

BE NOT AFRAID, IT IS I

E-1 Let us bow our heads just a moment now, for prayer.

Our precious Lord, we are grateful that we can stand and sing this song, "Lord, I Receive," because it is a promise that was given us. And we pray tonight, Lord, while the crowd is under the anticipation, and along with myself, of seeing You do great signs among us, tonight. We pray, Lord, as the prayer line passes around this platform tonight, that every person will be healed for Your glory. And Father, we pray that on coming tomorrow around the different parts of the city, that these precious brethren, who is standing gallantly for the cause of Christ, that their churches will be packed out, and many souls saved, and great day tomorrow in every church throughout the city. And then tomorrow night, Father, we pray that You'll help us as we endeavor to pray for the sick again tomorrow night. Pray that tonight, there'll be so many people healed till they'll be telling their neighbors. They'll be coming in tomorrow night for healing likewise.

Bless the service and all that we do. We'll bow and give Thee praise, for we ask it in the Name of Thy Son, the Lord Jesus. Amen.

You may be seated.

E-2 It is such a wonderful blessing to know the Lord Jesus as our Saviour, and to know Him as our Healer, and looking for Him to come as our King to set up a Kingdom on earth, that we shall rule and reign with Him for a thousand years, forever be with Him.

And now, being that tonight is rather pushing for the service of healing, or praying for the sick, we want to say . . . I want to make this statement, the reason I haven't had any healing lines this week, there's been something that's been on my heart.

And I told you the last time here there was a new ministry coming. I spoke with some of the brethren today, and was telling them about what's happened. Just remember, that the first time I was here, you remember the Lord had told me something was going to happen: change in the ministry. It happened. Said another one's going to happen, and it happened.

Now, there's a another one greater, far greater than all the rest of them put together, already confirmed and ready. I hope it happens tonight. I just might say that. I don't have the time to explain it to you, but the brethren who does know about it, it's wonderful. It'd be such a great thing for the people. And I am grateful to God that the hour is soon at hand (I believe it), when God is going to help His children. Especially, it'll be for those who can't muster the faith to raise up and get a hold of God like they should. I believe the Lord is providing a way for us now to take care of them also.

Some runs into the faith that they can just reach over and receive anything. Why, that's great faith. Some of them has mustard seed faith, and has to wait so long to get through. I believe the Lord is making a way for those people now. And I don't know when it will be, but it will be. Just as certain as I'm standing here, it will be.

E-3 Now, I guess the ministers has announced their services tomorrow at—at the different places. And—and you are strangers here, some of you from out of the city. Why, we'd certainly—in any of these churches you can find a place to worship there, the faith of your choice, and we'd be glad if you'd attend the services of some of these brethren here. The churches—any churches that you want to go to from other towns where you're from, someone can tell you where your church is located. And they'd be glad to do it, anybody.

And so, the Lord bless you real richly, and have a good service tomorrow everywhere. I pray when you come in tomorrow night for prayer service again for the sick, that they'll just be exceedingly abundantly of the things done.

E-4 Now, you that wants to turn to the Scripture readings, there is—we're going to read tonight a portion of Scripture from Saint Matthew, 14th chapter. And you who are keeping the markings down of the reading, let's begin about the 22nd verse as we read. Now, the 14th chapter of Saint Matthew's Gospel:

And straightway Jesus constrained his disciples to get into a ship, and to go before him to the other side, while he sent the multitude away.

And when he—he had sent the multitude away, he went up into a mountain apart to pray: and when evening was come, he was there alone.

But the ship was now in the midst of the sea, tossed with the waves: and the winds were contrary.

In the fourth watch of the night, Jesus came unto them, walking on the sea.

And when the disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were troubled, saying, It is a spirit; and they cried out for fear.

But straightway Jesus spake unto them, saying, Be of a good cheer; it is I; be not afraid.

May I use that last three words or four, "Be Not Afraid, It Is I." I want to make that a text.

E-5 It must have been close to sundown when the big fisherman begin to move the boat back and forth to push it from the bank. I can see his great, brawny muscles, as he had the boat loaded with the rest of the apostles, as he pushed away from the bank, and shoved it free from the sands of the shore of Galilee. And it moved out into the water, the big rugged fellow climbed over some of their feet, and took his place by the side of Andrew, his brother, picked up the oar, and they started away from the shore.

And as they moved steadily out to sea, the people who loved them standing on the bank waving, and the sun going down; it must have been about twenty minutes before they disappeared out of the sight of the last one waving. I can see each one drop his oar, wave, and then pick up his oar, and start again with the little ship. Way back in the west it looked kindly red and low, as the sun sank over the Judean hills.

E-6 There must have been a long silence, then I believe it was the young John that must have let up on his oar, and said something like this, "I remember when I was just a little boy, how that my mother used to take me on her lap and read me the story of God. And how that she used to read that story of God loving His people so well that He provided for them when they had no way to provide for themselves." And said, "That one day when God had called His people to take a journey from the land of bondage to the land of freedom, they run out of bread out in the wilderness, and there was no corn or flour for them to make bread." And he might said this, "I remember when she told me that every night that God rained bread down out of heaven. And of a morning as people would go out and get that bread." And I said to my mother, "Mother, dear, where did God get that bread to feed so many people, two million people or more, out in that wilderness? How did He send it down through the skies when they were asleep, and rained it upon the ground? Where did He get the flour, mother, to make the bread?"

Well, she used to say something like this, "My dear son, God is the Creator. He is able to make bread or create whatever He wishes to. When some requirement that God requires, He is so great, John, till He just speaks and it's there, because He is the great Creator."

E-7 And now he might say this, "My brethren, did you notice His face this afternoon when all those hungry people were standing there?"

And one of the disciples might've said, "Yes, I noticed way down along the creek, there was a little boy playing truant from school, and had his lunch, and—and he had five little barley loaves, and two fishes. And when He took those bread into His hands, and broke that bread, handed it out, took those fishes that were fried, and broke them fishes, and handed them out, and when He reached back to get another piece of bread it had already grewed on there, already cooked and ready. The fishes was already fried. And out of that little bitty lunch of five biscuits and two pieces of fish, He fed five thousand people. Did it remind you of the story of God feeding His people? So there must be some great connection between this One that we're walking with, and Jehovah God, because there is something about Him that He does the same thing God did. He takes care of His people."

E-8 They were in a wilderness. "And I am persuaded, brethren," might have young John said, in his youthful way of about—he was about thirty years old, I suppose, maybe thirty-five. He was younger than the rest. He might've said this, "That it was strange when I watched His eyes. There was something godly about Him. He never had one doubt but what when He reached back for another biscuit it would be there. And He pulled one biscuit off of another. Now, brethren, tell me where He got it at? He must be some connection with that great Creator, that could make bread, and could make it already baked, and could make the fish already fried, and ready. Bringing it from five biscuits and two fish, enough to feed five thousand, and take up five baskets fulls of fragments left over. . . There must be something about Him that we yet have not understood, but I know that He's some connection with God, because no man could do that unless God would be with Him."

Jesus had said, "If I do not the works of My Father, then believe Me not. But if I do the works, then you believe the works."

E-9 And young John must've dropped his head, and took back his oar, and it must've been Simon then, the big fisherman, that said, "Yes, that was enough to convince anybody that God was in that man, because no one could've done it. That Man could've not have done it Himself, but God was in Him." And then he said, "When I was convinced, I was rather a rugged, little fisherman on the sea. Brethren, you know I-sh—had better training than to what I was doing first, because I had a godly old father. He was a Pharisee, but he was a great man. And I can remember down on the seashore when he would pick me up in his lap, and set me down, and would say, 'Simon, my son, you're just a lad, but maybe in your generation, if your father doesn't see it, there will come someday a Deliverer, which we know as to be the Messiah. And Simon, many people will misunderstand Him. Our churches will misunderstand Him. And He will be a Man that will be a strange sort of a Man. But Simon, my son, I never want you to forget this: You'll have to know the Messiah by the Scriptures that wrote of Him. Don't never leave the Scriptures, my son. And Moses, our leader, has told us what the Messiah would be. For it is written in the Scriptures that, 'The Lord, our God, shall raise up a prophet among us.' And when this Messiah comes, He will be a God Prophet. He will be different from other prophets. He will be a God Prophet. But you'll know Him, Simon, because He will be that Prophet, and He will do the sign of a prophet.' And when I heard of this Galilean Man, this Jesus of Nazareth, I thought it was just another a—quack, just another pass overnight. But one day, when He borrowed my boat, been talking to me, as soon as I come into His Presence, He called my by name. The first time I ever saw Him, He told me who I was. And not only that, but He knowed that godly old father of mine. He said, 'Simon, you are the son of Jonas.' And when He said that, I knowed that was the One my daddy had spoke about, that the Scripture said would come, because He was a God Prophet. I knowed His signs was beyond a prophet, so He was a God Prophet. And I knowed that would be Him. That's the reason, brethren, that I fell on my face. When Andrew told me about it, I didn't believe him, my brother setting here."

E-10 Young John brushed his hair back, few tears with it, and then smiled and said, "When I seen Him break that bread, I knowed He was God."

But Peter said, "When He told me who I was, and who my father was, I knew Who that was."

E-11 Well then, it must have been Philip, who shoved his shoulders a little bit, and looked around, and said, "But, brethren, you should have seen the face of Brother Nathanael here, when I found Him. And I knew beyond a shadow of doubt when He told Simon that day who he was and who his father was; I knew that was the Messiah. And when I heard Him say that, there was something burned within me, that I knowed our generation had a visit. And I was going to be determined that every friend that I knowed, that I was going to get him to Him just as quick as I could. So I thought of Nathanael, my bosom friend. And when I went around the mountains about fifteen miles, running that day, and over the cobblestones, and the sun was hot. . . And I heard much talk about it, pro and con, as I went along the seashore of Galilee to see the—my friend. I came up and knocked on the door, and his wife came to the door, and I said, 'Where is Nathanael?' Said, 'Why, Philip, he had just went out into the olive grove. I think he's gone out to see about the irrigation or something.' Quickly, I run out into the grove, and I found him on his knees as usual." That's a good way to find a man.

E-12 "I found him on his knees, and I—the message was burning in my heart till I could hardly wait to tell him, but yet, I let him finish his prayer. And when he got up, not knowing I was there, usually I would go to him and said, 'How is the grove getting along, Nathanael? How is everything up at the market? Have you did any trading with the—the caravans that's coming through?' As he usually did, because he was rather a business man. But I had something to tell him." That's what we need today, brethren: A message that's so burning that nothing else takes it's place.

Quickly, he didn't say, "How do you do, Nathanael?" He said, "Come, see Who we found."

There's something about when you find Jesus, that it's the—it's your subject day and night. You can't talk about nothing else.

"Come, see Who we have found. Jesus of Nazareth, the Son of Joseph."

E-13 And Nathanael being a just man, and a level thinking man, he said, "Now, wait just a minute. Now, you know that there could be nothing good come from Nazareth. And if there was such a thing as the Messiah that was coming, He would come to the high priest first, and make Hissself known. He would come to our church."

But you see, God does things peculiar, strange. He does it in order to pull the elected from everywhere.

"And then when, I told him that if he was going to be critical, the best thing to do was just come, see for himself. . . ."

I think that's a very good message to anybody. Don't criticize. If you hear of somebody that's receiving the Holy Spirit, if you see a life changed, and something definitely, and they say, you've been told that there is no Holy Spirit, do not criticize it, take your Bible, look it over, see if God promised it, and then go see for yourself. Don't stay home. Go find out. Look it over yourself and compare it with the Scriptures. And if it's with the Scriptures, it's right. If it isn't with the Scriptures, that's questionable. But as long as it's Scripture, and a promise, it is true.

E-14 And he said, "Come see for yourself." Then he looked back over his shoulder to find Nathanael setting there weeping for joy. And he said, "Brother, do you remember our conversation along the road? I told you that the Scripture said that the Messiah would be a Prophet, a God Prophet that Moses said, 'The Lord your God shall raise up.' And all of our people questioned him, 'Are you that prophet?' And he left them kindly in a daze not telling them exactly what he was." And he told, said, "You remember the old fisherman by the name of Simon?"

"Yes," said Nathanael, "I remember him."

"You remember when we bought that fish from him that day, and you wanted him to sign a receipt, and he didn't even have enough education to sign his own name. But that same illiterate man came before this One that we know to be the Messiah, and as soon as he came, He told him who he was, and what his father was."

And Nathanael said, "I'll come see for myself. He will never tell me nothing. My mind's stronger than His. He will never read my mind. He's no mind reader."

"And when we come up into the Presence, and then I can hear him say, 'Just a moment.'"

Philip say, "Nathanael, I'm getting filled up. You tell the rest of it."

E-15 And Nathanael said, "When I came up in to look at Him, He—I knew by His looks that He was a different from other man."

And brother, sister, when a man once gets a vision of Jesus Christ, he can never be the same after that. He's different from others.

And he said, "When I looked at Him, and He looked back to me, and He looked me right in the face, and He said, 'Behold, an Israelite in whom there is no guile.'" Well I thought, "Wonder if Philip could have told Him that He was going after me. Wonder if that could have been the case. So I turned around and said to Him, 'Rabbi, when did You ever know me. We are strangers to each other, and when did You know me?' He said, 'Before Philip called you. When you were under the tree, I saw you.'" Said, "That was enough. That settled it. Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God, the King of Israel. Then that look that He gave me and said, 'Oh, you believe Me to be such, because I told you where you was, and told you these things? Then thou shall see greater things.' And truly today, I have seen greater things, when He taken the bread, and broke it, and created bread behind it, and fish. He told me the truth. Therefore, I am persuaded above any measure that that is the Son of God. That Prophet was to come into the world at the ending up of our dispensation."

E-16 And they sat quiet for a few minutes, then Andrew setting across from Peter pulled his oar in, said, "Let's rest for a few minutes, brethren. Let us all share this, because it's well dark, and we're floating along pretty lively. And we've got all night to cross this little Galilean sea. So we all well remember the day that we'd walked with Him so long, and His feet was so tired. Remember, when we went down to the spring and got some water and poured on His feet, and they were blistered from walking? Yet He said, 'I have need to go by Samaria.' Really on His road to Jericho around about way. We wondered why would He go around about way."

E-17 Remember, reminds me rather, of a recording I was listening to a few days ago, when I was laying in the bed, the day that I saw the Lord Jesus walk into the room, and I don't think I've told you about. To talk about this new ministry to me. When I was laying there in the bed, I was listening at a teacher a teaching on a tape. And someone said to this teacher, "Why is it that you don't go and stay straight in the road with your text?"

And this teacher said, "All the people I teach to is not on the highway, so I have to go by the wayside to pick them up." That's pretty smart, Brother duPlessis . . . ? . . . Brother David . . .

And true, Jesus will take His teacher to one side off of his text, and Jesus will go aside to win one soul or to do one thing to help somebody.

E-18 Say, "You remember how His precious feet was hurting him? And He made His way to Samaria, and it was noontime, and we'd been out bigger part of the night. He'd prayed for so many sick, and He was weary, and walking along the road. And He sat down so tired that He couldn't make His way hardly in the city. And He sent us away to get some food. And the Samaritans wouldn't let us have it. So on our way coming back, we were astonished to see Him, our Master, talking with a woman marked with ill-fame. But when we seen that we were astonished, and we—did not we all slip up in the bush and stand still to see what He would say? And He said, 'Woman, bring Me a drink.' Do you remember what she said brethren?"

"She said, 'It's not customary for you Jews to ask Samaritans such. We have no dealings with each other.' But now listen brethren," They—Andrew might have said. "Listen what He told her."

"He said, 'Woman, if you knew Who you were talking to, you would ask Me for a drink. And I'd give you waters that you don't come here to draw.'"

"And the woman all excited said, 'Well, where—where can You get this water? The well's deep and You have nothing to draw with.'"

“And do you remember, brethren, what He said? ‘The water that I give is Life Eternal bubbling up.’ And the woman wanted that water. And He said to her, ‘Go get your husband first and come here.’”

“And do you remember we thought He must be trapped or something, when the woman looked Him boldly in the face and said, ‘I have no husband.’ Thought, how could that be our Lord to make such a mistake as that, when Messiah is perfect? How could it be? This woman is denying that she has a husband.”

“But then, did you notice the expression in His face, calmly, quietly, said, ‘Woman, thou has said true. You’ve had five husbands, and the one you’re now living with is not yours.’”

“How it melted that woman. She thought she could lie out of it. But the expression on her face, and the tears in her eyes, she said, ‘Sir, I perceive that You are a Prophet.’ Now, brethren, listen to what He said. She said, ‘You must be a prophet. We know that when the Messiah cometh, He will tell us these things. But Who are You?’”

“And He said to her, ‘I am He, that speaks to you.’”

“Brethren, when we know that our teaching is that this Prophet would be a God Prophet, and when that Samaritan woman testified against our priest that she knew that when the Messiah come He’d be a—give the Messiahic sign, He’d be a God Prophet. And even our priest called Him, ‘Beelzebub,’ a fortune-teller.”

“But this ill-famed woman seemed to have a better understanding of the Scriptures than our priest did. Said—she said, ‘You must be a Prophet, but we know when the Messiah cometh, He will tell us all these things. But Who are You?’”

“He said, ‘I’m He that speaks to you.’”

“And on that—when she found out that she’d had a contact with the real Messiah, she run into the city and screamed to the men, ‘Come, see a Man Who told me the things that I have done. Isn’t this the Messiah? Isn’t this the sign of the Messiah?’”

“And how many more things,” Peter must have spoke of and said, “could we say about Him that has proved that He is the Messiah of God.”

E-19 About that time, Satan looked up over the rim, and he saw the little boat out on the sea without Jesus. He thought, “Here’s my opportunity.”

So is it, tonight, with every individual, with every church, with every member of the church, when Satan can see you alone without Jesus, it's his opportunity to smite you.

Said, "I'll rid the whole bunch now. I've got them right where I want them. Now, I'll drown the whole bunch of them." So he begin to breathe in and blow out from his nostrils, great powerful winds, that—and his poison breath hit the sea, it had a nervous prostration.

And sin from Satan will make anything have a nervous prostration. That's the reason we've got so many nervous breakdowns, so the insane institutions filled up. We got people running through a thirty mile zone at ninety miles an hour, squeezing all the tar— or the rubber off of their tires turning the corners. They're in a nervous neurotic state. They don't know what to do. All the world is a nervous, upset. They don't know where they're standing. They're joining one church, and then the other church. Every little thing, they're running here and there, to and fro. It's because that Satan has begin to push out his poison breath, has begin to blow his winds of strife, breaking churches apart, separating brotherhood, making people think that they're a little better than somebody else: They belong in a better bracket; they belong to a better church. There is only one Church, and that's the Church of Jesus Christ. And there's only one way to get into it; that's by birth. You are borned into the Church of God, and there's no other way to be brought in. And it doesn't matter whether you are Methodist, Baptist, Presbyterian, Catholic, Orthodox Jew, whatever you are. God does not look at your denomination. He looks at the brand that's on you, or the Blood.

E-20 Years ago, I used to do quite a bit of riding. First riding I ever did was here at Phoenix. I thought I was a rider like my dad, till a bronco piled me up a few times. Right out here in Salt River Valley, he throwed me into a bunch of cactus out there one day. I was in awful shape for a week or two, trying to chase a burro down, right off of Sixteenth Street, thirty-three years ago.

And I remember over in Colorado, the Hereford Association grazes the Troublesome River Valley. And many times when we'd take the cattle up there, have I set with my leg wrapped around the horn of the saddle, while the ranger was checking these cattle going through the gate, the drift fence gate. And there was the Turkey Track; there was the Lazy K; the Diamond T, Mr. Grimes; and the Tripod which was Mr. Jefferies, who I was with. Mr. Zuollin, the A, different ones going through, which every man could raise a ton of hay could put a cow on the pasture for the summer. But I noticed, that ranger never even checked the brands, he looked in their ear for the blood tag, because nothing could go on that forest except it was a registered Hereford.

And that's the way it's going to be at the big gate someday. God don't care what brand you're wearing, He's going to look for the Blood tag of His own Son. For it's the Blood of Jesus Christ. He won't watch the brand, He will watch the Blood. "Not when I see the brand, when I see the Blood, I'll pass over you."

E-21 Satan has blowed his breath of poison. Saying, "All these people don't believe like you." And just—it ain't what you believe; it's Who you believe. Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and thou shalt be saved . . . on the Lord."

And he seen the little boat out on the sea, and he will watch your little boat too. When he can see you out on the sea of life without Jesus, that's his time to sink you. And he will do it, if you don't watch him.

These disciples had went off without Him. And now, I say this with brotherly love, I wonder in the last four or five years or more, if we haven't got so busy, so many things to do, and our building programs, and—and all of our societies and things that we're getting in the church, if we haven't kindly went off without Him. If we haven't stayed home at night to watch some television on Wednesday night instead of attending church? I wonder if we haven't been too busy trying to a—a make enough ends to get a new car, or something like that, and forgot church? Wonder if our programs haven't called us away un—we say, "Our church is getting cold and formal." I wonder if we'd check up on ourselves, if we're not just about as much to blame, or a little more than the pastor is? The cause of our church being in that condition? Remember, you're sailing in one little boat, and there's nobody can get in there with you but you and Jesus. So keep it congregated. In the unity there's power. With the rest of the believers having fellowship one with another, while the Blood of Jesus Christ, God's Son, cleanses from all uncleanness.

E-22 And then, the little boat begin to pitch back and forth, and it looked like the time had come. I could think the first thing when the winds begin to blow, Simon being a great fisherman, he said, "Hoist the sail."

And Satan said, "I'll rip it off." And a lot times, we hoist up some things. Satan just rips it down for us.

And then he reached down, and beg—grabbed his oar, and bend his back to it, and broke the oar. Then the great waves begin to fill up the ship.

I wonder, if getting away from God, maybe getting away from prayer meetings, if the world hasn't flipped some of it's waves into our ship? I wonder if we haven't got to a place that where we would rather a go to a party than to go to a prayer meeting? I wonder if it's got to a place that we'd kneel down at the altar, and stay there five minutes, instead of five hours like you used to? I wonder if the old church hasn't lost a little of its zeal for God? All of us, Methodist, Baptist, Presbyterian, Pentecostals, and all.

E-23 Brethren, on a stormy sea, and the devil saying, I'll just . . . Every time the lightning would flash, a little demon would set on a wave, and laugh, and said, "I've got them now."

And maybe, a sickness is overtaken you: A cancer's eating you up; tubercular is in your lungs; arthritis has crippled you; and you wonder what's the matter. Satan said, "Just a little while longer." He spoke to the doctor, and said, "You're gone. Your heart's in such a condition." That may be right, but let's check up a little bit.

E-24 They thought that maybe they'd made a mistake, that He—that they were forsaken. But you know what happened? Jesus was mindful of them. After He sent them away, He climbed the highest mountain He could find. And no matter how far out they were from the top of the mountain where He was at, He was watching them.

I'm so glad tonight, though He's been gone from the earth in physical body, two thousand years, He's started climbing on Calvary, and He climbed to the ramparts of glory. He can see the universe around. His eye is on the sparrow, and I know He's watching Madison Square Garden, in Phoenix, Arizona tonight. Our ships may be filled up with sickness, distress, pains, and aches, sufferings, and nervous, and flusterations. We may be tore to pieces, but there's Somebody that's a watching over us.

E-25 He climbed the—so high till He went all the way into heaven, and the Bible said, "He is so high, till He has to look down to see the heavens. Heaven is His throne and the earth is His footstool." There when He climbed so high into power and glory until He sets on the Father's throne, and looks down, and there's not even a sparrow can fall to the street without Him knowing it. He knows how sick you are. He knows your doubts and your flusterations. We're in a terrible storm, but don't be scared, there's Somebody watching. Which one? The One that broke the bread, the One that knowed Peter and called him by his name, the One that told the woman of her sins, the One that touched the hem. . . A woman touching the hem of His garment, and He turned her—and told her her blood issue had stopped. The One who perceived the thoughts of the mind, He hasn't laid down in a grave so He can't see you; but He's climbed into glory, and He can see even the sparrow that falls in the street.

E-26 Before He left, He said, "A little while and the world won't see Me no more (the unbeliever), yet ye shall see Me (the believer); for I will be with you, in you, to the end of the world." Jesus Christ the same yesterday, today, and forever. And never let the poison winds of Satan ever harm you, to throw you off of that. He watches over us.

And when all hopes is gone, maybe you visit the doctor this week. Maybe you've been in every clinic there is in Phoenix, and maybe at the Mayo's or John Hopkins. I've seen it many times. And they'd say there's not a earthly chance.

E-27 Many of you, about three years ago in Reader's Digest, read the article of the miracle of Donny Morton, when I was in Arizona, I mean in California. How the Lord, after Mayo's, and John Hopkins, and all of them had turned that little twisted up baby down, the power of God unfolded that child and made him well. And Mayo's called for an interview for it, wanted to know what happened. Sure. Reader's Digest wrote it up. What happened to little Donny, that little Canadian boy?

All hopes was gone after Mayo and John Hopkins said the child cannot be healed. But the father said, "Donny, we're not whipped. For not long ago, there was someone here in Canada praying for the operator, long-distance operator. She was in a school, she was deaf and dumb." Like these people setting here. And when—there was two of them went to the meeting at Calgary. And the Lord healed both of them. One of them is a singer in church, and the other one's a long-distance telephone operator.

E-28 He said, "Donny, if God knowed them, He knows you honey, and I'll get you somewhere." He hitched his horse to the sled, down through the snow they went with the mother. And when they got to the place where they was to put the little boy, and his mother, and them on the plane, they didn't have enough money for one to get on the plane. So he found a Greyhound bus that Donny and his father could ride in. It come to Los Angeles, and—and the—some kind of an association helped them to get out to the meeting where we was at, the Assemblies of God out there at the campground, North—or Southwestern Bible School.

There when the father started in the line with the little baby, said, "There was a young man that had to put him out of the line, because he had no prayer card.” That was Billy. Billy was doing that, because it wasn’t fair for the man to come in the line, because others had been waiting for days in the prayer line.

But when the little fellow—I seen him walking off the platform with that little twisted baby. I said, “Let him alone, Billy. Bring him on up here.”

And when the father, trembling, brought the little fellow, and his head sideways, his big eyes cast back in his head, shaking his hands, twisted down, his little legs drewed up behind him, I said, “Sir, if I could heal your baby, I’d do it. But you’re a Canadian, and you’ve come a long ways, and you’re. . . This little baby’s name is Donny Morton.”

The father begin to shake, and he said, “That’s true.”

I said, “Do you believe?”

And he started screaming; he said, “With all my heart.”

He went right straight from that meeting that night and bought Donny his first pair of shoes, and he wore them the next day. Why? His eye is on the sparrow. He knows every move. He hasn’t left. He isn’t dead. He’s a raised again, and He is the same yesterday, today, and forever. His great, omnipotent power can never fail. He is still the Son of the living God. Oh, He’s so great.

E-29 And when He looked down off of the mountain, He knowed they’d get in trouble. So He climbed high enough till He could watch them all the way through the journey.

That’s what He done tonight. He knowed we’d be in trouble in this age, so He climbed plumb into heaven, that He could see us plumb through life’s journey. “I’ll be with you, even to the end of the world, I’ll be with you.” Jesus Christ, the same yesterday, today, and forever. What He was then, He is now. What He done then, He does now.

E-30 He was the One Who said, “I can do nothing in Myself.” Saint John, 5:19, He said, “Verily, verily I say unto you the Son can do nothing in Himself, but what He sees the Father doing.” In other words, He can’t lie because He’s God. So when He said, “I do nothing until the Father shows Me, not tells Me, but shows Me. What I see the Father doing, that doeth the Son.” Then Jesus never performed one miracle until God showed Him by a vision, what to do. If that was the sign of Messiah then to the Jews, to the Samaritans, never to the Gentiles. . .

The Gentile age is ending now. We all know that. The handwriting’s on the wall. We know that we’re at the end time. The Gentile world is so in such a conglomeration of sin and confusion, until the Jews has returned now as a nation. The old six-point star of David is a flying, the oldest flag in the year—the oldest flag in the world, twenty-five hundred years since it has flown. There they are with their own currency. Israel returning to it's own. The revivals and everything that we got indicates the soon appearing of the Messiah. We're at the end.

E-31 Now, if God gave the Jews that sign of Messiah before the mercy was taken from the Jews, gave it to the Samaritans at the end of their journey, He has to do the same thing to the Gentiles or—and give the same sign, or He done wrong when He gave them that sign. If God ever makes any kind of a decision, it's perfect forever. He's God. He cannot go back and say, "I was wrong. I'll do this for this generation, and this for something else." He is the same yesterday, today, and forever. He has to do the same. And He promised He'd do the same. And tonight, in the hour, and our little boat rocking. . .

Nations a breaking, Israel awakening,
The signs that the Bible foretold;
Gentile days numbered, with horrors encumbered.
Return, O dispersed to your own.
The day of redemption is near,
Man's hearts are failing for fear;
Be filled with the Spirit, your lamps trimmed and clear.

Look up your redemption is near.

E-32 Oh, how we should take these warnings, seeing the end time come. We see in the little boat, filling up fast, the Gentile age running out, Satan scattering, doing evil, but in the midst of all of it, when they were in their most distressed and thought all hopes was gone, they seen Someone come walking on the water.

But the sad part of the story is this: They were afraid of Him. They thought He was a spirit (in other words, we'd say today), "something spooky." They thought it was some kind of a spirit, maybe a evil spirit out there on the sea. And the only thing that could save them, the only hope they had, the only salvation was left for them, they was afraid of it, because it looked spooky to them.

And if that isn't the same thing tonight with this nation, I don't know it. God sending His promise, proving it by His Spirit, and the people says, "It's a mental telepathy; it's a evil spirit; it's of the devil." The only thing that can help and their afraid of it: Jesus Christ the same yesterday, today, and forever. He is the same. He does the same. He acts the same. He is the same. In every man, and every principle, He's the same. He's here now. His Spirit is here.

E-33 If you could only, my friends, you sick people, could only realize that healing is a—something that's past tense. It's something God has already done. And the only thing that you can do is to accept what He has done, then it'll be different. If you can accept it, if you can believe it, if you can have faith, and believe that God is. . . .

How many, before we call prayer cards for the people to come up here, in this building, that doesn't have a prayer card and you're sick? You? You there? All right. There's a man and a woman.

I do not know you, do I? What about you, sir? I do not know you, do I? We're perfectly strangers. All right. If the Lord God of heaven is still the same God, if Jesus Christ is the same Son of God. If He's here tonight, in the form of the Holy Ghost, that He promised He would be, and will reveal to me your trouble, lady, not knowing you in no way for me to know you. . . . If God will reveal to me your trouble like He revealed the woman at the well what her trouble was, would you believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God, and I've preached the Gospel and told the truth? Will you believe it? Will the rest of you believe it? All right.

You suffer with your eye trouble. And you believe that God will make you well? And you down there, suffer with a lung trouble. Do you believe that God will make you well? Stand up on your feet, if you believe it. All right. Go home, both of you, you are healed. Jesus Christ makes you well. All right.

E-34 If you can believe. Don't you see? Healing can't come from any man's hands. It comes from Calvary. It's a finished work that God did for you at Calvary. Jesus Christ the same yesterday, today, and forever, do you believe it? Are you aware that the Presence, and the goodness, and the mercy of Almighty God is here now to help you? Would you believe? Could you believe with all your heart?

Here, I'm looking at a man. There's nothing wrong with him, but he's thinking about his friend. If you might know that Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and forever; he's thinking about his friend. And his friend has blackouts. He's a veteran. That is right. Can't get him to church, but he's a veteran and having blackouts. You're interested in him and praying for him. Is that so, sir? If it is stand upon your feet. I do not know you. I've never seen you in my life, but that's the truth, is it? If it is, raise up your hand. Have faith, and believe in God, and the blackouts will stop and he will be made well.

E-35 Wait. Do you have a prayer card, sir? You don't have a prayer card. All right. You won't—you wouldn't be in the line then. See what I mean? It's Jesus Christ revealing Himself. He said, "As it was in the days of Sodom, what was it? A human being standing there with the Spirit of God in It, that said, "Abraham, where is your wife, Sarah?"

Said, "In the tent behind you." And she smiled to herself.

He said, "Why did she laugh?"

Jesus so much as said this, "That same thing will take place just before the fire falls to destroy the whole world. As it was in the days of Sodom, so shall it be in the coming of the Son of man." Oh, if you will just believe it.

How many has prayer cards? I sent Billy down to give out prayer cards. Where's he at? All right, what's the—what's the letter on the card? Somebody's got a card, what letter is it? A? Who has A number 1? Raise up your hand. A number 1? All right, sir, stand right down here. A number 2? All right, right here's the . . . Number 3? Number 4? Number 5? 6? 7? [Blank spot on tape—Ed.] . . . and for ever.

Wonderful, wonderful Jesus is to me,
Counselor, Prince of Peace, Mighty God is He;
Saving me, keeping me from all sin and shame,
Wonderful is my Redeemer, praise His Name!

How glorious. How wonderful He is.

E-36 All right, 30 to 40, let them come now, A-30 to 40. Now, the ushers will keep you lined up with your numbers and so forth, how to get in the line down there.

Now, I've stopped for just a tiny bit early. [Blank spot on tape—Ed.] Got them? That's okay, they—they got the ushers over there. All right, 30 to 40. Now, 40 to 50, 40 to 50, let them line up.

E-37 And now, while they're lining, I want your attention just a moment. Our Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of the living God, He is most wonderful. And there was a woman in the Bible, that she had no way of getting close to Him. So she said this: "If I will touch the border of His garment, I'll be made well."

How many knows that Scripture? "If I will just touch . . ." Now, look at her faith. Look at Martha, when she was back and had sent for Lazarus, and Jesus went on. Never—He just ignored it. They sent again. That lovely girls, and their brother dying, Jesus' bosom friend. . . And they sent for Him again, and He ignored it and went on. Why? Remember, Saint John 5:19? "I do nothing unless the Father shows Me. I do nothing."

E-38 There's something with this lady here, setting here. I'll tell you what it is now. See? You don't realize just what's wrong. See? I told you something wrong with your eyes, which was astigmatism, but your main thing, you're wanting me to pray for, to call you and tell you which will help you, your heart. But that's right. Now, if that's right, stand up. All right, now set down. All right. See? You was going to be healed anyhow. See? You was going to be healed, but you—you was wanting me to know it was heart trouble. See? By you praying like that, "God let him know it. Let him know it."

God spoke back and said, "It's heart trouble. Tell her about her heart." Oh, He's wonderful, He knows the secret of the heart. Oh, isn't He wonderful? How glorious, how marvelous, the Son of God.

This little woman touched the border of His garment; that's exactly what she did, right then. Now, you know, she never touched me.

E-39 You're not going to get in the prayer line either? Setting there? the elderly man looking at me, right here? You haven't got no prayer card? Do you believe that God will heal you anyhow? You setting here? You, yeah. You're not going to be in a prayer line? All right. You'd like to have your eyes healed though, wouldn't you? Your eyes. That's right. Raise up your hand, if that's right. You have got it. Amen. All right. It's over now; you don't have to get in the prayer line, just go on back. It's over now. What did he touch? He touched His garments. What happened? The same thing happened when that woman touched His garment.

The Bible said that He is a High Priest. Do you believe that? Right now, He's the High Priest that can be touched by what? The feeling of our infirmity. Is that right? Well, that's what happening. You're touching the High Priest, not me. God has to have a channel to work through. He works through man. He's always used man. When Jesus came, that was God in flesh. God working through man. He was God in David. He was God in Elijah. He was God in Joseph.

E-40 David, a rejected king, went up over the hill weeping, up over the Mount of Olives. Five hundred years later, the Son of David, as a rejected King, wept the same thing over the same city. It was the Spirit of God in Him, the Spirit of God in David, the Spirit of God in the Son of David, Christ weeping over the city as a rejected King. [Blank spot on tape—Ed.]

“Who touched Me?” No one said a word. But Jesus looked around, watched the gar—the people. And when He found her, He said, or told her about that blood issue she had had. . . Her faith had saved her.

Now, He’s the same tonight. If He’s the same tonight, He will be the same tonight, work the same tonight. The same signs, “The—the works that I do, shall you do also.”

E-41 I was talking to a fellow not long ago. He said, “Oh, sure, Brother Branham, we preach the Gospel all over the world, that’s greater works.”

I said, “Do the works then that He did, then do the greater. Show me the works that He did.”

“The works that I do, shall you do also.”

E-42 The Spirit of God is present. How wonderful it would be if we could all believe now with one accord. Now, look, down this line there’s. . . How many more’s got prayer cards? Anybody else got any prayer cards? All prayer cards? Now remember, prayer cards will be give out at six o’clock again tomorrow night.

Now, this line here, is for prayer for the sick. Now, if I could heal this man or anyone else along there, I’d do it. I can’t heal. I have no way of healing, but a sign shows the Presence of God. Now, God first sent His Word. That’s the best way to believe it, what your pastors tell you. That’s right. If that would be your eye, and they didn’t take our word for it, they could just go ahead die. But not God, He’s loving and kind. He sends other signs. He puts in the church, what? The first thing that God puts in the church is apostles. That’s missionaries, same word, “one sent.” Second is a prophet, and then teachers, evangelists, and pastors. God sets those in church by fore-ordination, God foreknowing all things.

Then in each local church is gifts, nine different spiritual gifts. It just—it’s not only on one, it goes from one to the other and back and forth. And Paul said, “You all may prophesy.” Now, them’s not all prophets; that’s the gift of prophecy. A gift of prophecy, it has to be judged by two or three judges before it can even be given to the church, or past upon. But if God sends a prophet, it’s borned a prophet, always, with THUS SAITH THE LORD. See?

E-43 Now, we’re looking in the church today for God to rise up such people. We’re looking for great signs, and great missionaries, and great apostles, or great—a great man. They're here. I talked to one just a few hours ago, Oral Roberts, great man of God, up here at the hotel. Us praying for each other, laying hands on each other, asking God's blessings that our work would move on. Tommy Osborn, oh, just I—I—I couldn't stop to call them, great men, all around, through this city. Pastors and everything, they're all servants of God. Your pastor ain't close as a neighbor that's filled with the Holy Spirit. Go with them and pray, anywhere. So we get in, that's the main thing. Get in.

E-44 Now, I wouldn't—couldn't take this line here for discernment. You know that. 'Cause that just nearly kills you. Anyone knows that. How many knows that visions weaken you? The Bible said so. What happened when that one woman touched His garment? He said, "I perceive that I have gotten weak." Is that right? "Virtue has left me, I got weak." One person, well, you see what two persons would be, then three persons, then four persons; you're about gone. See? The only way it is, Jesus said, "More than this shall you do. For I go . . . or greater (which mean more quantity, not quality) shall you do."

E-45 Now, I believe I've made the announcements. I'm going to ask each one of you people keep the little ones just as quiet as possible. Everyone set still for a few minutes. And I want You, now remember, my prayers is no more to—for the healing of these people than your prayers is. Each one of you are partners with me, and—and we're partners together with Jesus for these sick people. What if this was your son, dad? What is this was your son, mother? your husband, wife? your father, child? What if it was? You'd want somebody to be real sincere about it. More would pray, the happier you'd be.

Now, there's a many one of them out there, sir, praying for you. And each one's going to join with me in prayer for you and for each one of these people along here, that. . . Now, if we'd stop for this discernment, we'd—we'd get about four or five, and the rest of them would go back to their seat. But long ago, when I first come here, you remember that day up here at Brother Garcia's that I prayed for nearly three thousand people that afternoon? Do you remember that? Sure. Many of you do. See? Three thousand people. . . They had to pack me to the motel, just stand there laying hands on them, praying. Till. . . And just saying, "God bless you," until my mouth, I could hardly open it no more. My lips were parched like that. But hundreds was healed (See?), just laying on of hands.

E-46 Now, the Bible said, "These signs shall follow them that believe. If they lay their hands on the sick, they shall recover." Do you believe? Do you believe, all along the line? If God doesn't say one thing to you or any discernment, you're ready to believe it anyhow. Is that right? Just laying on of hands . . . All right.

Now, you come. Just stand where you are, sir; that's all right. Now, that you might know, this fellow's been standing a long time, and Brother Borders . . . Or, no, that's this brother . . . Are you one of the ushers there, sir. Are you the next patient to come? Oh, it's the people there. All right, just so that you, somebody to help them. And if they're too crippled to come up, bring them right around here, and I'll lay hands on them and pray for them.

E-47 Now, how many in here will pledge your loyalty to be offering prayer for these sick people? Raise up your hand. Now, if all of you see . . . Look along here, everyone.

Now, heavenly Father, this is a moment, this is a crucial moment. The moment that that same Jesus Who came walking to the ship that night on the sea, walk in tonight, Lord, in the midst of this people. Walk in by the power of the Spirit, and so saturate our body, our souls, and our spirit, with Your Presence, until we'll see the great works of God. May each person that passes through this prayer line, and hundreds of people setting here, tonight, lifting their hands and pledging their loyalty to pray for the sick . . . And I, Your servant Lord, praying. . . And You, the Holy Spirit, here performing and doing the same thing, the impossible things to be done by man.

It is true that someone might have enough mental faith to rise up out of a wheelchair or get up off of a cot or a stretcher, but when it come to discerning a spirit perfectly, that takes You, God. That's only You. The greatest miracle that we seen in the—the—the ages is that. But You promised it; it was a sign that You was going to give to the Gentiles just before their closing day.

E-48 Lord, we don't know what day will be the closing of Phoenix, but we pray, Father, that tonight, that the people will not miss this, but they'll . . . Now that the hour has come for deliverance, after a full week of calling to the altar, and doing all that we could to get people to repent, seven straight nights now, we pray that You'll be merciful and heal all the sick that's in Divine Presence.

And Father God, if there's anything here that You wish me to know, just speak to me, Lord, and I'll answer You. Answer the prayer of all the people, and may everyone coming through the prayer line pass by this pulpit, knowing that the prayers of the people is for them, and Jesus, the Son of God, is here to prove Himself to be their Saviour and their all present King and God. Grant it in Jesus' Name. Amen.

E-49 Now, one word from Him will be more than thousands that I could say. Now, that you might know . . . Now, those people out there, wherever they were, had no prayer cards, you just keep praying, keep praying.

Now, here's people with prayer cards. To show you the prayer card has nothing to do with it, show you that the Spirit of God is here, I'd just like to say a word to this man.

E-50 This man, as far as I know, I don't know him. I know nothing about him. He might've seen me, been in the meetings, and looked at me and so forth, and I might've seen him somewhere. I—I couldn't say that. I don't know. But to look at him in the face, to look at him that way, God knows my hand, I've never saw him before in my life, just to know him, 'less I'd seen him and wouldn't know him.

But now, the man's standing here for some purpose, for some cause, I don't know. But it seemingly that he's in a desperate condition.

E-51 But if the Holy Spirit will tell me just something, just something another, so that the other people down along this line can see that that Spirit that knows everybody in here has me anointed. And the Bible predicted that it would be just that way in this day. Surely, it would make them have faith. Would it make you have faith, if the Lord could tell me what your trouble was, like He did the woman? Would it help you? Would it help the rest of you people in the prayer line? Would it help you? All right.

Would it help you, out there, to believe? I'm just going to take a moment and talk to him.

E-52 Now, sir, we're perfect strangers. Just like Philip that found Nathanael, you come tonight. You come here just a man, walked in here, and somebody give you a prayer card, and here you're standing on the platform. I don't know you and know nothing about you. But the Holy Spirit is here, Who does know you. Now, if God can reveal to me something that would show you, that—tell you the truth. You know whether it's the truth or not. You'll know that much. If It's told you something that has been, you'll know whether that's true of not. Then if He knows what has been, surely, He will know what will be. If you—if you know that's right, then whatever He says will be, it's got to be right. See? That's truth.

Now, if I'd said, "Praise the Lord, hallelujah, you're sick." Sure, you're standing on the platform. You're here for something. You might not be sick. I don't know, but if—if I'd say, "Praise the Lord, are you sick?"

You'd say, "Yes sir."

"Hallelujah, the Lord says you're going to get well."

You'd say, "Praise the Lord." walk away. That could be true. That could absolutely be the truth, but how much greater is it Who can go back down in your life and tell you what you have been, then come here, and tell you what you have been, and what you will be? See? That's—that's the infallible part. And you're the judge of this, at least five or six hundred people here tonight. And you know that it would—that that— whether that's the truth or not.

E-53 Now, will every person, in here, believe, you said? May the Lord grant it.

Father God, I can't have no contact with the man. It's up to You, Lord Jesus.

There's so many of you out there praying. Makes it hard for the one on the platform. You have to kindly hold back, or if it'd just be a burst over the plat—out in the audience. Now, he is. He's aware now that something's taking place. That's right, isn't it?

E-54 A man's actually shadowed to death. He doesn't look it, but he is. It's cancer. That cancer is a stomach cancer. It come from an ulcer that's been on for some time. And it's growed worse, until it's come into a cancer, without hope now. And you have just—you've accepted Christ, but you have one time been a Christian, and backslid, then just back to God recently. That's right. Yes. That is true.

And you've got a burdened heart for somebody. You believe God can reveal to me, who that somebody is? Would it help you? Would it help you to believe? It's your mother. You believe God can tell me about her? Something wrong with her hip, and she's in a hospital. She's a great woman. She was healed in one of my meetings before. THUS SAITH THE LORD.

Come, let us pray. Our heavenly Father, laying hands upon the man, with this audience of people, condemning the evil, may he go and be well, in Jesus' Name. Amen. God bless you . . . ? . . .

E-55 Come, lady. If I don't say one . . . You know I know what's wrong with you, don't you? But if I don't say one word, it's all right. Is it?

Our heavenly Father, I pray that You'll heal the woman. May she go and get well, in Jesus' Name, while we pray. Amen. Your heart trouble's left you now. You can go home now.

E-56 You know you must believe God or that cancer would kill you. Our heavenly Father, I pray that in Jesus' Name, that You'll help her and heal her, while we all pray for her, and lay hands upon her, saying, "These signs shall follow them that believe: They shall lay hands on the sick, they shall recover." In Christ's Name. Amen. God bless you, sister. Go, believing now, with all your heart.

E-57 Precious Lord, I pray that You'll heal our sister, and may she leave here tonight, and go home and be well, while this great host of people is praying, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

Now, I didn't tell you what was wrong. You believe it anyhow? You believe it? Well, you heart trouble's gone, so you can . . . ? . . .

E-58 Our heavenly Father, I pray for this dear man. May Your Holy Spirit come upon him and make him well. I pray that You'll heal him in Jesus' Name. Amen. Bless you, sir.

Our, Lord Jesus, I pray that You'll make our brother well. May Your Spirit be upon him and completely heal him for Your glory. Amen. Bless you, sir.

Heavenly Father, I pray that You'll heal our sister, and may these people that are praying, along with Your servants, may they be healed in Jesus' Name. Amen. God bless you, sister. Go, believing.

E-59 Our heavenly Father, give this man a blood transfusion. May the power of God come upon him, and—and take this horrible thing away from him, in Jesus' Name, may he be healed. Amen. God bless you, my brother.

You want to go eat your supper? All right. Go ahead. Your stomach trouble left you.

It seems like if you don't say nothing, the people don't seem to get it. Now, don't do that. See? God's just as great, whether I tell them anything or not. Do you believe that? Just as great, He's the same God. He—He—He knows all things, does all things. He—He's just God.

E-60 Now, like this woman here. You believe me, sister? as God's servant? You believe that I've told you the truth out of that Bible? You believe God can tell me something about you? You do. All right. You're suffering with a throat trouble. That's right. Not only that, but you are—you're a preacher to begin with, a lady preacher. And then, you're praying for somebody, a close friend of yours that's got cancer. That's THUS SAITH THE LORD. Uh-huh. Go now, believe Him.

Our heavenly Father, I pray that You'll make the woman well, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

E-61 Come, sister dear. Now, the people are praying for you out there. Everybody now.

Lord, I pray that You'll heal her and make her well, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

Come, speak English? Speak English? Your back. That's right. Raise your hand, if that's true. Raise up your hand. Go now, back to your people. Jesus makes you well. Amen. All right.

Come believing. You going to believe for her too? All right. Come. Our heavenly Father, I pray that You'll make her well. Grant it, Lord. May Your Spirit and power come upon her and heal her, in Jesus' Name. Amen. God bless you. Be humble . . . ? . . .

E-62 Our heavenly Father, I pray for this man. I lay myself against him, as my brother. I pray that the Holy Spirit, that's now present, will anoint him with faith also that he will believe, while the church is a praying, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

Come, sister. You believe? Lord Jesus, I pray for our sister along with this church of the living God, that You'll heal her and make her well. Amen. Bless you, sister.

Come, sister dear. Our heavenly Father, as I lay hands upon this our sister, in Jesus' Name, may she be made well. Amen. Bless you, sister.

The little fellow. Do you believe that he will get well? Heavenly Father, cursed be the devil that has afflicted this child. May he be well in Jesus' Name. Amen. Don't doubt it. It'll be all right. God bless you, my brother.

E-63 Kind heavenly Father, I lay hands upon them. In the Name of Jesus may Your Spirit come upon them and be made well, in Jesus' Name. Amen. Don't doubt.

The Lord bless this, our brother, and may he have the desire of his heart given him, in Jesus' Name, I pray. Amen.

Now, everyone be reverent and be praying. Just be praying with me, when I'm praying for the people. You pray with me. Are you doing that? Everybody praying. Now, the Lord be blessed.

E-64 How many remembers when I used to take the people by the hand? Remember that? You believe it still works?

I don't know the lady, is that right? We're strangers. Put your on mine. There you are. Come here, boy. No—not. Thank you. Come here, Billy. I know what's . . . ? . . . it's cause a vibration from you.

Let's have your hand. I want you to look here. That's my boy. There's nothing wrong. See? Ain't my hand just ordinary like this hand? All right. That's all right, Billy.

Now, I want to put your hand on there. Now, what a difference. See, it swell and them little white things running over it? That's vibrations. Now, watch here, I put this other hand on it. It's not there now. No swelling or nothing. Now, change hands. Why, there it is. Now, you're just as much human in this hand as you are in that hand. But see? All these people here in the audience, remembers that when the mission was given me, fourteen years ago by an Angel, He said, "You have the people to give you their right hand. That's pledging their faith that you're sent." My left hand to them, and my right hand to God.

E-65 Now, lay your hand on here and watch something. Now, there it is. See it swell, puff up, look up my sleeve here. Now, it just feels like I got a hold of something moving. Now, here's what it is. I—I don't know at this time. . . Now, you just look here. Kidney trouble. That's right. Uh-huh. See? Now—now, that is by. . . Now, that's that gift. Now, watch. Now, just raise up and kindly pray to the High Priest for somebody, for something or other. Yes, you are praying for somebody. They have ulcers. That's right. See? That's discernment. Believe now. In the Name of the Lord Jesus may they be healed.

Our heavenly Father, I pray that in Jesus' Name, that she will be healed. Amen.

E-66 Come, sister. Heavenly Father, I pray that You'll make her well, in the Name of Jesus. Amen.

Come, brother, be ready to get rid of this and the old cane? Lord, I pray that You'll help him. You must if he lives. I pray that the spirit of evil and sickness will leave him, in Jesus' Name. Amen. God bless you, brother.

Come. Our heavenly Father, I pray for the woman, that You'll make her well. May Thy Holy Spirit be upon her, and make her well, in Jesus' Name. Amen. Bless you, sister.

E-67 Heavenly Father, I pray for our sister, as this great, mighty church of the living God here is praying tonight. Hundreds of prayers are going to You, right now, for these people. You can't turn them down, Lord. I pray that You'll heal her, in Jesus' Name. Amen. All right.

Are you believing? What was it? Somebody. . . Is this little girl here to be prayed for? Our heavenly Father, let Thy Spirit and Thy kindness, and Thy mercy be upon this. . . ? . . . May she be healed in Jesus' Name. I pray, Father, that You'll grant it for Your glory . . . ? . . . two sisters here, Lord . . . ? . . . In the Name of the Lord Jesus, let Thy Spirit and Thy mercy be upon it . . . ? . . .

E-68 Father God, I pray for this woman that could get up on the platform. I pray that You'll heal her and make her well. In the Name of Thy Son Jesus, for all this great ransomed church of God, is here praying. May the affliction leave our sister and she be healed, in Jesus' Name. Amen. God bless you. Just raise your . . .

O God, bless this little girl. I pray for mercy that You'll be with her. Grant that she will be healed, Lord, in the Name of the Lord Jesus. Amen.

E-69 Look up here sister. Do you believe? You speak Spanish? Uh-huh, uh-huh. Do you believe that the withering away of them muscles and things will be all right, and then you'll be well? You've been seeking God lately, haven't you, for a closer walk? . . . ? . . . If you believe with all your heart, that curse will leave you. I curse that devil that's done this to this little girl. In the Name of Jesus Christ, Lord you said, "Say to this mountain to be moved and don't doubt. But believe that what you said will come to pass, you can have what you said." I curse the enemy that put this little girl and done her this way. May she start from this very hour, and be made well. You doubting . . . ? . . . Believe it; she will get well. God bless you.

Are you believing? Real reverent. See? All right. Are you the next person? You believe me to be His servant? If I—if I could heal you I would. I cannot heal you, but God can heal you, for He's God. But if—if the Lord will reveal to me what your trouble is, then will you—you'll know then that I don't know you. And if I don't know you, and the Lord will reveal it, that'll show His Presence. Now, it's upon what faith that you have to believe for your healing.

Now, don't doubt with the little girl. See? The little girl that you've got there. You understand English? All right. Believe. The curse will leave her.

If God will reveal to me what your trouble is, you'll believe me to be His prophet, or His—His servant? You do? You . . . ? . . . That's fine. I think you're a lovely person. You have trouble with the liver for one thing. And that was caused from a fall that you had. And then, you got trouble with your shoulder, with your back, and the little sinews in the lungs down here, which tore loose from a automobile accident. That's right, isn't it? That's exactly. Mrs. Hawk, you can go home. Jesus Christ makes you well. Amen. And God bless you. Now, don't worry, He knowed who Simon Peter was. See? He knows all things. Do you believe that?

E-71 Do you believe, sister? Our heavenly Father, I pray that You'll heal her and make her well, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

Believe for the little boy? Our heavenly Father, I pray for the child that You'll heal it. Grant it, Lord. Let Thy mercies come upon him, and may the thirst of the devil be taken away, in Jesus' Name. Amen. You believe with all your heart.

All right. Ted, I know you. You want to get rid of that asthma. All right, if you do, come here and let's pray. I didn't know you had that. But . . . Our heavenly Father, this man has been good to me, been my brother, following the meetings around. I pray that You'll help him now, and cursed be the devil that's done this to my brother. May it clear up from him tonight, and never bother him no more, in Jesus' Name. Amen. God bless you.

E-72 Our heavenly Father, for our sister, I pray that You'll heal her. May the prayer of this church, this great, ransomed church, setting here, many in number tonight, may God heal her and make her well. Amen.

Come, my sister. Brother here is one—or both of you? You bring him up. Our heaven . . . God be merciful to our brother and to our sister, and may the power of Almighty God come upon them and make them well. May this be the hour of their deliverance, in the Name of Jesus Christ. Amen. Awful simple, but so powerful. Amen. God bless you.

Come, sir. How long has the back bothering you? But you believe it's be over now, don't you? In the Name of Jesus Christ may it leave, Father. Amen. God bless you, sir. Go, believing.

E-73 Our heavenly Father, I pray that You'll heal our brother, and make him well. May he go from this night, and be well, while this great church of God prays for him. Amen. Bless you, brother.

Both of you? Our heavenly Father, as this young woman here, stands afflicted by the enemy, may the power of Almighty God be upon her. May she be healed in Jesus' Name. Amen. Bless you, sister. Go, believing; don't doubt.

E-74 If you'll just not doubt. See? Now, you can pass three, four or five, just praying for them, and they're heavenly Father knows that each one coming, will just catch it, there it is. It'll reveal it. You know that, don't you?

Here. You. You believe me to be His servant? I don't know you. God knows you. You believe that He can reveal to me something about you? Would it help you, if I—if I told you what was your trouble? Your trouble is in your throat. That's right. You believe God can tell me what kind of trouble it is? It's a cyst in your throat. Is that right? Do you believe God knows who you are? He does. Mrs. Brown, now you can go home and be well, in the Name of Jesus.

Just have faith, that's all. See? Just believe. See it? Now, look here. See, how difference it makes.

E-75 Heavenly Father, I pray that You'll heal our sister, and make her well, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

Our heavenly Father, heal our brother, and make him well, in Jesus' Name.

Our heavenly Father, I lay hands on brother, and ask for his healing, in Jesus' Name. Grant it, Lord.

How do you do, sister? Now, you must have faith now, 'cause that arthritis is getting bad. But if you'll believe with all your heart, God will make you well. You believe it? Our heavenly Father, I pray that You'll help her and make her well. In the Name of Jesus Christ, may she be healed. Amen. Bless you sister.

Come, believing. O God, she needs a blood transfusion tonight. Take away this sugar. I pray that You'll help her tonight, and may she be healed in Jesus' Name. Amen. God bless you, sister. Don't doubt.

E-76 Brother Williams, I know you. God be merciful, Brother Williams. Our heavenly Father, this precious man has been a—such a dear brother to me. And I pray that You'll help him tonight, Lord. May Your Spirit be upon him. And this fear that he's had, may it pass from his mind. May he go and be made well, as I ask the blessings upon him, and curse the devil that would make him fear, in Jesus' Name. Amen. God bless you, Brother Williams.

Heavenly Father, I pray for our sister that You'll heal her and make her well, in Jesus' Name, I pray. Amen. Have faith in God.

E-77 All right, sir. Are you believing? With all your heart? Your sight. I seen you somewhere. Where's Brother Sharrit? Is John Sharrit here? Here's the man I saw in the vision today when I was in your car. This is the man. You're a minister from Missouri, gone blind from sugar diabetes. That's right. I saw you today, sir, on the front of Brother Sharritt's car, when we were riding in. A man, a minister, and they told me about it. That's right. Now, let us pray for our brother.

Our heavenly Father, I pray that You'll make this man well. May the power of Almighty God curse this devil that's made him go blind. May he get well from this night. May his sight come to him, and he can see, in Jesus Christ's Name. Amen.

All right, my brother, you believe? The diabetes you've had, what's run that—that way, once you had diabetes, was prayed for, healed, has come back on you, going into your sight. You believe with all your heart? It'll leave again, go see and preach the Gospel, in the Name of the Lord Jesus.

E-78 Do you believe with all your heart? Are you going to believe? Would there be a sinner here, that doesn't know God, would like to come up and be prayed for now? A sinner who doesn't know God?

How many in here is sick, and hasn't got to the platform yet, how many. . . And you believe that Jesus Christ, the Son of God, is here? Oh, sure He's here. Do you want to be healed now? Do you want. . .

Can you see now? He's walking by himself. When I seen him in the vis. . . Look at him going along there, a blind man walking along seeing. Let's say, "Praise the Lord." That's fine. His sight coming to him. A diabetic. Blessed be the Name of the Lord. That's it. Now. . . Amen. He's going along shaking hands with people. How wonderful.

E-79 Now, do you believe that I'm telling you the truth about Jesus? Well, here's His own Words, "These signs shall follow them that believe: If they lay their hands on the sick, they shall recover."

Lay your hands on one another. All the way around the building, everywhere, right now, while His Presence is here. Up in the audience, all around the balconies, and everywhere. This sister here. . .

Lay your hands on one another. If God can make a blind man see, if God knows the secrets of the heart, how much more does He know your condition being here? Lay your hands on one another. Don't pray for yourself. Pray for the next man you got your hands on.

E-80 Our heavenly Father, in the Presence of Jesus Christ, the great Mighty One, may the Holy Spirit come forth. Oh, Satan, you're defeated. Jesus Christ rebuke thee. Come out of these people thou, enemy of the human race. May the God of Heaven, make everyone healed in Jesus' Name.

Praise Him. Keep you hands in the . . . If you believe you're healed stand on your feet. I don't care how crippled you are. Stand up. Believe Him. Take Him at His Word. Stand up, everywhere. Believe that Jesus Christ has made you well. Everyone accept your healing, stand up. Now, raise your hands to Him. Say, "Thank you, Jesus. Thank you, Jesus. Praise the Lord God. The great Jehovah God for His goodness."

I turn the service back to the pastor . . . ? . . .
