand received the Baptism. Right: Brother Grant ministering to the people. He did not pray regularly for the sick, but ministered occasionally to a few. This promoted faith in the congregation so that people received the Holy Ghost in large numbers.

THE GREAT COMMISSION CONGRESS came to a glorious close on Sunday, February 15, in Manila, after three weeks of intensive revival, that without doubt, was unparalleled in results in several respects, in the history of the islands.

From 1,000 to 4,000 responded to the invitation to accept Christ nightly. So thrilling was it to see the sea of brown, upraised hands, magnifying God, after confessing Jesus as Saviour, many for the first time in their lives, that the tears would often flow freely down the faces of the American evangelists, pastors, and businessmen.

EVANGELIST MORRIS CERULLO, NIGHT SPEAKER

Each night, Evangelist Morris Cerullo, the evening speaker in beautiful Roxas Park, would, under a mighty anointing, pray a mass prayer for the many thousands who came, sick in body. With faith high, an electrifying current would sweep over the congregation, amid shouts of praise, while a long line filed up the ramp to the platform to give their testimonies of the miracles they had just received. Lester Sumrall shared in some of the preaching of the night services.

Many who were crippled in their arms or legs due to polio (which is quite prevalent in the islands, though not always recognized as such, but often called a "great fever") were healed by the power of God. Old men and women, along with little boys and girls, raced in front of the platform, as they were released from the bondage of the devil. Many had been paralyzed for years.

January is winter in the Philippines, and on one early morning, there was a "cold wave" that dropped the temperature to 62 degrees. This made the front page of the daily papers. Daytime temperatures were usually in the nineties. As a result of this tropical heat and high humidity, there is a good deal of T.B. among the nationals. Also deafness, as a result of fever, is common. The deaf and T.B. patients were healed by the hundreds. Many goiters, tumors, and ruptures disappeared instantly, to the amazement of a startled audience.

W. V. GRANT CONDUCTS MORNING HOLY GHOST SERVICE

W. V. Grant conducted services each morning in beautiful Bethel Temple, speaking on the Baptism of the Holy Spirit. For the most of the meetings, the church was full of hungry hearts, and at least a thousand were baptized in the Spirit. Often, fifty in one day received. Methodists, Baptists, Presbyterians, Church of God, Church of Christ, Assemblies of God came from all over the islands for hundreds of miles, many of them camping right in the church quarters, so hungry for God were they. Everywhere, Brother Grant's humble, gentle spirit was spoken of, yet the people revelled in the powerful anointing that enveloped him. On the last day, four hundred seekers came forward at the invitation, and the majority received. On some days, the morning services continued right into the 3 P.M. meeting.

THE AFTERNOON FAITH SERVICES

Gordon Lindsay divided some of his afternoon services with the other evangelists of the party — Raymond T. Richey, Al and Tommy Reid, Harry Hampel, Philip Green, and Paul Kopp. Each of these men's mighty ministry was highly appreciated, and many Filipinos received the impression that God has built a special "spiritual dynamo" into all of the Americans.

To recognize the darkness from which the Filipinos are saved, one needs to be in this city of two million for one month as we have been, and see the sheer idolatry of the people.

On our way to a speaking engagement one Sunday morning, our truck was stopped for one hour as the statue of St. Martha, a doll about 2½ feet tall, was being carried through the streets on an elaborate platform, on the shoulders of about 15 men, who were dancing as they went. About them, swarmed thousands of Catholics, dancing and making vows to St. Martha.

On another occasion, we visited a large central Catholic church. There we saw men and women kneel in the rear of the building and crawl all the way to the front, over the rough tile, to atone for their sins. In the back, men and women were standing in line, waiting their turn to kiss the feet of the "black christ." There, they would fondle, caress, and kiss the feet again and again, until the black paint had worn off the image. No wonder these dejected looking people flocked by the thousands to Roxas Park to find Bible deliverance.

At 8:30 each morning, Ralph Bender instructed the converts of the night before. Hundreds of them came to Bethel Temple for this service, each day, to rejoice in the God of their salvation, and from a free book given them, learn how to become a strong Bible Christian.

Much of the success of the meeting, was due to the battery of skillful, and anointed interpreters, who spoke to their own people with great fluency and boldness. As soon as one "played out," he was quickly replaced by another equally as capable. Ruben Candalaria, national pastor of Bethel Temple, proved to be the man of God we had read about. Rudy Esperanza, Superintendent of the Assemblies of God nationals, wore a perpetual smile of victory. Missionaries Alfred Cawston, Floyd Hurst, Odell Roberts, Mel Stewart, Glenn Dunn, Edward Blount, Supt. Ernie Sjoberg, Arthur Alhberg, Lester Kenney, Leslie Bedell, Mamie Williams, and James Reesor, were always on hand, doing the multitude of great or small tasks, as the need arose.

THE CHINESE SERVICES

Of the 22 million people on the islands, 200,000 of them are Chinese; these are the "Jews" of the Philippines. While all the services were interpreted into Tagalog, the national language, three special meetings were held for the Chinese, only. Great miracles took place and many received salvation.

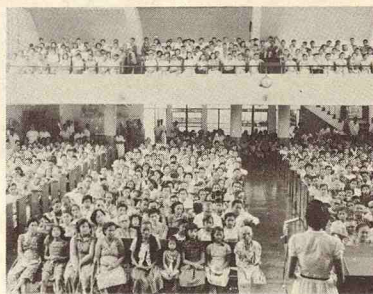

Surprising to us was the place that higher education has been given in Manila. On one street alone, there are ten large universities and colleges. The largest one is the Far Eastern University which has 26,000 students enrolled. We were told that many of the members of Bethel Temple are college students or are teachers, doctors, lawyers, engineers, etc.

ALL OFFERINGS GO TOWARD BUILDING NEW CHURCH

One of the prayerful "goals" of the Congress was to build a new church in Caloocan, in the north of Manila, so as to take the "strain" off of Bethel, with its 2500 in Sunday School. The last several Sundays, the church has been so packed that the children were begged to go home to make room for the adults at 11 A.M. Surely, it is time to build a new church! The fine branch churches cannot take care of the people. During the Congress, an ideal location was found, right on the main street, and the blueprints for the new church have already been drawn up. All offerings, above actual meeting expenses (no salaries for any of the evangelists) will go to build this church. Brother Cerullo graciously donated the only offering that was received for him (on the last night) for the construction of the church. How anxious the party is to see it built now.

ONE THOUSAND BAPTIZED IN HISTORY- MAKING SERVICE

On the closing afternoon, a great baptismal service was held on the bay, with some twenty national pastors baptizing the 1,000 candidates—undoubtedly the largest baptismal service in the history of the islands.

The final meeting arrived all too soon in the opinion of many, with thousands attending. Interest was so high, that instead of sitting on the ground as they had been doing for the past three weeks, the people stood for several hours, afraid they were going to miss something. Months of fasting and prayer had gone into the preparatory work of the Great Commission Congress, but all of the party felt highly gratified at the results, with attendance running to 15,000. The campaign chorus, CHRIST IS THE ANSWER, shall ring in our ears until Jesus comes. Every time we hear it sung, we'll be reminded of Manila, and the thousands of brown hands that were raised each time they came to "Oh, Hallelujah, He's All I Need." God bless the wonderful Filipino people!

The New Caloocan Bethel Temple

The new proposed Caloocan Bethel Temple.

The old building and congregation.

Odell Roberts Relates History of the Work in Caloocan

Rev. and Mrs. Ely Cruz, National pastors of the Caloocan congregation.

Caloocan, Rizal, is a suburb of Manila, the largest city of the Philippines. The population of Caloocan is estimated at 78,000. For several years there was no Pentecostal church there. Previously there had been one there but was moved to Manila. At the present this church, Bethel Temple, is the largest Pentecostal church in the Philippines.

In answer to a call of God, Rev. and Mrs. Ely Cruz came to Caloocan to establish a church there. This burden seemed insurmountable at first because there were no means in which to carry it out. After much prayer and waiting on the Lord, the way opened.

The first service was held on February 12, 1956. Through the kindness and generosity of Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Caes, we were permitted to use the first floor of their home. How grateful we were to have a place to assemble ourselves to worship God. Not only were there services started in one place but in several outstations and barrios nearby. There was no income to sustain Rev. and Mrs. Cruz so they had to carry on secular work as a means of support. Very soon the people learned to give of their meager fare so that a small salary could be paid to the pastor.

Within a few months the average attendance increased reaching a peak of 247. Soon the place was crowded out and teachers were sent out to the nearby outstations to teach the pupils there instead of bringing them to the church. Twelve outstations were held every Saturday but were carried on with difficulty because of the lack of workers. The average attendance of the outstations is 650 each week.

In the early part of March, 1958, Mrs. Roberts and I accepted the responsibility of American pastor and missionary of the church. Never have I seen a harvest field so ready for the reaping. Surely this is God's time for the Philippines! It is not a difficult task to have a crowd gather to hear the gospel message preached. The Gospel is accepted in all simplicity.

At the present we are worshipping in an old school building. The ground floor serves as Sunday School rooms and living quarters for the native pastors, Rev. and Mrs. Cruz. The top floor is used as an auditorium for our services. This is a condemned building, nevertheless God is blessing us as we gather to worship.

God has given a mighty revival to the Philippines in the past few weeks. How thankful we are for the brethren that came with the Great Commission Congress. For three weeks people flocked to the Roxas park to hear God's Word. Many were saved and healed nightly.

These people that have recently been saved need a church in which to worship God. Would you help us thrust in the sickle? You can do so by prayer and giving that this church might be built.

Why Caloocan was Chosen by Great Commission Congress As Site for New Church

One of the great objectives of the Manila campaign was to build a new church to take care of the converts. Powerful as the deliverance revival is, its effectiveness is seriously diminished if there is no place for the converts to go. Bethel Temple is a large church, but on the Sunday morning of the last day of the campaign the building was ridiculously overcrowded. Some 2500 in Sunday school overflows the accommodations of one church.

So the decision was made to build a new church in connection with the revival. It was obvious that the new revival tabernacle must be built within the general area to take care of the converts. The missionaries met together and decided that the center should be built in Caloocan, the heart of a heavy population, to the north of the main part of Manila. This area already has a fair-sized congregation. The erection of a large gospel center in Caloocan gives a double-barreled weapon to strike this great capital of the Philippines.

The missionaries made a special trip to Caloocan and decided that the best place for the new church was right near the central traffic circle of the city. This traffic circle is the center from which traffic flows for miles around. Negotiations are now being made to secure this property, which, will cost 40,000 pesos, (about $12,000 U.S. money). The building itself will cost about 37,000 pesos more. Despite liberal giving throughout the campaign, many thousands of dollars are yet necessary to complete this church.

Therefore we are asking all our friends to send a special gift offering to us this month to make possible the establishment of this revival center. If everyone will do the best they can, and some who are able, will send us large offerings, we can get going on this vital project in a short time. You too will then have a part in the establishment of another strategic gospel center which will be the means of reaching thousands of souls for Christ. Just fill out the coupon on the opposite page and mail your offering now. (Remember, also you will receive our new Bible and Deliverance course.)

The Prophetic Picture in the Far East

by Gordon Lindsay

ELSEWHERE in this issue, we have told the story of the Winning the Nations mass evangelization program in the Philippines. In this article we would take note of the prophetic picture which is unfolding in the Far East.

Newspapers in America are reporting that there is trouble brewing in the Philippines, and we regret to say that they are right. The former cordial relations are seriously strained. The respective ambassadors have returned home for consultations. A newspaper man, Mr. Bell of Time Magazine, has been permanently barred from the island republic. Altogether, there is a definite misunderstanding between America and the nation that has long been her greatest friend in the Far East.

We who are in the Philippines at this moment, realize the seriousness of the situation. Few Americans know that ten years ago these islands had almost fallen into Communist hands. The Communists (called Huks) had virtually taken over the country. The administration sat powerless in Manila awaiting word that the revolution had taken place that would permanently turn the republic into a Communist stronghold. At that time China had just fallen to the Communists, and they were preparing to strike through Korea and Indo-China. The whole Far East was in fact ready to totter into the Communist camp.

THE MIRACLE OF RAMON MAGSAYSAY

But at that moment a miracle took place. The greatest man that the Philippines has ever produced appeared on the scene—Ramon Magsaysay. The U. S. government today thinks so much of him that his portrait has been placed upon one of our commemorative stamps. Magsaysay was the humble son of a blacksmith. His educational advantages were extremely limited compared to our president, Abraham Lincoln. During the Japanese occupation, Magsaysay became a national hero by carrying on an intensive guerrilla warfare against the enemy. Then for several years he dropped out of prominence.

During those years the Communist plot to subvert the entire Far East was developing. Chaos and fear ruled the Filipinos. The leaders were helpless. It was then that Magsaysay was appointed Secretary of National Defense. Magsaysay, in contrast to many in the Philippine government, who considered their position only as an opportunity to enrich themselves, was scrupulously honest, even turning down gifts raised by popular subscription. As Secretary of Defense, he went into action. Through a fortunate circumstance he learned the names of all the Communist leaders. In a lightning coup he had them all under arrest in a few hours. Within a matter of a few weeks the back of the ominous Communist revolution was broken. Due to this failure to secure the Philippines, the Communist timetable for taking the Far East was interrupted. Magsaysay was not only a national hero, but had become a world figure.

This great man went on to obtain the presidency of the islands, and in four years time had inaugurated a series of reforms that turned the Philippine islands into a prosperous republic. Magsaysay was idolized by his people. Under him they were united as in no other time in their history. He had a strong religious nature, and in an interview with Lester Sumrall and Oral Roberts, he affirmed that "Christ is the answer" to the world's troubles.

Unfortunately, just before he was to go to America to be honored with an invitation to speak to a joint session of the U. S. Congress, he was killed in an airplane crash. Since the time of his death, there has been a steady deterioration of the situation in the Philippines. There is a financial crisis now that threatens the security of that nation. The country is seriously divided, and anti-American feelings arising. Financial chaos and anti-Americanism usually begets Communism. However, fortunately the vast majority of the Filipinos and their leaders are still basically friends of America. A revival here can be the greatest bulwark possible against Communism.

THE FILIPINO FALSE PROPHET

Every nation seems to have its false prophet, and the Philippines are no exception. The rise of one Felix Manalo and his cult is of international significance. In a few short years it has become the leading sect of the nation. It now claims a million members, has three thousand chapels, fifteen of which are said to be worth a million pesos each.

The rise of Felix Manalo in some respects is similar to that of Father Divine; both religions center around the grossest materialism. Both had little education, read few books, were nominal members of orthodox denominations before they went out on their own. Both men were led as a result of a "revelation" to exalt themselves to deity or near deity.

The founder of Iglesia ni Cristo, Felix Manalo, at first a Catholic and then in succession a member of the Methodist, Episcopal, Christian Missionary and Seventh-Day Adventist churches, finally disagreed with them all. He went to his room "to fast and pray for three days," after which he got his "revelation." All other churches were false; he alone had the truth. He was to "expose" these churches and found one of his own.

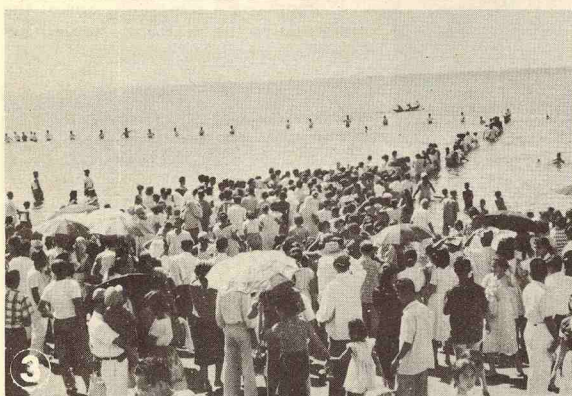

In order to give strength to his pretensions, as head of the church visible, he made the announcement that he was none other than the angel "with the seal of the living God" spoken of in Revelation 7:2.

What are his teachings? The cigar-smoking Manalo tries to make life as easy as possible for his adherents. With great eloquence he enjoins his members to set up their own standards of morality, but cautions them against over-indulgence. Though many of his converts come from the poor, he also has a large following in the middle class. Gay parties and dances help Manalo "knit" his members together more closely. With so little required from the standpoint of Bible piety, and with his assurance that he is indeed the "great angel" of Revelation, which is practically equal to deity in the eyes of his followers, it is easy to see how he is making such inroads with the twenty-two million inhabitants of the islands. In many respects he is the "Father Divine" of the Philippines. Alas, had we only more initiative and more faith, we could have had this vast number of converts for Christ instead.

NATIONALIST CHINA

of our party visited the Freedom Day rally on January 23rd, which corresponds to our 4th of July. Vice Premier Wang Yun-wu and several important figures of the Far East, were speakers. Tremendous enthusiasm was displayed by the audience, who feel that an attempt to invade the mainland of China should come quickly. Many of the people have their homes on the mainland, and are anxious to return.

In the meantime Communist China recognizes Chang-Kai-shek as their worst enemy. Had there not been the danger of U. S. intervention, the Communists would have certainly launched all-out war last summer, not only on the off-shore islands, but against Formosa. Recognizing that it would be foolish to take on the armed might of the United States at present, they backed down. But the mobilizing and herding of 600 million people into communes is building up a war potential of frightening proportions calculated to terrify the world. Surely in the unfolding prophetic drama of the Far East, the "way of the kings of the East" is being prepared. (Rev. 16:12).

JAPAN

Our stay in Japan was short, but we did get a "feel" of the situation there. The people are extremely polite. Entering a large department store just at opening time, we were startled to see the scores of clerks all bowing to us as they might to a Buddha statue. It is a Japanese custom.

Christianity lost its greatest chance two generations ago. At that time Japan had just been recently opened up to Western ways. Delegations were being sent to the United States to learn about our civilization. They quickly copied and mastered the technique of our industrial revolution, and learned and absorbed the advances in Western arts. A movement developed to accept Christianity as the national religion. Japanese sent to investigate the basic truths of Christianity were astonished to learn that a "liberal movement" was rising in the U. S. that denied the great basic fundamentals of Christian religion, such as the miracles, the resurrection, the deity of Christ, etc., and were reducing it to a religion of morals such as the religion of Buddha and Confucius. Confused by this situation the Japanese decided to retain their ancient religions. And thus was missed one of the greatest opportunities of all time.

An opportunity still exists in Japan, but missionaries there inform us that the going is much more difficult. Disillusioned by war, they are now obsessed with materialism. Nevertheless we believe that if there were a great revival center established in Tokyo, it could well produce the fire that would spread through the islands. Evangelist Paul Pipkin, with whom we had a long talk, is now conducting a radio program over a number of stations in Japan. However, to be

EDITOR'S NOTE:

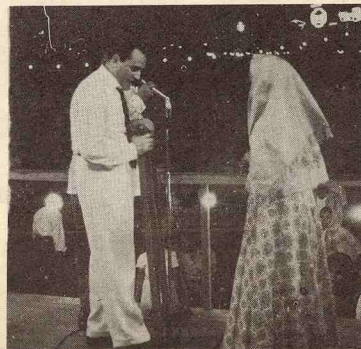

The power of the Manila revival owes its strength to the demonstration of the miracle. As the Apostle Paul said to the Corinthians, "My speech and my preaching was not with enticing words of man's wisdom, but in the demonstration of the Spirit and power." 1 Cor. 2:4. THE MARCH OF PROPHECY

Mayor Antonio Lacson, of Manila, (with dark glasses), welcomes some of the party. Campaign was held across from the great City Hall. Lacson may be the next president of the Philippines.

A MAN IN SPACE IN TWO YEARS, SAYS EISENHOWER!

It is no longer speculation; the president said in his annual message to Congress that the United States plans to put a man in space in two years! By that, he explained that a man would be put in orbit on a space platform. Such a platform will circle the earth in a hundred minutes, or fourteen times a day—a far cry from Jule Verne's fantastic story of a generation ago, called Around the World in Eighty Days.

The president said that the goal of this nation is peaceful interplanetary flight. He explained that a program was being planned to explore the solar system, first by unmanned, and then by manned "deep-space" vehicles. Mr. Eisenhower stated that thus far we have only reconnoitered the frontiers of space, but that now "there is a realization that the human race has begun its greatest, most daring adventure."

However, the first step toward space flight will not require two years. It will take place within a few months, perhaps by summer. Right now testings are in progress with the X-15 rocket ship, preparing it for "the most remarkable air voyage of man since that of the Wright Brothers." The ship had been built to go one hundred miles high, and at speeds of 4500 miles per hour! Scott Crossfield will pilot this remarkable craft. Costing $123,000,000, this space ship, part plane and part missile, will skyrocket up well over the atmosphere at speeds that would send it across the Atlantic in one hour's time. If this flight is successful, then most of the hurdles for limited space travel will have been overcome.

And so science and invention are proceeding in giant strides. Man is ready to conquer space, but he has not yet learned to conquer himself. He speaks of "peaceful interplanetary space," but he has yet to establish peace on the earth.

LATEST REPORT ON OPERATION SPACE MAN: The space administration reports that it has found 110 men who will be specially trained for the project of putting a man in space. When the final moment comes, two or three years from now, one of these will be chosen for the initial flight. Others will be chosen for subsequent flights.

Russia too, is breathlessly racing to put a man upon the moon. According to international custom of the past, the first nation to put its flag upon a new land establishes its claim upon it. Will our planet soon have a Red moon?

POSSIBILITY OF A RUSSIAN MOON CLAIM

The possibility of a Russian moon claim is not to be lightly considered. Already they have sent a rocket within a few thousand miles of the moon, and it is now in perpetual orbit around the sun. In other words, the rocket missed the moon by an astronomical hair breadth.

In the International Astronautical Congress in Amsterdam last summer the matter was seriously discussed. The president of the convention, Andrew Haley, tried hard to get the Russian delegation to go on record as renouncing any territorial ambitions on the moon. The Russians sidestepped skillfully.

The fact is that the recent rocket carried pennants with coat-of-arms of the U. S. R. R. and the formal inscription, Union of Soviet Republic, January, 1959.

THE SPECTRE OF BIOLOGICAL WARFARE

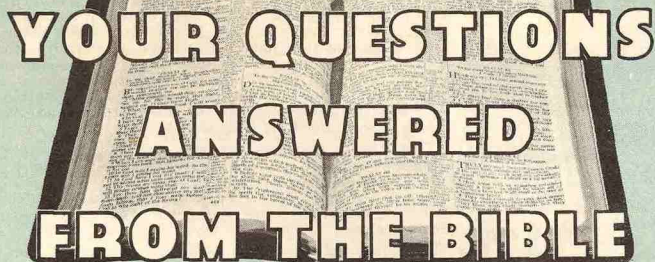

While the attention of the world is focused on the fearful potentialities of hydrogen bomb warfare, there come reports of the development of another kind of horror, which is being whispered about as being even worse—biological warfare. This is not to be confused with bacteriological warfare which involves the use of live germs, and at present is forbidden by international law. Biological warfare uses toxins derived from bacteria, and is legally permissible. An idea of its potential power may be understood from the following statement. "Any country which can afford one good biologist can render any other country incapable of war in a single night!"

British scientists are said to be producing botulins toxin, which is so deadly that "eight and a half ounces properly distributed, could kill everyone in the world." Unlike atomic warfare, biological warfare does not require costly installations. There would be no way of knowing until it was too late, that the enemy really had weapons of this kind.

While it is true that rumors of secret weapons of this nature have generally been exaggerated, nevertheless, it seems evident that other weapons of the destructive order of the atomic bomb are now being prepared. The only shelter from these, is the one found in Psalms 91. "He that dwelleth in the secret place of the Most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty."

POPE TO CONVENE MAJOR COUNCIL OF A CENTURY

The new Pope, John XXIII, announced on January 26, the convening of its great assembly this year. The importance of this event, as far as the Catholic Church is concerned, is that such an assembly has occurred only about a score of times in its history; this being the twenty-first one in some 1500 years. In previous councils, major decisions involving the great problems of the church were made. These decisions involved the establishing of Catholic dogma, dealing with heretics, instituting the inquisition, etc. One of the announced objects is to explore the possibility of bringing some of the Protestant groups back "into the fold." It is believed that an invitation will be given to the Greek Orthodox Church to return. Watch this event! The hour is undoubtedly at hand when prophecies involving "the woman who sitteth upon the seven hills" of Rome are about to unfold. (Rev. 17).

YOUR QUESTIONS ANSWERED FROM THE BIBLE

After the devil rebelled, why did not God punish him at once? Why did He permit him freedom to continue on his evil course?

Although there is undoubtedly more than one reason why God delayed His judgment on Lucifer, the one that surely stands out above the others is that Satan in seducing as many as one-third of the angels, must have succeeded in bringing into very serious question the goodness and justice of God. For God to have a kingdom that would be enduring, He must execute justice in accord with the conscience of His subjects. In the case at hand, God considered it necessary to demonstrate that Lucifer's rebellion was altogether the wicked, treacherous and infamous thing that it was. Moreover, He must give the universe opportunity to observe how that rebellion perverts holy beings into wicked creatures. Before executing punishment on Lucifer, God would first demonstrate the awful character of his act. He would give His subjects opportunity to witness the terrible consequences that must follow the introduction of sin into the universe.

God is a reasonable God. He would justify the wisdom of His laws in the eyes of His creatures. Satan, essentially selfish, contended that no one served God because he loved Him, but only for what could be gotten out of it. The devil's views in this respect are evidenced in his conversation with God about Job. God had called Satan's attention to Job's integrity and faithfulness to Him. The devil's sneering answer, was to ask, "Doth Job serve God for naught?" He insinuated that if God failed to continue to shower blessings upon Job, the latter would turn against Him and curse Him to His face. (Job 1:7-11).

Job's continued faithfulness was God's answer to the devil. The story of Job is believed to be the first written book of the Bible, and this shows the significance of the above incident. Satan's time is very near at hand, however, when he will be placed in the bottomless pit, and there bound a thousand years, at which time he will no longer deceive the nations. Shortly after that he will be disposed of forever. (Rev. 20:1-3 and 10).

Jesus, in Matt. 10:9, told His disciples that when they went out to preach to "provide neither gold nor silver, nor brass in your purses." Why do not preachers today obey this command?

Christ gave these instructions for a certain purpose. He wanted to show the disciples that God could provide for them regardless of circumstances. (Luke 22:25). And He did. Once when they had no money to pay a tax, the Lord told Peter to go down and catch a fish. He was then to open its mouth, take out the gold coin, and pay the tax. On other occasions when the supply of food ran low, the Lord multiplied the loaves and fishes until there was enough to feed several thousand people. However, the Lord performed these miracles only under certain circumstances. He refused to make bread at the devil's request. (Matt. 4:3-4). He would not produce a sign from heaven. (Matt. 16:1-4). He would not rain manna down from heaven for the "loaves and fishes crowd." (John 6:30-31).

The fact is the Lord, having proved that He could supply the need of His followers supernaturally, and that they could always depend on God in an hour of need, nevertheless did not want His preachers going around supporting themselves by unexplained and mysterious methods. This would only encourage people to not give to the cause of the Lord, thus making them selfish Christians. God, therefore, ordained that they who preach the Gospel should live of the Gospel. (1 Cor. 9:14). For this reason Christ rescinded His temporary order for His disciples to not carry a purse.

"And he said unto them, When I sent you without purse, and scrip, and shoes, lacked ye any thing? And they said, Nothing. Then said he unto them, But now, he that hath a purse, let him take it, and likewise his scrip: and he that hath no sword, let him sell his garment, and buy one." (Luke 22:35-36).

really effective, it needs to become a daily program instead of weekly.

Strong Communistic forces are alive in Japan. They cannot secure control of the nation as yet; however, in event that the Chinese Communists should strike in an all-out war in the Far East, these Communistic elements in Japan could be dangerous indeed.

Leaving Manila, our party went to Hong Kong, the last gateway to Red China. Being a free city it is the one place outside the "Bamboo Curtain" where there is a close contact with the Chinese Communist World.

Perhaps the strongest impression we received from our contact with the Chinese, both in Manila and Hong Kong, is the amazing renaissance of the great Oriental people. Centuries ago China was a great power and dominated the Far East. Her scientists developed such things as the compass, gun powder, and remarkable engineering techniques. The Great China Wall was an example of her ability to develop vast public works.

But now all is changed. The Chinese people are showing an astonishing vitality. In America, people are apt to think of them as operators of laundries, restaurants, etc., but here they are the great business men of the East. Hong Kong, for example, is an amazing trading and merchandising center. All the tradesmen we dealt with showed over average intelligence and unusual business ability.

What does this mean? It means that a giant which has been sleeping for centuries is now awakening. Under Christian leadership these people could take their place as a noble nation. Alas, that China is today under the iron rule of a Communist anti-god system that envisions nothing less than world domination, is surprising. Russia has less than 200 million people. What will the change in the balance of world power be when two-thirds of a billion people are armed and ready to make their force felt in the earth? Sixty nations, including America, could not defeat China in the Korean conflict. The French nation went down to humiliating defeat in Indo-China. Tibet and other countries have fallen before her advance. India is in the path of her advance.

Truly the hour of crisis is at hand! Red China, Russia and the satellite countries now include a billion people ruled by masters who are openly defiant of God, and who are bent on bringing all peoples of the world under their control. Every sign shows that the hour of the Great Tribulation is at hand.

What does this mean for us? Simply that the time is exceedingly short for us to fulfill the command of Christ to evangelize the world. There is only a little time left; God help us to make the best of the opportunity.

Is it all right to receive members into the church on confession?

Yes, it is all right to receive members into the church that way if they believe with their heart. "By their fruit ye shall know them." In the fifth chapter of Galatians we see listed both the fruit of the Spirit and the fruit of the flesh. Paul says that if we have the fruit of the flesh we cannot see the kingdom of heaven. Jesus says that one tree cannot bring forth both evil and good fruit. It must be either good or evil.

We need ministers in the church today who can discern spirits, in order not to fill the churches with unregenerated people. Paul set certain people who were spiritual in the church to judge. (1 Cor. 14:29)

As the pastor started to receive members into the church at the close of our revival in Waco, Texas, the Lord showed me that one man was not saved. Immediately, I went to him and prayed. He was delivered from sin and went ahead and joined the church. In one tent meeting a lady came forward and was healed. Immediately she was saved before about two thousand people. She said it was the first time she was ever saved, although she was a member of a denominational church.

Just last Sunday in Manila, a good number came forward and were saved. Then one lady told us that it was the first time she was ever saved, although she had belonged to a leading protestant church in that city. Some members who have not been really born again go back to serving Buddah.

John the Baptist would not accept people on confession or by baptism. He told them that they would have to bring forth fruit to prove that they had repented.

On the plane recently near Tokyo, I was talking to some university teachers. I took them aside one by one and asked them if they believed in Jesus. Each said they thought Jesus was a good man. Then they agreed that if Jesus was a good man He told the truth. I showed them that Jesus claimed to be Christ and Lord. Each confessed that he believed that He was what He claimed to be, but I saw that they did not have a change of heart. I did not count them as converts. They

BROTHER GRANT WILL TRY TO ANSWER EACH QUESTION SENT IN.

HOW TO WIN SOULS AND INFLUENCE SINNERS

This book was written especially as a textbook for all those faithful people who long to win many people to God, and receive a soul winner's crown after this life. It is just off the press. If you want to become a fisher of men, hurry and order this new faith builder now.

THE WEAPONS OF OUR WARFARE

Must I pray for spiritual gifts? Which gift is the greatest? The least? What is the difference in unknown and other tongues? Should one speak with tongues without an interpreter? Are five words in my language better than ten thousand in tongues? Should all speak with tongues? Should I speak in tongues before sinners? Should only two or three prophets speak or all prophesy? Is it all right for women to preach? How many messages in tongues may be given in one service? These and other questions answered in this concise commentary on I Corinthians 14—the most controversial chapter in the Christian Church of this century. This is a book on the vocal gifts—their regulation and demonstration. Keep it within reach of both pastor and member.

SIMPLE STEPS TO SALVATION

In order to be right with God, must I (1) confess my past sins to my wife? (2) Return what I stole while in sin? (3) Go to the altar and confess publicly? (4) Be baptized each time I pray through? (5) Tell my husband all my secret thoughts? (6) Ask the church to forgive me publicly? (7) Tell the police that I have stole or killed? (8) Serve time in prison for my past sins? (9) Tell my neighbor I have talked about him? (10) Go back and get my first wife?

Teaming thousands of people will never be saved until they are taught right about these and other problems. This timely book tells about the actual problems dealt with in Grant's Faith Clinic. It is written to help you and to help others to be saved. It has as much printing as most books selling for twice the price.

already had five hundred gods. They thought one more wouldn't hurt anything. There was no conviction. There was no repentance.

When Phillip went down to Samaria and preached Christ unto them many of the people were delivered from devils and disease. There was great joy in the city. Some today claim to be saved, but they have not received joy, which is the fruit of the Spirit. Before the disciples went to the upper room to receive the Holy Ghost they had great joy. (Luke 24:27). Some people claim to have received the Holy Ghost because they received great joy, but the disciples received great joy before they received the Holy Ghost.

After the Samaritans received great joy, Peter and John laid hands on them and they received the Holy Ghost Baptism. One man slipped by Philip, but not by Peter. By the gift of discerning of spirits Peter knew that his heart was not right with God, although he believed and was baptized. (Acts 8:13). He was almost taken in on "confession."

It is impossible to know how many thousands of people received Christ in the Philippine revival. We did not leave them as they confessed. We took them and "showed them the way of the Lord more perfectly." (Acts 18:26). We taught them to give up their idols. They received great joy. Then we laid hands on them and saw them receive the Baptism of the Spirit. During this time I saw that two of them had not really been born again, although they had confessed, and were seeking the Holy Ghost. As I went to them God showed me their heart was not right. Immediately they were delivered from sin and were filled with the Spirit.

A few mornings, faith seemed to rise high enough for them to receive the Baptism of the Holy Ghost instantly. We prayed for a few deaf mutes, blind people and those who were paralyzed, and when they were instantly healed hundreds were filled with the Spirit immediately. So that was more than just a hand-raising, church-joining revival where people are taken in on "confession." We will not know the results until we tell it to each other in the great beyond.
