

SIRS, WE WOULD SEE JESUS

E-1 Tonight in Bloomington...I have looked forward to this coming for the past two years. I've been feeling led to come in this part of the country; which I understand that many of the evangelists has not been here, some of the outstanding evangelists of the nation has never been into this country. And I thought it would be a great thing, as I felt the tug of the Holy Spirit to come and minister with these brethren these eight nights here in the Name of the Lord: to come and place in our part of the seine, to seine for souls. And that's our business of being here, is to try to see the church of God increase in its power, and in its membership, and to the glory of the Kingdom of God.

E-2 And then, we pray for the sick; that's part of the Gospel as our Lord Jesus has told us that we should go into all the world and preach the Gospel and pray for the sick. And we have these nights, along in our campaigns that we pray for the sick. We do not claim to be a healer now. We just claim that we pray for the sick, like anyone else does.

We believe that all that God can do for you has already been purchased for you at Calvary. When He died at Calvary, He finished the plan of salvation, redemption for the soul and body. And now, we draw the earnest of our salvation, which is the Holy Spirit. And then also we have the—the earnest of our resurrection; that is, that when our bodies are sick, God is our Healer. I believe that it is upon a finished work that was completed for us at Calvary some nineteen hundred years ago, when Christ died for us to redeem us from these things.

I do not believe that there's anyone that could forgive sins, 'less it's a sin against them. If you'd sinned against me, then ask me to forgive you, I could do that, and would do it. But I believe that the sins that you have committed against God, that God is the only One can forgive those sins.

E-3 And I believe that Divine healing is based upon a faith, just like salvation, that we believe that He was wounded for our transgressions, with His stripes we were healed.

You notice, the apostle Peter places it in the past tense, "We were healed." It's a past tense, just like salvation is a past tense. When Jesus died at Calvary, He saved the whole world. Every human being, ever would be on the earth, the sin question was settled once for all when Jesus died. But it will never, you'll never be a beneficiary of this policy until you accept it. And there's nothing you can do to merit it. It's a unmerited thing that God has done for you. And you just accept it by faith; in the simplicity of faith God has made it, so we could all reach it. Rich or poor, illiterate or educated, we can all accept it because it's in the reach of all us, just by childlike simplicity to believe that the finished work at Calvary included me.

E-4 And, same goes by Divine healing, that we believe that Divine healing is something that Christ purchased for us at Calvary. It's a finished product of God, and only thing we do, is to receive it by faith, believe it. That's the reason we call it "healed by faith," because that's what it is. Therefore, it could not be in an individual, any person have something another that would heal another person.

Frankly, there's nothing that can heal you outside of God. "I'm the Lord that heals all thy diseases." The Scripture is infallible and cannot be broken. So therefore, medicine doesn't claim to heal. Medicine. . . We're not against medicine. Medicine is of the Lord. But medicine cannot heal. Medicine only can—can assist nature in God's Divine plan of healing. There never was a medicine ever healed anyone. There's no doctor will tell you that. Because. . .

E-5 I was interviewed at Mayo Brothers sometime ago, upon the Reader's Digest writing that article of, "The Miracle of Donny Morton." And on the interview they said, "We do not profess to be healers, Mr. Branham. We only profess to assist nature. There's one Healer; that is God."

For instance, if I broke my arm, and I went in to the doctor, and said, "Great healer, heal my arm; I must continue my work."

Well, he'd say, "You need mental healing."

That's right, if I would say such a statement as that. Now, he can set it; on his scientific profession he can set the arm, but he cannot heal the arm, because healing is a multiplying of cells, and that can only be done by Life and God. God is Life.

And if I cut my hand, and I fell down dead. They might put medicine in my hand cut; they could give me shots of penicillin, and for years after years, and that would never heal. If they could embalm my body to make me look natural for fifty years, I would say. It would not heal, because there's no healing quality in medicine. Medicine only kills the germ and keeps it clean while God heals. See?

Now, medicine was made. . . I've often said that a medicine that would heal a cut in my hand, would heal one in my coat. And someone would say, "Well, now wait a minute. Medicine wasn't for your coat; it was for your body."

Well, then why doesn't it heal then, after life has gone out of there? Why doesn't it heal then, if it's for the body? See? It would do just as much healing there, as it would here. If it was for the body, it would heal the body.

But you say, "Well, now life has to be there." That's right. So then Life is God, and God is the Healer. See? So it's all right back to God is the Healer.

E-6 The Scriptures does not contradict Themselves. And there's no Scripture in the Bible that contradicts Itself. I've asked for that for years and years. No Scripture, no statement that can contradict Itself, 'less it can be straightened with the rest of the Word of God to rightly put it together. Which Jesus thanked God for, that it was hid from the eyes of the wise and prudent and would be revealed to babes such as would learn. See? Now, we got to be humble in this. We've got to throw away our ideas about it; we've got to accept God's plan of it. That's the only way you'll ever be able to get anywhere with God for salvation for soul or body. It'll have to come through God's provided plan.

Now, if you've got a artesian well on this side of the mountain, spurting water by the millions of gallons a hour, and a crop on the other side burning up for water, now, you could stand and scream until you're took your tonsils out, and would. . . and screaming, "Oh, great water, come over here and water my crop." It won't do it. No, sir. It'll stay right there. But if you'll work according to the laws of gravitation, and get this water to come around the mountain and water your crop, it'll do it, if you'll work according to the laws.

E-7 Now, there's enough electricity in this room to light the room, if it was correctly, and like would be out in a big field where it's dark. And we know that Franklin and so forth has proved that science, that electric's in the air. Now, take a copper wire, and hold it up, drop it down, and you. . . The static, the electricity pick up, till it will almost light the earth, if it was a mile high in the air, would set the earth a fire.

Now, you could stand out in that field and scream as loud as you wish to, "I'm lost. I'm lost. Great electric, come now and light the way up, that I can see how to get in out of this darkness." It'll never do it. But if you'll work according to the laws of electricity, why, it'll light the way up, so you could get out. But you have to work according to those laws.

Now, God has a law too. And there's healing and salvation in God's 'termination for you, if you'll work according to His plans and His laws on such. So that's the way we must plan the meeting, that's the way; seven times around the world, I have been of all different races, kinds of people by the tens of thousands. I have seen great things that our Lord has did. But I always notice that it takes people that will humble themselves and lay aside their own thoughts of it, and just take God's thought of it, and work according to His plan, which is faith in what He said.

E-8 Now, we believe that God is Almighty God. Here in a Christian college, and on this grounds, and with Christian people, I'm sure we could all say a hearty "amen" to that, that God is God. He's the same God. If He isn't, He never was God. If He . . . And that God is infinite. He is infinite, omnipresent, omniscient, omnipotent. He is God. If those qualities isn't in Him, He isn't God. And He's the great eternal One. He never did begin; He never will end. And only, anything that has a beginning has an end. It's just those things which did not begin, has no end, that's eternal. Eternity has neither beginning or end. And the only way that we can have Eternal Life is receive part of Him in us, and that makes us sons and daughters with God's Life in us. Then we have Eternal Life, as we are sons and daughters of God. Therefore, we're eternal with God, when we receive Eternal Life. There's only one way to do it. That's be borned of this Holy Spirit. The only way we can have Eternal Life is be borned of His Spirit.

E-9 Now, then if God being infinite, and He has . . . Then He's perfect. He can . . . And if God is ever called on the scene to make a decision on something, if . . . The way He makes His first decision. . . Now don't forget this, as the services go on: The way He makes His first decision, His next decision has to be the same thing, and every decision He ever makes thereafter has to be the same. If He does change it, then He did wrong when He made His first decision.

See, we're finite. We . . . I can say, something, I have to take it back, because I'm a man. The smartest of us has to take it back year after year.

E-10 Three hundred years ago, a French scientist proved it by rolling a ball over the globe, and said, "If—if the . . . a—a person would ever . . . could be able to obtain the terrific power of thirty miles an hour, gravitation proved that he'd go off the earth."

Now, I tell you, science won't look back and say what they said, 'cause they're going about two thousand miles an hour now, and on the . . . staying on the ground at about four or five hundred miles an hour. See? So they wouldn't look back to what they said. But yet, it was a scientific proof that they, some way, they've rolled a ball around and at that speed, they said, "Thirty miles an hour it'd lift him up off the earth." Now, I would . . . That's ridiculous today.

So we find out, that in this, we have to . . . Them fellows were finite, that was the best they knowed how, I would not condemn that man for that. That was the very best that he knowed how. But you see, he has to change their ideas now, because it wasn't right to begin with. But that can't be God.

If God says anything, He's infinite. That's perfect. If God was ever called on the scene to save a man, calling for his lost soul, and God saved him upon a certain basis of facts, a declaration of facts, then if them same facts is met by the next man and by every man that approaches God, He has to use the same system. And He will have . . . If them qualifications is made, then God will have to act the same way. If He didn't He did wrong when He saved the first man. And if a man is healed upon the basis of his faith, man, a sick man was called on God, and the sick man when calling on God, God healed him because of his faith, if another man calls on God, uses that same faith, God's got to act the same way. See? So I'm trying to let you see.

E-11 There's so much in the lands today, that's under the name and the auspices of Divine healing that oughtn't to never be on the field. It's some kind of a sensation, and—and . . . You can be fooled by sensations. But the Word's what stands, God's Eternal Word. God's no better than His Word, or no one else is no better than their word. So it's back to the Word.

Now, I don't mean to say that God doesn't do things that He hasn't written in His Word. He could do anything He wishes too. That's God. But if I'll just . . . There's plenty wrote here for me. If I can just make this come to pass, that.. the promises He's give, then I know, it can be backed up by the Word of God, so it's God; that's all.

E-12 Now, we'll remember that as we go along. Remember God is infinite. He cannot change. He's the same yesterday, today, and forever. He has to stay by His Word. If God . . . If this is not the Word of God, then the Catholic church is completely right. It's the church instead of the Word. But if this is the Word, in the Book of Revelation 22nd chapter, God said, "Whosoever shall take a word out of This, or add anything to It, the same will be taken of his part out of the book of Life." So This is the Truth.

Now, I may not have faith to make it all come to pass. Like Enoch who believed in God so much, till when he taken an afternoon stroll with Him, and just got tired staying on earth, and walked up home with Him. I may not have that kind of faith. But I'll never stand in somebody else's way, who has that kind of faith. I'll—I'll be thankful to God for somebody who can take an afternoon stroll, and not have to die, and go right on up with Him. I'd—I'd wish I had that faith; hope to have it at the end of the road, or before that time, if I can.

E-13 So what we have got, we are here to pull together, not something new, but the same Gospel that's been preached to you all along, just here to put my net in with these brothers here, and pull together, as a group of people for the Kingdom of God's sake, to give new life to the church, to place my ministry with these men's ministry. We're not divided. We are brethren. And we're not here to add something to, or take something away; we're here to magnify what's already been preached, and what we believe, as children of the living God.

Jesus said, "The Kingdom is like a man that went to the sea, and cast in a net. When he brought forth, he had all kinds." That's what the Gospel net catches. It catches the . . . all kinds: turtles, frogs, snakes, lizards, and everything. The Gospel net will do that. It's not my business to say which is which or no one else; it's God makes the decision. That's God. But I just . . .

Some man standing on a corner, fishing, throwing his net in and pulling, someone else come by and help him, that's just what I've done here to Bloomington, is come, because I felt led of the Holy Spirit to come, and to place my net with my brothers, and throw it out across this country here, and pull for the Kingdom of God, with them, to bring in all the souls that we can.

E-14 Now, Divine healing is a minor. You can never major on a minor; anyone knows that. See? You cannot do that. But yet, as Dr. F. F. Bosworth one of my managers was in foreign fields with me, just recently went Home to Glory, eighty-four years old. He was . . . He said, "Brother Branham, Divine healing is like the bait you put on a hook to catch a fish. You never show the fish the hook; you show him the bait. He grabs the bait and gets the hook.” So that’s the way it does. It . . .

Divine healing and powers of God to heal the sick, draws the attention of the people. And when it does, then you can let the Gospel go to catch them into the net and heal the soul which is millions of times more than the healing of the body. That is right. The Lord bless you is my prayer.

Now, This is the Divine Word. And I solemnly believe It from lid to lid. And I rest my soul upon any phase of this blessed old Bible. I’ve been preaching It now for thirty-one years, around and around the world, and I’ve never seen It fail yet. And I . . . It won’t fail. As long as it’s God, and we have the faith to back up what He said, then God will perform what He said He would do.

E-15 Jesus said that the Word of God is like a Seed that a sower sowed. And any seed that’ll fall into good fertile ground will produce its kind. And if, I can only by the help of the Holy Spirit, cast forth the Seed into your heart, into the unbeliever’s heart, into the lukewarm’s heart, into the sick’s heart; let that Seed catch Life, if it’s in the right kind of a ground and the right conditions, it’ll live.

Recently I seen where they went down in Egypt; they got sunflower seed that had been in there for almost, I forget, how many thousand years it was. Some of the wheat that was in the garner, Joseph put in there way back twenty-five hundred years ago or more. Planted it in the ground and it raised it a crop of wheat, ‘cause it was germitized. That germ lays in there.

And any peoples that’ll take the Seed of God in their heart, under the right condition, It’ll produce just exactly what It said. I seen sarcomas cancer healed by It. And I know that it’s true.

E-16 Now, first, it must come in the right kind of ground. That ground is not theology; that ground is faith. We just lay aside our theology for a while, ‘cause there’s difference of us, and let’s just think about the faith that we’re going to speak of.

Now, did you ever plant a . . . pour a sidewalk in the wintertime? Where is your greatest crop of grass at? At the side, the edges of the sidewalk. Why is it? That seed fell off that grass beneath that walk; it’s covered over with concrete. But that s-u-n is the life-giver of all botany life. It has to come when the sun is in the certain conditions, springtime, the warmness of the sun will bring that life out. And you can’t hide it. That’s grass maybe buried in the middle of that sidewalk, but let the warm sun get just right, it’ll make. . . You can't hide that life; it'll come right through and stick its head right up to the praises of God. And. . . Because the sun, s-u-n is shining.

E-17 One day, the S-o-n will come, the Son of God. All life, no matter where it's at, that's a born again Life, that's germitized to the Word of God, it'll come forth. I don't care whether it's buried in the ashes, in the bottom of the sea, it'll rise in the likeness of the Creator, and will live forever. That's God's Word.

Let's bow our heads now while we talk to the Author of It for a few moments.

Most gracious and holy God, Who brought again Jesus from the dead. We thank Thee from the depths of our heart for this great act and this great assurance that He was wounded for our transgressions and was bruised for our iniquity. The chastisement of our peace was upon Him, and with His stripes we were healed. And that we know that we have been cleansed by the washing of the water by the Word. Now, we have Eternal Life through the grace of God, this treasure that we hold in these earthen vessels, not put in there by man, but by the power of the resurrection of God.

And we hear the poet as he wrote,

Living, He loved me; dying, He saved me;

Buried, He carried my sins far away;

Rising, He justified freely forever:

Someday, He's coming—oh, glorious day!

E-18 We wait and groan with nature, Lord for that great day that's soon to come. And we pray, Father, that You'll search our hearts tonight. And if there be any sin, which is unbelief. . . No matter how religious we are, if we still disbelieve God's Word, we are sinners. For he that believeth not is condemned already. For we know at that day the secrets of all hearts shall be disclosed. That great searching Light of God will search our hearts tonight and see if there be any unclean thing about us, any unbelief in God or His Word. Then cleanse us, Lord, from all that, that we might once again here in Illinois, see a great sweeping revival.

Lord, we pray that it'll start right here in Bloomington, will go state wide and nationwide. Grant here in among these people that's assembled tonight in all these cooperating churches, that the power of God will be so manifested in their midst, until they'll see and take new heart again.

Grant this college, Lord, that has let us have this auditorium, there'll be a revival break out here, like at Wheaton and down at Asbury, and many of the other places. It'll be a day and night prayer meeting, Lord, that people will come from the east to the west. God give them an old-fashion John Wesley revival, a burning zeal of these young men's hearts that would leave the college here that they might go forth like another Asbury. And grant it, Father. Give us of Thy grace. We dedicate our lives to Thee and the services to Thee, and all that we have both mentally and physically. Speak to us, Father, we pray in Jesus' Name. Amen.

E-19 In the Word tonight, which I believe that no meeting. . . This is just a little get together night, so that we could kind of get acquainted. I realize that I'm strange to many of you, but I would not have you feel that way; that I'm your brother. And I'm here in the interest of helping you and you helping me to know Christ better.

And over in a familiar text, and the ones who has followed the campaign, I thought just I'd speak for these few moments on this subject that might give a basic background of what we are trying to get to the people. Saint John 12:20, and in Hebrews 13:8, and also we might refer to the Book of Acts the 3rd cha- . . . , or, 3rd verse, 1:3.

And there were certain Greeks among them that came up to the feast to worship:

The same came therefore to Philip, which was of Bethsaida of Galilee, and desired him, saying, Sirs, we would see Jesus.

And in Hebrews 13:8, says:

Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, . . . today, and for ever.

Acts :3, or, 1:3:

Jesus showed Himself in many infallible proofs, (many infallible signs that He showed the people that He is risen from the dead).

E-20 Now, we'd like to ask this question to you tonight. And I want you to pay real close attention because the future meetings will be based upon something of this type. Have I read from the Word of God, or is That just another book? It's God's Word. Then. . . I believe It with all my heart.

Now, if It is God's Word, there's a question asked here. And it was asked by a Greek, or Greeks, rather, I might say. They came up to the feast of the Pentecostal feast, and they wanted to see Jesus. And they went to Philip which was of Bethsaida of Galilee and said these words: “Sirs, we would see Jesus.” And we realize that Philip the servant of Christ worked it around so that they got their request. They saw Him, because they were hungry-hearted people, that desired to see Jesus.

And I don’t believe that there’s anybody that has ever at any time ever heard or read of Jesus, but what would long to see Him. I’m sure that would be the desire of every heart of Christianity, to see the Lord Jesus. That’s why we labor and why we lay aside everything to try to live so that we will be able to see Him someday. But I wonder if the Scriptures plainly say that He is the same yesterday, today, and forever, then why can’t we see Him today?

E-21 Now, we have as much right to ask to see Him as those Greeks did ask to see Him. They said, “Sirs, we would see Jesus.” And by asking a servant of Christ, this servant was able to produce Jesus for them to see. They never ask to see His works, or to hear His wisdom. They just asked to see Jesus. And they were granted that privilege by a servant of Christ.

Now, we are just a few days passed celebrating the resurrection. And to many of what we’d call today, Christians, that’s as far as it ever goes, is on Easter to recognize that that is a memorial day of a historical event. But it’s more than that. That was just a day that it started. Now, it goes on and on and on. It never ends. He is alive forevermore.

And as Luke, writing the Acts of the apostles, or the acts of the Holy Spirit in the apostles, sixty-five years after the event, said, that He showed Himself by infallible proofs, by signs, infallible signs, that He was the same Jesus that had walked on the earth, He showed Himself alive by infallible signs, that He was the living resurrected Lord Jesus.

Now, nineteen hundred years has passed since then or better. But that doesn’t mean one little dot to eternity. If we were here ten million years, it would still not be just as it was as the old saying is: “Where was the man when he jumped off the bridge?” See? You could not figure it out.

Someone said, “In the water!” He hadn’t jumped yet.

Said, “On the bridge!” Well, he—he—he’s still on the bridge. He hasn’t jumped. So he... You see, you can’t... There’s no beginning or end to it.

E-22 Now, the same is by Christ. If He’s raised from the dead, the infallible Christ, then He’s just the same today that He ever was or the Scripture’s found wrong.

Now, then I wonder tonight how many in this visible audience would like to raise their hands and say, "I would love to see Jesus. Sirs, we would see Jesus."

Well now, let's see if this is the Word of God; we believe It. Now, if we would long to see Jesus, just about two Greeks came and wanted to see Him and their desire was met. So there's at least two hundred, or three, in here tonight, and more are here wanting to see Jesus, so if He was willing to show Himself to those uncircumcised Greeks, because they were desirous of seeing Him, how much more ought He show Himself to His children that's saved and borned of the Spirit of the living God? Why wouldn't He be more willing to show Himself alive to us tonight, as He was to the forty and the different ones as He met with them in the circles? It's a question. But it's a promise.

And then if Hebrews 13:8 said, "He's the same yesterday, today, and forever," then He's got to be the same in principle, the same in power, the same in every way that He was yesterday, or He isn't the same.

Someone say, "He's same in a certain way."

No, He's the same; the Scripture says. That's the same Jesus that was, is today, and will be forever.

Now, if I should comb down through this audience of people, and say, "The Baptists, the Methodists, the Pentecostals, the—the different types, you teach that in your church?"

"Yes. Sure, we teach it."

Well, that's what you should do. That's right, because it's the infallible Word of God.

But did you ever to try to ask God to make it manifest, to make it real to you, not just as a historical Christ, but a risen Christ? E-23 Now, many people accept Christ as their—as their Saviour, because they're afraid of hell. Others are—are afraid to die without it. But have you accepted Him as your Lord, Who can stand in the innermost part of you, and open up the doors of your faith, and—and just let yourself be in His hands? I'm sure if you do, He will punctuate every promise in Here with an amen; for it's His Own Spirit that wrote the Bible, is here to make It say, "Amen," because He's the Author of this Bible.

And then, if you'll just believe Him and open your heart, and we'll ask Him now, if He will come and make Hissself known to us, like He did . . .

Well now, I might say, "Could . . . Do you find Him in your Baptist creeds?"

"Yes."

"Methodist creed?"

"Yes."

"Pentecostal creed?"

"Yep."

That's right. You'd find it. It may be written in there. But let's ask this: as It said that He is the same today as He was yesterday, then let's . . .

If I went to your Baptist creed, or Methodist creed, or Pentecostal creed to ask for such, you'd say, "Well, it's thus-and-thus."

And one would say, "No, it's this way."

And another would say, "No, our creed reads it this way. We've been taught this way."

E-24 There would be different ideas about it. But the only way to justly make it so, is to go back and find out what He was yesterday, and what He did yesterday, how He acted yesterday. And then see if He will come and be that same thing today.

Now, everyone believes and knows that the corporal body of the Lord Jesus sets at the right hand of God Almighty at the throne of God, making intercessions upon our confession. You all believe that? And the Holy Spirit is here, which was upon Him, which was God in Christ. Now, this is God in His church. God was in a Pillar of Fire once, the Logos that went out of God, that was the Angel of the covenant that went with the children of Israel through the wilderness.

Then He was manifested, the same God in the flesh, which was His Son, that He overshadowed a virgin, created a Blood Cell, and lived in that body of flesh, the Son of God.

E-25 Now, then when that Son of God, gave His Life and His body for a sacrifice, and God raised His body up on the third day, and set it at His right hand on high, then the Holy Spirit came back; and on the day of Pentecost the Bible said, "There were tongues of fire," like tongues, like a lick of fire, "set upon each of them." That was God, the same Holy Spirit that was in the wilderness with the children of Israel . . .

You say, "That wasn't Jesus?"

It was. After His death, burial, and resurrection, Saul was on his road down to Damascus, and a great Light struck him down. Jesus on earth, said, "I come from God, and I go to God." And after His death, burial, and resurrection, and His ascension, Saul on his road down to Damascus was struck down onto the ground. And he looked up and there was a Light that blinded him and cried, "Saul, Saul why persecutest thou Me?"

He said, "Who are You, Lord?"

He said, "I'm Jesus," had returned back to that same Pillar of Fire that led the children of Israel in the wilderness.

E-26 Saint John the 6th chapter, they were discussing with Him about different ideas and things, and said, "You said, 'You were as old as Abraham,' and said, 'You said you seen Abraham,' and you're a man not over fifty years old, now we know you're mad and got a devil."

He said, "Before Abraham was, I AM." Before there was, He was. Because He was the I AM, that was in the burning bush; the Pillar of Fire that led the children of Israel through the wilderness was the same God that was manifested in Jesus Christ, died, ascended upon high, and sent back the Holy Spirit. And in John 14, John 14:7, said, "He that believeth on Me, the works that I do shall he do also. Greater than this shall he do for I go unto My Father."

Saint John the 5th chapter, the 19th verse of the 5th chapter, He said, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, The Son can do nothing in Himself, but what He sees the Father doing; that doeth, the Son likewise." He did as God showed Him.

So He said, "I say unto you, I can do nothing." He didn't claim to be a Divine healer. He said He only did as He saw by a vision what God told Him to do and promised the church to do the same thing.

"Yet, a little while and the world seeth Me no more, yet ye shall see Me (Now watch, world, kosmos, which means 'world order,') will see Me no more (unbelievers), will see Me no more, yet, ye shall see Me (ye, the believers), for I ('I,' is a personal pronoun) will be with you, even in you, to the end of the world": Jesus Christ the same yesterday, today, and forever.

Now, if He is the same, then His power, His resurrected Life should be living in the church, bringing forth the same ministry that He had here on earth. For He promised it. Now, all cannot receive that. We realize that. Men are borned to condemnation. The Scripture says so. But he that has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the church. See?

E-27 Now, let's find what He did. Then we'll find out what He will do now, find out what He was, find out what He is now, and see if we're able to discover Jesus Christ in His resurrection.

Now, we find out that when He was conceived of the virgin and born, and—and then at the age of thirty He was baptized by John the Baptist at the river of Jordan, and then immediately was led into the wilderness to be tempted of the devil, and was there forty days, and came out, and begin His earthly ministry.

Let's go back to the 1st chapter of Saint John now, as we are . . . have started on the Book of Saint John. And as the week rolls on we'll continually take this and wrap it from Genesis to Revelation in such a way there's no critic in his right mind, or no way at all can dispute it. It's God. God's in His Word. You believe that?

"In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. And the Word was made flesh and dwelt among us." Saint John 1.

And in Hebrews the 4th chapter it said that, "The Word of God is sharper than a two-edged sword, piercing to the asunder the bone even a Discerner of the thoughts of the heart," the Word, when It becomes flesh in us.

E-28 Now, we find out Jesus immediately after He started His earthly ministry, He begin healing the sick. Now, listen close. Those people were looking for a Messiah, the Jews were.

There's only three classes, or three races of people on earth; that's Ham, Shem, and Japheth's people, the three sons of Noah. If we believe the—the Word of God, which they all sprang from there, because the antediluvian destruction destroyed them all besides that; the whole world was destroyed.

And from them three boys came forth, all the races of the earth. And that, if you notice, that was Jew, Gentile and Samaritan. Peter was given in Saint Matthew the 15th chapter, the keys to the Kingdom. On the day of Pentecost he opened it to the Jews. Philip went down and preached to the Samaritans and baptized them, yet the Holy Spirit hadn't come on them, and he went down and laid hands on them and they received the Holy Spirit.

In Acts the 10th chapter, the 49th verse that Cornelius had seen a vision in his house, being a Gentile. And Peter received a vision on the housetop to go up. And, "While he yet spake these words, the Holy Ghost fell on the Gentiles." From there on, there's, it's open to all the world then, Jews, Gentiles, and Samaritans.

E-29 Peter had the keys, that was that notable sermon that he preached, and every church, I don't care if it's Catholic, Protestant, wherever, if you're going to be Christian, you have to go back, and the first church that God ever ordained was at the day of Pentecost. It was a Pentecostal believing church with a Pentecostal experience.

Now, take the Nicene council, or the early church fathers, or any history that you want to, it'll refer you right back, the first church was a Pentecostal church, filled with the Holy Ghost, signs, and wonders, and miracles accompanying. And if God is an infinite God and set His church in order like that on the day of Pentecost, every time He sets the church in order, will be the same thing. Has to be, 'cause He's infinite and cannot change. Our doctrines and theology has taken us off to one side till we're wandering in a wilderness. God's Bible remains the same, and God's Spirit remains the same. This is the last days, it's back to where the prophet said it'll be light in the evening time.

E-30 Now, if they were looking for a Messiah, how many knows that the Jews seek signs, Greeks wisdom? Paul said, "We preach Christ crucified."

Now, the Jews to receive a Messiah, He had to have a Messianic sign, because Deuteronomy the 18th chapter, from the 15th verse to the 22nd proves what the Messiah would be. And if what He showed them as the sign of He was Messiah, that will remain through all generations there is to come as long as there's a person to receive it.

Moses said in Deuteronomy the 18th chapter, beginning with the 15th verse, "The Lord your God shall raise up a Prophet among you likened unto me."

E-31 And the Messiah was to be a Prophet, a God-Prophet, and He would do the sign of the prophet. Also in many other places in the Scripture that we could refer to God said, "If there be one among you who's spiritual or a prophet, I, the Lord God will make Myself known to him. And what this prophet says, watch it. If it comes to pass, then hear him. But if it doesn't come to pass, then do not hear him." Now, that was Israel's sign of this great Messiah was to come. He was to be a God-Prophet, show signs of the prophet, because the prophet is the one the Word of the Lord came to. So in His coming was to change the whole dispensation and everything, and He'd have to have a prophet sign to prove that He was the Prophet. He had to, because everything was changing. And that's the reason they'd have to know it.

Now, we know as Christians, that Jesus came exactly the way He was prophesied to come; but the churches in them day had it all turned around some other way. They thought that probably God would lower the corridors of Heaven, and He'd come down upon wings of fire or something.

E-32 And John the Baptist, the Elijah that was coming, that he would be some great fellow, because the mountains was to skip like rams, and the leaves was to clap their hands, and the high places made low, and the low places high. Well, they expected some great outstanding something to shake the nation.

But when he came what was he? He was a man with a piece of sheepskin draped around, with beard all over his face, lived off of locust and wild honey, and came forth preaching on the muddy banks of Jordan, and shaking the churches to repentance. When he seen many come into his baptism, he said, "Generation of vipers, who's warned you to flee from the wrath? Think not to say within yourself, 'We have Abraham to our father,' for I say unto you, that God is able of these stones to rise children to Abraham."

Also, "The axe is laid to the root of the tree. Every tree that bringeth forth not good fruit is hewn down and cast into the fire." So you see, it was altogether different. They couldn't receive Him.

When Jesus came, He came with a illegitimate name, came as a Child born out of holy wedlock. Never went to any seminary school, or anything else, that we have any record of in the Bible, or history, that He ever attended one day of school. But He astounded the priests, because He was sent of God; He had the wisdom and power of God to back up everything that He said. And He astounded them at His doctrine. For He didn't teach like a scribe, He taught as One Who had the Word of the Lord.

We seen His teaching was altogether different than what the churches had it of His day. Perhaps, it'd be a lot different today if He was here.

E-33 Now, we'll notice, the first thing we'll take in Saint John 1, we find out that there was a man by the name of Simon. And he had a brother named Andrew. They were fishermen. Now, listen close. Don't miss this. So Andrew, perhaps, talked to Simon, after he'd been down to the meeting and seen the Holy Spirit descending like a dove upon the Lord Jesus, this great Light coming down from Heaven, like had wings, and lit upon Him, and a Voice saying, "This is My beloved Son, in Whom I'm pleased to dwell."

And then we find that he must've told his brother, so Simon came on his way up to see Jesus. A well-taught Pharisee, knowed his father was a great worshipper of God and had taught him how that—how the Messiah would be when He came. He said, "There'll be a confusion in that day. No doubt that there'll be all kinds of false things rise up just to prerun, or in the day, but, Simon, don't you forget, this Messiah will be God's Prophet, and He will show the sign of a prophet, 'cause Moses said, 'The Lord our God will raise up a prophet.' So remember, He will be a Prophet, Simon." Now, we're looking for Him yesterday.

And Simon walks up with a honest heart before God, walked up into the line where Jesus was standing, as soon as Jesus saw him and throwed His eyes on him, He said, "Your name is Simon; you are the son of Jonas."

Oh, I imagine that took all the starch out of Simon. "Your name is Simon, and you are the son of Jonas."

Simon maybe staggered and looked at Him. Not only did He know him, but He knowed that godly old father of his. Then must come into Simon's mind, "That's Him." And falling down at the feet of the Lord Jesus, Jesus said, "From henceforth you'll be called 'Peter,'" which means "little stone." And He gave him the keys to the Kingdom.

E-34 There was one standing there by the name of Nathanael. He saw this done, and he knowed without a doubt, or, I mean Philip, the one that we're talking of tonight. He saw that done, and he run around the mountain. If anybody here has ever been in Palestine, to watch where they mark. . . It's about fifteen mile from where Jesus was preaching around to where he found his friend, Nathanael. Walked up and knocked on the door, no doubt ask where Nathanael was, a great Bible student. And his wife must have said, "He's back in the. . . under the fig trees back there, somewhere looking at his grove."

Around the mountain he went, until he hit the little fig tree, and there was Nathanael on his knees praying. Listen. And as he saw him praying, as a Christian gentleman he waited till he was finished before he moved around any. And he waited till the—the man had finished praying. And as he got up and was brushing off his garment, he, right quick, he said, "Come, see, Who we found. Jesus of Nazareth, the Son of Joseph."

Now, you know this man was an orthodox believer. And he said . . . Now, I could imagine him saying this: "Philip, I know you to be a good man. You surely have gone off on the deep end. You mean to tell me that, Jesus of Nazareth, the Son of Joseph . . . Could there be any good thing come out of Nazareth?"

You know, I think he gave him the best answer than anybody could give. "Come and see."

Didn't say, "Stay home and criticize." Or, "Get up and get out."

He said, "Come, see for yourself."

E-35 Around the mountain they went. I can imagine Philip saying to him, "Oh, you know that old man we bought them fish from that time, by the name of Simon?"

"Yes."

"Well, he came up before the Messiah the other day, and the Messiah told him, 'Your name is Simon.' You remember, he didn't even have education enough to sign his own name."

The Bible said that Peter the one that had the keys to the Kingdom, was ignorant and unlearned. He couldn't even sign his own name he was so illiterate. But it pleased God to his faith, to give him the keys to the Kingdom, for he had the revelation of Jesus Christ: illiterate, unlearned man.

E-36 And he said, "He told him, who he was and who his father was. Now, Nathanael, you know that the Messiah is to be a God-sent Prophet. God is to be in the Messiah, because He's to be a King of the prophets. But He's to give us the Messianic sign according to the Scriptures. And if this Man would do this, wouldn't you believe He was a Prophet?"

I can imagine Nathanael saying, "Now, wait just a minute, Philip. We haven't had a prophet for hundreds and hundreds of years. And how can this Galilean, how can this Man of Nazareth . . . We have no record of Him in schools or any place where He's been. How could He ever do a thing like that?"

"Just come, find out. Come, find out for yourself. See if it's going on or not."

"I heard of that wild man down there, John."

"Well, he was just a forerunner; that was the Isaiah that was before the—the prophet that was to come forerunning Him. But he is—he's now, that's the Elias that was to come. Now, this is the Messiah, because He shows the sign of the Messiah."

E-37 And if that was the sign of the Messiah yesterday, it's the same today, or He did the wrong sign. And then Israel was right and justified by killing Him, denying Him to be the Messiah, 'cause He'd be an impostor. But they killed Him because that He proved that He was Messiah. There wasn't a—there wasn't a rock to be overturned, as we'd get to it farther in the week. You'll see. He is the Messiah.

Now, I imagine him saying, "You know, Philip, I want to believe you, but I—I just can't do it. I just can't believe that such a thing is happened. It's too good to believe."

Well, you know, Philip might've said this, "Nathanael, it wouldn't surprise me but what He tells me—tells you who you are when you come up."

"Oh, never happen like that. No, I don't believe it. I'll have to see it first."

So they came, finally got to the meeting where Jesus was, and maybe he might've come in the prayer line. I don't know. He might've been setting out in the audience, or wherever, which way they were, setting on the ground or standing up. But as soon as Jesus' eyes fell upon him, listen, He said, "Behold an Israelite, in whom there's no guile." That was Jesus yesterday. Is that right? "Behold an Israelite, in whom there's no guile."

E-38 And so astonished that man, till he said, "Rabbi, when did You ever know me?" In other words, "This is the first time we ever met. How did You know I was an honest man, just man, an Israelite?" Not by the way he was dressed, all easterners dressed the same, beard, and turban, and long garment and so forth, dark skin. "How did You know me?"

Listen at His words. "Before Philip called you, when you were under the tree, I saw you." Oh, my. That was Jesus yesterday. That's the way He manifested Himself.

What did he say? "Rabbi, Thou art the Son of God. Thou art the King of Israel."

Jesus looked at him and said, "Because I told you this you believe, you'll see greater than..." He's a believer, ordained to Eternal Life, to see the works of God.

E-39 Oh, there was some standing there, didn't believe that. The rabbis of that day, they stood there; they knowed they had to answer to their congregation. There's no way around it. The people are standing there and saw it done. And they knowed the Scriptures taught that's what the Messiah would be. So they had to answer to the people.

What did they say? They never said it out loud, but in their hearts they said, "This man is Beelzebub, a fortuneteller, or some evil spirit. (See?) He's the prince of the devil, a fortuneteller, and that's how he does these things is by his fortunetelling."

What did Jesus say? He said, "I'll forgive you for that, but someday, the Holy Spirit will come, and speak one word against That, it'll never forgiven in this world, nor the world to come." See where we place ourselves in.

Calling. . . What is the blasphemy of the Holy Ghost? Calling the Spirit of God, which was doing exactly what the Bible predicted It would do, a demon power. There's never forgiveness for it, nor this world, nor the one to come. And Jesus cannot lie, because He was God. And it's impossible for God to lie. God was in Him.

He said, "It's not Me; it's My Father dwells in Me." The Son was a Man; God was the Spirit that was in Him, and it was the Spirit speaking out of Him.

Now, you see what He done to them Jews? When He met them, them were ordained to Life recognized it. Don't miss it church. Those that were ordained to Life recognized It and believed It. But those who did not believe It was turned away to perdition. Did not Jesus say to those holy sanctified men, who knowed the Scriptures from A to Z, or claimed to, He said, "You're of your father the devil." That's exactly right.

E-40 So don't place sin on smoking, drinking, gambling; that's not sin; that's the attributes of unbelief. Sin is unbelief. You might never touched a cigarette, drank, or never done anything evil in your life; if you disbelieve God's Word, you're still a sinner. Sin is unbelief. There's only two spirits; one believes and the other does not believe. Matter, we have based all of our thoughts upon some kind of a holy act, something that we want to do, and something that we've done. "I give Jones' some coal, when they were. . . I got a right to a Heaven." You haven't got no right to Heaven, till you've believe God, accept it by the basis of faith upon the shed Blood of Jesus Christ the Son of God. Have no rights, for no other way, no matter. . .

You might be a staunch member, a Pentecostal to the core, Methodist, Baptist, or Catholic to the core; makes no difference what church you belong to. If you've solemnly believed on Jesus Christ, and accepted Him as you—your personal Saviour, as your faith in Him. I don't care what church you go to, you're saved by faith. And without that, there's. . . There's no holy church; there's no holy people. It's the Holy Spirit in the people, what makes it holy.

A holy God that lives amongst people, what makes the holiness. Not something that I do, something that you do, or something that we would've done, but it's what God has done for us, through Christ Jesus. That's the Bible.

E-41 Watch the Jews. They believed it solemnly, some of them that were ordained to life; others, staunch orthodox in their beliefs, broad backed, they wouldn't even make a letter. They were . . . Had to come through lineage of priesthood, down, down, down, down, from grandfather to grandfather, grandfather to be a Levite, to be a teacher. But they'd been taught in a tradition, in the stead of the real Word.

Jesus said, "Your . . . The father . . . Your father is the devil."

But those poor little fishermen, humble, who would receive and believe, who'd been taught and knowed that what the Messiah would be, they recognized it at the moment they saw it and believed it. Said, "Truly Thou art the Son of God, truly, Rabbi, we know that Thou art a Teacher comes from God."

E-42 Nicodemus well expressed it. The church wouldn't let him receive it. But yet, he was . . . "We know that You're a Teacher comes from God, 'cause no man could do the things that You do, except God be with Him. We know it's infallible. You are the Messiah; You showed us Your sign that You are Messiah. We know Moses spoke that You would come. We know the Scripture says You would come. We know that You was to be the God-Prophet. And here You are proving to us, even knowing the thoughts that's in our hearts. We know Thou art a Teacher comes from God."

Now, He only comes to those who are looking for Him. We Gentiles, the Anglo-Saxon in them days were heathens, Romans, so forth. We had a club on our back and worshipped idols. But there was another class of people which was the Samaritan, was half Jew and Gentile. Then they were looking for a Messiah. (Now, quickly now, we just got about five more minutes.) They were looking for a Messiah.

E-43 And Jesus was on His road down to Jericho, but He had need go by Samaria. Wonder why. Now, listen real close. And when He got to a certain city, He sent the disciples in to get some victuals, and He Himself set down by the side of a well. If you were ever there, it's panoramic; well's still there, just something like this here, not quite so high, vines around it, the public well where the people come to get their water. The ladies come out there and get these big jugs full of water yet, put them upon their heads, and walk just as smooth as you can please, and talk, as ladies can, you know, to each other, and go right along and never spill a drop of it. [Blank spot on tape—Ed.] And they come there to get their water.

E-44 Jesus sat down because He was tired, as He said. And the disciples went into the city to buy food. And while they were gone, a lovely-looking young woman come out, which was a woman of ill-fame. She had defiled the marriage vows. She had been married five times and was living with her sixth husband.

Let's say she come out, in them days the real truth of it is, she couldn't come with the women early of a morning, because they didn't have no fellowship together: right and wrong. Today it's all mixed together, can't tell which is which: dress alike, look alike, talk alike, just the same thing. All smoke cigarettes, and get out and carry on, cut their hair, and use makeup, and you can't. . . just dog-eat-dog. There you are. Here they come.

E-45 And so she came out to the well after all the rest of the women was gone, and she started to let down the. . . It's—it's a windle, and they have a hooks, the big. . . It's really not a bucket; it's—it's a pot or a kettle like, got a long neck on it, got a two hooks. And they put the—the windle under these arms-like, and let it down into the—the well, and get the water, and then windle it up again.

So when she started to let the—the pot down into the well, she heard a Man say, "Woman, bring Me a drink."

And she looks over and she seen a Jew setting there. Oh, He was only about thirty-three years old, but He must've looked about fifty, because they'd just told Him He—He looked fifty anyhow: said, "You're not a man over fifty years old and say you seen Abraham." See? So His work must have broke Him down quite a bit.

So there He was setting up against the well, said, "Woman, bring Me a drink."

E-46 And she looked around, and she let Him know that there was segregation in that country. She said, "We. . . You are a—a Jew, and I'm a woman of Samaria; You have no such customs here, as to ask me such as thing as that."

Watch the question come back. "But if you knew," O God, "if you knew Who you were talking to, you'd ask Me for a drink. [Blank spot on tape—Ed.] . . . waters of Life, bubbling up."

So the question come up about worshipping in the mountain or at Jerusalem. What was Jesus doing?

Now, He had need go by Samaria, and He said, "He did nothing till the Father showed Him." Then He had need go by there; the Father had sent Him up there. And no doubt, He said, in Saint John 5:19, "I do nothing till I see the Father do it, Father shows Me first, in a vision what to do." How many ever read that Scripture? Saint John 5:19. Yeah, "I do nothing till I see the Father doing it first, then I do just what He shows Me to do."

E-47 Then He seen this go on, and He must've seen the woman coming, but He had to question her. He was trying to find her spirit. See? So He said. . . That's the reason He said, "Bring Me a drink." He knew by the vision that's what it looked like, the woman. So He knowed she was supposed to look that way. And, perhaps, maybe her curls all hanging down in her face, and she wasn't very presentable, but yet, she come to get the water, and He begin to talk to her. And He said. . .

She said, "We should worship in this mountain, and—and our fathers worshipped here, and our father Jacob (See?) dug the well, and—and. . ." They knowed God was God too; they was looking for a Messiah to come; and they said, "and You say at Jerusalem. . ."

E-48 He said, "The hour is come and now is, when you'll never worship—don't worship in Jerusalem or in this mountain. But God is a Spirit, and they that worship Him must worship Him in Spirit and in Truth." The question went on, carrying on, talking to her till He caught her spirit.

Now, I said, "I'd have to prove all things by the Word of God." Now, right there I couldn't prove that by the Word, but by. . . If you would. . . It had to be that, because He was talking to her. You know He talked to her. And He caught her spirit. And He found out where her trouble was. How many knows what her trouble was? Sure, she was living, had six husbands.

And He said, "Woman, go, get your husband and come here." Now, watch, He's going. . . This is Messiah, do you believe He was Messiah? "Go, get your husband and come here."

She went; she said, "I have no husband." Oh, what a blank denial of what He had said.

He said, "You said the truth. You've had five husbands, and the one you're living with now is not your husband, so you told the truth."

Look at that woman. Look how much more she knowed about God than what them priests did. Think of that, brethren.

Them priests said, "He's Beelzebub, a fortuneteller."

E-49 What'd that woman say? She said, "Sir, I perceive that Thou art a prophet. We know, we Samaritans know that when the Messiah cometh, that'll be His sign. He will tell us these things when Messiah cometh. We know the Messiah which is called the Christ, the anointed One, when He comes, He will tell us these things. But Who are You?"

He said, "I'm He that speaks with you." Oh, my.

She dropped her water pot; she ran into the city and said, "Come, see a Man that told me the things that I've done: isn't this the very Messiah?"

And the Bible said, "The men of that city believed on Him for the saying of the woman." Is that right, Bible teachers? Because the saying of the woman, they believed Him. That was Jesus yesterday. That's how He made Himself known, both Jews and Samaritans; but not to the Gentiles, not one time was that done before a Gentile. But He prophesied and said in the evening time that would come.

E-50 You say, "Whereabouts, Brother Branham?" All right, I'll give it to you in one Scripture right now as closing. Jesus said, "As it was in the days of Sodom, so shall it be in the coming of the Son of man." Is that right?

Let's take Sodom, see what He did. In Sodom Lot had separated himself, a lukewarm believer, and had went down into Sodom, and had built him up a nice reputation down there. But Abraham stayed out of Sodom and lived according to the promise that God had given him.

Now, always there's three classes of people; every meeting has them; every city has them; every church has them: That is unbelievers, make-believers, and believers. That's exactly right. It's always been that way; it is yet today. Every congregation, every assembling together, even when the sons of God came up before God, there he was.

E-51 So we find out here that in the type of the Sodom . . . Now, watch how close He said this, how He said it, how He worded it. See? And Sodom was just before the fire fell. See? And that's what's fixing to fall now: Fire. We know that. This is a doomed world. We know it. She's—she's without hope God, without God; she's lost, just a little remnant of people ready for the Rapture. This week, God willing, I'll prove that word by word.

Notice, we're a doomed people, or the world is; the Church is not. Thank God there's a remnant.

Notice, but now notice the last sign that Sodom received. He had been with Abraham all along, but one day, just before the burning of the city of Sodom and Gomorrah, we find out that they got a lot of perverts down there. Look at the nations today. See? Every thought on a man's heart was evil, till they were perverting themselves in sexual affairs, so forth.

E-52 Notice. There were Three that came up to meet Abraham, looked like men, dust on Their clothes, and professed They were Strangers. And two of Them went down to preach to Sodom, trying to find ten people. Remember, went down to Sodom, the lukewarm church, a modern Billy Graham and so forth, down in Sodom, preaching the Gospel, blinding the people by the Gospel. That's what the evangelist Billy Graham, and Oral Roberts and many of those great men of God has did: Shook the people. This nation has been shook. The world knows about it, by the great ministry of these God-given men shook the nations with their ministry. But remember, the word church means, "called out." Abraham had separated himself from all that stuff.

So the One that stayed behind and talked to Abraham, which Abraham called Him, "Lord," that was God. I know you might disagree with that, but look what the Script. . . Abraham was the one talking to Him, called Him, capital, "L-O-R-D", Elohim, "Lord God."

What was He doing? Abraham fed Him the meat of a calf, milk of a cow, butter, and cakes. And He eat it. And He was Elohim. What did Jesus refer to it? Now, watch.

E-53 Few days before that, God had changed the name of Abraham, or Abram, to Abraham. S-a-r-r-i, to S-a-r-a-h, Sarah, princess. Abraham, given Him part of His Name, Elohim, Abraham, as a father of nations. And watch this One Who set and talked to him: a Man, dressed in clothes, dust on Him, eating meat just like any other human being.

He said, "Abraham, where is your wife, Sarah?" Watch the Scriptures.

Abraham said, "She's in the tent behind You."

He said, "I'm going to visit you." That proved what He was, "I'm going to visit you according to My promise I give you. I'm going to visit you, and you're going to have this baby, that you've waited twenty-five years on. She's ninety and you're a hundred now. So I'm going to give you that baby."

And Sarah laughed in her heart to herself, said the Bible (and the Angel with His back turned to the tent), and said, “Me, an old woman, have pleasure with my lord out there, and him being old—old, also?”

And the Angel with His back turned, God manifested in flesh, said, “Why did Sarah laugh, saying within herself. . .”

E-54 What did Jesus say? “As it was in the days of Sodom, so shall it be at the coming of the Son of man.” That same thing, God manifested in the flesh of His people, not Angels coming down, but men, borned of the Spirit of God, with Eternal Life within their bosom, performing and doing the same thing that Angel did there at Sodom.

“Sirs, we would see Jesus.” If He is alive today, and was in this church, He would do the same as He did then. And this is the closing of the Gentile age.

The prophet said, “There’ll be a day, that could not be called day or night, but in the evening time it would be Light.”

E-55 Now, the sun, geographically rises in the east and sets in the west, the same sun. Well, now, when the S-o-n rose on the eastern people and showed forth His miraculous powers. . . We’ve had a day, it’s been a dismal, rainy day. We’ve had enough Light till we could join church, build organizations, and have a great time, be Christians, accept Christ. But that Son Light has never poured through since then. But this is. . .

Civilization has traveled with the sun. The oldest civilization’s China. We’ve come. . . It’s traveled from the east, coming west with the sun. We’re at the West Coast now. And the Bible said, the prophet said, “It’ll be Light in the evening time.” That same Son that rose in the east will be shining with His same power on the western people as He did on the east.

“Sirs, we would see Jesus.” Why can’t we? Why can’t we when He promised it?

You say, “Brother Branham, that’s the Bible, but will It work?”

If It’s God’s promise it will work, it’s got to work. Do you believe that? If He would come into this audience of people tonight, and perform, and do the same thing that He did when He was here then to let him know, let you know, that He is here, the same Christ, would do the same thing, would you believe on Him? Raise your hands and say, “I would believe, if I could see it done.”

E-56 Let us bow our heads. Almighty and omnipotent God, we thank Thee, O holy Father, for the promise that You gave us, and we know that Thy promises is true. Now, it is a bad night outside, but a glorious night inside: not a night inside, but a day where the Son of God is shining in our hearts and lives. We thank Thee for believers, and for a Christ Who promised to come to these believers, and manifest Himself, and show in this last day to the Gentile race, which we know, Father, it's never been according to history since the early church died out, until this time.

E-57 How Saint Paul and those in the old days, how that the visions broke upon them, and they done this same thing: Ananias and Sapphira, and Paul upon the sea that night, and the Angel of the Lord stood by him, and he walked out and told the people. And how that the great powers of God was known in that early church. You promised it again in the last days.

I pray, Father, that You'll forgive the mistakes of Your servant. And now, let the Holy Spirit come forth, because It is His Word, and let Him do before these people, after I have told them, Father, that salvation is what has already been done for them at Calvary. Divine healing is what You did for them at Calvary.

And I pray Thee, Lord, that they might understand that; it's their own faith. And when they see the God that made the promise come forth in His power and do as He did then, they will know it's the same Jesus that made the promise. Grant it, Lord, as we commit ourselves to Thee, and this congregation for the Kingdom of God's sake. In Jesus Christ's Name, we ask it. Amen.

E-58 Now, I'm going to ask if there's anyone here, that wishes to go for the next ten to fifteen minutes, that you would go now, so you won't disturb the service. Now, now, please don't move around from henceforth (See?), after this moment. Just remain in your seats.

Each day, that, we're going to have prayer for the sick. I will speak this, while someone has to go, but if you can stay another fifteen minutes, to, watch and see if the Word is right. Now, anybody can come, say that, but now it takes God to make it work. That's right. It's takes . . .

Now, if every day that we're having prayer for the sick at night, we will come down, and—and the boys will give out prayer cards. It will either be my son, Billy Paul, this boy right here, Gene Goad, which is one of the tape boys, and there's another one called Leo, Leo Mercier. Either of them boys will give out the cards. They will stand up before the audience and mix the cards all together. Then they will come down and give you a prayer card. Therefore, they don't know what kind of a prayer card they're giving to people, who will be called up, who will not be. That's justifies them, and no one knows again where they will start until that night, when the Holy Spirit lays it upon our heart, wherever. Course, that has nothing to do with the healing of the people; but it's only to get somebody here on the platform before the Spirit of the Lord.

E-59 And then, you out in the audience that does not have a prayer card, don't be weary. Set there and believe with all your heart. Watch what happens. Now, I hope you have. . . will listen to the things that I have said, that you will not walk around any more. And please, no one take any pictures during this time, because a little later, I can tell you It's a Light. The Angel of the Lord, we all know it was a Pillar of Fire; we had the picture of It here from Germany, from Switzerland, from America, from before the FBI, and all has been proved, it is a supernatural Being; It will be on the platform in a moment.

And It's the same Spirit of God, exactly. So don't take no pictures from hence, from now on through the service, and be seated, and be real reverent, and quiet, while the people are coming.

E-60 Now, I believe. . . Did you? Or, Billy, you give out. . . Huh? What? One to a hundred? Well, this late, we not be able to call too many. But you hold your cards; let's call a few of the people up here.

Who has prayer card number one? If you can raise up, or raise your hand. Prayer card number one. What's the—what's the letter on it? A, A, number one. Any one's got it? Will you. . . There must be something wrong somewhere. Well, we'll start. . . Oh, I'm sorry, all right. Would you come right here, lady? Number two, prayer card A, number two, raise your hand? All right. Come right here, lady. Number three, would you raise your hand? All right, number three. Did I see it? Yeah, way back. Number four, would you raise your hand? Way back, all right. Number. . . Well, he gives them out anywhere in the building, anybody wants them. Number five, would you raise your hand ever who has prayer card number five? All right. Number six, would you raise your hand? Raise your hand so I can see. All right, sir, right here. Number seven, number eight, number nine. As I call you. Okay, where, number ten. That's fine. See, this may be a basketball floor, an arena, but it isn't a arena tonight; it's the church of God. See? So we must have reverence and respects to the Holy Spirit. One, two, three, four, five, six, seven, eight, nine. Number ten, who has prayer card number ten?

All right, lady. Number eleven? All right. Number twelve? Number twelve. Thirteen, fourteen, fourteen, fourteen, fourteen? Well, that's enough. Let's—let's start right there.

E-61 Now, ever who's got cards, hold, just hold them; they will be called.

Now, I suppose that ninety-nine percent of this audience is, perhaps, strangers to me. All that's in this audience that is strangers to me, raise up your hands. See? I guess here about a hundred percent. All right.

How many in here that does not have a prayer card, and you're sick, and you want God to heal you? You don't have a prayer card and I'm a stranger to you, raise up your hands, everywhere in the building, I don't care where you're at. Well, that's just about general everywhere. All right.

Now, while they're lining the people up, I'd like to say something to you. One time Jesus was going over to raise up a little dead girl, Jairus' daughter, and there was a woman who had an issue of blood. And she said within her heart, "I believe that He is Messiah. So if I can just touch the border of His garment, the hem of His garment, I'll be made well." How many ever read that story? Sure. And she touched His garment, because that was what she wanted to do. She believed Him, she'd never seen Him before, but she believed Him. As soon as she saw Him, she believed Him.

E-62 So then, she touched His garment. Now, He could not have physically felt it. The Palestinian garment hangs loose, and it's got an underneath garment. And then He could not have felt that. And the little woman touched His garment; everybody was shaking hands with Him, and so forth, and hugging Him. And so, He said then, she went out in the audience and set down, or whatever it was. And she said. . . He said, "Who touched Me?"

And Peter rebuked Him, said, "Lord, why did You say such a thing as that?" Said, "Everybody's touching You."

He said, "But I perceive that I have gotten weak." The King James says, "Virtue," which, virtue is "strength." "I perceive that virtue has gone from Me." And He looked all over the audience until He found the little woman, and told her that she had had a blood issue, and her faith had saved her. Is that right?

Well now, to you people don't have a prayer card, if He's the same yesterday, today, and forever, would not He act the same way today if you touched Him? Is that right?

E-63 Now, how many. . . You ministers here know this, and you ministers and Bible readers out there, that the Bible said that Jesus Christ right now is a High Priest that can be touched by the feeling of our infirmities. Is that right? Right now He's a High Priest. Is that right, brethren? Well, if He is the same High Priest that He was then, how would He act now? If He's the same High Priest He was then, He'd act the same way. Is that right? Because He's the same High Priest. He's God; He can't change. He can't be different from what He was. If He—if He lets this Gentile church go through without having that same Messianic sign, then He did something for them, the Samaritans and the Jews, that He didn't do to us, so that wouldn't be just. They couldn't get through on theology; they had to have a time to condemn their theology, to bring God's Word manifest to them in flesh. And so does the Gentile church is getting it now.

E-64 Now, please, I'm ask again, don't—don't walk around, please. See? The Holy Spirit is just as timid as It can be. And sometimes when you're moving. . . See, you're a spirit; you're a soul. Then when you move, that interferes. See? Just set real quiet; be reverent. Now, after something is done, if the Holy Spirit does something, you want to say, "Praise the Lord," all right. But when you're coming into the contact of the Spirit of God, keep real quiet. Just keep in prayer.

And you out there that doesn't have a prayer card, you say this: "Lord Jesus, I know that man doesn't know me. And I know he's just a man. But I believe You're God. And I believe he's read the Scripture. He told me the truth, so I'm sick and needy. Let me touch You, Father." Find out what happen. Say, "Now, You speak through him; he's just a mouthpiece." Looky, this microphone is a mute until something speaks into it. So would I be; I don't know any of you.

E-65 Now, everybody in that prayer line that knows that I know nothing about you, raise up your hands, all along there, knows I don't know nothing about you. See? And here's my hands. I know, I've never seen them people before in my life, as I know. There's not a person along there, that I'd ever seen. I can't see a person in the building that I know, unless this is my good friend Brother Skaggs from Chicago, setting over on this. . . Is that you, Brother Skaggs? I thought it was there. And I know that there's Brother Fred Sothmann, I believe is here somewhere in the building. And perhaps, Tom Simpson, I suppose, is here somewhere in the building. I don't know. Where are you? Are you here, Brother Fred and Brother Tom? I seen their car out . . . Yes, right here, way back in the back. All right.

Now, be real reverent. All right, the . . . Now, if the people gets a little weary, give them a chair.

Just come up here, lady.

Now, here is the Word. How many believes that I read to you and preach to you the Word of God, the promise of God? Now, here's God's Word. Now, here's a person that I've never seen before; will It work? It will if she believes. And I believe, and I can yield myself to God, as by a gift and let Him, just get rid of myself and let Him talk. So if there's anything done, like would be the Lord Jesus, it would have . . . You'd know it has to be Spirit.

E-66 Now, let's take just like I was quoting a few minutes ago, Saint John 4. Here's a lady and a man that's never met before. Now, being strangers to each other, and it's just in a little panoramic like I was talking about. Now, Saint John 4, Jesus met a woman of Samaria. And He talked to her a little while, till He caught her spirit and then told her her trouble.

And now, if He would do that same thing to you tonight, knowing that I don't know you, see, and God knows you, and you don't know me, or 'less you just know me by name or something. . . But if—if He'd do the same thing, would it make you believe with all your heart? It will.

Would it make the audience believe with all their heart?

Now, every soul in here under the control of the Holy Spirit in the Name of Jesus Christ.

And ever who's on . . . the engineer on these microphones, if my voice gets low, 'cause I don't know what I'm saying, if it gets low, step it up, so the audience can hear.

Now, be real reverent and quiet, while we talk to the woman just a moment. If you'll stand right across here, so I'll be sure that they hear it. Just across . . .

E-67 Now, our Lord when He came to the woman of Samaria, He said, "He had need to go by Samaria to see the woman." And but, of course, God the Father had sent Him up there. And He met the woman, and He knew nothing of her, never seen her in His life, she'd never seen Him. But yet, He had to give that Samaritan woman the same sign He had give the Jew. And now, you're the Gentile woman. See? Now, He has to be the same Jesus, yesterday, today, forever. Is that right? Now, if He would do something like that, you know then it'd have to come from some Spirit, you know, it'd have to be a Spirit.

Now, you could take the Pharisee side, the religionists of that day, and say it was the devil. Then that's up to you and God. But if you'd say It was Christ, then you receive His reward.

E-68 Now, if the Holy Spirit will tell me, now, say, if I'd come here and say, "Sister, I have a gift of healing," lay my hands upon you, and say, "Glory to God, the Bible says, 'these signs shall follow them, believe; lay hands on the sick, they shall recover.'" That's true. Well, you could go believe that. That'd be all right.

But yet, there could be a little wonder in your mind. "I wonder if that is true, because the Bible said, 'If there be one among you, who's spiritual, a prophet, what he says comes to pass, then hear him. But if it doesn't, then don't hear him.'"

Now, the showdown is here now. Have I told the truth? Is that the Word of God? Is that the promise of God? If it is, then He will make it manifest.

E-69 Now, the woman is aware that she's in the Presence of Somebody besides man, real sweet, humble feeling. Is that right? If it is, just raise your hand, so the au- . . . Between me and the woman is that Spirit of Christ, that Light. The woman is here to be prayed for, because of a nervous condition. She's got a real serious condition of nerves. If that's right, raise up your hand. You believe? Eventually, I never seen a first night what will do that. Somebody in your heart, don't think you can hide your thoughts now, 'cause you can't. You said, "I guessed that." I did not.

Just for a rebuke for you, that you might know, we will see if it's so or not. See? Every time, a first night, when something is said. . . Now, right now, I couldn't tell you what I said to the woman. But that you might know that it's the Spirit of God, and not what you're thinking, this will be a plain rebuke to you. You're a good person, fine-spirited person, but now. . . Yes, here It comes again. The woman's moving from me, and she's—she's bothered with a nervous condition and an intestinal trouble. That is true.

Let me show you whether you believe I'm a . . . the servant of the Lord or not. That woman setting right there on the end of the seat's bothered with intestinal trouble too. If that's right, raise up your hand, lady. That's right. See them devils trying to get by with it? They can't do it. It's all finished for you, lady.

E-70 You have a stomach trouble, true, nervous stomach. Here, that you might know, believe me to be God's servant standing here under this anointing; your husband, he's here's too. He has a nervous stomach also. You're not from this state or this city; you're from Kansas. You believe God knows who you are? Mrs. Walton. Now return home; you're healed, you and your husband too. You can go home and be made well in the Name of Jesus Christ.

Now, you believe now? Could I guess have that? Whatever. . .

Let us just bow our heads in worship. Our Heavenly Father, we thank Thee in the midst of every kind of thing You still move in on the waves, You're God. You never fail. I pray that You'll bless these people now. Amen.

E-71 All right, lady here. Do you believe that what these things are taking place is from the Spirit of God, do you, lady? Then us, being strangers to each other, then if something would have—have to happen that would have to let me know something about you. And if God can tell what you have been, surely He can tell what you will be. If He knows the—if He knows the past, He knows the future. That makes it prove that it is God. And you know that I wouldn't know nothing about that, because I'm just a man here, your brother. That's right.

Got a great faith in the audience tonight to begin with. It left me and went towards the audience.

You was so happy about your healing a few moments ago, you put your hand over on that woman, setting next to you. Yes. Well, that growth on your breast. . . If that's right, raise up your hand. Am I a stranger to you? Wave your hand back and forth.

I want to ask you something. What did she touch? She's twenty feet away from me, what did she do? She touched the High Priest. Do you see that God still lives? He's the same Lord Jesus. Just believe. God bless you.

I can only speak, as It speaks through me; I have to. . . Wherever It goes, I have to go with It, to. . . See?

E-72 You have a tumor on the breast. You have a stomach trouble also. Also, you have someone here that's sick also: your husband. He's got. . . He's a preacher. And he's got a nervous stomach. Mrs. Suey, return home and be made well, both of you, and be healed in the Name of Jesus Christ.

Have faith. Don't doubt. Just believe. Do you believe that Jesus Christ. . . "Sirs, we would see Jesus." That's Him. See?

That's—that's the Lord Jesus. Now, you have to say It's something. You know that. These people with their hands up before God, we've never met. But it's His Spirit that does these things. Just have faith.

Are you the lady now? We are strangers one to the other, I suppose; but the Lord Jesus knows us both. But if He can reveal to me something about you, that you know that I know not, would it encourage you to make you have faith to believe?

E-73 You see what It does to me, It makes me so weak I can hardly stand up. We realize that. I'm sure that the audience realizes that too. How many knows that that. . . If one vision made our Lord feel virtue go out of Him, the Son of God, what would it do to me, a sinner, saved by grace? Because He said, "The works that I do shall you do also; more than this shall you do."

Now, I know the King James has "greater," but take down to the original translation. See? How could you do greater? He stopped nature, raised the dead, and done everything that could be done. But more because He could be in His church universal. See? "More than this shall you do." It's His grace.

E-74 You're here for somebody else. That's the daughter. You think Christ can tell me what her trouble is? It's her eyes. That is right, isn't it? You believe they're going to get well now? You've contacted Something, haven't you? You believe It to be the Lord Jesus? If He will tell me who you are, like He did the apostle that come up, would you. . . make you have a lot of faith to believe Him? Well, Mrs. Nickels, you return home; believe now. Jesus Christ will heal and make well.

Are you believing everyone? Please don't walk around. Please don't walk around. Please.

I do not know you. I haven't never seen you in my life; but Christ does know you. If He will describe to me what you're here for, or, might be finances, domestic, might be sickness, salvation. I do not know. I'm just a man that's standing here, us, meeting for the first time in life.

One thing, you're really nervous. That is right. And I see you trying to get from the bed, real slow. You got arthritis. That is right. And then, you've got a bad ill-effect from a operation that you had. That's right. It was a gallbladder operation. If that's right, raise up your hand. Do you believe now? Then go. As you have believed, so will it be unto you.

E-75 If I told you that God healed arthritis, would you believe it meant you? Then just go right along thanking God, saying, "Thank You, Lord."

If I told you God healed from anemic trouble, would you believe that He'd heal you? Just go right on thanking God. Believe Him with all your heart.

Are you believing with all your hearts, everybody with one accord? What if I didn't say one word to you, just laid hands on you, would you believe? All right, sir. Pass by, and in the Name of the Lord Jesus go and be made well. Don't doubt.

Please don't walk around. See, it grieves the Spirit from me, and I just can't hold It. See? Please. Please. I ask you kindly, as Christian, brother. I asked if you did not believe, please don't stay in the building. It's dangerous for you to stay anyhow. See? Just have faith. Don't doubt.

E-76 If I laid hands upon you, would you believe that you'd get well? Come here. In the Name of Jesus Christ, may our brother be healed.

Come. Whether I told you your trouble or not, would you believe me as His prophet, or His servant? Well, your back trouble is finished. Go and believe now. Have faith in God.

Come, lady. If I didn't say one word to you, but just laid hands on you, would you believe anyhow? Well, I want to tell you when you was in the line, standing down there, got in the line, you seen that first thing happen, the heart trouble left you, so you can go home now.

You walk different since you got in there, haven't you? The arthritis left you in the line. So just go believing with all your heart.

Sister, of course, one of the great things wrong with you, we all know, but this is one thing; there's about ninety-five percent of this audience suffering with the same thing, a nervous condition. You're real nervous, isn't that right? Let me show you how it'd be hard to call them. Everyone suffering with nervous condition, raise up your hands, out there. See? See there? You've tried to find a place to start. They told you to get next to yourself. Satan told you was going to lose your mind and all these things. But it's a lie. You believe with all your heart? [The sister says, "I believe."—Ed.] Then from right here, in the Name of Jesus Christ, go, and be well for the glory of God.

If thou canst believe. . .

E-77 That man has been setting there weeping for a little while, looking at me. You got trouble in the chest. Do you believe that God Almighty will make you well? If you believe it, you can have it, sir. Raise up your hands; accept it; go home and be made well.

Your arthritis finished. Go home, and be made well in the Name of Jesus Christ. God bless you.

A lady just raised her hand up there, put it on the back of her head with a skin trouble. You believe that God will make you well? You have a prayer card? You don't. You don't need one. You're healed anyhow. Jesus Christ healed you and makes you well.

E-78 Are you believers, each one of you out there now, solemnly believing in the Son of God? Do you believe that it's His Spirit here? If He does that, keeps His Word . . . You say, "Brother Branham, could you heal me?" No, I can't do it. He's already done it. See? It's something that He's done. He's just here, He . . . If He was standing here with this suit on, He couldn't heal you, 'cause He's already done it. He'd say, "Won't you believe it?" He is just making Himself known that He is here. How many believes it with all your heart?

Now, I'm going to give you something to do so that every person here will be healed. How many believers did you say there was? Raise up your hands, all around, everywhere.

Jesus said, His last commission to His church . . . His first commission was, "Go heal the sick, raise the dead, cast out devils." His last commission was, "These signs shall follow them that believe: In My Name they shall cast devils, speak with new tongues. If they lay their hands on the sick, they shall recover." Is that right?

E-79 Now, each one of you as believers, lay your hand on somebody next to you. Just lay your hand over wherever you are; just lay your hand, if you're a believer. You have just as much right to lay your hands on one another as anyone else does.

Now, do not pray for yourself, because the person you got your hands on is praying for you. You pray for the next person; they'll be praying for you. And I'll pray for you from this platform, and the God of Heaven Who raised up Jesus from the dead, and made Him alive forevermore, He is here tonight to fulfill every Word that He said. It's His Presence.

Now, you bow your head while I pray for you. And just believe with all your heart that God will hear my prayer. Surely you understand that it's not me. It's the Holy Spirit now has proved the Word of God right.

E-80 Just before we pray with your heads bowed, if there is an unbeliever, was in here, and now is a believer, would you stand to your feet to be recognized in prayer, while we pray? Somebody that wants to receive Christ as personal Saviour, would you stand to your feet to be remembered in prayer just now, while you're in His Divine Presence? Would there be those here, who would love to accept Him right now, would stand to your feet?

"He that will witness Me before men, him will I witness before My Father and the holy Angels."

Stand up just now, and say, "I will accept Jesus Christ as My Saviour. You're here, and I know it. But he's revealed You to me." But don't rely upon your church membership, because it's no good. You've got to receive the Holy Spirit or you're finished. Now, remember, it's not me; it's the Holy Spirit that's bringing His Word to pass. So if you wish to stand, stand now while we pray.

E-81 Our Heavenly Father, this is the closing hours of this world's history. We know that there is no remedy left; the Coming of the Son of God is at hand. He said, "As it was in the days of Sodom, so shall it be at the coming of the Son of man." We see the atomic bombs and the hydrogen bombs, and every little nation, just waiting for somebody to let one loose. Then into the midst of the air yonder as a—a sun popping open, will this earth go. But before that takes place, and we know it could be before morning, it could be at any minute. As our scientist tell us, it's long ago, three minutes until midnight. But we know the hand of God has stopped time, to wait, just long-suffering like He was in the days of Noah.

And now, You've proved Your last thing that You said You would do just before Sodom was burned. Immediately after that sign was finished, Sodom burned. God, it's just about over. But there's only One Who can draw men's hearts. You said, "No man can come to Me, except My Father draws him first." Many will see, and hear, and walk continually in darkness, ordained to this condemnation, as said the Book of Jude. Perverse minds, souls that's wandering like lost stars, raging waves of the sea, foaming out their own shame of unbelief. To know tonight that we stand in the Presence of the great Holy Spirit, Who brought the Word, Who wrote the Word, Who confirms the Word, and brings Hissself Present to fulfill the Word that He has promised . . .

I pray for these believers, who have their hands on each other. I pray with all my heart that You'll heal their sick bodies, cast away every evil spirit.

E-82 Satan, you've lost the—the battle. You are a—a defeated person. You have no rights anymore.

Our Lord Jesus died at Calvary; and through His holy, unadulterated Blood, the Blood of Almighty God that was broke at Calvary, You redeemed the human race, Lord. And You defeated Satan by that same Blood, stripped him of every power that he had. And You're alive tonight here in Bloomington, Illinois, in this college ball floor. You are here tonight alive among Your people, proving Yourself, that You are the same yesterday, today, and forever. And Satan is aware of that. He knows that his hour is close.

Satan, I adjure thee by the living God, we call your bluff. You can't hold these sick people any longer. Come out of them. In the Name of Jesus Christ depart from them and let them alone. The Lord God of Heaven rebuke thee, Satan. You cannot have any power. Jesus is over you. He taken the powers away from you. He redeemed the human race back to Himself. Come out, I adjure thee by the living God, that you depart from this people.

Now, as you have your hands laid upon each other, the way you pray in your own church, lay your hands on somebody by you, and pray for them. You pray just the way you do in your church. Lay your hands over on somebody, and pray for one another. And when you feel the faith of the living God, which is present now, pouring down into your soul to make you a believer, then rise in the Name of Jesus Christ and claim your healing for the glory of God.
