REV. PAUL M. WELLS JOINS TVH STAFF AS RADIO PROMOTIONAL DIRECTOR

(Editor's Note: Rev. Paul Wells comes to the TVH staff with a vast background of gospel experience, having been a successful pastor and evangelist for a number of years both here and abroad. His knowledge of radio and television will serve the Winning the Nations Crusade broadcast in a full capacity. Rev. Wells and his talented wife will be assisting on the radio and in the Radio Rallies with Brother David Nunn).

By Paul Wells

Gospel Radio has been near to my heart for a number of years. Having worked both on Gospel Radio and Television for the past twenty years, I feel the need in America more keenly than ever before for a daily Full Gospel Pentecostal Bible Deliverance Broadcast.

At the present time there are no daily broadcasts of this caliber in the nation. There are many individual Sunday programs, and some local daily programs, but none having the nation-wide appeal of the Winning the Nations broadcast. I am sure that with the gathering storm clouds of world conflict commanding our every thought, we will stand together and pray together for the world-wide coverage of this great broadcast.

It is a pleasure to be working with the great men of the Winning the Nations broadcasting team: Evangelist David Nunn with a world-wide faith ministry that has reached millions and blessed multiplied thousands, and Rev. Gordon Lindsay, President and

by Gordon Lindsay

IT has been proved again and again that men and women with even modest abilities, who have learned the secrets of prayer, have been able to attain victories and achievements that were far beyond their fondest dreams. Indeed, in some cases their lives have changed the very course of history. Such was the case of Daniel, who from his youth made prayer an inviolable habit of his life. Kingdoms rose and fell, but Daniel, the man of God, lived on—a key figure of the world scene. His wisdom and counsel was eagerly sought after by princes and kings. Over the greater part of a century Daniel's life influenced the course of nations and kingdoms.

Such a devotion to a life of prayer is not maintained without cost. Daniel had severe tests indeed, but he met them all, and came through with flying colors. Once he was thrown to the lions, but the latter suffered a temporary case of lockjaw. It is not too bad to be in a den of lions if angels are there, too!

When Daniel came upon the scene, the kingdom of Judah was breaking up. Jerusalem, the Holy City, had been reduced to ashes, and the population transported, en masse, into Babylonian captivity. When the prophet passed from the scene nearly a century later, the people had been allowed to return to their native land. Jerusalem was being rebuilt. And best of all, in response to the prayers of Daniel, a promise had been given, that in less than 500 years the long awaited Messiah would appear!

God, today, is waiting for men and women who will, like Daniel, make prayer a ministry — a business in their lives. The potentialities of a consistent prayer life are tremendous; its possibilities are sufficient to satisfy the desires of the most zealous who want their lives to really count for eternity.

Prayer is an art susceptible to a high degree of development. It can be practiced indeed by the most simple, yet, its potentialities can never be exhausted. It is a lamentable fact that the average Christian masters only the most elementary lessons of prayer. Yet, if he only realized it, there lies waiting for him, power that could revolutionize his life.

SECRETS OF

In this article we propose to consider a few of the secrets of prayer. These, however, are not really secrets, since they are noted prominently in the Scriptures, but nevertheless, they are to a great extent unpracticed by the average Christian.

GOD HAS A MASTER PLAN FOR EVERY LIFE

In order to understand the place of prayer in the Divine plan, we need to know something of God's purpose in His creation. Man is God's masterpiece; he represents the crowning act of his Maker. For him the earth was renovated and restored to Edenic beauty. Just as the earth itself had a purpose, so God has an eternal purpose for every soul created in His image and placed in this world. God has a plan, a blueprint for every life. Sad it is that 99% of the human race never realize the calling for which they were created! They live only a bare margin higher than the animal creation. They eat, drink, sleep, mate, which is what animals do also. They appear to be utterly unaware of the eternal potentialities within them. Alas, these people are dead while they live.

Of the thousands of letters that come to us over the year, many contain a heartbreaking list of woes and sorrows. In some of these letters the writers, although they believe in God, seem unaware that their Creator has any particular plan for his or her life. They have tried to chart their own course and consequently they have run into a host of sorrows and entanglements that have brought them to the place of despair.

Effective prayer must begin as the prayer of Christ in the Garden, "Nevertheless, not my will, but thine be done." We must be committed to the absolute will of God, if we wish to have great answers to our prayers. Three-fourths of the reasons that professing Christians are not able to get their prayers consistently answered is because they have not fully oriented their lives to God.

The first step to a successful prayer life is the absolute commitment of one's life to the will of God. Then as we make prayer a vital part of our daily existence, we will, little by little, enter into God's perfect plan for our life. How much sweeter and better is God's will for our lives than the most dazzling thing we could conceive for ourselves!

THE REGULARITY OF PRAYER

Some Christians are weak in their prayer life for the very simple reason that they have not established a regularity for their prayer. The Early Church had a regular hour of prayer. (Acts 3:1) Peter and John, when they met the impotent man at the Gate Beautiful, were on their way to "the temple at the hour of prayer". Just as eating and breathing have to be regular, so must prayer be regular. There must be a definitely established time of prayer, that is not subject to interruption, and it must be every day! "Give us this day our daily bread," Jesus told us to pray.

Preferably, this time of prayer should be in the morning when the mind is fresh and has been cleared of the vexations and problems of the day before. Due to our complex life, however, it may not always be possible to have the prayer hour at the beginning of the day. But it must be at some time. It is hypocritical to say that we want to pray, but we cannot find the time. People always do what they want to do most.

VISUALIZE THE ANSWER TO YOUR PRAYER

Jesus said, "All things are possible to him that believeth." Faith, or spiritual sight, is the power that stimulates and makes prayer effective. Visualize your prayer as answered. Many people do just the opposite. They are conscious and absorbed in their failures, frustrations, and defeats. Some professing Christians go so far as to insist that God does not hear them when they pray. Pray for these folks, and you waste your breath. Ten minutes later they will want you to pray again. So accustomed are they in denying that God answers their prayers, that it becomes a veritable obsession. These people, by persistently confessing unbelief and weakness, lock themselves in a prison from which they can never escape. By refusing to act their faith, they resign themselves to failure. They actually throw away the very key that would release them from their imprisonment. Such people's only hope is that someone will appear on the scene who will hand them a miracle on a silver platter.

A friend of mine had such a woman in his congregation. She eternally complained that God never heard her prayers and nothing that he could say could dissuade her. He finally decided that she needed the shock treatment! After hearing her vehemently repeat that God never heard her prayers, he asked her in that case, why didn't she curse (knowing of course that she would not do that). This as he expected, brought her to open-eyed astonishment. She started to sharply rebuke the pastor, saying, "Why, sir, I thought you were a good man. Now you tell me to curse. Do you think I would let God hear me curse?" Whereupon the minister, seeing that the Lord delivered her into his hands, replied, "What kind of a God have you got? You say He won't hear you when you pray, but He hears you if you curse?" The woman saw she was trapped by her own words, and shamefacedly confessed that God must indeed hear her.

We must visualize the thing that we want, and act as if we already had it. This is Scriptural. Jesus said, "Therefore I say unto you, Whatsoever ye desire when ye pray, believe that ye receive them, and ye shall have them." (Mk. 11:24)

OUR PRAYING SHOULD BE KEPT ON THE OFFENSIVE

So much of prayer is asking God to repair damage caused by some previous attack of Satan. Prayer should be anticipatory. It is good to be healed, but it is still more wonderful to be protected from sickness. God gave the promise to Old Testament believers, "And I will take sickness away from the midst of thee." (Exod. 23:25) We are thankful that God will hear us in our troubles. It is still more wonderful to avoid them, through anticipation. "Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil," Jesus taught us to pray.

The King of Syria came down against the King of Israel not once nor twice. Because Elisha was a man who lived close to God he was able to anticipate his maneuvers, and counter measures were put in operation. (II Kings 6:8-12) Through prayer we can anticipate the evil that Satan is devising and avert it. We shall not have to continually waste our energies getting out of pits that Satan has dug for us. Instead we can make new advances for God.

LET THE SPIRIT PRAY THROUGH YOU

Everyone, at times, has experiences when it seems that their prayers hit the ceiling and bounce back. This need not be disturbing if we realize that the Lord has promised to be in our midst. If our prayers hit the ceiling and return then they reach the Lord "coming and going"!

Nevertheless, there are times when we wrestle with principalities and powers in heavenly places, and we are conscious of our weakness and inadequacy to cope with these tremendous unseen forces arrayed against us. That is the time to call Romans 8:26 into action:

"Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our infirmities: for we know not what we should pray for as we ought: but the Spirit itself maketh intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered."

Paul declares that we know not how to pray as we ought. There is a time when we need special assistance. That is the time to let the Spirit pray through us. There is such a thing as the Spirit of God praying through us, when we seem to be merely the observer.

I remember when I was in London, some years ago, scheduled to speak at the World Conference; word reached me that my mother had suffered a stroke of the brain, was unconscious, and would probably live only for a few days. After the conference, I was to go on to the Holy Land — something that had been a life-long ambition. To return to America meant the cancellation of all these plans. I had prayed earnestly about the matter, but in this case the circumstances were such that I did not feel I was getting through to an answer. Mother was 76. Perhaps it was time for her to go, for, as everyone knows, a stroke affecting the brain is usually fatal to one of that age.

Finding it impossible to get a clear witness for her deliverance, I ceased praying. My faith at the moment just was not adequate for the situation. For a time I remained in an attitude of prayer, but said nothing. How long I waited I cannot say, but suddenly the winds of God moved into that room! I found myself praying in the unknown tongue. I, myself, however, was completely passive — it was the Spirit of God that

IT'S HARVEST TIME

Dear Reader, it is harvest time now! All over the world the cry of the lost and suffering continues to be a great concern of all of us here at the Voice of Healing. We know that the only answer to the cry of the heathen is a revival of God's supernatural power and the love of Jesus spread abroad in their hearts. Won't you join us in praying for these masses and millions that a revival of miracles and deliverance can reach them before it is everlastingly too late. This is the only power that will spare them their heartaches, sweat and tears.

In our campaigns in Africa, South America, Puerto Rico, Norway, Ireland, Germany, Mexico and the Orient, we were able to lead thousands of these needy souls to Christ. Yet, this is just a "drop in the bucket" compared to the millions that are untouched by the gospel. How vivid and how true are the words of Jesus in Matthew 9:37 . . . "The harvest truly is plenteous but the laborers are few."

That is why I, along with our other Voice of Healing brethren, have been willing to leave the comforts of America, our families and our friends.

I have heard the heart-breaking sobs of the heathen, I have seen their tears as they waited for death to take them out of their squalor, misery and pain! I have seen multitudes begging for bread with outstretched hands. I heard the wail of the maimed and the blind lying by the wayside, waiting for someone to pass by and help them. It is unbelievable, but true, that there are millions of human beings who are suffering and on the verge of starvation and death right now, who do not know our wonderful Lord.

How many are able to grasp the total amount of the world's misery? Who can possibly estimate the sorrow and suffering that is endured by millions, for even one single day?

Friend, if you cannot go you must help send someone who can. Christ will not hold us guiltless if we neglect this vast harvest that is ripe now!

I wish it were possible for you to stand by my side for just one service and look out upon a vast sea of faces . . . many of them coming in the last hope of desperation. You would rejoice with me over the great victories that God is giving. You would understand why I ask you to pray. Pray more than you ever have before.

Truly God is a good God, and we are making known His deeds amongst the masses — Divine miracles is God's order, and among the Africans, in our recent campaigns, all manner of sickness and disease disappeared. I wish you could have seen the gratitude on their faces as they became aware of the fact that once they were blind, now they could see; once they were deaf, now they could hear. Cancers and tumors melted away and the lame walked away rejoicing.

This is God's Day of Visitation. The gospel is the answer to all of the suppression, rejection, toil, sweat and tears. God in His goodness has called us to go and enlist others in this great harvest of souls.

For many years the associates of the Voice of Healing have labored to give out the message of salvation and deliverance, and God in His mercy has been good. As you read this article, I want to ask you, "Who is your brother's keeper?" What are you doing about helping these sorrowful, suffering people who are headed for a Christless eternity? Millions have already died in despair and we will have to meet them at the judgment.

You can share in this ministry by praying and giving and standing with us as we GO. I am sure you want to be a part of a positive program to bring Christ in the lands of "Religious Night." You can help by filling out the coupon on page 5 and sending your offering today to help in our "Winning the Nations Crusade." May God bless you and use you as a soul winner for Jesus Christ.

Around the World with Voice of Healing Missions

The following reports are just a few of the outstanding Missionary and Revival Crusade Projects that The Voice of Healing is assisting around the world.

BELEM PARA, BRAZIL

"50th Anniversary" of Pentecost Belem Para, Brazil

Clair D. Hutchins has just returned from his third missionary trip to South America where God gave him a number of outstanding campaigns. He was also the special speaker of the "50th Anniversary of Pentecost in Brazil" where hundreds of pastors and workers gathered from many parts of the world.

Brother Hutchins writes: "40,000 people attended this great Pentecostal Celebration . . . In our other campaign in Brazil many souls were saved and healed and there was a real work of deliverance done in thousands of lives, for which we give God the glory."

TRINIDAD AND BRITISH GUIANA

Morris Cerullo has concluded "nation shaking" campaigns in Trinidad and British Guiana with crowds reaching 40,000 and more. Full reports of these crusades will be found elsewhere in the TVH.

JERUSALEM

Inside the Mt. of Olives Chapel on dedication day

S. J. Mattar, Warden of the Garden Tomb in Jerusalem reports that the Mt. of Olives Chapel was officially dedicated on July 14, 1961, and about three hundred people gathered. It was full, and some had to sit and stand outside.

RIO DE JANEIRO

The inaugural service in Rio De Janeiro at the Pentecostal Church of New Life, resulting from the radio broadcasts conducted by Bob McAlister and sponsored by TVH.

Bob McAlister Reports: Since my last letter to you, we have moved into the next phase of our evangelistic program. In this first service in the beautiful auditorium we called for testimonies from those who had received salvation and healing through the radio programs. About 200 people started to come to the front. It was a great thrill!

Now continuing our twice-daily radio schedule, I am holding services every Sunday afternoon in this auditorium. It is well located right in the heart of the city. I am having a hundred people saved a week. This is certainly a very live part of your "Winning the Nations" Crusades. What we have seen is just the beginning of greater things.

FINLAND

Ministers, evangelists and missionaries attending the deliverance school conducted by Evangelist Richard Vinyard.

Richard Vinyard sends the following report on the Deliverance School he is conducting in Finland:

"The facilities for the Deliverance School were packed to capacity by pastors, evangelists, elders and gospel workers from as far north as Jvalo, and as far south as Helsinki. As we began to teach, you could see faith rise in their hearts. Tears would flow and the praises of God would come forth. The class room turned into an old fashioned revival. The gifts of the spirit were manifested to confirm the teaching. The sick began to come, and the students began to exercise their faith and see God work."

HOLLAND

Phillip Green reports outstanding meetings with many miracles in Holland and Switzerland. Space does not permit us to give the glowing report by Pastor V. A. Huni-Urech.

I GREW UP in a Lutheran setting. My father, grandfather, uncle, grand-uncle and cousins were all Lutheran ministers, and it was hoped that I would follow in the family tradition. But I had other plans for my life. My uncle was in Congress, and he had promised me that he would prepare a post for me in the Diplomatic Service if I would prepare for it.

THE CALL OF CHRIST

In my last year of college I was at church one morning. My father was preaching on a text where Peter had denied Christ, and, feeling very much the sense that he had failed his Lord, he returned to his old job of fishing. Peter and the others had been out all night and had caught nothing. That morning, rowing towards shore in the early morning light, John spied a familiar figure on the shore and he exclaimed, "It is the Lord!" And at that, Peter jumped into the water and swam to shore, and, as I visualized it that morning, cast himself at the feet of Jesus to ask His forgiveness. Jesus didn't say one single word of rebuke. He simply asked, "Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me?" And he repeated it three times. That morning, my father repeated this question three times just as Jesus did. In that moment, it seemed that the pulpit, the pew, and everything else just fell aside. For the first time in my life, Jesus Christ stepped out of the Word of God into my heart, and He was asking me this question, "Harald, do you love me?"

In the very moment that He asked me if I loved Him, He gave me a glimpse of Who He was, of how altogether lovely and loving He is, and all my plans and ambitions for my life fell at His feet. I had just one desire, and that was to bring joy to the heart of Jesus!

HEARS TESTIMONY OF CONVERTED GANGSTER

That fall I entered Lutheran Theological Seminary. We have very many devout professors there who were a great blessing to me, but the man at whose feet I learned most was a converted gangster. I was hitchhiking home one day when I was picked up by this dark-complexioned young man who had headed a notorious gang in the Twin Cities. He told me that he had gotten involved in the drug traffic, and the F. B. I. had put him behind prison bars in what amounted to a life sentence. He was dying of kidney disease. He said, "Right there, on my death-bed, in the hospital prison, I began to think of the words of my godly old grandmother who had said, 'Warren, no matter how far you get from God, in your moment of need, turn to Him.' And I knew this was my last chance. I cried out, 'Jesus, save my soul!' I was lifted three feet out of my bed. The power of God went through my body, and when I fell back on my bed, I knew that I was completely whole. And sure enough, the prison physicians had to confirm the fact that I was completely healed. Then I was released from prison!"

Then he said, "Now, I want to hear your testimony." Up to that point I had thought that I had a testimony, but it seemed as if his testimony took all the wind out of my sails. I don't know that I knew this man was Pentecostal, but I knew that he was in a dimension, spiritually, that I had never known anything of, and that, even as I talked with him, my heart burned within me like those two men on the Emmaus road who unwittingly walked with Christ!

The next experience along this line came on my theological internship. In the Lutheran church we have four years of college and then four years of advanced training, one of which is like a medical internship. I had prayed that I would be under a highly spiritual minister. The Lord answered that prayer by putting me under the most coldly intellectual pastor, I think, in the entire Lutheran Church.

HE COMES IN TOUCH WITH MINISTRY OF HEALING

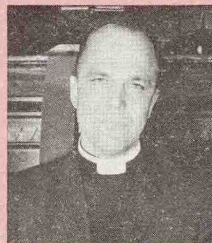

The pastor had one thorn in his side, and that was the Assemblies of God pastor who came and set up shop in a little basement tabernacle just a few blocks from our church. At first, our pastor did not even acknowledge his existence. If he met him on the street, he wouldn't even greet him. But, the time came when we could no longer ignore his presence because some of our people were straying over to his church and never coming back.

I was given a list of derelict members to call on. The first home I came to, the lady said, "Well, it wasn't easy for me to leave the Lutheran Church. All of my family and friends were there. But, when my little baby was dying of pneumonia, your pastor came and he said a prayer. Then the Assembly of God pastor came and he really laid hold of God, and didn't let go until six o'clock in the morning, when my baby coughed up an object in his lungs. And now you see him completely healed and well."

I thought this woman was too far gone for anything I could do for her, so I went to the next person on the list. She related that she once had a large goiter. She had gone to the little church to be prayed for. Nothing had happened, but in the taxicab on the way home, she had coughed up her goiter!

From a

Here is a thrilling testimony of a work brought him in contact with him into the glorious experience brought the Pentecostal experience following is condensed from his Modesto, California.

The third person told me that he had been so hopelessly cross-eyed that he had to use large, telescopic lenses. Without them, he was practically blind. He said, "They prayed for me at this church, and in faith, I threw away my glasses and went back on the job as a section hand. Now look at me!" And I looked at his eyes and they were completely straight. It was impossible to believe they had ever been crossed, or that they were the eyes of a man who would tell a lie!

I suppose I should have been very delighted to discover that Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and forever, as the Scripture relates, but instead of that I was very much upset. New truth is always upsetting, and this was particularly so because, if it were true, it would mean that I would have to re-evaluate so many of the statements that I had taken at face value, that I had been taught from earliest childhood. One of these was that the Age of Miracles was past. I thought the best way for me to find out the truth of this was through a test case.

THE HEALING OF THE CRIPPLED INVALID

There was in our congregation a hopelessly crippled invalid, suffering from very painful arthritis for eighteen years, completely confined to her wheel chair. I went to the church office, and I said, "Lord, if you heal today just as You did when You were on earth in the body, then prove it to me in Your Word. I'm just going to take a Bible at random off the church library shelf, plunk it down with my eyes closed, and put my finger down. The very verse my finger strikes, I want You to tell me: 'Do You heal today, or don't You?' " It was a very naive approach, but many times God does meet us at the naive level if we are sincere. When I opened my eyes and saw the verse my finger was on, I was amazed. It was: "Bless the Lord, O my soul, who forgiveth all thine iniquities, who healeth all thy diseases!"

And so, thus armed, I went to this woman's home and told her what had happened, and I asked, "Do you want me to pray for you?" She said she would be delighted. I anointed her with oil, according to the statement of James where he says, "If any of you be afflicted, let him call for the elders of the church and let them anoint him with oil." This book of James had been exegeted for us by the president of our seminary who had gone into each verse of the book, verse by verse, jot by jot, tittle by tittle, till he came to this and he had just skipped right over it as if it were not there. And I said,

Church Minister Ecocostal Experience

Message by Harald Bredesen

noted Reform Church pastor. As a prominent church man his residents and world leaders of many nations. But God led of the Baptism of the Holy Ghost. Since then, he has into his Reform Church at Mt. Vernon, New York. The personal testimony, given at a convention of the F.G.B.M. at

"Dr. ...., what do we do with this verse?" And he said, "It's dangerous! Proceed to the next verse."

I remember how small my faith was at that moment. It was, I'm sure, at absolute minimum. I went back the following day with very little expectancy, and was met by a radiant housewife! She said, "Pastor, last night, for the first night in eighteen years, I had absolutely no pain." And now that woman, instead of being a helpless, hopeless invalid, was up and around, taking care of her family.

MEETS WORLD LEADERS AS PUBLIC RELATIONS MAN

When I got out of Seminary, I felt that I was so deeply immersed in my churchy background that I really couldn't quite call my soul my own. I felt like a chick that had to burst its shell in order to live. So I went to New York City and became Public Relations Secretary for the World Council of Christian Education. I had been doing promotional work on the side from high school on, so I had quite a bit of background in this field. The World Council of Christian Education is the Christian Education complement of the World Council of Churches. It has member councils in some fifty-seven different countries. Its American council is the Christian Education Department of the National Council of Churches. This was right after the war, and it was my job, as public relations secretary, to enlist men of money and influence for the reconstruction of the war-torn Christian Education Systems of Europe. I went to Washington, got resolutions introduced into Congress, spoke to President Harry Truman and enlisted him as a sponsor. Then I got the King of England and about five or six other Heads of State to lend their names, as well as Henry Ford, Ex-President Herbert Hoover, Mrs. Calvin Coolidge, and two hundred people of that caliber as sponsors. All at once the number of our contributors jumped by about 1100 per cent.

The General Secretary, of course, was delighted. He said,

"Harold, we want you to think of this as your life's career. You could travel from country to country in which we have member councils and set up these promotion programs."

I was very much titillated about this at first. I thought, "Well, here I handed over the glamour and excitement of the diplomatic world to serve God, and now He's giving it all back to me on a silver platter." Yet, within me was this still small voice which was questioning, "Is this really Christian education? Is it really Jesus Christ that these vast sums of money are being used to exalt, and to bring these children to, or is the money going to wheels within wheels, so that the organization is becoming an end in itself, rather than a means?"

I didn't want to answer that question, because I was afraid it would cost me my job. The moment that I refused to be honest with myself on this issue, it seemed as if all the creative springs within me dried up. Whereas before I had been bubbling with ideas, now it seemed as if I became absolutely arid. It really panicked me!

That night I found myself in the hotel room of Abraham Vareide. He has these prayer groups down in Washington. The Lord has used him as a sort of evangelist to world leaders. He had invited me to one of his Congressional breakfast groups when I was getting these resolutions introduced into Congress. This night I found myself in his hotel room. It was around twelve o'clock. He said, "Harold, I believe God is calling you to work among world leaders. These very men, whose money and influence you have been exploiting for public relations purposes, you should be leading to Jesus Christ."

I left Vareide's room about twelve-fifteen, and was walking down home through the shadow of the Empire State Building, which is a very dark, deserted part of town at that time of night, and I asked, "Lord, how could You ever use me as a witness to world leaders? I can't do that," and I enumerated a long list of disqualifications. Then, just like the stroke of a bell, came these words, "I have chosen the foolish things of this world to confound the wise." And I said, "Lord, on that basis, I qualify!"

For the first time in my life, I felt completely secure! Up to this time, I had felt that everything depended on my own wits and I knew that one of these days people were going to discover how few I had, and I'd be way out on a limb. But now it was so marvelous to discover that all I had to be was a little child who didn't know what the next step was, putting my hand in the hand of an all-wise God.

I went to Glad Tidings Tabernacle the following morning, which happened to be Sunday, to meet this Man who had waylaid me on the street. I don't remember the message. I just remember the altar call. The British guest minister said, "If anyone has a sense of need let him come forward to this altar." I knew that what I needed was the infilling of the Holy Spirit. I went down to that altar, and was met there by an old high school chum and classmate, whom I hadn't seen in about fourteen years. And he said, "Since I knew you, the Lord has saved me and filled me with His Spirit, and now I'm an Assemblies of God Chaplain. I just got off my ship, and I believe God has brought me to this altar to meet you, to encourage you to continue your quest for the Baptism of the Holy Spirit!"

PRESIDENT OF LUTHERAN CHURCH ENCOURAGES HIM

I phoned Dr. ...., the President of the American Lutheran Church, a body of some two million. He came down to see me, and I told him everything that had happened. He said, "Harold, this is God. As He opens the doors, you enter, but do not run ahead of Him."

So I went out to the Assemblies of God Camp Meeting at Green Lane, Pennsylvania, and it was almost like coming to the Promised Land. I had never seen so many faces filled with light, and love, and joy. I thought of the early Christians of whom they said, "See how these Christians love one another."

by W. V. GRANT

Why do you want to go to Africa to preach when there is so much to do in this country? They are not all saved who profess. Those big meetings don't last. Why not be satisfied to do as Jesus, who didn't go more than a few miles away from home?

This question comes from an executive in a large company.

He does not believe in revival, yet he has a prominent position in a big church. When I answer, I feel that I will clear up the questions in the minds of thousands of others.

We go to Africa to preach because Jesus commands us to go and carry the gospel to all the world — to every creature. That was His last command. People have built fine buildings, schools and hospitals, and have done most everything else. About the time they get one church paid for they tear it down and build another. They put their money into organizations, machinery, salaries and most everything except the gospel message. All this is good, but they will never take the place of carrying the gospel to all the world.

We go to Africa because many of those people have never heard the gospel. No one has a right to hear this message the second time until everyone has heard it the first time. We go there because all races are equal in God's sight. He is no respecter of persons or races. We go there because ninety-four per cent of the people only have six per cent of the ministers. Six per cent of the people have ninety-four per cent of the ministers. This is not fair!

They are not all saved in this country who profess Christ. When you let down a net you bring up all kinds of fish—good and bad. Some seed "fell on good ground and some on stony ground." Just because half of your baby chicks die is no sign they were never hatched. It could be because they were not fed! You cannot blame the evangelist everytime. God has set both evangelists and pastors in the church. This business man does not believe in the work of an evangelist.

All of the revivals don't last. Neither does a bath. It is better for twenty-five per cent of fifty thousand people to stay saved than it is for twenty-five percent of twelve.

It is true that Jesus went only a few miles to preach. However, He did go to other nationalities. He went more than a two-day journey from home base. A two-day journey from home will put me in the heart of Africa!

Jesus said, "... the works that I do, shall ye do also; and greater works than these shall ye do..." He was speaking of believers. I don't take this to mean that we will do more powerful works. "The servant is not greater than his Lord." But we can do a greater volume of works. Our ministry can last longer than His. God, in His grace, has given to us the modern inventions such as radio, television, printing presses, public address systems and many other things to hasten this message to every creature before the end comes. A jet can carry us farther than a donkey can. Shall we take advantage of the means which God has provided for us? Shall we let the devil use these inventions to promote his work. If we know to do good and do it not, we sin.

What shall we do with our cars, radios, television, moving pictures and printing presses? We have the message and power of deliverance. We have the power and zeal. If you will help furnish the prayers and finances we can take this gospel of the kingdom to every creature, in our generation. More is spent on dog food than all denominations spend on religion! Today's newspaper told of a woman who left $300,000.00 to some dogs and $50,000.00 for missions. A million dollars spent carrying evangelists to foreign fields would prevent one billion dollars from being used to carry your sons there to fight a war. If we spent as much on revivals in these countries as we have for foreign aid, the gospel would have already been carried to all the world. America has a responsible place.

I would rather go to hell from any nation in the world than America. She has more light, and where there is more light given, more is required. If we know His will and do it not we will be beaten with many stripes. If we see the wicked and warn them not, their blood will be required on our hands.

Shall we go? "And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations; and then shall THE END COME."

Brother Grant's latest book, written in the middle of the recent African campaign, as thousands of people were being saved and healed. It shows you that God wants to use every believer. It will revolutionize your ministry — as it did his. Get it for your preacher.

Founder of the Voice of Healing and the author of scores of outstanding books on prophecy and world-revival. With these great men of vision and faith to present this message to the world through the Winning the Nations Radio Broadcast, we shall be victorious. The blessing of the Lord upon this great venture of faith is self-evident, for just one short year ago, there were only three Winning the Nations broadcasts going out to the nation. Today there are fourteen daily broadcasts reaching the nation and seventeen co-operating broadcasts in Latin America presenting the Winning the Nations message of this crisis hour.

My vision and goal for the Winning the Nations Broadcast is to put this program into every state in the Union, and into nineteen foreign countries within the next twelve months. This can only be accomplished through prayer, sacrifice, and hard work. We will see its consummation through the faithfulness of you, our listeners and friends of the Voice of Healing. By standing with us in prayer, and telling your friends and loved ones from day to day about the broadcast, we will, so help us God, reach the nation in our time.

Many things go into our plans for reaching the nations with this broadcast.

1. Skilled selectivity of stations in key areas across the nation with the least financial investment. A network broadcast would be fine, but the cost is prohibitive, and there would be overlapping areas of the network station, and in order to utilize God's money to its fullest, we must therefore take the next means of securing key stations in key areas that will blanket the entire United States, Alaska and Hawaii.

2. Rallies will be held in these key areas to acquaint the Christians with the program of Winning the Nations Crusade.

3. Our overseas vision includes the outstanding station, Radio Luxemburg. This great station reaches all of Europe and the British Isles. This great station desires to carry our broadcast daily. With the past conventions held in Europe by Evangelists Culpepper, Grant, Lindsay and Nunn, there is a dire need for this outlet. Their hunger for a broadcast on the continent that will bless the people and meet the need of Bible Deliverance in war-torn and Communist-threatened Europe is a constant hand reaching out for this Gospel Message.

I am sure there are many wonderful friends of the Voice of Healing who are hungry to see this broadcast reach the people of the continent.

SO MANY NEED GOD—SO MANY NEED THE SPIRITUAL STRENGTH that comes from this great faith building broadcast. I am sure you are already planning to become regular contributors for such a step of faith on foreign fields.

Will you pray with me and stand with us here at the Voice of Healing as we endeavor to put this broadcast across the nation and around the world in the next twelve months? Your letter today to encourage us that you are standing behind us is greatly needed and urgently expected.

HEALED BY RADIO PRAYER

Dear Brother Nunn:

I enjoy your radio broadcast very much. My body was in severe pain, and I placed my hand on the radio when you prayed. The Lord healed my side instantly. I thank Him so much for answering my prayer.

Mrs. Ernest W. Shobe,

HEALED OF CATARACTS THROUGH RADIO

Dear Brother Nunn:

I went for an eye examination to have my lenses changed only to find I had cataracts on both eyes. The doctor told me in 6 months I would be blind. I returned home and when your program came on I joined you in prayer. God completely and instantly healed me. I am writing this letter without glasses, and played the piano in the jail services last Sunday. Praise God!

HEALED OF BREAKDOWN

Since you prayed for our daughter in Seattle, she has been in perfect health. While you were there she was scheduled to return to the mental institution the following week. God marvelously healed her and her body and mind are as fresh as a freshly opened flower. Our church will never forget nor see a greater miracle I am sure.

God bless you and keep you preaching this great message of deliverance.

Sincerely in Him, was praying! What force and power there was in the Spirit's prayer! It seemed that the whole room was charged with the dynamic lightnings of heaven. I could not doubt that a miracle had taken place. Confident of the answer, I left for Palestine. Three weeks later in Paris, after I had returned from the Holy Land, I read the good news in a letter in my mother's handwriting. A miracle indeed had taken place. She was completely restored and lived four more years, until at the age of eighty, she went to be with Jesus.

THE IMPOSSIBLE CASES

The time usually comes sooner or later to believers when they are confronted with an "impossible case." Ordinary prayer does not seem to avail. There is always the temptation to rationalize the situation and resign one's self to failure. We tell ourselves, perhaps it is not God's will for the answer to come this time. Obstacles in the way seem so overwhelming that an answer appears unattainable. Yet, Jesus said, "Nothing shall be impossible unto you." (Matt. 17:20)

The truth is, God has foreseen all things. He has even provided for our human frailties. He has made provision for the impossible—that is for those wholly surrendered to Him. What is the secret of achieving the impossible? Jesus said, "Howbeit, this kind goeth not out but by prayer and fasting." (Verse 21) Fasting is the court of final resort, for the "impossible cases." It is the key to the impossible.

We cannot properly enter into this important subject here. Suffice it to say that prayer and fasting is a most powerful tool. Jesus made the above statement about prayer and fasting after the disciples had failed in an attempt to cast out a powerful epileptic demon. He promptly cast out the evil spirit, showing that there was nothing in the mind of God that had prevented the deliverance. All things are possible by faith. But it so happened that the faith needed to cast out this powerful spirit could be activated only through prayer and fasting. Christians at some time or other usually come face to face with the need of a great deliverance. Some consider the effort too great and are paralyzed in in-action. They reconcile themselves to defeat. Perhaps they may rationalize their failure by saying it was not the will of God for them to be delivered. But there are others who will not accept defeat, they press through to deliverance by prayer and fasting.

How long should one fast? That depends on how big a mountain there is to be moved. There were one day fasts in the Scriptures. There were three day fasts. There were seven day fasts, fourteen day fasts, twenty-one day fasts, and even forty day fasts.

Not everyone seems to be able to enter into a total fast. Why should not such people then enter into partial fasts, such as a fruit juice fast? Personally, we have found fruit juice fasts nearly as effective as the total fast.

Life is too serious to accept defeat. Shall we go into old age having missed life's great goal? Shall we not rather dedicate ourselves to a life of prayer. He who prays well, lives well. He will rejoice when the eventide of life comes, knowing his work is finished and a "well done" from the Master awaits him. He can say like Paul:

"I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing." (II Tim. 4:7-8) other." These people seemed to delight themselves in the Lord. I had never seen people really enjoy God to this extent before.

So I began praying in earnest, now. The moment I abandoned all thought of personal comfort, I suddenly found myself entering a new dimension in which I was being borne along as if someone else was praying through me. God gave me such a glimpse of His Glory that my worship became involuntary. In that moment, it seemed as if I saw a large reservoir of limpid, pure water and on the other side was

THE BERLIN CRISIS

The cause of the Berlin crisis is simple. Khrushchev with his bluster, loves to talk of the vaunted greatness and efficiency of the Communist system. By regimenting the population into making missiles, atomic weapons, developing rockets, sending men in orbit, and making spectacular shots into space, he is able to make some show. But, the Russians themselves live on a subsistence level of about 25% of the U.S. standard of living.

Now the thing that has disturbed Khrushchev is this: When he boasts of the glories of Communism, the West has to say, "But what about those four million East Germans who escaped from behind the Iron Curtain? What about the thousands who have been crawling under the fence to get away from Communism? Why do you have to build a high wall to stop them?" Khrushchev is thus placed into a position of the ridiculous. The world can see that people who have the power of choice, once they see the nature of Communism, will flee from it if it means losing everything they have. This is the reason that Khrushchev has had to shut off the West Berlin way of escape.

What is ahead for Berlin? Khrushchev's game can be plainly seen. He intends to isolate the city as much as possible. No war for the immediate present, but he intends to step up the pressure, make West Germans want to leave Berlin, cause the city to wither on the vine. There will be constant harassments, the closing of highways for "repairs", the restricting of railroad travel. Air access will be threatened. A squeezing of a little here and a little there. And how can the West stop him short of war?

If war should break out over Berlin, the West will try to confine it to conventional weapons. But if Russia launches an attack, Nato will use atomic weapons. Then, anything can happen. The siren that you hear wailing in your city may be more than an alert. It may be saying, "You have fifteen minutes to live!" Now is the hour for Christians to prepare an A-bomb shelter. It is found in the 91st Psalm. "He that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High . . . shall not be afraid . . . for the destruction that wasteth at noonday . . . A thousand shall fall at thy side, and ten thousand at thy right hand; but it shall not come nigh thee." Psalms 91:1,6-7.

HOW A NUCLEAR WAR COULD START

Newsweek, August 21, shows that the fall of the great meteor of 1908 produced similar effects to the explosion of an atomic bomb. Such a fall could panic a heavily populated area, and in the confusion, an order for an atomic counter-attack might be issued before the true nature of the occurrence was learned. Truly the words of Jesus find fulfillment today. "Men's hearts failing them for fear, and for looking after those things which are coming on the earth." (Luke 21:26)

COMMUNISM ON THE MARCH IN THE AMERICAS

During the past three years we have seen how Communism has taken over Cuba, a nation only 90 miles from our shores — lock, stock, and barrel. America by its poor planning was unable to check the swing. Told that Castro was Communist, our State Department dismissed the suggestion. Now Castro has the island tightly in his hands, and Cuba has become a Communist state.

Brazil was the second nation to follow close on the Communist line. President Quadros veered further and further toward the left. Here is a mighty nation which has opened its doors to the gospel. Yet, Communism is making a powerful bid to get control. Opposition, however, forced Quadros to resign. The Vice-President, who is practically an out and out Communist, had been sent on a mission to Moscow and China. When the reason for the mission became apparent, Brazilians became alarmed. The Vice-President has been sent word not to attempt to take office. The whole situation is a picture of confusion.

BRITISH GUIANA — Communism Wins First Election in History

It is with great rejoicing that we report the glorious success of the Cerullo campaign in British Guiana, which is related elsewhere in this issue. This great campaign came just before the Communist takeover of that country, not by military force, but through an election. For the first time in history Communism has won a free election. Of course, the people in British Guiana have no idea of what Communism is. They want a change, and they are ready to follow a strong leader, whoever he is, who will promise them good things.

On August 21, British Guiana became a free nation, and Dr. Cheddi Jagan, an avowed pro-Communist, was elected premier. He claims to be a neutral, but his whole history shows he has followed the Communist line. His wife is also a notorious Communist.

Eight years ago the British permitted Dr. Jagan to have a trial run at running the country. For three months there were riots, strikes, and Communist plots. The British removed him to prevent him from building a Communist beachhead. Now that he has power, it is obvious that he intends to turn that country into a Communist state. However, he is shrewder now than he was in 1953. Until the time comes to strike, he will play along with America, in order to get the financial aid that is being promised South America. Yet, even now he is working in close cooperation with Castro and other Communist countries.

The Miracle of the Trinidad and British Guiana Revivals

(The recent meetings in Trinidad and British Guiana have made revival history in those countries. Never before have evangelistic campaigns in this area approached the magnitude these have. Of special importance was the campaign in British Guiana which occurred just before the elections, in which a pro-Communist became president of the country. It certainly was ordered of the Lord that this campaign occurred just before the election. The fact was that because of the size of the meetings, they attracted more interest than the political campaign. Representatives of the large news agencies attended the meetings and have given it great publicity. N. B. C. came to the evangelists' hotel, and asked for a news conference. They requested specific permission to film the services. The Huntley-Brinkley team in their new T. V. telecast, broadcast from coast to coast in color, is featuring the meeting. On this page are reports and photographs received from Evangelist Morris Cerullo.)

"The closing weekend in Trinidad was indeed a triumph to our resurrected Lord. Woodford Square, consisting of five acres, was covered with a complete sea of humanity. (See photograph above.) We are very conservative when we state that 50,000 people were present. As you will note from the enclosed photographs, there were many more. These pictures do not match exactly, but they give the scene from these three angles.

Let me tell you of an interesting development which occurred in Trinidad. I was called to pray for a woman who was dying. As you know, it is impossible to begin making sick calls, as I would have to line them up at my hotel by the thousands. I advised the minister of this. He replied that the woman had made every attempt with her husband to get to the crusade and each time she collapsed in the car, and that she was dying and only God could save her. I did not know who she was, whether she lived in a mansion or a shack, whether she was rich or poor. I said to the brother that if this is the case, I would go immediately to pray for the lady.

When we got to the lady's house, we found her in bed demented in mind, and in terrible pains from bleeding ulcers, sore joints and high blood pressure. We gave her words of encouragement and left the home. Three days later I was notified that this same woman who was on her death bed, had attended the night crusade, fully restored in mind. They requested I go to the home. Now, it turned out that this woman was a very wealthy woman. When we arrived at her home, she had her servants lined up on one side, her business manager on the other, with her husband seated at the table and about eighteen children squatting on the floor. She wanted me to tell them of the way of God's salvation. When I walked through the door she made a very dramatic greeting. She was in her right mind, and healed completely.

The woman offered us great remuneration on our first visit . . . but you know we do not accept personal gifts in this way. When we refused to accept her money she could not understand it. She said, "What then can I do to help further this kind of work?" It then developed that this woman owns a string of theaters throughout the West Indies. We explained to her our great concern at the lack of buildings to carry out the word of God through the nations. This woman then offered to place these theaters at our use as evangelistic centers in all of these nations. This is a great miracle of God. In Port-of-Spain, Trinidad, we have been given the use of the most beautiful air-conditioned ultra modern theater, and beginning Sunday morning the brethren are arranging Trinidad's Evangelistic Center as a follow-up of the Crusade.

THE PENTECOSTAL BIBLE SCHOOL IN HOLLAND

by David J. du Plessis

While I was serving as secretary for "WINNING THE NATIONS" Crusade, I visited the Netherlands. Leaders in the Pentecostal Movement of Holland pointed out to me that two projects were necessary for a campaign to win that nation for Christ. One was a Bible school to train workers and ministers and the other was a Pentecostal monthly magazine supported by all and read by hundreds of thousands. I became keenly interested and promised to see what could be done to help.

The brethren in Holland began to talk about a Bible school in their fellowship gatherings. Pastor Van Amerom invited me to Groningen to see property that was available without a great deal of finance. I came back to America and began to talk about this matter to my friends. A few showed some interest and in one case there was a promise of some help. I encouraged the churches in Holland to proceed. Then it was suggested that I should personally come to stay in Holland for a period to launch this project.

The Lord blessed every step of the way, but it was clear that I was not to go to Holland. God had His men right there to take care of the situation. Then Brother John Kolenda of the German Pentecostal Bible School at Erzhausen and Brother Victor Greisen, Field Secretary for Europe (Assemblies of God U.S.A.) began to take a personal interest and helped in many ways.

In October 1960, the school opened in Groningen. In June 1961, it was my privilege to visit there and see the project an accomplished fact and the school in action. The buildings were quite inadequate but could be remodelled to take care of the situation temporarily to accommodate a limited number of students.

During July 1961, I received a letter from Pastor Graf, the director of the school, telling me that the city council did not approve the plan of remodeling, and new buildings had to be erected. He pointed out that at least $10,000 would be required to erect the first part of a new unit this year. My heart was burdened, and I began to pray. Shall I write to my friends? The Lord said, do not write. I continued to pray, feeling sure the Lord was working.

One evening in August I received a message to contact a sister by telephone. When I did so I found she was interested in the Holland Bible School. After comparing notes I found that while the Lord was guiding me not to write, He had promised her to send me into the area where she lived, and she did not have to write to me. The Lord had told her that when I arrived at her home she was to give me $10,000 for the Pentecostal Bible School in Holland. What an answer to prayer!

When this matter was first considered I was working with the Crusade for WINNING THE NATIONS. Now, although I am not actively associated in this work, it has worked out that these funds are being passed on to Holland through the services of the Crusade. The donor chooses to remain completely anonymous, but the Lord will also reward her and recognize her faithful stewardship.

As I know the situation in Holland, I realize that next year there will be need for another $10,000 to complete the project and bring the facilities of the school into line with the needs of the field. A great revival is rising in the Netherlands and this is a time to rally to the help of our brethren to WIN THE NATION FOR CHRIST.

HOW A REFORM CHURCH MINISTER RECEIVED THE PENTECOSTAL EXPERIENCE

a huge parched wilderness and desert. It seemed as if that water was yearning to burst its dikes and beautify that desert. But there was one bottleneck, and that was Harald Bredesen — not my sins or my vices — just Harald Bredesen, seeking to realize himself and at the same time serving God. When I saw that this self life of mine was rendering of no account, as far as going through me into the lives of others was concerned, the Grace of God that Christ had wrought for us on the cross, I abhorred myself. I said, "Jesus, make me after thine own heart!"

I went back to the service the following morning feeling that I was so close to this thing and had missed it, and feeling that I might never have another opportunity.

Then came a glorious message in tongues with interpretation. The Lord said to us, in effect, "Oh, my people, if you could only stand where I stand and see this world hurtling toward destruction, littered and broken, wounded hearts! I yearn to pour the healing balm of my gospel into these hearts, but to do so I must have channels, human channels, completely yielded and surrendered to me. Will you not yield? Oh, will you not yield?"

In that moment, I caught a glimpse of the love of Christ, as if He yearned to possess me utterly. It was like a jealous lover who would not be satisfied until he had all of me. Up to that point I had loved God with reservation. I had served Him with reservations. Therefore, I thought that He must love me with reservations. But now it seemed that my sins and failures had no more power to shut out the love of God for me than a fly speck could shut out the sun! And my hands suddenly rose involuntarily in awe and wonder. And suddenly, to my vast relief, it was as if a bottle within me was uncorked and my real, innermost being that had always been dumb and inarticulate within me was given a voice. There poured out a torrent of words in a tongue that I had never heard before!

It was such utter release to be worshiping God with abandon. Before, when I had been trying to pray, a large part of me would be sitting on the sidelines, observing, criticising, and asking questions, and I was more involved in the verbiage of my prayer than in the object of my prayer. But now I knew that my prayer was perfect, you might say, because it was the Holy Spirit, Himself, giving me utterance, and I could lose myself in the object of my prayer, namely, the Lord, Himself. I thought, "This is the missing link between modern 'churchianity' and First Century Christianity, or vice versa. I want to go back to my professors and share this experience with them."

Since my experience of the Holy Ghost Baptism, the Lord has enabled me to open up many doors among the "up-and-outers", which was my original calling. This church might not have seemed the best base of operation for that, but it has turned out to be so.

The healing service in our church is a free type of worship. I do not stand up in front or occupy the pulpit. I sit with the congregation, and we just wait on God to minister to us through various members of the body. We have a number of gifts operating within the church, such as gifts of revelation, prophecy, tongues, interpretation, and exhortation. We just enjoy basking in the presence of God!

Our service last Sunday lasted for two and a half hours, after which we felt so rested, including myself as minister. We were all refreshed because it had been God Who had been ministering to us, not the minister. I believe one reason so many ministers are having nervous breakdowns is that they are carrying the burden, rather than permitting the Holy Spirit to carry it.
